Have You Contributed to Chi Phi's Greatness?

IN paying your Alumni Dues of $5.00 annually, you have the opportunity of maintaining the heritage of a fine, old Fraternity. It is the privilege of each member to participate in the organizational work and the spiritual welfare of Chi Phi. You do not need to be an undergraduate member on the campus. You do not need to be an active member of a Chi Phi Club. You need only to have been initiated to recognize your Chi Phi duties.

The Alumni Dues Campaign Gives You This Opportunity.

- The payment of your Alumni Dues insures the proper contact, visitation, and inspection of Chapters by Fraternity officers.
- The payment of your Alumni Dues helps to maintain the Chi Phi National Office with its minimum staff whose duties include all of the clerical work of the Fraternity—the correlation of all fraternal activities, alumni and undergraduate.
- The payment of your Alumni Dues helps to provide all members with THE CHAKETT, a bond between all members everywhere in the world.
- The payment of your Alumni Dues will strengthen Chapters and aid expansion.

End the old year properly and start the new one promptly by drawing your check for your Alumni Dues Now to

Let's talk it over

CONGRESS is over and a very nice one it was. As everyone knows, this Congress celebrated the 100th year of continuous existence of our Zeta Chapter. I personally wish to thank everyone connected with the Congress for helping to make it the grand success that it was. Elsewhere in this issue you will find a story about the Congress. I hope you will read it as I am sure it will inspire you.

In this column I am going to touch on a few highlights, which will also appear in the Congress story for the purpose of adding emphasis to them. The first of these is the reelection of Brother Carl J. Gladfelter as Grand Alpha of the Fraternity. Our Fraternity should be very happy about this as Brother Gladfelter is one of our very finest leaders.

The Congress was confronted with a situation that affects the entire Fraternity, financially and otherwise, when it appeared that most of the Chapters had not initiated a normal number of men. That story appeared in the last issue of THE CHAKETT, but it should be emphasized again in this issue. We are urging every Chapter to do its utmost to keep its roster filled with desirable Chi Phis. When we fail to do this, we pay for it both nationally and locally.

The Congress had before it several constitutional amendments affecting the Fraternity as a whole. Two of those amendments were adopted. One of them fixes a pledge fee of $10.00 per man, to be paid within 60 days after the man is pledged. This pledge fee is credited on his initiation fee when he is taken into the Fraternity. If he is never initiated, he forfeits the pledge fee. I am certain that this will benefit each Chapter as well as the entire Fraternity.

The second amendment adopted gives the Council the right to hold Zone Meetings. For several years we have been holding these meetings without official authority. Now we have the authority and I hope each Chapter will give this matter some thought. For the information of the Fraternity at large, our Fraternity is divided into five zones—the New England and New York Zone, the Middle Atlantic Zone, the Southern Zone, the Midwestern Zone, and the Pacific Zone. I hope each of these Zones will hold a meeting this year, and if they do, I promise that I, or some other member of the Council, will attend each of the Zone Meetings. We have found in the past few years that these meetings have been very, very helpful in ironing out many problems affecting Chapters in a particular Zone. The first meeting of this kind was held by the New York and New England Chapters several years ago with Omicron as the host chapter, and was a great success. It inspired us to hold other such meetings. One Chapter in the Zone acts as host and invites the other Chapters to send delegates. They meet for one day or a day and a half, discussing their problems. I hope each of our Chapters will give serious consideration to the matter of acting as host to a Zone Meeting. A bulletin will go out to the Chapters in the near future, concerning these Zone Meetings.

Our pledge manual, An Introduction to Chi Phi, has been brought up to date and the new edition is now being distributed to the Chapters upon receipt of the No. 0 Reports (pledge reports). The Constitution requires that each pledge be given one of these books at a cost of $1.00 per book to the Chapter.

The Chapters have received from this office a bulletin concerning the amendments to the Constitution, and one with reference to late reports. We are particularly concerned about getting reports on time. The reports that are filed late certainly upset the work in this office. For that reason, I am specifically requesting the cooperation of all the Chapters in getting their reports in to us on time.

There was some discussion at the Congress with reference to changing that part of the Constitution and Laws affecting the election of chapter officers. I was instructed by the Congress to canvass the Chapters, asking for their views on this subject, and our next bulletin will also cover this question.

The Council of the Fraternity, and the Grand Alpha in particular, feels that each Chapter should have more visitations than they have had in the past. Your National Director certainly concurs in this opinion. It is a little bit difficult for me to visit the Chapters in the fall as I am in the midst of winding up the Congress business, getting out this issue of THE CHAKETT, and publishing The Record of Congress. In addition to that, the Chapters are very much concerned with their rushing and a visitation in the midst of a rush week can be very inconvenient for a Chapter. However, I intend to start my visitations earlier this year than I have in the past and I would like for each of the Chapters to write me, suggesting the time that will be most convenient for my visit. It is hard on me as well as the Chapter when my visit comes at an inconvenient time for the Chapter. If I should arrive on the night you had planned a formal dance or something of that sort, my visit would be of no value whatsoever. Please pin-point the time you want me to pay you a visit and I will do my best to be with you at that time.

As most of you know, it is customary at our Congresses to hold many ritualistic ceremonies for the benefit of our delegates. One of these ceremonies is a model initiation. This year the Zeta Chapter conducted this part of our program, with your National Director being inducted into the Zeta Chapter in a real, not a model, initiation. I have

1954 Congress Adopts Constitutional Amendments

THE Congress of the Chi Phi Fraternity was convened in Lancaster, Pa., at 10:00 o'clock A.M. on the morning of Thursday, Sept. 9, 1954. The lodgeroom was set up in the ballroom of the Brunswick Hotel, and every Chapter was represented with the exception of three. Brother James Z. Appel, Zeta '28, general chairman of the Congress committee, was unanimously elected Alpha of Congress and did a beautiful job of keeping the business sessions moving smoothly. He also seemed to have a hand in everything else that went on during the four days the Congress was in session.

Brother Donald M. Mylin, Zeta '14, welcomed the delegates and other Brothers attending the Congress, in a most interesting talk. He reviewed the history of the city of

The 1954 Congress at Lancaster, Pa., will go down in Chi Phi history as one of the most notable. Here is a pictorial record of persons and events. 1. The Zeta members received delegates and guests at the registration desk. 2. The present Grand Alpha, Carl J. Gladfelter, left, posed with two past Grand Alphas—Luther Z. Rosser, Omega '08, Eta '08, Gamma '09, and Zeta '54, and A. H. Hutchinson, Xi '09. 3. Undergraduates at the banquet. 4. A birdseye view of the banquet. 5. Lancaster, Franklin & Marshall College, and the Zeta Chapter, all three of which have made steady progress side by side during the past one hundred years. He outlined the very interesting program of social events planned for the entertainment of those attending the Congress and urged all of the Brothers to participate.

The first business session was taken up with the routine business of organization, reports, the Grand Lecture, and an address by the Grand Alpha, Brother Carl J. Gladfelter. Brother Gladfelter covered a wide range of topics of interest to those attending the Congress, and closed the session with the Grand Lecture.

