Let's talk it over

THIS will be the last time I will have an opportunity to talk to a good many of you who are now in school, as this is the last issue of THE CHAKETT for the school year. Those of you who are leaving school have my very best wishes. I want to ask that you keep in close contact with us as it will be a help to you and a great privilege for us.

As most of you know, I am very much behind with my schedule for visiting chapters, but I have been trying to catch up recently. I had the privilege of appearing on a panel during Greek Week at Franklin & Marshall College while visiting with our Zeta Chapter. I think the Greek Week was a great success, and the Zeta Chapter is certainly one of our best Chapters.

While in that part of the country, I attended a Chi Phi party at Brother Harlan R. Jessup's home. A short account of that party appears elsewhere in this issue. Brother Jessup and his associates are a great asset to our Fraternity.

I then stopped at our Delta Chapter at Rutgers and found that they were operating true to form in their usual good manner. It was my pleasure, while at the Delta Chapter, to announce the appointment, by the Council of the Chi Phi Fraternity, of a new Council Representative for the Delta Chapter. He is a man who has done a great deal for the Fraternity in the past, and I am certain that his connection with the Delta Chapter in an official capacity will be most helpful. He is Brother Louis Wolfson, Delta '37, and his address is 73 Nichol Ave., New Brunswick, N. J. The Delta Chapter is in good hands indeed with Brother Wolfson as Council Representative and Brother George R. Morrison as Chapter Adviser.

It is always a great pleasure for me to call on the Mu Chapter, and I had that pleasure recently. Not only was every member of the active chapter present, but a great many of their Alumni were also on hand. I was particularly glad to see Brothers Walter Knopp and Sandy M. Mead there.

From Mu I went to the Theta Chapter, where we discussed in detail the plans for their 75th anniversary celebration, which takes place on June 5-6 next. While there I had the pleasure of meeting with Brother George W. Hinman, who is president of the Theta Building Corporation. While I am on this subject, I want to congratulate the Theta Building Corporation upon the acquisition of an annex to their present chapter house. I must also praise many others of the Theta Alumni who are showing a great interest in the active chapter. The Chapter is well run and their present officers are doing an excellent job. In fact, the Chapter is in very good condition.

From Theta I went to the Alpha Delta Chapter at Pennsylvania State College. When a Chapter has such men as Brother David E. Bauer, Brother Walter H. Cramer, and Brother Charlie Stoddart interested in its success and always on the job helping them, we know that we have a good Chapter there. It was my pleasure to visit with the undergraduates and Alumni on Friday night, March 6, and to attend a Zone Meeting of the New Jersey and Pennsylvania chapters on Saturday, March 7. Brother John C. Olwine, Psi '25, was also present at the Zone Meeting. Mu Chapter, Delta Chapter, Psi Chapter, Zeta Chapter, and Alpha Delta Chapter were represented by undergraduate delegates. I regret very much that the Rho Chapter was not represented at the Zone Meeting. Saturday morning the delegates broke up into panel discussion groups, and Saturday afternoon was given over to a discussion covering all phases of chapter work, and included reports from the various panels. It is impossible to recommend this type of meeting too highly. Every zone should have one once a year. Elsewhere in this issue of THE CHAKETT you will find a more specific report on that Zone Meeting. I hope you will read it and organize meetings of this kind in your zones in the near future. It is my plan now to visit the Chapters in Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, and Minnesota before the end of the year.

While at the Zeta Chapter, and, in fact, throughout my entire visit in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and New York, the chief topic of conversation was the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Zeta Chapter, which will be celebrated next year. The Zeta Chapter was founded in 1854 and has been in continuous existence ever since. They have asked for a Congress in that vicinity and I am certain the Fraternity will grant their request. They have great plans for this 100th anniversary celebration, and the entire Fraternity should be looking forward to this historic occasion.

The Alumni Dues have been coming into the office about as usual. The second notice will be mailed soon and I hope all Brothers will respond as our Alumni Dues have become familiarly known in this office and throughout the Fraternity as "The Life Blood of the Fraternity." We did not have a particularly good year so far as initiations were concerned last year, but our records show that we are doing better this year.

You will notice in this issue the announcement of Grand Alpha-Elect Gladfelter's new Council. I am looking forward to working with this new Council with the same degree of pleasure with which I have worked with Brother Benham's Council for the past four years. I personally know every man Brother Gladfelter has appointed to a post on his Council and I wish to congratulate Brother Gladfelter on appointing such a well rounded Council of such able men. Our Fraternity is to be greatly congratulated on its leadership.

A separate story in this issue of THE CHAKETT carries a detailed program of the 1953 Congress, which will be held at the Atlanta Biltmore Hotel on September 9, 10, 11, and 12. I hope every Chapter in the Fraternity will be represented, and you boys who are going to be the delegates are requested to make your reservations directly with the Atlanta Biltmore Hotel as soon as possible.

The Chapters will receive shortly use of the Chapter. In 1929 the need for a larger and more comfortable house for Gamma Chapter became apparent. Emory University had made provision upon its campus for a Fraternity Row, and offered to assist fraternities, who would build upon that Row, in financing their houses. Gamma Trust Association, under the leadership of Judge Luther Z. Rosser, as president, and H. Warner Martin, as chairman, of the Finance Committee, started a campaign for funds to erect a new chapter house that would be a memorial to Thomas Whipple Connally, who was not only a great Chi Phi but "Emory's most loyal alumnus of all time." The necessary funds were raised, and in 1930 Tom Connally Hall was built upon the Emory University campus. It was dedicated at the beginning of the school year, in Sep-

Gamma at Emory Initiates 1,000th Member

ON Sunday, Jan. 25, the Gamma Chapter initiated its 1,000th member in appropriate ceremonies at the chapter house, Tom Connally Hall, on Fraternity Row at Emory University. The recipient of this honor was William Pavlovsky, who is secretary of the present Freshman Class. William is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Pavlovsky of Smyrna, Ga. He is a graduate of Marietta High School, where he was president of the Student Body and valedictorian of his class.

A group of prominent Alumni was present on this occasion. Among these were Judge Luther Rosser, National Director; Bates Block, president of the Atlanta Alumni Assn.; Wharton Mitchell, president of the Gamma Trust Association; Tom McClain, chapter adviser, and Dr. Goodrich C. White, president of Emory. Three out-of-town Alumni present were Dr. Thomas Goodwin of Augusta; Marvin Whiting of Fort Valley, and Robert N. Northcutt of Marietta. Their sons, Tom Goodwin, Jr., Marvin Whiting, Jr., and Bob Northcutt, Jr., were among the pledges being initiated.

Twelve other pledges were initiated at this significant time: Bernard Haight, Bill Hardman, Fred Kerr, Ollie McGahee, Jack McLaughlin, Richard Reynolds, George Romberg, Frank Scott, Ethan Staats, Paul Westbrook, Lloyd Whitaker, and Roger Youmans.

Gamma Chapter is the oldest fraternity chapter at Emory, having been installed on the campus of old Emory at Oxford in 1869. The Chi Phi Fraternity was founded at the College of New Jersey, now Princeton University, on Dec. 24, 1824. The Gamma Chapter was established largely through the efforts of Judge Capers Dickson, Bolling H. Sasnett, and W. P. Lovejoy, and was installed on the night of May 19, 1869, by Peter W. Meldrim, a member of the Eta Chapter at the University of Georgia. Up until the time when Emory College became Emory University and was moved to Atlanta, the Gamma Chapter owned no home of its own. In the summer of 1919, the Chapter moved with the College from Oxford to the new campus, and that same year the Gamma Trust Association purchased a lot facing our present Fraternity Row. In 1921 a simple one-story building was erected for the tember, 1930, and is the present home of Gamma Chapter.

The head of Gamma Chapter at the present time is F. Rudolph Mills, Jr. Wharton Mitchell is president of the Gamma Trust Association.

The members of Gamma Chapter are loyal to their country as well as their Fraternity. Nine of their members served in the armed forces during the War Between the States; three members lost their lives in World War I; four in World War II, and a number are serving in the present conflict in Korea. In 1947 a plaque was placed in Tom Connally Hall honoring Robert William Neel, Olin John Wimberly, Edward Burson Tucker, and Goodrich Cook White, Jr., who gave their lives for their country in World War II. Each year the outstanding pledge in the Chapter is awarded a trophy in memory of Goodrich C. White, Jr.

Gamma Chapter numbers many prominent Alumni among its members. Since space will not permit us to mention all of them, we will confine our references to two of the most prominent of them. Thomas Whipple Connally was initiated into Gamma Chapter in 1898 and graduated from Emory in the Class of 1902. Throughout his life he remained vitally interested in his Fraternity and in his alma mater. He was the last president of the Alumni Association of old Emory College and the third president of the Alumni Association of Emory University. He was also a member of the Board of Trustees of Emory University, and according to an article entitled, "Tom Connally's Monument," which appeared in the Emory Alumnus, "The graduates' register was produced almost entirely through the efforts and energy of Thomas W. Connally '02, an Atlanta businessman, who all but devoted his life to the service of Emory and to his Fraternity, Chi Phi."

MIDDLE ATLANTIC ZONE RESOLVES TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETINGS

by James A. Martin, Zeta of Alpha Delta Chapter

IN Mar. 7, 1953, representatives of the chapters of Chi Phi comprising the Middle Atlantic Zone met at the Alpha Delta Chapter at Penn State in an attempt to build a bigger and better XΦ. Invaluable and mature guidance was provided the meeting by the presence of Judge Rosser and Brother Jack Olwine, Psi Chapter Adviser.

Since many of the delegates were unable to leave their respective schools until after the completion of their Friday afternoon classes, they did not arrive at Alpha Delta until late Friday night. As a result of this, the formal meetings did not commence until Saturday morning at 10:00 when Alpha Tom Farrell of Alpha Delta officially called the Middle Atlantic Zone Meeting to order. After a few brief introductory comments, the group meeting was broken down into several committee meetings in order to make discussion more efficient.

One group, mostly Alphas and Gammas, discussed the strengthening and expansion of the Chi Phi Fraternity through the improvement of both inner- and inter-fraternity relationships. The Beta committee had a twofold purpose of isolating concrete methods for improving chapter scholarship while instituting a beneficial social program. A "Dollar Discussion" was conducted by the Deltas in which they exchanged ideas concerning chapter finances. The Epsilons were concerned with the pledges, not only fraternity training, but also with the responsibility of the pledge in maintenance of the physical plant of each chapter. The Zeta committee, sadly neglected due to the fact that insufficient delegates were present, had on its agenda the great problem of alumni relations.

The two hours preceding lunch were spent in the exchange of ideas by the committee members while Judge Rosser and Brother Olwine provided guidance and stimulation by serving as a "roving committee." Immediately following lunch Alpha Farrell reconvened the group meeting and the respective committees reported their decisions in the form of resolutions which were subsequently adopted "in toto" by the assembly. Briefly, the resolutions were as follows:

- (1) In order to further the benefits of Zone Meetings, the Middle Atlantic members will conduct an annual Zone Meeting at the beginning of each spring semester. The host chapter will be decided upon at the preceding rally. (It might be of interest to note that Zeta Chapter was selected for the 1954 meeting since it will observe its 100th anniversary at that time).
- (2) Chapters should strive to be more selective in their pledging with a conscious effort made by each member to thoroughly acquaint himself with the rushees.
- (3) In order to conduct chapter finances in the most efficient manner, a budget should be prepared by the Deltas with the aid of the executive council for each school year.
- (4) Inasmuch as the strength of the Fraternity lies in the pledges who carry the standards, pledge training should be the responsibility of the entire brotherhood.
- (5) Active chapters will abandon all exploitive attitudes toward Alumni and will extend sincere fraternal friendship toward their predecessors.

75 Years for Theta at Rensselaer

by Johnny Carlson, Zeta

IN anticipation of the 75th Anniversary of our founding, we here at Theta have been devoting increased attention to the history and traditions of our Chapter. We have found that Chi Phis have always been leaders in all phases of campus activities. Class officers, team captains, outstanding campus journalists, honor students, and All-American athletes have all worn the Theta badge.

We have come to feel that our Chapter has grown continuously. From a small but ambitious charter membership of nine men, we have expanded to the present chapter roll of over 600 initiates, including 35 actives.

Since it became the first RPI fraternity to occupy a chapter residence, Theta has improved its physical facilities. The present chapter house built in 1912 was the first on campus to be designed as a fraternity home. The recent acquisition of our annex, Stroud Hall, represents our effort to contend with the financial need for a larger membership and the Institute's increased enrollment. The opening of Stroud Hall next fall to sophomore Brothers issues an immediate challenge. The furnishing and redecoration of this newly-acquired residence is now occupying the attention and interest of the Chapter.

At present Theta is in good financial standing. The rising cost of living is being held at bay, and our house bills have not increased. Despite this economy many improvements are being effected to the chapter house proper.