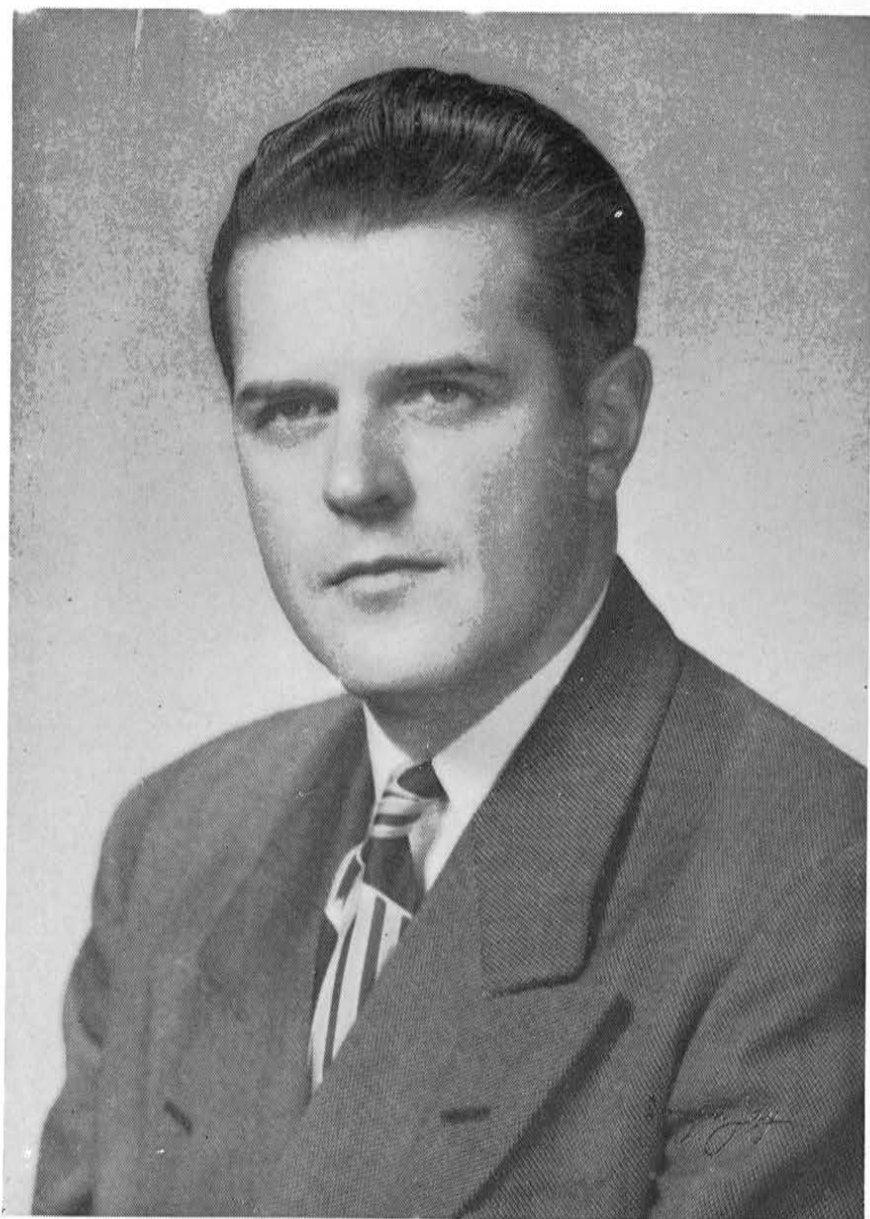

At the second session, held on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 9, some proposed amendments to the Constitution and Laws of the Fraternity were presented to the delegates, after which the group broke up into Zone Meetings, followed by committee meetings.

The Friday morning session got under way with an examination on the Written and Unwritten Law. The next order of business was the election of a Grand Alpha, and Brother Carl J. Gladfelter, Alpha-Tau '33, was reelected unanimously. Several reports followed, after which Brother O. B. Williams, Nu '21, acting in the place of our Scholarship Counselor, Dr. Frederick M. Hunter, read the report of the Scholarship Counselor and awarded the plaque, given annually to the Chapter with the highest rating above the All-Men average, to the Zeta Chapter. This was the second consecutive year the plaque had been won by the Zeta Chapter. Dr. Williams also presented the Sparks Memorial Medals to the member of each Chapter achieving the highest scholastic average during the past school year.

At 2:00 o'clock P.M. the Fourth Session convened, and the reports of the Zone and Committee Meetings were presented to the Congress. At this point Brother Hugh M. Dorsey, Grand Eta, presented six proposed amendments to the Constitution and Laws, and explained their purpose to the delegates. The principal changes to be effected by the amendments were the addition of a $10.00 pledge fee and the granting of authority to the Council to hold Zone Meetings. The pledge fee is to be collected by the Chapter and remitted to the National Office within 60 days after the man is pledged. When he is initiated, the pledge fee becomes a credit on the initiation fee. These two amendments and three others, conforming pertinent sections of the Constitution and Laws, were adopted. The sixth amendment, which sought to change

Re-elected for another term of office, Carl J. Gladfelter, Alpha-Tau '33, will continue to serve Chi Phi as Grand Alpha. Brother Gladfelter, former Grand Epsilon, was elected Alpha-Elect at the Cincinnati Congress in 1952. He served on the Council for a year as required by the constitution before becoming Grand Alpha in September, 1953. Brother Gladfelter is assistant professor of marketing in the School of Business Administration at the University of Connecticut, Storrs. He was secretary-treasurer of the Alpha-Tau Chapter House Assn. before he became Grand Zeta in the Council of Pollard Turman

the terms of chapter officers, was tabled.

The Fifth Session of the Congress was held on Saturday morning in the Chapel of the "Old Main" building on the campus of Franklin & Marshall College. After the invocation, Brother James W. Moyer, Zeta '32, addressed the Congress and held his audience spellbound for half an hour. The Libations and Memorial Services were conducted by the Grand Alpha, the Grand Eta, and the Grand Epsilon, after which the Candlelight Ceremony was performed beautifully by members of the Zeta Chapter. At the close of this session the entire body of the Congress marched across the campus to the Zeta chapter house, where a plaque was unveiled in memory of Dr. Theodore Burton Appel, a Grand Officer in the Fraternity for 31 years until the date of his death in 1939. The plaque was presented to the Zeta Chapter by the Council of the Fraternity after an inspiring talk by Brother William A. Schnader on the life of Dr. Appel, and was unveiled by Theodore Burton Appel, III, a member of the Zeta Chapter and a grandson of Dr. Appel. The Council presented Mrs. Appel, widow of Dr. Appel, with a bouquet of red roses and a Chi Phi sweetheart pin. Unfortunately, Mrs. Appel had sustained a fracture of the hip just the week before the Congress and was confined to her room in the hospital. The roses and the pin were delivered to her by her illustrious son and physician-surgeon, our Dr. "Jim" Appel.

The social activities planned by the Congress committee were numerous, varied, and generally excellent entertainment. On Wednesday evening a stag smoker was held at the Brunswick Hotel and the good food and fun were enjoyed by all who attended. On Thursday night the delegates were entertained at a typical Pennsylvania Dutch Dinner at Brickerville. The tables groaned under the weight of such hearty dishes as chicken pot pie, pepper cabbage, and shoe-fly pie, and we made our way back to Lancaster surfeited with contentment and calories. The Centennial Banquet and Ball on Friday night were highlights of the social program. At the banquet the Council Plaque, for outstanding service to the Fraternity, was presented to Brother

Judge Edmund C. Wingerd, Zeta '06, attended Zeta's Centennial and the 1954 Congress. He was also present at the Semi-Centennial Congress at Franklin & Marshall in 1904. Judge Wingerd is Judge of the 39th Judicial District at Chambersburg, Pa. He received his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania where he belonged to Phi Delta Phi, legal fraternity

Eugene T. Benham by Brother Carl J. Gladfelter. Brother Benham was Grand Alpha of the Fraternity from 1949 to 1953. The Ball was one of the liveliest in the memory of this scribe, the regular dance numbers being interspersed with such novelties as "The Hokey Pokey," "The Mexican Hat Dance" and the "Bunny Hop." The festivities lasted well into the morning hours with everyone still going strong when the members of the orchestra swung into "Good Night, Ladies." After the unveiling of the plaque on Saturday morning, the Zeta Chapter entertained the delegates and their friends at a delightful buffet luncheon at the house. Much later the delegates said their reluctant good-byes and started the trek back to their respective homes, with everyone in agreement that this was one of best of the many Congresses attended by any of us.

Chi Phis had Dutch Country food at the Brunswick Hotel, Lancaster, Pa., headquarters for the Centennial celebration of Zeta Chapter and the 1954 Congress

Star Salesman Starts 5th Decade

DEAN of Rust Craft salesmen, president of the Quarter Century Club, holder of our long service record, Rust Craft's severest critic and one of its most loyal and devoted admirers, Charlie Stevens, Delta '02, marked his 40th year as a Rust Crafter, in August, 1953.

Born in Newark, N. J., in 1879, Charlie has lived in New Jersey ever since (in New Brunswick the past few years). As a Rutgers University graduate, he began his sales career with F. P. Collier Co., and then became associated with a New Hampshire calendar firm. On Aug. 1, 1913, he came to Rust Craft.

Our founder, Fred Rust, when reviewing company history some years ago, said of Charlie, "... he came to us shortly after we moved from Kansas City to Boston, and was of great assistance to us in expanding and developing our lines. He has been of great assistance to us every day since."

As Rust Craft's first salesman he had unlimited territory and could travel anywhere in the United States where he could get an order. Needless to add, he got them. Later and for many years, he covered the large accounts in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Washington, D. C. He is still handling a limited number of accounts in New York City and his home town in New Brunswick, and is still producing and increasing. Greeting cards, Rust Craft, and Charlie are inseparable.

A good salesman sells himself as well as his product. The selling record marked "Stevens" in the Rust Craft files over a period of 40 years speaks loudly and vigorously both of the quality of the man and the quality of his selling. They show character, integrity and wearability.

His sales experience, his knowledge of consumer wants, his feeling (now second nature to him) for the just right approach to all situations has made him one of our most trustworthy, though sometimes severe, critics. When Charlie says a card will not sell, it does not sell. The suggestions he offered at our sales conference in 1953 showed the same sound judgment and were as timely as those he made in earlier years. His hand on the pulse of the public is as sensitive and as keen as always.

Many of our best salesmen have come to us through Charlie and to him they give credit for his advice and counsel over the years. His relationship with Rust Craft and his fellow Rust Crafters is, and always has been, one based on mutual admiration, respect and interest in each other's welfare.

Rust Craft takes great pride in Charlie Stevens and in each of the 40 years he has served it, just as Charlie Stevens takes pride in the progress and development of the company with which he grew up and to which he contributed so much.

At present in Wyoming, he is expected home shortly. A veteran traveler and fisherman, he goes to Maine twice a year and to Florida

Outstanding Students Win Sparks Memorial Medals

THE Sparks Memorial Medals were first awarded in 1925, in honor of Edwin Erle Sparks, who was President Emeritus of Pennsylvania State College at the time of his death in 1924. He was one of the great Chi Phis, and contributed generously of his time and talents to his Fraternity as well as to the world of education.

Upon the adoption of a resolution introduced by Brother Alfred H. Hutchinson, the Congress of 1924 authorized the medals, the design of which is symbolic. The bar pin bears the fasces of the Hobart Order. The medal is suspended by a scarlet and blue ribbon, the colors being identical with those which were affixed to the charters granted by the Hobart Order. The medal itself is an embossed replica of the old Princeton pin and bears the symbolic swords and stars of the Southern Order. On the bar is the Greek word παιδεία which means, "Learning acquired by education." At the top and bottom of the Phi is the name "Sparks Medal."

This medal is awarded to the man in each chapter who has attained the highest scholastic standing for that year. The only stipulation in connection with this award is that the winner shall have been a member of the chapter during the entire school year. The faculties of the various colleges select the winners, and extracurricular activities are not considered except in case of a tie.

The Sparks Memorial Medals, for excellence in scholarship, were awarded in 1947 for the first time after the beginning of World War II.

It is a custom of the Fraternity to make public the name of the winners of the Sparks Medals at the Congress.

Six of the 1954 awardees have been recipients of the Medals in previous years. Martin C. Growald '53 was Alpha's honor student in 1952. Joseph S. Gillespie, Jr. '54 represented Epsilon the same year. Hampden-Sydney honored him by selection to ΦBK. Thomas E. Headrick '55 of Zeta is captain of Franklin and Marshall's soccer team this year, social chairman, and chapter Beta. F. Richard Jones '55 won the award in 1953. He has served as Nu Chapter's Beta and Delta. David G. Briggs '54 stood first in 1953 at Chi Chapter. Richard Turnblade, Delta Delta '54, is a third time winner. A member of Scabbard and Blade at UCLA, he is a battalion commander, on the Rally Committee, and a member of TBII, engineering honor society.

second year in the State General Assembly of Virginia, Temple, Epsilon '35, holds seventy posts as a member of the Public Institutions on, Insurance and Banking, and General Laws.

Engineers seem to stand high among Sparks Medal winners. Milton L. Almquist, Jr., Beta '54, also belongs to TBII at MIT. He was on the Dean's List for eight terms. He served HKN, honor society in electrical engineering, as recording and corresponding secretary. He was secretary and vice president of the Electrical Engineering Student-Faculty committee. He was on the sailing team and a member of the Nautical Assn.

Roger Youmans '56 belongs to AEY, lower division honor society, at Emory. Last year he ranked seventh and this year fifth in a class of 300. Gamma had some stiff competition for him. William F. Morgan was second in the Freshman Class and Bill Pavlovsky was sixth in the Freshman Class and 11th in the Sophomore Class this year. William A. Dunn '54 belonged to IITΣ, mechanical engineering fraternity, at Rutgers. L. Neil Conrad, Jr., Eta '54, graduated from the University of Georgia in the top one-fifth of the class. He was vice president of ΠΣΕ, national marketing fraternity. The Association of Advertising Men and Women of New York chose him as the University of Georgia representative to "Inside Advertising Week," a program which they sponsor. Neil is a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force, taking pilot training at Bainbridge, Ga.

Theta's recipient is Roger C. Rapp '56, a guard on the RPI football team. Charles A. Dozer '56 is Iota's winner at Ohio State University. John had time at large. A director of the Chest, past president of the Chamber of Commerce in Petersburg, former vice president of the organization, a member of the Central Committee and the Jewell '56, he was honored with the Distinguished Service by his scholarship. He is a political science, studying for U.S. Foreign Service. He is a varsity debator. He is Zeta of the Chapter. Swimming, sailing, and hiking are his hobbies.

Tau Beta Pi, Khoda, the senior men's society at Stevens, and the presidency of the Student Council occupy the time of Edwin J. Hess, Mu '55. He was chosen president of the Senior Class but relinquished the honor because of the other major office. Alvin R. Beatty, Xi

'54, is back at Cornell doing post-graduate work. Last year he was editor-in-chief of The Cornellian, yearbook. Omicron's winner is Lewis P. James, Jr., '54. Robert Christopher '54 served Pi at Northwestern as Alpha for two terms. Eugene C. McCreary, Rho '54, is studying in Germany. Sigma's and Tau's star scholars are James V. Gray '56 and Robert J. Naumann, respectively. At Phi Charles H. Barnaby '55 is top man.

J. Robert Stemler, Psi '54, was graduated cum laude from Lehigh last spring and is a development engineer in the structural section of the sales development division of Alcoa, New Kensington, Pa. On campus he was president of XE, civil engineering honor society and Psi's Delta. Emory Jenks, Jr., went to Georgia Tech as a veteran on the GI Bill. He received a commendation from the Commanding General of the Armed Forces in the Far East and the Combat Infantryman's Badge while he was in the service. Now a junior, the Omegan was pledgemaster last year. During his freshman year he won a medal as the outstanding student in the Engineer Corps of the ROTC. He received his letters in freshman football and basketball. He is a member of ΦHΣ, freshman honorary. Samuel T. Haddock, Alpha-Alpha '52, is a member of the Freshman Class of the Emory University School of Medicine. When he was at the University of North Carolina he was rush chairman, head manager of varsity soccer, and a member of the North Carolina Monogram Club. Robert M. Halleen, Alpha-Tau '55, is a senior in the University of Michigan's College of Engineering, majoring in mechanical engineering. He, too, belongs to ΦHΣ, TBII, and IITΣ. He is president of the University Lutheran Chapel. Last spring he was Alpha-Tau's social chairman. At present he is Gamma.

In 1952 Bob Spiller was Alpha-Chi's Sparks Medal winner. He also won the James J. Nance Award—$200—for a research paper in the field of Human Relations in Industry. This year Earl A. Spiller '56, Alpha-Chi's Gamma, is the Ohio Wesleyan scholar. Brother

Spiller collected the same $200 prize. He is a debator on the varsity team, in a Capella Choir, men's Glee Club, and he is treasurer of ΦMA, men's music honorary. He belonged to Phi Society, honor group for sophomores. He has served each year on the class council of Student Government. This year he is on the budget committee. Wilson B. Cramer, Alpha Delta '54, had a varied career at Penn State University. He belonged to ΦHΣ, was on the Dean's List, and was on the Dairy Judging team. He was a member of the Blue Band, Thespians, and of Pershing Rifles. He is working for his master's degree at the Wharton Graduate School at the University of Pennsylvania. The University of Washington chapter's outstanding scholar is Gilbert W. Keyes, Beta Delta '50. Arnold W. Lindall '60 is Gamma Delta's medalist. Delta Delta Chapter has two representatives. Walter Doucett, current Alpha, shares the honor with Dick Turnblade. Walter belongs to TBII, too. Paul Rodney Canutt, Epsilon Delta '55, is the Oregon State chapter's Delta. Eta Delta's past Alpha, Charles L. Poss, was chosen from the USC chapter.