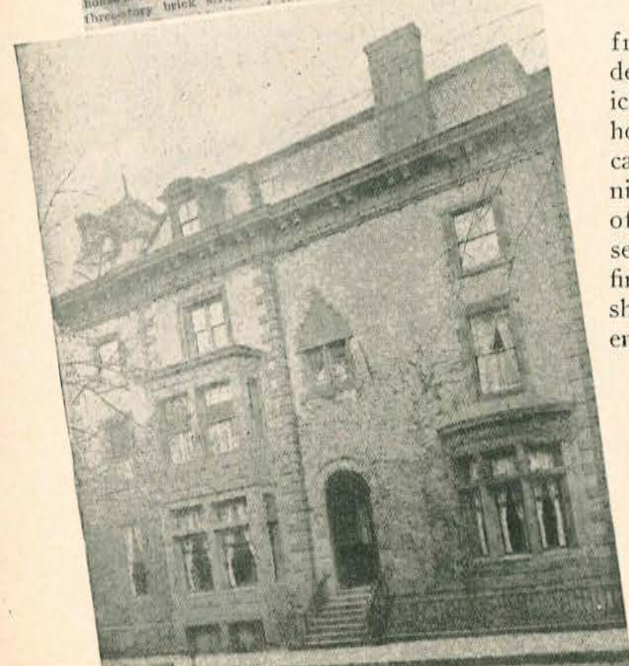

This scholastic year social life has hit a new high. The weekend breaks from the grind of engineering college are maintaining the usual level of gayety, and Theta has welcomed increased numbers of guests from campus and visiting Alumni.

The 75th Anniversary presents an opportunity to publish a long-needed history of the Chapter. This memorial volume will include "perspective views" from many Alumni and a complete Chapter Roll.

Also at the 75th, a complete display of Theta's archives will be featured. The scrapbooks cover extensively the period from 1880 to the present day. These should prove very interesting to all who attend.

The final agenda has been drawn up and is in the process of completion. Theta's 75th Anniversary will begin on the afternoon of Friday, June 5. An informal open house on that afternoon will start the week

From top, right, the pictures show William Barrett Ridgely '79 and George Edward Thackray '78 who were instrumental in obtaining Theta's charter. Ridgely became comptroller of U. Congress Will Meet at Atlanta Biltmore

THE Chi Phi Congress will meet in Atlanta, Georgia, on Sept. 9-12, 1953, at the Biltmore Hotel. This will be the eighth meeting of the Chi Phi Congress in Atlanta. We first met here on Sept. 6, 1882, then on Nov. 12, 1891, on Nov. 30, 1900, on Nov. 27, 1908, on Nov. 25, 1921, on Aug. 30, 1934, and last on Aug. 27, 1946. I think each one of the Congresses held in Atlanta has been a worthwhile Congress, and we are certainly looking forward to the 1953 meeting with great pleasure, and hope that it will be of great benefit to the Fraternity.

We propose to meet early Wednesday morning, Sept. 9, in individual conferences with the various delegates. These conferences are to be held by members of the Council with any delegate who may have a problem he may wish to talk to the Council about. These conferences will be scheduled through about 4 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, after which we will have the Installation Ceremony.

This Ceremony, of course, is the installing of Brother Gladfelter and his new Council. This Ceremony will be conducted by the Eta Chapter. That night at 8 o'clock, the Gamma Chapter will put on a Model Initiation which we hope will be of great benefit to the undergraduates and a pleasure to the Alumni.

Immediately following the initiation, will be a Stag Smoker, sponsored by the Atlanta Alumni who are our Official Hosts for the Congress. Their officers are as follows: president, E. Bates Block, Jr., Γ '40, H '42; vice president, I. S. Mitchell, III, Γ '40, H '42; vice president, A. Thornton Kennedy, Ω '40, H '41; secretary, C. Baxter Jones, Jr., Γ '40; treasurer, Robert B. Troutman, Jr., H '39; Chairman of the Congress—Virlyn Moore, Jr., Γ '31, H '34.

Congress will officially open at 10 o'clock on Thursday morning, Sept. 10 and will be in session all day. Thursday night, the Atlanta Alumni Association has provided an entertainment either in the form of a banquet or a barbecue. On Friday morning, Sept. 11 at 10 o'clock Congress meets again and runs until about 1 o'clock at which time they will adjourn for lunch. That afternoon they will break up into various Zone Meetings. That night, the Congressional dance will be held at the Piedmont Driving Club. The dress for this occasion will be optional.

On Saturday morning, Sept. 12, at 10 o'clock, Congress convenes again and will finish about noon with the Omega Chapter putting on the Candlelight Ceremony.

As stated above the Atlanta Alumni Association members are our official hosts for the Congress, along with the three Georgia Chapters—Gamma, Omega, and Eta.

Registration will begin at 2 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 9 at the Biltmore Hotel. All delegates are requested to make their reservations direct with the Atlanta Biltmore Hotel. We hope every Chapter and all the Alumni organizations will be represented.

Each Chapter will be notified of the appointed time for your delegates' individual conference with the Council. You will also be sent an official notice and No. 3 Report form for filing your credentials about May 1. We are looking forward to a fine Congress in Atlanta and one that will be of great pleasure and benefit to the Fraternity.

Tar Heels Like Republican Jonas

IN March, 1929, a young North Carolina lawyer watched proudly as Charles A. Jonas of Lincolnton took the oath of office as a member of Congress from North Carolina.

The next day, the young lawyer watched as Herbert Hoover took the oath as President of the United States.

Not since then has a Republican taken that oath. And, Charles A. Jonas is the last Republican North Carolina has sent to Congress.

The young man watching the taking of those oaths 24 years ago was Charles Raper Jonas, Alpha-Alpha '25, son of Charles A. Jonas.

Next Saturday, he will take the oath of office as member of Congress from the 10th North Carolina District—the first Republican since his father was elected to serve in Congress from this State. And, on January 20, Charles Raper Jonas will watch Dwight Eisenhower take the oath as President, the first Republican to do so since Hoover.

For the purposes of a story, it would be interesting to be able to say that, in 1929, young Charlie Jonas decided then and there to follow his father in Congress. But, that wasn't the case.

For, the 24-year-old fledgling attorney had his mind on getting back to Lincolnton and the law firm of Jonas and Jonas, his father and himself. For, while his father was in Congress, it was up to young Charlie to keep the firm operating.

The elder Jonas only remained in Congress for one term.

Young Charlie Jonas didn't run for any sort of office until this year. He was active in Republican politics, but finally agreed only very reluctantly to run for Congress as a Republican in the 10th District this year.

But, reluctant or not, Jonas was a mighty active candidate. He says he "ran scared all the way." And, in his first try for public office, he was elected over Congressman Hamilton C. Jones by a vote of 82,428 to 61,149.

In making the race in the Tenth,

Charlie Jonas was running in a territory in which the name was a familiar one. The first Jonas came to the Catawba Valley of North Carolina in 1750, during the Pennsylvania Dutch migration to that area.

Charlie Jonas himself is a native of that area, having been born Dec. 9, 1904, on his grandfather's farm near Lincolnton. His father was principal of the graded school at Dallas at the time, and his mother went home for the birth of her son. His mother is the former Rose Petrie of Lincoln County.

The elder Jonas had always wanted to study law, but was teaching school at the time to pay off a college debt and get a little money ahead to study law. He organized the graded schools at Mt. Holly and at Dallas, and taught in the Winston-Salem schools.

After receiving his law license, Charles A. Jonas opened his office in Lincolnton, and young Charlie grew up there. He attended Lincolnton's public schools, graduating from high school there in 1921 when he was 16.

Lincolnton didn't have a football team then, but Charlie did play basketball and was very active in debating. His parents, he remembers, urged him to get into debating.

He entered the University at Chapel Hill when he was only 16, and his years there were busy ones, to put it mildly.

He always had been inclined toward athletics, and went in for sports in a big way at Chapel Hill. He was on the freshman track team, and was a member of the football squad—the "scrubs," he emphasizes—for two years. Football injured his knee, and Bob Fetzer, Carolina's beloved track coach, urged Jonas to drop football in favor of track.

He wound up as captain of the track team, the first Carolina track squad to win the Southern Conference title. He ran the half mile, and broke the North Carolina half-mile record each Saturday for three consecutive weeks in one season.

Jonas won three monograms in track, and ended as president of the Monogram Club.

However, athletics made up only one part of his life at Carolina. He was president of the student body, president of the Di Senate, was elected permanent president of the Class of 1925, was a member of Gimghoul, $\Phi\Delta\Phi$, $X\Phi$, Golden Fleece, student member of the Athletic Council, and a member of the debating team. During his law school days, he was editor-in-chief of the North Carolina Law Review.

During 1928, the Carolina debaters talked against South Carolina, Tulane, and West Virginia, winning all three matches.

Jonas has been a director of the Alumni Association ever since his graduation from Carolina.

He received his A.B. degree in 1925, and his J.D. degree from the law school in 1928. He passed the State bar examination in 1927, thus

Brother Hargrave Heads Eastman Board

THOMAS JEAN HARGRAVE, Alpha Theta Chi '12, chairman of the Board of the Eastman Kodak Co., has been associated with that company since September, 1927.

In addition to management of the photographic concern, his career has been highlighted by distinguished military service, a successful law practice, and leadership in many national and community enterprises.

A native of Wymore, Neb., Brother Hargrave was a 3-year Φ BK graduate of the University of Nebraska when he went to Harvard Law School. His goal had been a midwestern law practice until Roscoe Pound, Alpha Theta Chi '88, Dean of Harvard Law School, reversed the old "go west" advice and persuaded him to try New York State first.

After his admission to the New York Bar in 1915, he took a $50-a-month job with the Rochester law firm of Hubbell, Taylor, Goodwin, and Moser, but this career was interrupted by military service.

He served first as a cavalry private on the Mexican border in 1916 and 1917. He was a machine-gun captain in France in 1918, and was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for "extraordinary heroism" in action by General John J. Pershing and the Croix de Guerre by France. A former County Commander of the American Legion, in February, 1950, Brother Hargrave joined the newly formed Association of Past County Commanders of the American Legion, in Rochester.

Back in Rochester after the war he resumed law practice with his former law associates, and in 1921 he became a member of their firm. The name has since been changed to Nixon, Hargrave, Devans and Dey.

It was six years later that George Eastman asked him to head Eastman Kodak Co.'s legal department. While Brother Hargrave's first inclination was to continue his private law practice, an arrangement was made whereby he became the company's part-time general counsel and continued his law practice part time. He was elected secretary and a director of the company in 1928.

Four years later, in 1932, continuing part time with Kodak, Brother Hargrave was elected vice president. He began to devote full time to the expanding interests of the photographic company as vice president and secretary in 1934. In May, 1941, he became its president, and in May, 1952, he was named chairman of the Board of Directors of Eastman Kodak Co. He is also a vice president of the Tennessee Eastman Co. and a director of Kodak Limited, London, and of Kodak-Pathe, Paris.

In addition to his service with the Eastman Kodak Co., Brother Hargrave takes active leadership in national as well as community groups.

As chairman of the Munitions Board from June, 1947, to September, 1948, he directed this organization's important stockpiling of strategic materials and its coordination of the services' policies of industrial procurement, production, and distribution. During his chairmanship he stressed the theme that "preparedness is a foundation of peace."

Brother Hargrave is the recipient of the nation's Certificate of Merit presented by the Army on Feb. 2, 1948. The award was made because of Kodak's wide range of war service and for his own work as its head.

In 1943 he was regional vice president of the National Association of Manufacturers, and, in December of that year, he was chosen one of the directors of that organization. In 1949 he was again chosen regional vice president of the NAM. Claude A. Putnam, president of the NAM, appointed Brother Hargrave, in February, 1950, to the Committee on Coöperation with Community Leaders for the year 1950. In 1951 Brother Hargrave was elected again for a 2-year term on the Board of Directors of the NAM and was appointed to the 1952 Industrial Problems Committee and the Government Relations Advisory Committee of NAM. He is a member of the Board of the Associated Industries of New York State and a member of the National, New York State and Rochester Bar Associations.

In May, 1950, Mr. Hargrave accepted membership in the Council which is being formed in connection with the Atlantic Union Resolution. He is also a member of the United States Associates of the International Chamber of Commerce; the Advisory Council on Industrial Mobilization of the National Industrial Conference Board; the Finance Committee of the Citizens Public Expenditure Committee; and the Executive Board of the New York State Citizens Committee for the Hoover Report. In March, 1949, the USO was reactivated. Brother Hargrave served on its National Board until it was deactivated in January, 1950. He was vice president and a member of the Board of Directors of the Armed Forces Communications Association and a member of the Industries Advisory Committee of the Advertising Council, Inc.