The University of Florida still claims Joe S. Everett, Theta Delta '54. He is a second semester Freshman in the College of Law. In December, 1950, Joe started to win honors. He was elected to $\Phi H \Sigma$, the freshman honor society. In May, 1953, $\Pi \Sigma \Lambda$, political science honorary, elected him to membership. Last January he was selected by $\Phi B K$ and $\Phi K \Phi$. In May, 1954, $\Phi A \Theta$, history honor society, chose him as a member. Phi Kappa Phi does not choose a man for membership unless he has made many contributions to campus life. Joe's major service was in Student Government. For four and a half years he served as cashier in the cafeteria. He is an assistant resident adviser in the Housing Department at the present time. During the summer he plays softball for the Clearwater, Fla., Bombers. In 1953 he was selected as second baseman on the All-World All-Star team.

Brother Everett's achievements are not unusual for an outstanding student. The busier the man is the better he knows how to regiment time. He learns how to adapt, to adjust, to concentrate. He knows how to chose between the essential and the less important. Somewhere along the line he learned how to discipline himself. He knows why he is in college and what he wants to achieve.

It is always an honor to be chosen to receive the Sparks Memorial Medal. When there is real competition among members in each Chapter for the honor, the scholarship average in the Chapter will improve substantially.

A Fair Swap

HOMER HOWARD, Iota '97, the Travelers Insurance man, looked up from The Citizen—he was reading track news in sports—and recalled: "I got my frat pin just 58 years ago this spring."

That would be in 1896—he was a Chi Phi at Ohio State and a member of the track team. He had no pin—but he had seen the pin he wanted in the D. L. Auld window on Gay St. The tag said $5. Homer failed to have the five or any part thereof.

"I could kick real high," Mr. Howard recalled. "So I lobbied until they put the high kick in the track meet. I won, but I got the least attractive prize. It was a dozen cans of silver polish, donated by Goldsmith's Music Store."

Homer took his carton of silver polish around the corner, and traded it to Mr. Auld for the Chi Phi pin.—The Columbus Citizen.

The Press Covers Chi Phi Congress

ALUMNI and delegates of the 33 Chapters of Chi Phi Fraternity were guests at a model initiation and smoker at Hotel Brunswick as the four-day national Congress convened here.

Zeta Chapter of Franklin and Marshall College is host Chapter to the Congress. The local Chapter is celebrating its 100th anniversary.

Judge Luther Z. Rosser of Atlanta, Ga., National Director of the Fraternity, was accepted as an honorary member of Zeta Chapter in initiation ceremonies. Following the model initiation, the approximately 80 fraternity members present became acquainted during the course of a smoker.

Business sessions will start this morning with Carl J. Gladfelter, of Storrs, Conn., president of the Fraternity, presiding. Election of a Congress president will follow.

Members will attend a Pennsylvania Dutch dinner at Die Scheier, Bricker-ville, tonight. Business sessions will be continued tomorrow. A centennial dinner will be held tomorrow night at the hotel, followed by a centennial ball. A chapel service is planned for 10 A.M. Saturday. Chapter lunch in the F&M house will follow.

Dr. James Z. Appel is general chairman of the Chi Phi committee. He is being assisted by Samuel Altdoerffer, Richard H. Bard and James P. Serves in Assembly SERVING his second term in the Senate of the '54 General Assembly of Virginia, John H. Temple, Epsilon '35, holds several important posts as a member of the Committees on Public Institutions and Education, Insurance and Banking, Welfare, and General Laws.

Brother Temple, sales director for the Delta Oil Co., has established an outstanding record as a civic leader in both his home town of Petersburg and the community at large. A director of the Community Chest, past president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in Petersburg, and former vice president of the State Jaycee organization, a member of the City Central Committee and the Kiwanis Club, he was honored with the Award for Distinguished Service by his fellow citizens of Petersburg three years ago.

Justice in Dade County, Florida, is Served by

4 Chi Phi Judges

JUSTICE in Dade County, Fla., is meted out by Chi Phis. In May primary elections they broke all sorts of records. Robert L. Floyd, aged 36, is the youngest man ever to be elected to the circuit bench just as he was the youngest man ever to serve as Miami's mayor when he was elected to that post nine years ago. Brother Floyd moved to the bench from the state legislature. Ray Pearson won his reelection for a second term as Judge of the Court of Crimes without opposition. Judge George E. Holt, also a Circuit Court Judge, garnered the largest number of votes cast in the election. Tillman Pearson won the nomination for Judge of the Civil Court of Record. Since the Democratic primaries in Florida are tantamount to election, the nomination is a big hurdle.

Judge George E. Holt, Alpha-Pi '25, has served on the bench since 1941 when he was appointed Circuit Court Judge for the Eleventh Judicial Circuit by Gov. Spessard

Judge George E. Holt, Alpha-Pi '25, is a Circuit Court Judge, serving the 11th District since his appointment in 1941

L. Holland. In 1947 he was an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Florida. In 1948 he ran again, without opposition, for the Circuit Court judgeship. From 1949-53 he served as president of the Circuit Judges of Florida, being reelected four times and serving four consecutive years. In 1949 he acted as the representative from southeastern United States on a study tour to Israel. That year he also became the Senior Circuit Judge in the Eleventh Judicial District. He presides over a court consisting of 10 Circuit Judges, including himself. During the war years he served as training officer in the temporary reserve of the Coast Guard and then as commanding officer of its Port Authority. He was disenrolled with the rank of Lieutenant Commander and wears the World War II Victory Medal, the American Area Campaign Medal, and the Coast Guard Pistol Expert Medal. In 1952 lawyers of Dade County recommended him to the Governor as one of five in the Fourth Congressional District for appointment to the Supreme Court of Florida. In 1953 he was called and served twice on the Supreme Court. That year he was awarded a certificate of merit by the University of Miami Law School "For outstanding and meritorious service to the legal profession as a lawyer, Professor of law at the University of Miami, Legislator, Judge and Senior Judge of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit of the State of Florida." At the same time he was made an honorary Alumnus of the University of Miami. He had served as professor from 1933-41. During part of the same period, 1937-41, he was a member of the Florida House of Representatives, representing Dade County.

Judge Holt is a Tennessean, being born on Nov. 1, 1902, in Nashville. His education was at the Montgomery Bell Academy in Nashville. In 1924 he was admitted to the Bar by examination and in 1925 he received his LL.B. degree from Vanderbilt. In 1925 he went to Florida and has been a resident of Dade County since that time. He has been treasurer and director of the Dade County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis for the past 10 years. From 1941-1952 he was chairman of the Dade County March of Dimes, being state chairman from 1947-49. He is concluding five years as a vestryman of the Episcopal Church of Resurrection. He was a founder of the parish with four others. He belongs to $\Phi\Delta\Phi$, legal fraternity, Miami Kiwanis, York Rite, Scottish Rite, Mahi Shrine, the Royal Order of Jesters, and the Elks. His wife is the former Christine M. Frix. Their daughter is Mrs. Henry E. B. Kurtz and their son, George E.,

Judge Robert L. Floyd, Theta Delta '40, is the youngest man to be elected to the Circuit Court bench in Florida

II, is a senior at Christ School in Arden, N. C. Henry Holt Kurtz and Everett Brooks Kurtz are their grandsons.

Bob Floyd, Theta Delta '40, won his nomination in a hard, clean fight. He beat the incumbent, Judge Joe Eaton, in the primaries, 51,106 to 47,060. He had served in the 1951 and 1953 sessions of the Florida legislature. Bob was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, on Jan. 4, 1918. He was educated in the public schools of Dade County, Miami Senior High School, the University of Florida, and Washington College of Law, Washington, D. C. In 1939 he went to work for the FBI and served in various cities with the Bureau until 1945 when he returned to Miami to enter private practice. Two years later he became mayor of the city. The Florida Junior Chamber of Commerce selected him as one of the five outstanding young men of the state that year. He was also chosen as one of the 10 outstanding young men of America by the American Business Institute of Research. In 1949 the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce selected him as one of the 10 outstanding young men in the United States.

Bob married Rose Marie Norcross on Sept. 4, 1946. They have two sons and a daughter who was born on July 9. He belongs to ΔΘΦ, legal fraternity, Lions, B.P.-O.E., Scottish Rite, Mahi Temple Shrine, and Grotto.

Ray H. Pearson was Lt. Pearson the last time an extensive account was written about him, back in April, 1946. He was Battery Commander of the Service Battery, supplying and supervising the Herbruck Internment Camp No. 4 in Nurnberg, Germany. Here more than 3,000 war criminals were interned. Prior to that assignment he had been camp commander of the Fonenback Prisoner of War cage where 600 storm troopers were interned. He wears the Bronze Star, two Oak Leaf Clusters, Silver Star, Presidential Citation, and Meritorious Award ribbons. He was in the Battle of the Bulge and his unit joined General Patton's Third Army, captured the Remagen bridgehead, and swung across Bavaria.

Ray had no opposition for his reelection to the 4-year term as Judge of the Court of Crimes in and for Dade County. Last year he was chosen as the outstanding young man in Dade County and in February, 1954, the Florida Junior Chamber of Commerce selected him as one of the five outstanding young men of Florida. Ray had the same kind of honors at the University of Florida. He was Alpha of Theta Delta Chapter. He served as chancellor of the Honor Court and was named to the Hall of Fame. Blue Key chose him as a member. After the war when he returned to civilian life and entered the University School of Law, he was president of the Student Body and head of the Dean's Committee.

Ray's brother, J. Tillman Pearson, Theta Delta '34, was elected Judge of the Civil Court of Record in Dade County in the May primaries. He was a charter member of Theta Delta Chapter, entering the University of Florida in 1929. He has served twice as president of the Florida Chi Phi Assn., and is a past president of the Chi Phi Club of Miami. A native of Wayne County, Ga., Tillman has spent most of his life in South Florida. In 1936, he was graduated with honors from the University of Florida School of Law with a degree of Juris Doctor. Since his admission to the Bar that year, he has been a member of the firm of Miller, Pearson & Miller. He and his wife, the former Mary McCorquodale, have two children, Tillman and Holly. They live at 2495 Trapp Ave., Coconut Grove.

There is another member of the Pearson family who is also a Chi Phi, but he is not a Judge. He is Dr. C. Dade Pearson, Theta Delta '41.

Alumni News

Baker Royer, Z '15, was erroneously reported as having retired from the Pennsylvania State Legislature in the September issue. Being in the middle of a campaign for reelection at the time he read the report, he responded as Mark Twain did when he read of his demise. Mr. Royer is chairman of the Joint State Government Commission of the General Assembly.

Joe E. Blake, president of the Delta Delta Alumni of Chi Phi, Inc., has recently accepted a position with General Water Heater Corp. of Burbank, Cal., as manager of their wall heater division.

MESSAGE FROM THE GRAND ALPHA

If you are going to pay your annual alumni dues of $5.00, skip to the end of this article. Fill out the form and mail it in. You know the value of your contribution.

The rest of us should stop and think of the consequence of not contributing to our Fraternity.

Does "The Chakett" not provide a means of contact, in many cases the only contact, with the Fraternity and its work?

Does the fact that your Chapter receives guidance and direction at the National level have value to you, youth, and the educational program as a whole?

Is the tradition worth preserving and extending?

Failure to bear your share means a less meaningful program and a less efficient direction of Chi Phi's operation. None of us want this.

Your dues are partly used to publish and distribute "The Chakett." Hence you have a direct return for your investment.

Your Council asks that you bear your fair share of the cost. If you feel that this year you can spare more than $5.00, the extra will be applied to current operations under direction of your present Council.

Bear Your Share of the Work!

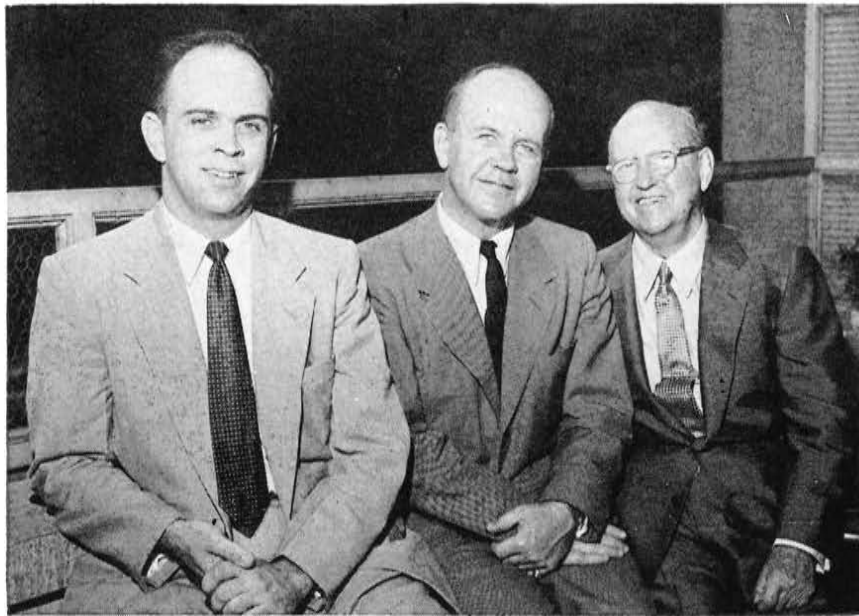

DO IT NOW!

Three Generations Return to RPI

AT THE Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute Commencement exercises in Troy, N. Y., the past June, three graduates representing three generations of the same family and spanning a period of 60 years, were on hand to celebrate their class reunions. All three wear the badge of Chi Phi. They are: George Conrad Diehl, Theta '94; his son, Ray P. Diehl, Theta '29; and Conrad Diehl, Theta '50, grandson of George Conrad Diehl.

A consulting engineer with headquarters at 800 Fifth Ave., New York City, Brother George Conrad Diehl has spent a half-century in construction of highways, bridges, and municipal improvements. For 43 years of that time he was in the public service: 36 years as engineer for Erie County, N. Y., 17 years as State Park Commissioner; and for a time was consultant for the State Highway Commission of New York.

As a highway builder he naturally has been interested in automobile activities and is a past president and life director of the American Automobile Association, the Automobile Old Timers, and the Automobile Club of Buffalo. A life member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, for the past few years he has served as treasurer of the American Institute of Consulting Engineers. Among his other affiliations, Brother Diehl is a Rotarian, and for over 50 years has been a Knight Templar and Shriner.

Ray P. Diehl attended Harvard Business School for two years after graduation at RPI and is now an engineer in the petroleum industry with headquarters at Oklahoma City, Okla. An officer in the U. S. Navy during World War II, Brother Diehl had a part in assembling over 100,000 tons of pontoon equipment on the southern coast of England for later use in establishing invasion beachheads on the Normandy coast and at Le Havre. After V-E Day he served with the 148th Construction Battalion on Okinawa, resuming his career of petroleum engineering in 1946.

Conrad Diehl is now a vibration engineer with Curtiss-Wright Corp., at Woodbridge, N. J. Since beginning work there, he has attended Stevens Institute at night and added an M.S. in mechanical engineering to his B.E. degree. Before graduation from Rensselaer, he completed a two-year hitch with the U. S. Army in Japan.

Two other sons of Brother George Conrad Diehl were Theta Chapter initiates, his eldest son Conrad, Theta '21, deceased, and youngest son George C., Jr., Theta '28. The latter lives in Los Angeles where he is an executive of the California Industrial Realty Corp.

New Novelist

EDGAR E. DANIELS, Alpha-Chi '25, noted psychoanalyst of Long Beach, Cal., is the author of a powerful first novel dealing with psychoanalysis at work. His book, Dark Destiny, has just been released by Vantage Press ($3.00).

Drawing upon an extensive background in psychology—Dr. Daniels was trained at the University of Southern California, the University of Vienna, and the Vienna Psychoanalytic Institute—the author has told the story of a blind man's struggle to find himself. This is a penetrating tale, without clinical jargon, of the emotional stresses and strains pent up in one human being—a wealthy man who rides roughshod over his colleagues, his employes, and the women in his life, but beneath whose domineering exterior lies a frightened, insecure personality. In his book, Dr. Daniels brings into crystal-clear focus the tensions that wreck havoc in modern life, and proves himself to be a first-class novelist.

Following his studies in Europe, Dr. Daniels, who was born in Elkins, W. Va., returned to the United States to practice psychoanalysis until he was called into the armed services in World War II. Following his discharge from the Army, he accepted appointments as industrial consultant for the government and in industry for a period of five years. Since then he has been in private practice in Long Beach where he resides with his wife and twin daughters.