Brother Hargrave was advised in August, 1951, by Henri Bonnet, Ambassador of France to the United States, and Roger Seydoux, Consul General at New York, that the President of the French Republic had decreed that he be named "Chevalier" in their National Order of the Legion of Honor.

In Rochester his interests are many and varied. The esteem in which his fellow Rochesterians hold him is attested to by the fact that he was selected to receive the S.A.R. Good Citizenship Medal in December, 1948. On May 6, 1949, he was the recipient of the Civic Medalist Award, presented to him by Mayor Dicker at the Rochester Museum Assn. He is a trustee of George Eastman House, Inc.; a trustee of the University of Rochester; chairman of the Board of Directors of the Lincoln Rochester Trust Co.; and a trustee of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce. In February, 1950, he was advised by M. E. Loomis, executive vice president, of his appointment as a member of the Civic Development Council of the Chamber of Commerce for the year 1950. Brother Hargrave was invited in 1951 by the president of the Chamber of Commerce to serve on the sponsoring committee for drive to secure quantities of scrap metal from business and industrial concerns of all sizes. He is also a board member of the Rochester Salvation Army; a member of the executive committee of the Monroe County Veterans' Service Agency; chairman of the Founders Committee and a director of the Rochesterians. In March, 1950, he was appointed a member of the Executive Committee of the Rochester Convention and Publicity Bureau. He served as an honorary chairman of the YM-YWCA campaign for building funds in 1947. He is president of the Rochester Community Chest for the second term and was chairman of the 1952 campaign, as well as a member of its board and executive committee. He is a director of the Community War Memorial of Rochester and Monroe County, Inc., and co-chairman of its special committee. Brother Hargrave is also associate chairman of the Rochester Hospital Fund. In 1951 at the annual meeting of the Rochester Civic Music Association he was elected to their Advisory Council.

In January, 1950, Brother Hargrave was named Honorary Chairman of the course on Economic Mobilization to be given in Rochester by the College of the Armed Forces in May.

In January, 1943, he was chosen president of the Rochester USO. He was chairman of the Red Cross campaigns in Rochester in 1945 and 1946. He is a member of the board of directors of the Rochester Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children and held office twice—in 1930 as president and in 1935 as vice president.

Brother Hargrave was born Deember 5, 1891, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pyle Hargrave, both deceased. He has one brother, Mark C. Hargrave, who is assistant treasurer of Tennessee Eastman Co.

Brother and Mrs. Hargrave reside at 1285 Clover St., Rochester, and are the parents of three sons and three daughters. Mrs. Hargrave is the former Catherine Forbes Davidson of Canandaigua, N. Y.

success which has uniformly marked its career and which seems to be characteristic of Eta Chapter. The close of the collegiate year was now near at hand, and in consequence there was little or no opportunity for fraternity work, but the week succeeding their inaugural, they initiated Bro. Van Hoesen, of the senior class.

"Early this year the members were at their post of duty, and good work in the cause was done, as is evidenced by the accessions of their number. Two sophomores and four freshmen have been initiated this term. Eta Chapter now numbers twelve active members in college residence, and undoubtedly is already the leading society at the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute."

Many additional points of policy were agreed upon by the different committees, but they are too numerous and detailed to cite at this time. However, example of them is the policy of restricting members to a 30-day delay in paying housebills before positive action be taken.

The afternoon was highlighted by the presentation of a few concise, yet clearly constructive, thoughts by Judge Rosser. Brother Rosser stressed a deēmp̄h̄asis on social life and a buildup of scholarship and fraternal bonds. He brought to the attention of those present that their scholarship was not only theirs as an individual, but also something they owed to their parents who were making a college education possible, and their fraternal forebears who established and glorified Chi Phi. This inspiring address by "Judge Chi Phi" himself was indeed a fitting close to an extremely enjoyable and fruitful conclave.

Charlie went to CMTC for three summers and wound up with a reserve commission as a Second Lieutenant.

Cavalry Officer

On Dec. 29, 1927, he was commissioned a First Lieutenant in the North Carolina National Guard and assigned to Troop I, Cavalry troop in Lincolnton.

In later years, Jonas transferred to the State Staff of the National Guard, and in 1940 reported to Raleigh as a Captain when the selective service became operative. He was a member of the small group of National Guard officers, headed by Adjutant General J. Van Metts, who directed the operation of the draft in this State during World War II. There was not the slightest breath of scandal about operation of the draft in this State. The son of the rich, influential man went in the draft when his number came up, just as did the son of the poor man.

The immediate postwar years were busy ones for Jonas. His father had borne the entire burden of the law practice during the six years of his son's absence and almost worked himself to death, the son feels.

Jonas spent those years working hard in the law business. Then, the 1952 campaign kept him away from it again for several months.

He kept on the go during the campaign, making between 75 and 80 speeches during less than three months.

Jonas opened his campaign in Charlotte, spending the entire month of August there. There was some criticism at the time, on the theory that he was shooting the works too early—but he wound up carrying Mecklenburg County by 11,000 votes.

Jonas frankly admits he believes the "trend of the times, a desire for change" helped him in this election, but he also believes the type of campaign he waged had something to do with the results. He didn't accuse all the Democrats of being crooks. In fact, he feels, he minimized the corruption issue, contending that corruption was more a personal than a party issue.

He didn't accuse the Democrats of being responsible for the war, but does remember, with a grin, that he did point out that if the Democrats insisted on trying to take credit for all the good that has been accomplished, that they must accept a certain amount of responsibility for the other side of the ledger.

During the campaign, several groups asked Jonas to appear on programs where he would be subjected to questions from the audience, and he made it a rule to accept all such invitations. That helped him, he believes.

One day each week for the last five weeks of the campaign, he put on a television program from Charlotte. That helped, too, he believes, especially the last one. That was the day when Mrs. Jonas went to a store and paid $14.75 for groceries which would have cost $4.95 in 1939. They had the groceries in the TV studio and the program got a big response.

Now that Jonas is going to Washington as the first Tar Heel Republican congressman in 24 years, many people feel that he is now Mr. Republican of North Carolina.

Gives Position

Jonas hastily disclaims any such ambition. Then, after much thought, he outlined this position:

"I'm not interested in becoming a patronage dispenser or the creator of a political machine. I have what I think is a major responsibility, that is to represent the 10th District in Congress, and I intend to devote my efforts toward doing that. I would be interested in jobs only to the extent of seeing that capable, efficient men are appointed."

Neither is he going to Washington with any particular legislation in mind. Since the campaign, he says, he hasn't had a minute to think about such problems.

Being busy is nothing new to Jonas, however.

In addition to his law practice, Jonas has found time to be active in the civic life of Lincolnton. He has been president of Rotary and of the Executives Club, a director of the Chamber of Commerce. He is a member of the Board of Stewards and Board of Trustees of the First Methodist Church of Lincolnton. He was one of the organizers of the N. C. Good Health Association and was its executive secretary for some time. And, he was president of the N. C. Bar Association.

Jonas was married on Aug. 14, 1929, to Annie Elliott Lee, daughter of the late Dr. Richard Elliott Lee and Annie Kerr Lee of Clinton. They have two sons, Charles Raper, Jr., 11, and Richard Elliott, 9.

The whole family will be going to Washington with Jonas, and he has rented a house out near the zoo.

He puts it this way:

"I can't afford to take a house up there. But, I'm not going to take a hotel room and leave my family at home. My boys are at the age when they need me. "And, I like them."

F & M Forum

FRATERNITY problems running the gamut of relations with the student body, faculty, college, and community were threshed out in four different sessions of Franklin and Marshall College's first Interfraternity Forum, sponsored by the IFC, American Assn. of University Professors, and the college administration, on Feb. 27.

Most lively discussions centered around community and public relations and F and M's so-called deferred rushing.

In the community and public relations panel, Judge L. Z. Rosser, Atlanta, Ga., National Director of Chi Phi, scored faculty members for not participating more vigorously in fraternity affairs, as they relate to the community.

The jurist said faculties generally are all right, but in the realm of community service your college isn't going to do anything with a faculty perennially seeking the shelter of an academic atmosphere.

"I'm saying to you," Judge Rosser emphasized before about 50 fraternity leaders and faculty members, "a good faculty leader can take F and M and her fraternity men into realms of community achievement never before dreamed up."

Prof. Frederic S. Klein, of Phi Kappa Psi, moderator of the public relations session, pointed out that many times the needs of the College were met by Lancaster people; that the people of Lancaster made it possible for Franklin College and Marshall College to merge into one institution by providing the $25,000 necessary for the merger. Klein added that even more recently the people of Lancaster provided $45,000 towards the new building campaign.

One tangible result foreseen by officials is the setting up of a public relations officer and an assistant in each fraternity. The plan was proposed by Max E. Hannum, assistant to the president of the college.

Most heated discussion was in the session of rushing over which Dr. Jacob Freedman, associate professor of geology, was moderator. The discussion centered on the long controversial matter of "deferred rushing." As it stands now freshmen are rushed only after the beginning of the second semester.

Students said they wanted rushing early to "get it over with." The faculty argued that moving up the rushing time would "interfere with first year scholarship and would contribute to low morale on the part of freshmen."—Lancaster Daily Intelligencer Journal.

Tri-County Chi Phis, Please Note—

The Fifth Annual Barbecue of the Tri-County Chi Phi Club is to be held on June 28, starting at 12 o'clock noon, at the ranch of Brother Roger G. Edwards, A '02, in Santa Paula, California. Let's make this another huge success.

Miami Club Gives Annual Dance

THE apex of the fraternal activities of the Chi Phi Club of Miami was reached on Dec. 30, when its 15th Annual Christmas Dance was held. The setting for our gathering was the beautiful open patio at the Coral Gables Country Club.

Over 300 Brothers, pledges, and guests were on hand to witness the presentation of a token of appreciation to Curtiss B. Hamilton, the outgoing President, for his outstanding work during the past year. The gift was presented by Judge Ray H. Pearson on behalf of the Miami Club. After the presentation there was a XΦ "lead-out" which is an occurrence that is coming to be very much of a part of our annual program.

Military uniforms were much in evidence, as a number of Brothers were home on furlough and, in addition to this, the Fraternity was host to 25 Cadets from Belgium, France, and England, who were visiting this area during the Christmas holidays.

The Christmas dance climaxed a very successful year for the Chi Phi Club and was the first social function since the election of new officers.

Along with Harrell M. Fincher as the helmsman for the forthcoming year, Horace E. Richey is vice president, Barney V. Shirley, secretary, and Robert Sturup, treasurer.

Our Club wishes to remind all the Brothers that our dance is held each year during the Christmas season and a cordial invitation is extended to all who may be fortunate enough to be in South Florida next winter.

Brother Ray H. Pearson has recently been appointed Judge of Court of Crimes in Dade County. We are all very proud of him.

Swarthmore Chi Phis Meet

THE Council and the Chi Phi Fraternity are greatly indebted to a group of loyal, enthusiastic XΦs in the Swarthmore, Pa., area. They are doing a magnificent job for the Fraternity. They have no officers, but they spontaneously get together at intervals. The last meeting they had was at the home of Brother Harlan Jessup, Beta '29, on Sunday, Mar. 1. It was your National Director's privilege to attend this meeting and to report to the Council what a fine job these members are doing. There was a big crowd present, the refreshments and the entertainment were most delightful, and enthusiasm ran high.

Chi Phis all over the country would be better XΦs and the Fraternity would be a better Fraternity, if more groups would get together as the Swarthmore Brothers do.

Briarfield Assn. Reports Meeting

THE relationship between a Chapter and its alumni organization varies greatly with campus and fraternities. The most general rule calls for the Alumni to collect rent from the Chapter in terms of a lump sum to defray certain capital expenses and expect the Chapter to take care of all operating expenses. The arrangement at Psi is somewhat in the minority as the room rent is levied on the individual members living in the house and for that room rent the Briarfield Assn. supplies heat, light, water, caretaker, all building repairs and improvements, and mortgage interest and amortization.

The problem of furniture replacement has always been a headache. Some generations of active members have been able to budget and replace worn out pieces, but this has been the exception rather than the rule. This problem became so acute recently that a plan was developed to insure future replacements. To do this the Chapter agreed to assume the cost of the caretaker and the Briarfield Assn. agreed to set aside an equal amount as a furniture amortization fund. In this way we believe we will always be able to maintain an up-to-date chapter house.

On Feb. 28, we held our 81st annual meeting with 12 Alumni and three chapter officers present. The most important phases of the meeting were:

1. Authorization of an agreement to be drawn defining the relationship between the Briarfield Assn. as a landlord and the active Chapter as a tenant. This was felt advisable because of the recent adjustment of the responsibility for the houseman and the establishment of the furniture amortization fund. This agreement will be reviewed annually in September by the current chapter officers and the Executive Committee and adjusted whenever necessary, on the basis of existing conditions. This agreement will also serve as a standard operating procedure so that changing administrations will have a guide.