Bank's Birthday

DREAMS are the stuff banks are made of . . . daydreams, not mortar and steel, marble and money. The people who go through bank doors, holding their bank books tightly in their hands are not clutching money. They are holding tightly to their daydreams. They watch intently as the teller adds up the new total of their savings. And they see their dreams coming closer.

When Henry Kingman, Phi '15, president of the Farmers and Mechanics Savings bank, talked to his guests on the occasion of the bank's 80th birthday, he noted that this is the philosophy that governs this bank's policy.

The ballroom of the Nicollet hotel was set with festive, flower-decked tables. When the big cake came in everyone sang, "Happy Birthday dear Ba-ank—Happy Birthday to You."

A plaque was presented to hosteler Neil Messick, which he was to affix to the Hennepin and Washington avenue corner of the hotel. It was here where the bank first made change for citizens of this community 80 years ago.

When Harry F. Phillips, Eta Delta '12, second from the left, was installed as president of the San Pedro, Cal., Realty Board, Judge Joe Raycraft, left, Eta Delta '30, Harry B. Phillips, Delta Delta '40, and Dr. Ray D. Smith, Eta Delta '22, were at the banquet to congratulate him. Judge Raycraft introduced the guests and presented the outgoing president with a remembrance. Brother Phillips and Frank Carrell, now deceased, organized Sigma Tau at USC in 1910. Sigma Tau later became Eta Delta Chapter. The younger Phillips is a son of Harry F. Phillips

Marion Cross, author of the bank's history, was there, as were Mr. and Mrs. John de Laittre, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clifford and Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Larson and Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Vedlen came all the way from California to sing at the birthday party for the institution they helped build.

The president of the National City bank of New York, James Stillman Rockefeller, and his wife, said it was the nicest bank birthday party they had ever attended.—Minneapolis Star.

Earn Security

NATIONS seeking security at the expense of their citizens' freedom finally destroy themselves in the futile quest, Dr. Alfred P. Haake, Kappa '14, special consultant for General Motors, told Georgia Kiwanians at the organization's state convention in Atlanta.

Dr. Haake, Park Ridge, Ill., traveler and lecturer, cited ancient Rome as an example.

"Rome lasted 1,500 years, but degenerated from the mistress of the world to a conglomeration of weaklings, their stamina destroyed by the paternalism of a welfare state," he said.

The Kiwanis Fellowship Luncheon speaker declared: "We have seen in the United States a change from principle to expediency as the basis for public policy, with glorification of secularism and materialism at the expense of moral and spiritual values.

"And the lure that drew us into that yawning chasm has been the hope of something-for-nothing relief from individual responsibility for our well-being."

Dr. Haake said this country can have security, but only as the United States makes itself worthy and earns that security. "The price of security is the building of character through faith, loyalty, and service," he concluded.—BOB SIBLEY in The Atlanta Journal.

Honors Nebraskans

DISTINGUISHED Service Awards will be presented to five University of Nebraska Alumni for service to the University and in professional and public life.

Presentation of the awards, conferred jointly by the Alumni Association and the Board of Regents, will be made at the Alumni Assn. Roundup luncheon in the Student Union.

Recipients are: Spencer Van Cortelou of Los Angeles, a retired assistant state highway engineer for California; Mrs. Mortimer J. Brown of Niagara Falls, N. Y., former Mary Beth Wallace*; James E. Lawrence, AOX '11, of Lincoln, editor of the Lincoln Star; Orval L. Brace of Houston, geologic consultant on gulf petroleum; Glenn S. Everts of Philadelphia, medical director for Curtis Publications.

Mrs. Brown was born in Pawnee City and attended the University from 1902 to 1905.

In 1948 she presented to the University of Nebraska Foundation a gift of $93,000 as a memorial to her husband, a University science graduate. Before her marriage in 1908, she taught at the Omaha YWCA and at Omaha Central High School, where she was instrumental in developing the physical educational program.

After her marriage she moved to Tientsin, China, and taught English in the Girl's High School and English and gymnasium in the North China Women's Normal School. She has been twice cited as one of the five outstanding citizens of Niagara Falls.

Mr. Lawrence, who received his LL.B. degree from the University in 1911, is also a professor of journalism at the University. He is president of the State Historical Society; member of the Lincoln-Lancaster Building Planning Committee; chairman of the State Centennial Planning Commission; and author of articles on Nebraska.

He joined the reportorial staff of the Lincoln Star in 1907 and has been managing editor and editor since 1918. An editorial he wrote after an attempt to lynch an Iowa judge won him an honorable mention for the 1933 Pulitzer editorial prize.—Omaha Sunday World-Herald.

Medical Centennial

EMORY UNIVERSITY awarded six honorary doctors degrees as celebrations of the School of Medicine's 100th anniversary drew to a close. And a large number of distinguished Alumni and guests attending the closing convocation heard a bright future described for the institution.

Dr. Alan Gregg, vice president and medical research director of the Rockefeller Foundation, spoke at the convocation. Held in Glenn Memorial Methodist Church on the Emory campus, it was a feature of a two-day program. The program attracted 1,000 Emory medical graduates.

"We are in happy debt to the founders and supporters of medical schools," Dr. Gregg said. He pointed out that although much in the theory and practice of medicine had changed, "some patterns of conduct and attitudes have not changed.

"These are the scientific methods, which placed a growing importance on the laboratory and lessened the prestige of indoctrination," and the "attitudes of Georgians and Atlanta society toward medical education.

"The wisest gift we can give our children, next to the example we set them, is the opportunity to learn. Religious convictions established Emory and the long view reveals these principles remain when all things transitory have canceled each other out. It is this that remains that we celebrate today."

Among those receiving honorary degrees was Dr. F. Phinzy Calhoun, Sr., Eta '00, who has practiced surgery of the eye in Atlanta for more than 50 years. The hood for the doctor of laws degree was placed over his shoulders by his son, Dr. F. Phinzy Calhoun, Jr., Eta '32, chairman of the department of ophthalmology at Emory.

The elder Dr. Calhoun is the son of Emory's benefactor, Dr. Abner Calhoun, who has been called the South's first specialist. Emory's medical library is named in his honor. Dr. Calhoun is a member of the executive committee of the University's Board of Trustees and is a former president of the American Ophthalmological Society and of the University of Georgia Alumni Assn.

Dr. Goodrich C. White, Gamma '08, president of Emory, read the citations and presented the diplomas.

Politicians

Two Chi Phis figured prominently in Nebraska politics which were as torrid as July weather. The swift course of political events was touched off by the death of the junior United States Senator, Dwight Griswold, who died in April. The then Nebraska Republican state chairman resigned his post to file as a candidate for the United States Senate and W. W. Spear, Alpha Theta Chi '33, was elected state chairman. On July 1, Senator Hugh Butler, senior Senator suffered a stroke and died that night, after the time when candidates could file for office. Therefore, Brother Spear's Central Committee was required to name a candidate within three days. Nebraska's Attorney General ruled that the nomination must be made by noon Saturday on account of the Fourth of July weekend, so the Committee was hastily assembled in Lincoln. The committee named Representative Roman L. Hruska as candidate for Butler's unexpired term which left a gap on the Congressional Primary ticket for the Second Congressional District which includes Omaha.

On July 9 the Republican Committee selected Jackson B. Chase, Alpha Theta Chi '13, as its nominee for Congress. Brother Chase has been a District Judge in Omaha for the past eight years, had formerly been chairman of the Nebraska Liquor Control Commission, a member of the state legislature, and in active law practice in Omaha.

In addition to selecting United States Senators for four years and six years a quirk in Nebraska law requires the selection of a United States Senator to serve from Nov. 2 to Jan. 3. Thus Nebraska will be occupying a unique position in American politics when it selects three United States Senators at one election. After the Primary on Aug. 10, Brother Spear presided at a Republican State Convention and later toured the entire state of Nebraska with the Republican candidates. The Republican Caravan has been a tradition in Nebraska for many years and shortly before every General Election the group visits at every community in the state where the state chairman introduces the candidates to the voters.

Brother Spear writes that for an unpaid job he has had more than his share of problems.

Happy Birthday

A GREAT Georgian had his 81st birthday Monday. He is Judge Samuel H. Sibley, Eta '92.

You can rest assured that Judge Sibley observed the occasion as quietly and unobtrusively and as usefully as he has lived. On Sunday he taught his Sunday school class at the First Presbyterian

W. W. Spear Named State GOP Chairman

W. W. (Bill) Spear of Fremont was unanimously elected Monday as new chairman of the Republican party in Nebraska at a meeting of the State GOP Central committee in Lincoln.

The new state chairman is a member of the Fremont law firm of Spear and Lamme and has been Dodge County Republican chairman for the past three years.

He succeeds former state chairman David T. Martin of Kearney who resigned to seek his party's nomination for the U. S. Senate.

Spear, who has been practicing law in Fremont since 1951, was employed with telephone and transit companies in Washington, D. C., and New York City before World War II. During the war he became a major in the Air Force. After his discharge he was assistant division attorney for American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Charles Reed, Omaha, was the only other party member nominated for the chairmanship but he withdrew immediately, saying he was "in no sense, a candidate."

Spear said he would not immediately name a vice chairman to succeed Mrs. Eva Bowring of Merriman who left that post on being appointed U.S. Senator.

Spear invited suggestions from party members as to a vice chairman.

W. W. SPEAR. . . Fremont elected state GOP chairman.

Spear's name has figured prominently in speculation for the chairmanship ever since Martin resigned.

He is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and the George Washington law school and an Air Force veteran of World War II.

Bill Spear, Alpha Theta Chi '33, piloted the Republican slate in Nebraska to successful election. It was the only state in the Union to elect three Senators

Church in Marietta, as he has almost every Sunday for the last 10 years. On his birthday he worked in his shop, on a bookcase to hold some "old law books."

Scholar and philosopher, brilliant attorney and outstanding jurist, teacher and counselor, Judge Sam Sibley has made, and continues to make, a great contribution to his state and to his people.

The Constitution extends birthday felicitations, belated though they may be. May the good judge's health be no worse than tolerable and the returns of the day as many as he desires.—Atlanta Constitution.

Directs Society

RUTHERFORD L. ELLIS, Eta '25, Atlanta insurance executive, has been elected chairman of the executive committee of the Board of the American Cancer Society. The executive committee supervises the nationwide work of the Cancer Society and its 50 divisions. The group holds monthly meetings.

Ellis was elected a board member in 1946. He was the first businessman to serve as president of the Society's Georgia Division.

Dr. Elliott Scarborough, chairman of the Georgia Division, commented that Ellis' election to the top volunteer office in the Society "is a great tribute to

DEAR BROTHER ROSSER:

I have not written to you for some-time and in this case the old saying of no news is good news applies.

I visited the Alpha Delta Chapter a number of times last year and have also made one trip this semester. I have noticed a steady improvement in the whole atmosphere. The house has been completely gone over and is in excellent shape. I was there the week before school opened and informed the Brothers that in all my years of visitation that I have never seen the house in such good shape before the opening of school.

The Brothers as well as the pledges are of high type and I think we can look for an improved atmosphere around the house.

My son, Wilson, together with his parents were much pleased to learn that he received the Sparks Award. Wilson is now taking graduate work at Wharton in Philadelphia.

I am enclosing a news letter just received from Charles Stoddart who, by the way, is doing an excellent job.

If there is anything I can do at any time do not hesitate to write me.

Fraternally yours,
WALTER H. CRAMER

New York Chi Phis Plan Holiday Party

THE Chi Phi Club of New York is looking forward to an active year with monthly uptown and downtown luncheon club meetings, together with several other affairs. The first luncheon is set for Nov. 4, and each monthly luncheon thereafter will fall on the first Thursday in the month. Arrangements for the uptown luncheon club meetings are being handled by Oliver Rose, c/o J. P. Stevens Co., 1560 Broadway, New York City (Telephone OX 5-1000), while those for the downtown luncheon club will be made by Walter Sorg, 80 South St., New York City (Telephone WH 3-3040).

There was a smoker on Oct. 27, at the 69th Regiment Armory, 26th St. and Lexington Ave., at 6:00 P.M. For $3.50 we had a delicious spaghetti dinner, beer, entertainment, and good fellowship. Brother Ford, 90 Broad St., New York 4, N. Y., handled reservations.

A cocktail party is planned for the holiday season with Walter Sorg at the helm, and the annual banquet is being planned for February, 1955, under the direction of Omar Elder. Along in the spring a golf outing will be held with Al and Lou Haase as co-chairmen.

Annual dues are only $2.00. You pay for your own lunches. Please send check for your dues to Brother George B. Hoeft, 318 Bullard Ave., Paramus, N. J., if you have not already done so, and be sure to attend one of the monthly luncheons.—AL WALLACE, President.

Tit-for-tat! Dr. Milton W. Brown, Alpha-Chi '94, sent a picture of his shipmate, Donald W. The Chi Phis in western Pennsylvania are in the midst of reactivating their group. Brother Robert A. Cummings, Jr., Omicron '16, is undertaking this project. His address is 300 Sixth Ave., Pittsburgh 22. We hope all Chi Phis in that vicinity will work with Brother Cummings and the fraternity on this most worthwhile organization. (Telephone Court 1-5081).

Hoffman Heads Sigma Assn.

At a meeting of the Sigma Assn. of Chi Phi, the following officers were elected to represent the Alumni of Sigma: president, Robert F. Hoffman; vice president, William T. McElveen; secretary, Robert F. Stafford; and treasurer, Neil Foster.

Various working committees were also appointed at this meeting and the following committee chairmen met with the above mentioned officers to discuss plans for the next school year: John J. Roche, George McFedries, Al Mersbach, and Vic Hinze.—ROBERT F. STAFFORD, Secretary.

Atlanta Chi Phis Elect Officers

At a recent meeting of the Atlanta Chi Phis, officers for the coming year were elected: C. Baxter Jones, Jr., president; Alex W. Smith, Jr., vice president; Dick Sims, treasurer; and Henry B. Troutman, Jr., secretary.

Plans were made to hold our annual dinner-dance on Friday, Nov. 19, at the Piedmont Driving Club. This very gala affair brings out several hundred Alumni, actives, and pledges, with their wives and dates, and is usually held the night before the Tech-Georgia football game, but this year it was decided to have it a week before the game, since the game is to be played in Athens.

Eta Directors Meet with Chapter

THE directors of the Eta Trust Assn. and officers of Eta Chapter were entertained at a wonderful barbecue by our new president, Jim Morton, at the first meeting of the new Board. After a social hour and a very delicious barbecue Brother Morton called the meeting to order and the following directors answered to roll call: John B. Adams, Frank E. Block, W. S. Boston, Joseph E. Brown, Walter W. Calhoun, W. Colquitt Carter, Rutherford L. Ellis, Jack C. Fraser, Albert Howell, Jr., Willis Johnson, Jr., Alex C. King, Fitzhugh Knox, George H. McWhirter, Jr., Howard McWhorter, I. S. Mitchell, III, James W. Morton, Jr., McKee Nunnally, Dan D. Plaster, Robert E. Poss, Herbert Reynolds, W. Motte Sims, John M. Slaton, Alex W. Smith, Alex W. Smith, Jr., and John W. Yopp.

Treasurer Adams reported that Orkin and Leathers had completed their contracts on the chapter house and that it was expected to start painting the exterior of the house as promptly as possible.

A letter was read from Mrs. Howard McWhorter giving the new officers of the Mothers' Club as follows: Mrs. T. D. Pethel, Jr., president; Mrs. Jack Wilkins, vice president; Mrs. J. C. Senter, secretary; and Mrs. Harold Pilgrim, treasurer.

Brother Morton gave an inspirational talk on what we as directors were expected to accomplish in the ensuing year. He pointed out that the Brothers who are now directors must get the boys in their classes to contribute to Eta Trust Assn. As Alex Smith stated so well, we Alumni must realize that the ending of college is the beginning of payment for the wondrous times we enjoyed at Eta and each must carry his own freight after he leaves college. This was followed by a talk by Brother Ellis, past Grand Alpha, ex-Alpha of Eta, who stressed the necessity of getting more interest from the Alumni. We were all so happy to hear from ex-Governor Slaton, Class of '88, and Alex Smith, '06, and from the Alpha of the present chapter, Jack Henderson. It is interesting to note that these three, with our president, represent four generations of Chi Phi.

A committee of Howard McWhorter, Ruddy Ellis, and the secretary was appointed to prepare a memorial to Brother Jack Wilkins, life member of the Board and vice president, who died since our last meeting.