2. The By-Laws were changed: (a) To set the annual meeting date as the last Saturday in February. (b) To separate the office of secretary and treasurer. (c) To define membership as any initiate or affiliate of the Psi Chapter whose class has graduated.

3. Trustees elected for the class of 1956 were H. D. Wallace, J. K. Conneen, and F. B. Gill. W. S. Russell was elected to fill the unexpired term of D. S. Whiteman, deceased.

4. Officers elected were: president, J. C. Olwine; vice president, L. W. Mendenhall; treasurer, R. B. Gill; secretary, W. S. Russell. Executive Committee: J. C. Olwine, L. W. Mendenhall, R. B. Gill, H. D. Wallace, and J. K. Conneen.

Recent mailings have been returned from the following members in addition to those listed in the last issue of THE CHAKET. Any information as to their current addresses would be greatly appreciated by the Secretary, W. S. Russell, 4 Bristol Pl., Radburn, Fairlawn, N. J. They are: James E. Long, '38; William H. Hamilton '39; Richard Seltzer '41; Francis T. Slate '41; Thomas Hamill '39; E. L. Pattison '07; Gaylord H. Day '33; Dewitt Hanfield '36; Robert Conrad '38; Frank Glueck '40; Richard Bright '42; Ed. H. Meyer '47.

An active interest in the affairs of the Briarfield Assn. by more Alumni would be greatly appreciated.—JACK OLWINE, President.

Hoffman Heads Sigma Assn.

MORE than 30 Sigma Alumni gathered at Toffenetti's on Wednesday, Feb. 18, to honor outstanding Sigma Chapter men Tommy O'Connell, Ned Beach, and Dick Broerman, elect Sigma Association officers for the 1953-1954 year, and to have a general all-around good time.

The meeting was long on good fellowship and short on business, but time enough was taken out to select those who will be in charge of directing Sigma Assn. affairs for the year. New officers are: president, Robert F. (Bob) Hoffman '34, 1921 West Hood Ave., Chicago 26; vice president, William T. (Bill) McElveen '38, 211 N. Prospect, Park Ridge, Ill.; secretary, Neil Foster '47, 5205 N. Wayne Ave., Chicago 40; treasurer, Nolan Hodges '37, 602 E. Green St., Champaign.

Alumni who turned out for the affair and helped, by their presence to make it the success it was, included: Lennox F. Armstrong '15, Bill Armstrong '27, Bob Brothersen '35, Allan M. Cameron '26, Robert K. Cameron '36, Don Countryman '40, Kenneth R. Cowman '37, Vic Cullin '20, Dave Fairfield '28, Neil Foster '48, Paul C. Menken President of New York Club

IN accepting the presidency of the New York Chi Phi Club, S. Stanwood Menken, Xi '90, said this about the importance of alumni contacts, "I believe an important work can be done to keep alive the fraternal principles of Chi Phi, thereby strengthening the whole organization, and, at the same time, rendering a service, through intimate contact with members of the Fraternity located in the neighborhood. I trust that we can do something of an inspirational character to make them feel the mission of Chi Phi, and that there is a background that makes for finer manhood and better citizenship when its principles are maintained. I hope to accomplish this through two or three dinners a year, giving them in honor of one or more local Chi Phis who have attained positions of distinction."

Have You Paid Alumni Dues?

YOUR Alumni Dues became due on Jan. 1. Have you sent yours to the National Office? Fifty years or more ago the following members were initiated. They are the loyal men who joined Chi Phi, not for four years, but for life.

Fills Stocking

AN Emory University student was presented a trophy for collecting the most money in the Empty Stocking Fund drive. He was Bob Northcutt, Gamma '56, who collected $274.26. Walter R. Thomas awarded the trophy at a Junior Chamber of Commerce luncheon. The Jaycees co-sponsored the annual drive with The Atlanta Journal-Constitution. It netted $54,863.55 for 10,000 children.

Georgia Tech won the trophy awarded each year to Tech or Emory for the highest fraternity collections. Tech fraternity men collected $13,320.60, Emory $12,246.25.—Atlanta Journal.

Alpha Anticipates New Rush Rule

HARRY H. SCOTT
Alpha
University of Virginia

THE new officers for the spring semester have been elected and are Harry H. Scott, Alpha; Forman Johnston, Beta; Ed Pryor, Gamma; Tom Mullen, Delta; Marshall Carper, Epsilon; and Bob Simmons, Zeta.

In athletics, the Alpha Chapter finished in the top 10 of 20 fraternities during the preceding semester, under the able management of Tom Trotter.

Congratulations to Martin Growald for an excellent job of decorating the gymnasium for the University's Mid-winter's dances! Brother Growald is the most recent recipient of the Sparks Memorial Medal from Alpha and he has been elected president of the American Society of Architects.

With the news that IFC has petitioned the president of the University for rushing of first-year men, we are again preparing for an extensive rushing program in the event that the petition is granted. The eligibility of other unpledged second-year men has swelled the ranks of prospective pledges and thus we anticipate another large pledge class this spring.

We are happy to say that of late none of the Brothers have been called for duty in the armed forces and that our Alumni in the services are doing excellently. In regard to this, special congratulations are due Joe Wilson on his recent commission as 2nd Lieutenant in the U. S. Marine Corps and to Dick Taylor, commissioned Ensign in the U. S. Navy Air Intelligence.—ROBERT B. SIMMONS.

Beta Publishes "The Tablet"

Massachusetts Institute of Technology

At this writing Beta Chapter has just completed one of its most successful Alumni Banquets in recent years. Alumni present were the Brothers A. B. and E. Wason '20, F. B. Kittredge '21, J. N. Worcester '21, T. T. Miller '22, R. W. Jevon '44, F. J. Finnegan '49, W. S. Lewis '48, W. E. Dietz '52, E. G. Remmers '52, W. A. Richards '53, and the evening's speaker, Frederick B. Grant '39. The new initiates also gave their views of "Hell Week," a far more spirited account than the "on the spot" stories.

In answer to several questions, The Tablet in its new form should be in the hands of all Alumni by now. If for some reason, you did not receive one, please let us know. Alumni news will also be published in a new form this year—The Alumni News Letter. The letter will be out sometime this spring. Of course, we would like to see all Alumni who are coming to their class reunions in June. The house which many have yet to see, will be open and accommodations will be provided.

The Brothers are eagerly looking forward to the spring social season. We expect to be host at an IFC Weekend open house again this year and, of course, April 25 is the big day, the Bohemian Ball. The theme is as yet unpicked, but we hope to keep up the high traditions and standards for which this party is so well known.—JAMES W. ASTRUE.

Gamma Complies With Building Code

RUDOLPH MILLS

Emory University

We topped off our fall social life with the formal held on Feb. 6. The place was the East Lake Country Club and music was furnished by the Columbus Cavaliers. Gamma was glad to have so many of the Brothers from other Chapters there. Other social functions during the quarter included an impromptu picnic at Stone Mountain, several informal parties at the house, and finally, a French Apache party given at the house. Russell Stanley received many compliments for the work he did in making the party a success.

Four more men have recently "walked up the drive" at Tom Connally Hall: Marshall Thrash, George Callaway, Doug Folts, and Bill Alverson.

Initiation was held during the past quarter, and Gamma initiated its 1,000th man. It was a big event in the history of the Chapter, and Alumni were invited to attend. This 1,000th man turned out to be Bill Pavlovsky from Marietta, Ga., and the occasion of his initiation was written up in the Atlanta Journal and Constitution.

Another noteworthy event in the history of Gamma took place this quarter when "Miss Myra" Preston celebrated her eighth anniversary as Housemother for the Chapter. "Miss Myra" has the longest record of continuous service as a Housemother among the fraternities at Emory, and we know that she plans to spend many more happy years with us.

Improvements in the house to make Tom Connally Hall comply with the county fire laws were begun during the quarter, and in connection with this, a stairway leading from the front of the house into the basement was built, along with the building of an additional room for the housemanager in the basement. This room will be used mainly for storage of equipment and tools necessary for the upkeep of the house and grounds, and it is hoped that one won't have to hunt all over the campus for our tools once it is completed.

All the Brothers and pledges are looking forward to Dooley's Frolics in the early part of May.—ROBERT MCDANIEL.

Delta Initiates 14 Pledges

ANOTHER successful Greek Week was witnessed here at Delta Chapter, as 14 pledges were put through the formal and informal initiation. The following are the new Brothers to whom we would like to extend our congratulations: Tom Price, Dave Taylor, Jim Fennell, Bill Steng, Deane Oliver, Warren Greenwald, Bob Arlett, Don Vineburg, George Trought, Gus Lachenauer, Bill Carlsen, Harold Rudy, Henry Kane, and Ron Willis.

The new officers elected for the second semester are: Alpha, Bob Filep; Beta, Horace Greeley; Gamma, Pete Gebel; Delta, Jim Himonas; Epsilon, Whit Erwin; Zeta, John Fennell.

Our scholastic standing has been greatly improved, as the large class of initiates shows. Two Pre-Med students, Dick Kahler and Pete Gebel, are still leading the way.

On the social side, a successful and pleasant Junior Prom has gone by and now everyone is looking forward to spring semester and Military Ball Weekend.

As the change over from winter sports to spring sports comes along, we face our most active time of the year. Wally Porter, set shot artist and play maker, will be exchanging his basketball togs for a baseball uniform in a couple weeks. Tom Price, Olympic Champion, along with Jim Bernard, are rounding into shape for the coming crew season. Deane Oliver has wound up an undefeated season on the frosh wrestling squad and is looking forward to the A.A.U. meet. Lacrosse season is well under way, and Bill Howard, senior, is expected to have another successful season as goalie. He will be joined by Whit Erwin, sophomore, who will be at one of the mid-field posts. George Trought is also making a bid for a varsity position. Bill Carlsen is a candidate for the freshman baseball team. Spring football is only a couple weeks away and both Jim and John Fennell, along with Dick Wright and Tom Larkin, are awaiting its start.

In other activities, Don Vineburg and Clark White have joined Bill Snedeker, senior, in the Glee Club. Ron Willis has won a spot in "Paradise Jones," a Boys In Ivy production. Chuck Krause is now a disc jockey on WRSU, the school radio station. Seniors Bob Quackenboss and Bob Filep will put in their last semester as members of the debating team and cheerleading squad, respectively.

In closing, we would like to wish the best of luck to the seniors who will be leaving Delta Chapter this June: Jack Paulus, Bill Snedeker, Bob Filep, Bill Howard, Bob Quackenboss, and Horace Greeley.—JOHN FENNEL.

EPSILON led rushing at Hampden-Sydney with a pledge class of 21 men: John Bailey and Bill Carrington, Richmond; George Barner, Virginia Beach; Freddy Bebeau and Royster Lyle, Danville; Ed Breeden, Bucky Edmondson, John Nichols, and John Tigmo, Norfolk; Doug Buckles, Lebanon; Dave Dunn, Baskerville; Dick Geohagen, Chase City; Larry Hoover, Harrisonburg; James Kulp, Roanoke; Otis Meade, Low Moor; Bill Moseley, South Hill; Andy Raptis, Charleston, W. Va.; Bill Reed, Sabot; John Richards, Lynchburg; Sandy Sanders, Spartansburg, S. C.; and Whitey Warefield, Silver Springs, Md. New pledges were set to work immediately springcleaning the house and grounds. Hammering, painting, and scrubbing have gone on constantly during work afternoons, and the boys have gone about their work with such drive and high spirits that it will be no time at all until the house is in top shape.

At the end of the first semester 40% of the members and pledges were on the Dean's list, which gave the Chapter a better than 84% average. However, this excellent record does not mean that the Chapter has accomplishments only in the academic field. We have placed men on all varsity and junior varsity teams and, at present, are ranked second in the intramural race with an excellent chance of winding up on top.

Midwinters at the house proved a great success. The open house "Wambesi party" from 12 to 4, Saturday night was the center of attraction on the campus and all who came were entertained well musically by the Jimmy Bradshaw Quintet, and the impromptu singing of Brother "Dog" Minter's choir. The highlight of the Epsilon social season, however, will undoubtedly be Chi Phi Spring Parties, April 24-25, to which all Chapters and Alumni are cordially invited. There will be a closed "Keg-an'-Combo" party on Friday night and a dance in the gym Saturday night following a picnic on the lawn. The Aristocrats will furnish the music for the Saturday night dance to which the whole campus will be invited.

Epsilon bids a sad farewell to its seven graduating seniors, Pete Brittain, Bill Fitzgerald, Bruce James, Puck Kiser, "Dog" Minter, Boo Oppenheimer, and Eric Wall. These men leave behind a record which will serve as a fine standard in the years to come.—H. P. BRITAIN.

Zeta Revives Big Brother System

RICHARD B. FREEMAN
Alpha

Franklin and Marshall College

We pledged 20 of the best men in the Freshman Class after another successful rush week. We are having a unique pledge-brother competitive program which will pit the Brothers against the new pledges in events such as wrestling, basketball, etc. This program will be climaxed by the crowning of the champions and the humiliation of the losers at the beginning of Construction Week. Another innovation is a revival of the big brother system at Zeta. The primary purpose of the big brother will be to keep a constant check on the scholastic standing of our pledges, and, in general, to keep the pledges in good standing with the college and the fraternity.

The construction program is making good progress. Over the mid-year vacation a few Brothers built book shelves in the new library—another step toward the over-all renovation of our sun porch and basement. Due to lack of funds we have not been able to accomplish all that we had planned. However, we are hoping that by the end of Construction Week, the program will be close to completion.

In the field of athletics XΦ is well represented. Thirteen of our Brothers and pledges are on the F and M wrestling squad; we have six men on the swimming team and one pledge on the frosh basketball team. The Chapter's basketball team came out on top of the Interfraternity League, going undefeated in nine games. To this first place and a fourth in the touch-football league we must add a lot of victories in the remaining wrestling, swimming, ping-pong, track and softball schedules to retain the All-College Trophy, won last year.

The second semester social calendar began with the five feverishly active days of Rush Week in which we entertained the freshmen in order to choose the best. The following Saturday we had a Valentine Party in honor of our new pledge class. The second party was held on Feb. 28 with "Horror" as its theme. Great varieties of costumes were displayed by virtue of the imaginations and ingenuity of the Brothers and pledges. Interfraternity Weekend was the next big event. This year it was held on Mar. 20 and 21. The IFC Ball was at the Valencia Ballroom in York again this year. Chi Phi had a dinner in the house preceding the Ball and breakfast on the way back from York. A "Communist Party" Saturday night topped off the week end's enjoyment. The Military Ball and Spring Weekend (including the annual XΦ picnic) will complete the semester's social festivities.

Richard B. Freeman is the new Alpha. In the college community he serves: as president of IFC; as vice president of the Student Council; as chairman of the Student-Faculty Discipline Committee, an executive body which metes out penalties for college rules violations. Dick is also member of the Black Pyramid, an honor society on the F and M campus, Porter Scientific Society, and the Varsity Swimming Team. Dick considers fraternity affairs most important. He is doing a tremendous task as Alpha of the Zeta Chapter whose 74 actives and pledges pose quite a problem in coordination and discipline. Besides leading XΦ Dick contributes his athletic talents in touch football and track. On top of all this heap of work Dick maintains a solid 3.4 average—B+, and has already been accepted by Jefferson Medical School in Philadelphia to continue his study of medicine.—JERRY BURG-HOLZER.

Eta Assessment Increases Interest

JOHN S. KNIGHT
Alpha
University of Georgia

THIS quarter Eta has seen 15 new members come into the chapter room. We also have several new pledges who seem to be falling right in line with the swing of things around here.

Many improvements have been made around the house lately, such as new plumbing, redecoration of several rooms, painting the yard furniture, and installation of rubber runners on the steps. We are still working on the pavement of the back drive and the elimination of the parking hazard.

We are planning one of the best house-parties in the history of Eta because there has been a $1.00 assessment for all Brothers and pledges alike all year long. We will have the much anticipated affair paid for and everyone will have an equal interest in it. Last year only 20 couples attended, but this year we expect about 75 couples. We are making arrangements to go to Daytona Beach, Fla., or maybe Sea Island.

In March the University held a fashion show in cooperation with one of Atlanta's leading department stores and Mack Drewry was Master of Ceremonies.

It may be of interest to you football fans to know that our Brother, All-American Harry Babcock, has signed a contract with the Forty-niners and we wish good luck to such a great football player and a swell guy.—CHARLES L. McCLAIN.

Theta Has Seven On Dean's List

CHARLES A. HORSELL, Alpha Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute

THE big news from Troy this month centers around the 75th Anniversary Celebration. After a brief time out for mid-year examinations, the committee has returned to the preparations for a memorable week end. The latest "word" is given elsewhere in this issue.

Three new Brothers were admitted to the Chapter when Ken Johanson, Bob Barr, and Jim Durante were initiated last month.

The holiday-exam lull was all but forgotten during Junior Prom Weekend. The pledge class put up a fine booth in the face of hard trials and great tribulations. Brother Tyler and the social committee are to be congratulated on an excellent and very interesting program.

The new refrigerator in the kitchen represents the latest improvement in the house proper. A less tangible addition is the spirit of our pledge class. '56 looks like a good year.

Brothers in the News: Brothers Hornell, Bowman, Hick, Shive, and Gray and Pledges Orth and Woeber were on the Dean's List for the past semester. Brother Will is on RPI's winning hockey squad. Pledges Bergazyn and Quinby are a big part of the Engineer's Basketball Squad.—JOHNNY CARLSON.

Iota Undertakes Pledge Training

DON AMSTUTZ, Alpha
Ohio State University

ELECTION of officers for spring was held on Jan. 12: Alpha, Dan Amstutz, Dallas, Tex.; Beta, Jack Winkler, Columbus;

Gamma, Bernie Brockhage, Cincinnati; Delta, Al Wilson, Worthington; Epsilon, Walt Kasyon, Cleveland; Zeta, Chuck Thomas, Worthington. Dan Amstutz has had the distinction of being elected to the highest office obtainable to a student on the OSU campus, president of the Student Senate.

Since the election of the new officers, Iota has embarked on a new policy of active participation in campus affairs as well as creating a new pledge training program. The pledges are now hearing detailed lectures coupled with discussion groups which are to instill in them a greater realization of the part played by their fraternity in its rôle as one of 52 fraternities on this campus. They are being taught the importance of good grooming, good manners, etc., in making the good all-around fraternity man. They are becoming more conscious of other fraternities and sororities now, since all their learning is not restricted to that concerning XΦ.

Concerning a policy of more participation in campus activities, the Fraternity has taken great strides along this line. Our skit, which was entered in the Greek Week stunt night competition, was a musical revue depicting life in New York. We did not win the prize, but we were one of two that was asked to appear in the "Spring Fling," a big faculty-student variety show which is put on in the spring. We have had an excellent selection of speakers with at least one coming each week. Open houses and serenades have been scheduled which promise to be great successes.

Initiation was held on Feb. 21 in the chapter house with Jack Moon, Dublin; Tony Larizza, Huron; Reg Ullman, Cleveland Heights; Bill Reed, Youngstown, being initiated.

During Winter Quarter, the social season was highlighted by Iota's participation in Greek Week. We took part in Stunt Night, consisting of skits put on by the Greeks; an open house to which all sororities were invited; and an exchange dinner with IIBΦ at which Col. M. E. Potter, Professor of Air Science at OSU, was the guest speaker. Our social calendar also featured an open house on Mar. 5 at which the nationally known combo of Taylor and Jackson played. The social events were climaxed by the annual Winter Formal which was held on Mar. 7.

Men who have been prominent in campus activities other than Brother Amstutz are: Ted Griffith, a Cadet Captain in the Army ROTC, who has been appointed co-chairman for the annual Military Ball; Bill Ternent, who has been appointed Cadet Lt. Colonel in the Air Force ROTC. This is the second highest cadet officer appointment.

"Grandma" Cummerson, Iota's beloved housemother, celebrated her 80th birthday on Mar. 3 with a banquet given in her honor by the men of Iota. She has served faithfully as housemother for almost 27 years. Our hats are tipped to "Grandma" for the devotion and long service she has given the Brothers of Iota. The Chapter was honored by the return of one of their prominent Alumni, Robert Bangham '17. Mr. Bangham gave a stimulating educational talk. Iota was refreshed by his presence.

Iota wishes to invite all XΦ Alumni to attend its annual Alumni Banquet to be held on April 25. This is an annual reunion which gives the old grads a chance to get together and also to meet their new Brothers of Iota. We are hoping for a large turnout and further details concerning the Banquet will be mailed to the Iota grads in early April.—CHUCK THOMAS.

Kappa to Initiate 20 Pledges

JOHN PIKE
Alpha
University of Wisconsin

As was suggested by the absence of the Kappa report in the last issue of THE CHAKET, we at Wisconsin were most assuredly suffering from Rose Bowl fever; most of us were off campus. With the beginning of a new semester we find a well qualified group of men taking over the chapter offices: John Pike, Alpha; Jack Eimerman, Beta; Ronald Siepmann, Gamma; Frank Palen, Delta; Kent Hill, Epsilon; and Fred Perkins, Zeta.

At the present time we are starting our informal initiation of 20 pledges. Because of their activities inside and outside the house, both curricular and extracurricular, they have brought a new feeling of unity to the Chapter. A good deal of credit should be given to Tom Redfield who was Rush Chairman last fall when these men were pledged.

We managed, under the able leadership of our Athletic Chairman, Jack Eimerman, to get into the playoffs in both basketball and badminton.

Highlights of the spring semester will be the famed Esquire Party, sponsored by Esquire Magazine, and our spring formal.—FRED PERKINS, III.

LAMBDA is very happy to report the pledging of five men: Keith Jewell, Fresno; Murray Hannon, San Quentin; Ed Stocker and Darryl Petersen, San Francisco, and Hubert de Heinrich, Berkeley. Seven men have been initiated: Joe Bingaman, Dick Congden, Denton Denke, Dick Levis, Frank Merlo, Earll Riley, III, and Eddie White. Present at the formal initiation was Earll T. Riley, II, father of Earll T. Riley, III. Earll, III, is a third generation XΦ, being the grandson of Earll T. Riley, a Lambda member.

Lambda is well represented in spring sports at Cal with Al Atmore out for freshman swimming; Hubert de Heinrich, working for a place on the freshman tennis team; Frankie Merlo, out for the freshman baseball team; and Dick Rahl, out for varsity crew.

The semester started with a marvelous "Presents" party being held here at the house. The Pledge Dance will be held in San Francisco on Mar. 14 at the Mark Hopkins Hotel. The annual Alumni Banquet will be held at the University Club in San Francisco on Mar. 6. About one hundred Alumni are expected.—DICK RAHL.

THE spring term began with six men satisfactorily enduring the rigors of "Dog Week." The new senior pledges are Carl Carlson, John Donohue, Art Holl, Ed Merrell, Al Pingpank, and Joseph Wolf. Joe Smith of Xi has affiliated with Mu.

Albert I. Bennett was elected Alpha; Charles Swenson, Beta; Robert Simpson, Gamma; Edwin Utz, Delta; and Les Wuerfl, Epsilon. John Sylva remained as Zeta. Appointed by the new Alpha were Dick Kask, pledge master; Pete Fletcher, "Dog Week" chairman; Charles Swenson, rush chairman; Sandy McKeen, steward; and Al Pingpank, social chairman. Ex-Alpha Bill McAneny was selected our guardian angel and hovers about seeing that the "wall scalers" follow the straight and narrow.

The Stevens Yacht Club elected Pete Fletcher and John Sylva its commodore and secretary-treasurer, respectively. Since half the Club's members are Green Gaters and the Club has on order five new "Tech" sailboats, it can readily be seen that many a spring week end will be spent by the Brothers on Long Island Sound. The business staff of the Stute, Stevens' weekly newspaper, under the direction of business manager Dick Kask, was recently revamped. Les Wuerfl is now the assistant business manager and Chuck Swenson the circulation manager. Also on the staff are George Dietrich and Carl Carlson. Besides being active on the newspaper, Mu also has nine men working on the yearbook, with John Sylva its editor-in-chief.

Mu was honored on Mar. 3 when Judge Luther Z. Rosser visited the Chapter. Among the Alumni present to greet the National Director were Joe Finnerty, Jack Pflugh, Sandy Mead, Walt Knopp, and Bob Van Valkenburg.

Preparations are being made for Alumni Day (Apr. 4) and Spring Sports Weekend (Mar. 8-10).—JOHN P. SYLVA.

Nu Initiates New Mascot

PHIL MOSS
Alpha
University of Texas

NU is proud to announce the initiation of six members in February: David Cox, Houston; Norman Banta, Beaumont; Frank Plemons, Wichita Falls; Dick Scroggins and Bob White, Dallas; and Paul Keiffer, Waco. After the initiation ceremonies, the Best Pledge Award was given to Norman Banta and the Best Neophyte Award to Frank Plemons. We also have another addition to the Chapter—"Nu," our new mascot, a pure mongrel puppy.

At spring semester rush, in late January, we pledged Johnny Rhine, San Antonio; Sidney Parkinson, Crystal City; and Ted Ball. Tommy Forrester continued his pledgeship at this time after an interruption in the armed forces.

New additions to the officer roster for the spring semester include Walter Huffy, pledge trainer; Bob White, scholarship chairman; and Dick Scroggins, rush captain.

Nu's float entry in the University of Texas' annual Homecoming ceremonies, Round-Up, on March 27-28, consisted of an old-fashioned barroom with dancing girls and all. Plans are now being made for the annual Varsity Carnival event in May. The Chapter got to semi-finals in the elimination procedure in intramural basketball.

Nu has been fortunate in having many visiting Brothers from other Chapters to stop in. We really enjoy the news of other Chapters' activities such as pledge training, house management, and such. We certainly extend cordial invitations to all pledges, Brothers, and Alumni to visit us.—WALLACE PELLERIN.

Xi Fears Deferred Rush

LEWING
Alpha
Cornell University

WILLIAM A. LEWING was elected Alpha in Xi's January elections. Bill was captain of Cornell's soccer team last fall, Beta, and a member of an honorary, Red Key, last year. He is now a member of two senior honoraries, Quill and Dagger and Scabbard and Blade. Bill is taking the place of Al Reynolds who did an excellent job as Alpha for two terms. Marv. Anderson was re-elected Beta, and Frank Casy was re-elected Gamma. Dick Lewis is our new Epsilon and Frank Dellecave our new steward. Frank, in the short time that he has been in office, seems to have mastered the trick of keeping 60 members full and contented.

During Christmas vacation, Roy Telini and Bill Lewing represented us on a Yale-Dartmouth-Cornell soccer team which played five games in Bermuda. One of our members, Al Beatty, was recently elected editor-in-chief of The Cornellian, yearbook.

Following some hard fought exams, we celebrated by three days of houseparty. Our social chairman, Doc Kleckner, provided a grand houseparty. On Feb. 28, we initiated 16 pledges. We are very proud of the fact that only two of our 18 pledges were unable to be initiated due to poor grades. This speaks well for the scholastic work of our Beta, Marv. Anderson, who has done much to bring up the house average. Our new members are Robert H. Gorrie, James S. Gouinlock, Alfred Hahn, Jr., Dean C. Hickox, William W. Hook, Robert B. Hunter, Nelson A. Hyde, Jr., Malcolm C. MacKinnon, Jr., William McKinley, Richard H. Metzler, Richard H. Monahan, Peter Shurter, David S. Stotz, David P. Taylor, Robert A. Whitner, and Robert G. Wilson. Initiation was highlighted by the return of many loyal Alumni. Toastmaster for the banquet was Fritz Krebs '12, who has attended every initiation but one since 1908. Bill Lewing welcomed the initiates and an answer for the initiates was made by Bob Wilson. The address of the evening was given by Tallman Ladd '21.

The University is planning on making some radical changes in the near future, such as contract-eating for freshmen and deferred rushing, which are sure to have a detrimental effect on Cornell fraternities. We feel, however, that with members of such caliber as the 16 just initiated we should be able to weather any such storms that may threaten fraternity life as we know it here at Cornell.—WILLIAM M. OSGOOD.

Omicron Loses Dean's Cup

JACK McCARTHY, Alpha
Yale University

SHORTLY after the mid-year exams, the new officers were installed in office: Jack McCarthy, Alpha; Berry Seymour, Beta; Ronald Murry, Gamma; Chan Converse, Delta; Chuck Crowley, Epsilon; Mike Conroy, Assistant Delta; and carrying over from last term, Bob McCormick, Zeta. In his last talk before the Chapter, outgoing Alpha Dudley Coates, summarized our accomplishments. He was presented with a gift by Richard Franke as a token of our appreciation. Alpha Jack McCarthy followed with his inaugural address. The main points of Brother McCarthy's speech were: return to delegation night dinners, compulsory attendance at meetings, and a general outline of the activities for the remainder of the year. Chi Phi at Yale failed to retain the Dean's Cup, which is symbolic of fraternity leadership in scholastics, this term, for the first time in several years. We were ranked third. In February, we pledged nine new men. We believe them to be a fine group who will uphold XΦ traditions.

The Junior Prom Weekend, Mar. 6-8, proved to be a success, due to Bernie Langmuir and his capable Activities Committee. On Friday night, we had a candlelight dinner. After the Prom, an early bird breakfast was served. The attendance for this was so high that some had to be turned away. Saturday night a Dixieland dance band provided the entertainment. As a conclusion to the week end, a milk punch party was held on Sunday afternoon. Arrangements are being made to combine with another fraternity to have a spring fraternity week end. Since this will be something new in the annals of Omicron, we are looking forward with eager anticipation.—ROBERT McCORMICK.

SINCE the last issue of THE CHAKETT appeared, we have initiated five Brothers: Ken Williams, Sheboygan, Wis.; Dick Miller, Louisville, Ky.; Maurice Mazel, San Antonio, Texas; Jan Kloeck, Maplewood, N. J.; and Sanford Hampton, Manhasset, N. Y. The welcoming of the new Brothers took place on Jan. 25 and was followed by a celebration at the Eleven-Eleven Club. Several weeks later our Wild West party was held at Deckert's Hall in Morton Grove with an exceptionally fine turnout. The presence of several Alumni was greatly welcomed. Square dancing music and calling were supplied by the Midwesterners. Brother Keim is to be congratulated for his efficient handling of the many arrangements.

With the realization of our Chapter's first anniversary we have taken steps to insure an even more prosperous year to come. We have incorporated a committee system with the hope and aim of a more efficient and smoother running Chapter. Our two stewards, Bud France and Maurice Mazel, with the help of the Mother's Club, secured a new cook so that we might also be served on Sundays. The financial committee has been working long hours on a budget for this coming quarter of the school year. Recent painting and construction have been the result of the planning of the house committee.

The Spring Formal has been planned for April 17 at the Sheraton Hotel. We hope to see many of the Alumni from this and other areas along with members from any other Chapters who can possibly attend. This should prove to be one of the biggest events of the year. Later on in May we have tentative plans for a Riviera Party to be held at the house.

We made a creditable showing in intramural basketball although we found ourselves short-handed at most games, due to activities' conflicts. Entries have been made for the spring sports.

At the writing of this report we stand approximately in 10th place in the fraternity scholastic ratings on campus. This is a jump of 16 places since a year ago.

Through the guidance of Brother Snyder, the Chapter has purchased a cigarette machine. If the present booming sales can be attributed to other than exams, the machine will soon have paid for itself and be turning profits into the treasury as is the coke machine installed last fall.

With the close of exam week many of the Brothers will be heading for home and for Florida, but the doors of Pi are always open to any brothers who find themselves in this area.—CARL PETERS.

Rho Initiates 11 New Members

ANTHONY KIERNAN, Alpha

AFTER a brief mid-semester vacation, under the leadership of Pledgemaster James Shepherd, the 12 pledges devoted their efforts to much-needed repairs around the house. The house treasury provided for an abundance of tools and supplies in order that as much as possible could be accomplished. The house is in wonderful condition both inside and out. On Feb. 21, 11 new Brothers were initiated: Albert Ackerman, New York City; Gene Alderman, Endicott, N. Y.; Edmund Bernhard, Frank Mattison, and Richard Schneider, Flemington, N. J.; David Bubser, Pottsville; James Eldridge, Trenton, N. J.; Carmen Gaccione, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Daniel Merriam, Palisades, N. J.; Gene McCreary, Washington, N. J.; and David Watt, Larchmont, N. Y. The initiation was climaxed by a banquet given at the Northhampton Country Club. Several Alumni returned for this occasion, and Rho sincerely thanks these men for their attendance. Rho also wishes to extend an invitation to any Brothers or Alumni to feel free to return anytime.

Our intramural basketball team got off to a slow start due to several losses in overtime and an injury-riddled team. William Von Barga continued his stellar playing as did Oscar Weisenborn and Jay Bitting. In the intramural softball league, XΦ should field a good team. It has been given added strength by Ed Bernhard, Dan Merriam, and Jim Eldridge. Rho awaits the intramural wrestling competition when Clark "Tiger" Conlon and "Gorgeous" Bob Fountain take to the mats to seek their respective mat titles. Rho would like to congratulate Newell Golden on his nomination to represent the Chapter in the AΦΩ "Ugliest Man on Campus" contest. The Brothers feel that Brother Golden is entering as a decided favorite.

The Chapter will give a party and dinner to precede the Military Ball on Mar. 21. A piano has been purchased to be placed in our party room. This will enable us to have live music there. Plans are already in discussion concerning the big Spring Weekend.

On Feb. 11, Rho's elections were held: Alpha, Anthony Kiernan; Beta, Peter Morrow; Gamma, Bob Fountain; Delta, Desmond Bailey; Zeta, Don Kroll; and Epsilon, Walt Kruger.—DONALD J. KROLL.

Jan. 26 was the date on which Sigma honored one of its most prominent contemporary members, Tom O'Connell, star quarterback for the Fighting Illini. A large celebration in his honor was attended by several Alumni, as well as Ray Eliot, Illinois football coach, and the top-notch local sports writers. Sigma received considerable publicity as a result of the banquet; a picture of the plaque presentation ran in The News-Gazette. All those who attended the festivities were very attentive during both O'Connell's and Eliot's descriptive speeches pertaining to the annual East-West football game and Tom's later experiences on his honeymoon in Hawaii—you see, Tom was just recently married to Geri Ball of Chicago.

TAU CHAPTER recently asked the family of the late Benjamin Russell of Alexander City, one of the four men who secured the charter for Tau, for a portrait of their father who was "a devoted Chi Phi from the time of his initiation in 1897 until his death in 1941." At the time of this writing Brother Thomas D. Russell is looking into the matter.

On Mar. 4, five men were initiated at Tau: James Jones, Birmingham, Carl Walker, Tusculumbia, Jack Coley, Jr., Alexander City; John Lenski, Iola, Kan.; and Eddie McCoy, Brookfield, Wis. Tau was proud to have Judge Jack Coley present to witness his son's initiation. Judge Coley was one of the earliest members at Tau.

With spring rush approaching, all the Brothers are planning to carry out an intensive rush program with three big weekend parties, with picnics, house dances, etc. If you know of any prospective XΦs who are coming to the University of Alabama, it would be very much appreciated if you would contact Tau. New pledges are: Garvin Britton and Al Langley from Birmingham, and Jim Waller from Mobile.

Phi Installs Fire Alarm

JOE ZALOT
Alpha
Amherst College

IN its recent mid-year elections, Phi selected a new slate of officers. Joe Zalot, Hadley, was chosen as Alpha and Somers White, Milwaukee, Wis., was picked as Beta. Ed Edelstein will assume the duties of treasurer in September after having served for the remainder of this year as apprentice to the present treasurer, Al Tenney, while John Ickler and Hank Carter will discharge the duties of house managers. Jack Eldon is Phi's new co-social chairman, and Frank Downey and Ty Reed have been acclaimed the new Epsilons.

As this report goes to press, the big topic at Phi is rushing, Pledge Night being three weeks away. Rushing Chairman Tommy Knight has directed a concentrated effort towards selecting suitable Phi material, an effort which has been successful in recruiting prospective members who are standouts in the Freshman Class.

Socially, the outstanding recent event was Phi's traditional Bowery Brawl. Highlights of the affair included the performance of the Delta 5 Dixieland ensemble, the variety of costumes, and the decorations, which were built around an impressionistic Third Avenue theme. As usual, Phi entertained many visitors, including several Brothers from nearby Chapters who made the Brawl the occasion of a weekend visit. Social plans for the spring include as the two biggest week ends the Amherst Spring Prom and the Formal Dance, as well as numerous smaller affairs.

The revival of singing here at Phi has resulted in high hopes for the Interfraternity Sing. Choregus Reg Towner has led a group of about 30 of the more vocal Brothers in preparing two numbers for presentation.

In the line of house improvements, a fire detection and alarm system has been purchased and will shortly be installed. At present, the house is contemplating the purchase of a juke box, and is also making plans for excavating and finishing an extension under the east wing of the house.

In intramural sports, Phi fielded a powerhouse basketball team which at the present time is undefeated and the strongest candidate by far for the college championship. In addition to its regularly scheduled games, the Phi quintet has played a number of exhibition games with nearby athletic associations and prep school varsities and has maintained its unblemished record in its unofficial games. The volleyball squad, on the other hand, has been anything but impressive.

Six Phis will have key slots on the varsity baseball roster according to pre-season plans. Howie Korell is slated to fill the post of first baseman; Tommy Knight will hold down the second base bag; and Lee Hildreth will serve behind the plate. The outfield includes Phi's Eddie Anderson, and Jerry Ayers, and Fran Rainey will see extensive action on the mound. Also, as mentioned in an earlier report, Ed Edelstein is the assistant manager of the varsity squad. To round out our previous lists of prominent campus Phis, it should be noted that the Amherst College Hall committee, in charge of all student entertainment, is headed by Reg Towner, with Graeme Howard as treasurer of the organization. Tim Sanders was assistant basketball manager, and Ty Reed and Reg Towner are key participants in track and lacrosse, respectively.—DICK JORDAN.

Chapter won the coveted snow statue contest. Ed Condit did the designing again and led the Brothers in the building. The week end began on Thursday with a party. Brother Walsh and a Dixieland group furnished the music. Saturday was highlighted by two bands in the afternoon, Leroy Parkins, and in the evening, Manual's Orchestra. We were glad to welcome the Alumni of Chi and our Brothers from various other chapters. Alumni were Birkenmier, R. Fiertz, Reed, Swartz, Sutton, and Welborn.

Brothers Condit, Cunningham, Gochman, Rocray, and Rodgers are hard at work on the fraternity play which is to be given in the fraternity play contest in March. Preparations are also being made by Brother Gochman for the fraternity hum contest.

Athletically, Chi is having one of its best years. Our track and swimming teams should win laurels, and our basketball team ended its season's work with an enviable 8-3 record. A new specialties committee was formed under Harry Bennett to provide various activities such as dinners and bridge tournaments for the Brothers.

Plans are now under way to refurnish the living room. With the aid of Brothers, parents, and Alumni this should be a reality by the end of April. To look into purchases, a committee has been formed with Ed Condit as the head.—RICHARD CONN.

In addition, Daniel Daly '54 has been repledged after meeting the requirements of the Chapter.

The ceiling in the living room was replaced between semesters and the living room painted in preparation for rushing. The Brothers tore down the ceiling, thus saving our Alumni Association the added expense of this job. Following this, the entire house was renovated and placed in tip-top shape.

Alpha Ray Hartenstine has been elected treasurer of IFC; Peter Huester has been elected treasurer of the Senior Class, and Tom Sheridan has been appointed dance chairman of the IFC Weekend this spring.

The Chapter would like to extend its appreciation to Dr. Martin Kleckner, our Chapter Adviser, and Jack Conneen for their attendance at our pledge banquet on Feb. 20. It is always a pleasure to have these loyal XΦs with us, whatever the occasion. Their continued interest in XΦ has done much for the welfare of the Chapter.

Sportswise, the spring will find us very active in intramural as well as university sports programs. Baseball, track, and lacrosse teams will each have several representatives from the chapter. Our chances of copping the IF swimming championships are excellent, while the bowling team is also looking forward to an excellent season.—CHARLES D. THOMAS.

Omega Reports Few Activities

WALLACE MONTGOMERY
Alpha
Georgia Institute of Technology

THE past few weeks have been most eventful for the Omega Chapter. Parties, of course, are of primary interest. Despite threats of social probation for fraternities by the Institute, our parties have had renowned success. Our winter social season has included a houseparty, banquet, formal, and several house dances.

A pledge class is now going through the traditional preparation and, at the conclusion of the week, will be initiated. Despite the many gripes and grievances of the pledges, all so far have performed their tasks very well.

That notable Chi Phi fiasco, the patio, has almost been completed! Due to the earnest efforts of the pledge class and their ruthless leader, Brother Waller, this project is being beautifully built.—BOBBY HAND.

Alpha-Alpha Wins Athletic Trophies

AL MOORE, Alpha
University of North Carolina

FROM the grand ballroom of the Hotel Washington Duke in nearby Durham came the familiar strains of "Chi Phi Girl" on Feb. 27 as the Brothers and pledges gathered to celebrate the annual pledge week end. Following the tasty banquet the couples danced until midnight to the lilting music of Jimmie Maxwell and his Salvation Army Seven. The event was planned by Bill Prouty, William Faulkner, Howard Scotland, and Al Moore. After the dance the group returned to Chapel Hill for a breakfast at the chapter house. Dancing continued until four a.m., with music furnished by a juke box in the music room of the house. On Saturday a brunch at the house and an open house beginning at four were given. Music came from a lively Dixieland combo of five. At nine o'clock Saturday the Apache Party got underway. Brothers estimated that between four and five hundred persons visited the house during the evening. The combo returned at one a.m. and played until five.

The general campus elections in April will see Brothers running for the offices of vice president of the Student Body, head cheerleader, and editor of the yearbook, The Yackety Yack, while pledges are seeking election for Student Legislature, and vice president of the Sophomore Class.

Under the direction of Brother Jack Stilwell a fine edition of The Alumni Bulletin came off the press last month. Assisting him was a veteran newspaperman, Tom Peacock. Brother Peacock recently won the assignment of covering the Southern Conference Basketball Tournament for the Washington Post.

In the field of athletics XΦs recently captured three trophies at the Interfraternity Winter Sports Carnival. Brother Gus Crowell provides the capable leadership for our extensive intramural activities, and has come up with many winning teams this year.

In ceremonies last month Norris Edwin Bost of Lincolnton traded his Chakett for the XΦ pin. Rushing continues with Tom Peacock steering the activities for us.

We are planning many future events, including a beach week end and a spring party celebrating our Annual Azalea Festival . . . that is, if the azalea bush will cooperate and put out a bloom or two. Two Brothers, William Faulkner and Randolph Shives, graduate this quarter.—ROLLIE TILLMAN, JR.

Alpha-Tau Plans Scholarship Drive

HARRY H. JONES, JR.
Alpha
University of Michigan

AT Alpha-Tau Harry H. Jones, Jr., is Alpha; Jack Scovill, Beta; Tom For-gacs, Gamma; and John Treadaway, Epsilon. Pledge mentor is Don Kelley; social chairman, Dick Wilson; music chairman, George Stoner; and athletic chairman, Dave Sebald.

The Chapter has taken action on our ever-decreasing scholarship standing. Jack Scovill is the scholarship chairman and has set up a committee which will keep an accurate record of the courses being taken by the Brothers. If one of them has trouble with a subject, the committee will direct him to a Brother who is taking the course or has already had it. By doing this we feel that the chapter average will increase a great deal by next semester.

We have 14 new pledges: Fred Baumgartner, Harry Evans, Ed Furdak, John Gilbert, Bob Halleen, Dave Hampton, Joe Murray, Art Pominville, John Rapsion, Arnold Sayra, Larry Schwartz, Lee Solomon, Roger Towne, and Ed Troester. We also have added seven new Brothers: Jim Howell, Jim Rupert, George Stoner, Jim Snediker, Gil Rodger, Rod Comstock, and Wayne Kuhn.

We stand 12th among 43 fraternities and still going strong in intramurals. Water Polo is coming up soon and again we hope to retain our championship title in that sport.

We just finished a "Suppressed Desire" party. Coming soon are the Cow Pie Formal and then the Pledge Formal.

We wish to welcome back Nick (Arthur Murray) Hunter, who was absent from school last semester, and our "Super-Pledge," Rog Tuttle, who has just returned from Korea.

The House Council has plans to revive The Chimes, which is the chapter news letter for our Alumni.—LEE KRUMBHOLZ.

Alpha-Chi Houses Foreign Student

BILL McDEVITT
Alpha
Ohio Wesleyan
University

On Feb. 21 four more members were initiated into Alpha-Chi: Tom Mills, Earl Spiller, George King, and Bill Holland. Tom Mills is a sophomore student from the University of Toledo. Bill Holland's home is Mt. Vernon. The other two new initiates are from the empire state, New York: George King is from Syracuse, and Earl Spiller is from Kenmore.

For the pledges' project week Mal White, Ralph Schlag, and Don Glaser directed the pledges in renovating the basement of the house. Two of the rooms suffered from long disuse, but their decoration will add to the entertainment facilities of the house. The rough stone walls and the ceiling of one room were painted black, the floor receiving a coat of red paint. The Chapter contributed enough money to build a series of booths along one wall of the room. The walls of the other room, which is to be used for dancing, were painted rose and yellow; the floor received a coat of gray paint. The Chapter is deeply indebted to those members who aided in the decoration.

Each year at about this time the members of Alpha-Chi begin preparations for their annual Queen of Hearts contest. Each sorority on campus nominates a freshman girl to compete in the contest. Each week until the week of the Spring Formal one of the candidates is guest at the house for dinner. Then at the Formal on May 2, the Queen and her court will be announced. The Queen then reigns for a year over the fraternity's social events. Mal White is chairman of the committee.

This year the Chapter decided to run Mal White for the office of president of the Junior Class. Mal is a member of the University's varsity track team, varsity swimming team, "W" Clan, Sophomore Council, varsity cross country team, and of the Student Government's social committee.

This winter Ed Rentz was initiated into ΦMA, music honorary. Ed, who hails from Lima, Ohio, is majoring in piano and organ.

This year the Chapter has again accepted into its midst an international student. Mike Milenkovitch, a native of Yugoslavia, arrived in New York on Dec. 23, and proceeded to Delaware in time to register for the second semester. Last year Mike studied English literature in the philosophical department of Belgrade University. He is now planning to major in political science during his four years at Wesleyan.—TOM TIMMONS.

Gamma Delta Begs Alumni to Visit

THEODORE H.
ROWELL
Alpha
University of Minnesota

GAMMA DELTA had its annual Winter Dinner Dance on Feb. 14. We rented the dining room at the Hastings Hotel in Minneapolis. Our social Chairman, Duane Johnson, with his assistant, Jim Penn, did a remarkable job of planning and executing the dance. Very few Alumni were present although invitations were sent to all of them. But the dinner dance was just a warm-up for the Orchid Formal which will be held in May. The dance is strictly formal and every girl receives an orchid. The girls also receive favors, sometimes in the form of a bracelet or an autographed doll. The Chapter certainly wishes to see a good turnout of Alumni at this dance. You will receive invitations in May. The Founders' Day Banquet will be held in the very near future. All of the Alumni will receive notice of the date. This is an opportunity we have to see some of you Alumni. How about setting that evening aside and coming over?

We have seven new pledges: John Gibson, Tony Steblay, Bryce Landis, Jim Byron, Don Campbell, Gene Strohman, and Jerry Krogfus.

Up to now, our rifle team is undefeated. The bowling team also had a very successful year. Since we have some fine swimmers in the house, our swimming team should be a power to contend with.

For once we have an early start on a campus activity. The Campus Carnival, which will be held this spring, will provide us with a lot of work and a lot of fun. The committee has already made tentative plans for our concession.

Four men will be leaving the Chapter this spring: Jim Penn, Jim Dresser, Arnie Vasenden, and Chuck Svendsen.—CHARLES R. SVENDSEN.

Delta Delta Adds Eight to Rolls

CHUCK KRECKLOW
Alpha
U.C.L.A.

CHUCK KRECKLOW is continuing as Alpha; Dan Eventov, Beta; Lee Burns, continuing as Gamma; Dick Nanula, Delta; Jere Terreau, Epsilon; and Ron Patterson continuing as Zeta. Delta Delta also started the semester off with eight initiates. One of the more constructive projects of pre-initiation week was the spring cleaning and painting of the chapter house.

Delta Delta of Chi Phi took fifth place out of 40 in fraternity scholarship for last semester.

Among the social activities are numerous exchanges, and parties topped off by Delta Delta's annual Spring Dinner Dance. Social chairman, Ron Patterson, promises a semester of unusual and sensational events. On the lighter side, the Delta Delta Brothers serenaded two sororities early in the semester as a result of three pinnings. Athletic chairman, Ray Buechler, predicts victorious basketball and baseball seasons. Also Marv

McClay, pledge trainer, hints that the new pledge class is really going to be "Gung-Ho."

Delta Delta entered into such annual campus activities as Mardi Gras (proceeds to underprivileged children fund) and the Spring Sing (proceeds to the athletic pavilion fund). Chuck Krecklow finds time to be chairman of the IFC-Panhellenic News Bureau and to be active in an Insurance Society and in Arnold Air Society. Ted Raschke is active on the Organizations Control Board, Junior Council, and the Spring Sing Committee. Joe Polizzi and Ron Patterson are both members and officers in ΔE, are honorary. Ron is also a member of the Senior Rally Committee (being the card stunt designer for next fall's football games) and art director on the Spring Sing Committee. Letterman Dick Turnblade is a member of TBII (national engineering honorary) and Conning Tower. Other Conning Tower members are Howard Bond, of the freshman basketball team, Ross Dodson, Bob McIver, and John Paolozzi. Letterman Ralph Broman is spring semester's Battalion Commander of the Infantry drill field while Dan Eventov is Cadet Colonel on the Air Force drill fields. Dan is also a member of O.C.B., Senior Council, Gold Key (men's honorary), AMT (language honorary), Student Judicial Board, Cal Men, and Arnold Air Society. Don Roberts is a member of the Freshman Council.—RON PATTERSON.

Alpha Delta Paints & Plants Premises

THOMAS GEORGE FARRELL
Alpha
Pennsylvania State College

ON June 4, 14 of us here at Alpha Delta will complete our undergraduate work. As a result of the mass exodus, the rushing committee, Gordy Carpenter, Jim McGee, and Bob Broomfield, have been performing a magnificent job of obtaining promising rushees for the Chapter's scrutiny. Instead of a concentrated rushing program as carried out at other Chapters, we rush throughout the whole semester. Consequently, we seldom have more than six men to meet and evaluate in one evening. Thus far we have pledged seven boys and have over 30 rushees left to select from.

The change of semesters marked a great moving day as the house members all exchanged rooms. Naturally each man redecorated his new room so the house was permeated for a week by the odor of paint and varnish. The most noticeable change was brought about when roommates all chipped in to buy varnish with which to give the woodwork in the rooms a much-needed face-lifting. Another paint project was instituted by the hiring of a new cook. A large group of the Brothers and pledges volunteered to completely clean and paint our kitchens and pantries. Their efforts caused a miraculous transformation for our facilities changed from dreary discouragement to very pleasant, almost homelike, rooms.

Spearheaded by our athletic chairman who was last year's 128-pound intramural wrestling champion, our wrestling aspirants in the intramural tourney this year are as yet undefeated. All you hear around the dinner table any more is men refusing "seconds" because they have to lose five or six pounds before their next match. The championship varsity team of the College can't be more determined than our house "grunt and groaners."

We hope to undertake several projects before the end of the semester. Foremost of these is the planting of our back lot which was filled and graded last summer. Secondly, Epsilon Frank Finley, a horticulture major, plans to restore and replace our aging decorative shrubbery.—JAMES A. MARTIN.

Epsilon Delta Is 10th in Grades

GORDON RALPH
Alpha
Oregon State College

EPSILON DELTA elections were held on Jan. 12 and the new officers are Gordon F. Ralph, Alpha; Byron C. Baxter, Beta; John S. Ferguson, Delta; David M. Jabusch, Gamma; Harry C. Hanna, Epsilon; and Richard T. Hibbert, Zeta. The first activity of winter term was initiation. The new Brothers are Rod Canutt, Clarence Slocum, and Marvin Elbon. One of the highlights of winter term was the annual costume dance. This year the theme was "Pigalee," with the house decorated in a colorful French setting. The Brothers were pleased at the large turnout of fathers who arrived here for Dad's Weekend. More than 60% of the dads were present for the weekend events. Since the last report we have pledged Wilson Moeller.

House grades have shown a marked improvement during the last term. This improvement places XΦ in 10th place among the 30 fraternities on campus.

Dave Jabusch, a sophomore, is a member of the Oregon State Oratory and Extemporaneous Speaking Squads, Thanos, and presently has a major lead in a forthcoming all-school play. Other Brothers in campus activities are David Paine, secretary of Forestry Club; Gordon Ralph, IFC; Lewis Williams, Varsity Wrestling Squad; Harry Hanna, president of O.S.C. Rowing Club; and Sterling Ditsworth, vice president of ΣT.—RICHARD HIBBERT.

Eta Delta Plans 19th Birthday

ARTHUR L. COSTA
Alpha
University of Southern California

WITH eight new actives initiated between the semester break, XΦ at USC now has an active roll of 21. Brothers who hung up their new paddles were Hal Atwood, Phil Battaglia, Bob Burke, Don Durbin, Hal Hall, Chuck Poss, Jack Pursell, and Ron Young. Before becoming active, Eta Delta's newest brothers spent five days giving the house the once-over. The pledges, following an "instructed" program, were kept busy cleaning, scrubbing, painting, polishing, raking, and mowing.

Alpha for his last semester in school is Arthur "Louie-Lou" Costa of Long Beach. Other new officers are Don "Storm" Case, Beta; Donald Fouts, Gamma; William Tilden, Delta; Robert Burke, Epsilon; Andy Gall, Zeta; and Phil Battaglia, social chairman.

USC suffered its usual enrollment drop this spring, but it seemed to hurt the 34 fraternities the most. With only 150 men going through rushing, Eta Delta managed to pledge four through its three parties. The first was a stag spaghetti dinner held at the house. Alpha Costa played a double rôle as he cooked the meal and then grabbed his guitar and teamed up with Brother Gall on the accordion to provide entertainment. The two remaining parties were held at the homes of Brother Van Dolah in Studio City, and Bob Clark, Eta Delta '52, in Beverly Hills. Both events were date affairs with combos for dancing.

Although USC's fraternity grade averages have not yet been released, Eta Delta has hopes of placing within the upper six scholastically of the 34 fraternities on campus.

Housemother Sue Branan received news that Monte Catterlin has been promoted to the position of head personnel director of Eniwetok Island, one of USA's atomic proving grounds. The Chapter learned recently that John Beddoe who was reactivated into the Navy, is now head of the Navy Recruiting

Miss Sue Branan, Housemother for Eta Delta Chapter at USC, received Christmas messages from 93 chapter members who now live all over the world office in Oklahoma City. Ronald Bradford recently married Valerie Tyler, $\Delta\Delta\Pi$; and Lawrence Wolf married Nancy Taylor, $\text{KA}\Theta$.

The Chapter's pledges this spring are Ed Hager of Lancaster, Pa., a transfer from Duke University; Robert Warren, Eugene, Ore.; John Prince, and Gilbert Stephenson.

For the 18th time, Eta Delta's Housemother, Sue Branan, will bake the traditional Eta Delta birthday cake for the big party on April 6. The Chapter will be 19 years old. Sue, as we call her, came to us in 1934 and has baked all our birthday cakes except one when she had an operation. We consider Sue as much a part of our Chapter as we do our house. She is always ready with a humorous story of past events in the house, news from Alumni all over the world, general events of the day, or a verbatim run-down on the baseball scores during the season. Baseball is Sue's favorite sport. Her uncle was a close associate of the late John McGraw, so the New York Giants are her favorites. On the Pacific Coast, she follows the Los Angeles Angels, and attends many of the home games at Wrigley Field where she sits up in the "old-timers'" box.

At the age of 73, Sue claims to be the oldest fraternity or sorority Housemother in the United States. However, she is still full of spunk. She is always ready to make sandwiches and coffee for a group of hungry boys even if it's three in the morning. Being a postmaster in Georgia for 15 years, Sue has as yet to lose her touch for letters. She greets the mailman every day and pigeonholes the mail for the house. She is now planning on attending the next Chi Phi Congress in Atlanta in September. Sue says it would take a couple of volumes to say everything she knows about $\text{X}\Phi$ and Eta Delta. We feel it would take just as much space to tell about her life and activities in the house.

One thing Eta Delta can say about its Mothers' Club—it's great. The mothers have been showing tremendous interest in doing things for the house besides enjoying themselves at their meetings. At their rummage sale last fall they netted $200. A benefit card party on Valentine's Day netted $100. All their earnings are given to the Chapter for house improvement. This is exemplified by their down payment on the refrigerator and deep freeze. During "Health Week" they purchased a new back door for the house. Previous to the card party they bought the house three new card tables and 16 chairs.

They are now going to buy asphalt, cork, or rubber tiling for the upstairs hall and two rooms downstairs. They also plan to buy new chairs for the dining room and have the porch furniture recovered.

Headed by Mrs. Louise Tilden, the mothers plan another rummage sale in April and a benefit turkey dinner in May. They are planning a social outing and meeting at the Laguna Beach home of Mrs. Floyd Case.—ANDY GALL.

Theta Delta Joins Celebration

GEORGE L. POSTLE, Alpha
University of Florida

THETA DELTA, along with the other fraternities, sororities, and organizations at the University of Florida, has many plans for a full spring. The University of Florida is celebrating its 100th birthday during this spring semester, and Theta Delta Brothers and pledges are taking an active part in the many programs. The middle of March is the high point of the celebration with many men of national prominence expected to be present, including Gen. James A. Van Fleet. Chi Phi will take part in the intramural programs which have been scheduled for the entertainment of the University's guest. Theta Delta will be there to help when "Florida Cheers 100 Years."

Additional plans for the big week call for a dance at the house Saturday night for the Brothers, pledges, their dates, and guests. This will be the third dance of the semester. A very successful square dance was enjoyed during the month of February. March started with a big week end. Military Ball, with its many activities, was another excellent reason for a party at the house one night and a dance at the beautiful Florida Gym the other.

At present plans are in the making for the annual Spring Frolics. Spring Frolics shall bring another famous band to the campus for the enjoyment of the Student Body. At present, Theta Delta plans include the annual Spring Banquet, given in honor of the Brothers who are graduating; attending the big dance in the Florida Gym after the banquet to complete the activities for Friday, April 24. Saturday will start with a picnic at one of the beautiful lakes around Gainesville. At sunset we shall return to the house for a Costume Ball.

After having won the swimming trophy in its league last fall, Theta Delta has been water-logged.

More honors for Theta Delta Brothers have been announced. Doug Price has been selected to the 1953 Hall of Fame. Doug was selected along with 24 other students for their many achievements and services rendered while attending the University. Another Brother, Jack Kimbrough, has also brought honors to Theta Delta. Jack was elected to Blue Key. Theta Delta is proud of these men, and we hope that their achievements will present a challenge to the rest of the Brothers and pledges.

Newly initiated Brothers are Joe S. Everett, Charles C. Robshaw, Al Vincents, Arland B. Gustafson, Miami; James E. Harris, Pensacola; James C. Ridgway, Crestview; Fredrick C. Pohemus, Panama City; Mitchell Kreher, Tampa; and James E. Squires, Jacksonville.

Newly elected officers for the spring semester include: George L. Postle, Orlando, Alpha; Charles R. Schumacker, Sebring, Beta; Anthony Papalas, Bradenton, Gamma; James W. Joiner, Ft. Pierce, Delta; Donald L. Hardy, Oviedo, Epsilon; Herbert M. Law, Tampa, Zeta.—HERBERT M. LAW.

Letter from Tokyo

January 12, 1953

DEAR BROTHER ROSSER,

Enclosed is a money order for $5 for my Alumni Dues for 1953.

I have just finished reading the December issue of THE CHAKETT, and as usual was happy to find out the goings on in the Chapters and to read about the Congress. THE CHAKETT is always forwarded to me from home which is best because I never know when my address may change.

I am with the Air Force in Tokyo now assigned to the 2143rd Air Weather Wing and expect to remain in Japan until September, 1954. This is an interesting country, but such a long hitch makes me all the more anxious to get back to the University of Florida.

Fraternally,

George Spaur, Epsilon Delta '25, left, Oregon state forester, presented Head Coach Ted Ogdahl of the Willamette University football team, 100 Port Orford cedar seedlings to be given to the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce, prior to his departure with the team for the annual University of Hawaii-Willamette football game. Promoted

THREE men who hold degrees in chemistry from Penn State recently received important promotions at the Esso Laboratories of the Standard Oil Development Co., at Linden, N. J.

Dr. Carl O. Tongberg '36 has been named director of the Research Division at the Esso Laboratories. Gordon W. Duncan, Alpha Delta '35, has become assistant director of the same division, while Dr. Joseph P. Hamer '41 now heads the Automotive Fuels and Lubricants Section.

Duncan received his B.A. in arts and letters from the College in 1935 and his M.S. in chemical engineering in 1937. He also joined Esso in 1937. Since that time, he has been issued several patents in the fields of solvent extraction, rust preventives, fuels, lubricants and greases. A member of Chi Phi fraternity, he is married to the former Jane Fernsler '36. His father is Dr. David Duncan, Alpha Delta '11, head of the College department of physics. His brother is Donald Duncan, Alpha Delta '40.—Penn State Alumni News.

Insurance Director

W. COLQUITT CARTER, Eta '25, Atlanta attorney, has been elected a director of Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Co. of Greensboro, N. C.

Mr. Carter succeeds Judge Shepard Bryan of Atlanta.

Mr. Carter, a native Atlantian, is a graduate of the University of Georgia, and from Harvard Law School, where he received his L.L.B. degree. He has practiced law here since being admitted to the Georgia bar in 1927.—Atlanta Journal.

Good Job, Herb!

We know nothing whatever about what personal, business, political or other considerations led Governor Anderson to appoint a new state insurance commissioner to succeed A. Herbert Nelson, Gamma Delta '27. We've no reason to doubt that the new appointment is a good one.

But we do know that Herb Nelson was a good insurance commissioner, one of the best in the state's history, from the standpoint of the public and in the view of all the insurance men we've asked about him, and we think we're speaking for Minnesotans generally when we congratulate him on an unusually able and public-spirited job and wish him well as he returns to private life.—Minneapolis Star.

John J. Healy, Gamma Delta '28, was recently appointed manager of sales, Brake Drum Div., Copperweld Steel Co., of Glassport, Pa. His business address is 122 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago, but he is maintaining his home in Minneapolis.