Alex King brought to the attention of those present that our original charter was drawn by Judge Virlyn Moore and when renewed, renewal was granted by Judge Moore.—JOSEPH E. BROWN, Secretary.

Alpha Delta Assn. Reports Improvements

THIS is a brief report to review improvements that have been made in the chapter house this summer. The Alpha Delta House Assn. secured a loan at a local bank with the following results: 1) A completely new heating system, which includes a hard coal stoker with automatic controls has been installed; 2) all floors in the rooms in the second and third floors as well as one wing in the first floor have been tiled, the hallways in the second and third floor were tiled last year; 3) the third floor shower has been tiled, the second floor shower was done last year; 4) all new double deck beds, mattresses, mattress covers, and pillow covers have been purchased; 5) six new dining room tables are now in use; 6) the house was completely cleaned and in excellent condition when the boys and pledges arrived Sept. 13.

The active Brothers and pledges have spent a great deal of time and energy in landscaping, painting, and in general repair work about the property.

All Alumni should be proud of the new look the Alpha Delta chapter house now has. We hope you made an effort to return for Alumni Homecoming on Oct. 15-16. Following the football game the Alpha Delta Assn. held its annual meeting.

The Alpha, B. K. Roberts, cordially invites all of you to return at any time and see the new look at Chi Phi. Jack Vincent, Class of '37, has recently been named Faculty Adviser.—C. W. STORDART, JR., Financial Adviser.

Carcassonne

by Milton Brown

Alpha-Chi '94

in "Around the World in Eighty Years"

Full many a year my love and I have quested widely o'er the world.
We sailed the seas to Arctic Lands and saw the midnight sun appear.
Thermopylae and Salamis, Alhambra and Cordoba's Mosque.
The burning sands of Araby, the mellow moon on Parthenon.
The Kremlin with its bulbous towers, the Taj Mahal and St. Sophia.
Mt. Fuji and the Matterhorn, and Aztek shrines and Mayan temples.
Old Stonehenge and Egyptian tombs, the field where Armageddon raged.
But one thing lacked to make complete our tale of wonder and surprise,
We never had seen Carcassonne, we never had seen Carcassonne!

But now we have seen Carcassonne, ah
now we have seen Carcassonne!
For three long days we wandered there midst crannied walls where lizards are.
And swallows questing high and low and living fat on unseen food.
But not a sign saw we while there of bishops or a general!

We closed our eyes and conjured up the panoply of other days.
Crusaders who would ne'er come back.
Princes and kings and yeomen too,
And prancing horses gaily decked with burnished armor and with plumes,
All conquering Moslems empire bent, and back of them the Visigoths.
The Romans and primeval men found refuge and defense from harm,
Her castles stormed were built again. But ah, her glory now is gone,
But there remains her quiet charm. The Bishops' garden still and cool,
O'erlooks a panorama vast. The Pyrennes at purple dawn
Show snow capped peaks to east and south, and neath the walls Of Carcassonne, a thriving city of the plain, and endless vistas Stretching far, forgetful of Old Carcas-sonne, forgetful of Old Carcassonne.

A place of memories and dreams. Her walls a useless relic now.
Her pomp and pride of ancient days are faded and forgotten quite.
She lives in memories of the past. The lengthening shadows eastward fall.
The hour is late, the stars come out, a distant bell proclaims the night.
The captains and the kings depart. The Panorama will go on
But not, but not in Carcassonne, but not in Carcassonne.

But is it not enough that each played well his part in Carcassonne?
The stream of history has passed on to larger fields to other lands,
And some who do not know the past are what they are and still will be,
Because, because of Carcassonne, because because of Carcassonne!

Comes now the curtain of the night. The tale is told, the battle o'er.
One thing I learned at Carcassonne, Our
Hour upon the stage is brief.
Play well your part and nobly live, fight bravely and unselfishly.
What matters that the play moves on to other stages far afield?
You played your part in Carcassonne,
you played your part in Carcassonne.

National Director Marries Miss Wells

LUTHER ROSSER, who served as Chief Judge of Fulton County Civil Court for 31 years prior to retirement in 1945, and Miss Mildred Wells, his former secretary, were married in a quiet ceremony at 10 a.m. on Nov. 3.

Officiating was the Rev. Dr. Wallace Rogers, associate pastor of the First Methodist Church where the ceremony took place. Only members of the immediate family attended.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. H. T. Wells and the late Harry Truman Wells of Atlanta. She served as secretary in the Civil Court until her resignation.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a short honeymoon at Brunswick and will be at home later at the Georgian Terrace Hotel.—Atlanta Constitution.

Office Footnote: Chi Phis know Miss Wells for she has attended many Congresses. We know that the Brothers will wish Judge and Mrs. Rosser much happiness.

Senior Scorer

GYMNAST LEE KRUMBHOLZ, Alpha-Tau '54, can't be accused of picking the easy spots in his gym work.

The Wolverine star considers the side horse, one of the most difficult events in the entire program, as his favorite. Krumbholz turns in some of his finest performances on the side horse which is otherwise a definite Wolverine weak spot.

One of the mainstays of the Michigan squad, Krumbholz has worked on the apparatus since "as far back as I can remember." His parents, members of the American Turners, were gym enthusiasts, and their son made good use of the equipment available through the Turners and through a neighborhood boys' club.

A resident of Chicago, Ill., before moving to his present home in Tampa, Fla., Krumbholz was a gymnast and diver in high school. A teammate of Wolverine swimmer Ron Gora at Lane Tech, Krumbholz has dropped swimming to devote all his time to gymnastics since he came to Michigan.

Krumbholz has devoted a lot of time into the perfecting of his side horse routines. He and Capt. Marv Johnson spent most of their freshman year working on the horse, a difficult piece of apparatus to master.

After a slow start this year, he turned in fine performances against Minnesota and Ohio State to win his specialty. His return to the form which made him the top Maize and Blue side horse man for the past two seasons has considerably brightened the championship hopes of Coach Newt Loken's squad.

The 22-year-old physical education major has turned into one of the Wolverine's top all-around men.

He garnered 27 points, with four firsts and a third against Northwestern.

Flash!

ON the day following election it is evident that at least two Chi Phis will be in Congress when the session opens in January. Charlie Jonas, Alpha-Alpha '25, of the 10th District in North Carolina, won reelection. Under the aegis of State Chairman W. W. Spear, Alpha Theta Chi '33, Jackson B. Chase, Alpha Theta Chi '13, will represent a district from Omaha, Nebr., in Congress. We could not check Baker Royer's reelection before press date, but we hope his victory can be announced in the February issue along with that of other candidates unknown at the present time.

Alpha Entertains Washington Alums

WILLIAM J. CUDLIP, II
Alpha

University of Virginia

THE 1954-55 school year is off to a good start for Alpha Chapter. The first floor of the chapter house has now been painted and new sofas and chairs have been ordered. The house is now in fine shape and should be a great asset during the fall rushing season.

A slate of excellent officers has been elected for the Fall session: William Cudlip, Alpha; Conway Dillingham, Beta; Phil Coleman, Gamma; Robert Rockwell, Delta; and Frank Strailman, Zeta.

During the summer vacation, Robert Armstrong McKenney, III, was married to Catherine Sue Trant of Portsmouth, and Robert G. Ernest and Lynwood Ingersville Evans of Jacksonville, Fla., were married. The Chapter is fortunate in having both couples residing in Charlottesville.

The Chapter takes pleasure in being the host to the Chi Phi Club of Washington, D. C., for Homecoming weekend Oct. 16 and 17. Many activities have been planned for our guests and we anticipate a pleasurable weekend.—FRANK O. STRAILMAN.

Beta Pledges 14 After Good Rush

JACK BROWN, Alpha
Massachusetts Institute of Technology

AFTER a very fun-filled summer we here at Beta started the year with the traditional clean-up week in preparation for Rush Week. Our efforts were justly rewarded as we now have the house completely filled even to the opening of a new room in the house. The 14 new pledges are Alan C. Hurkamp, Carl Richard Hagen, Donald J. Soderholm, Richard C. Nyder, Donald W. Hartman, Carlyle L. Helber, Jr., Richard L. Given,

Paul H. Burr, John V. Del Bene, Jr., Wilson Au, Terry S. Hoyt, Courtland S. Ross, Wallace Gale Haggard, and Andrew G. Cade. In addition to our new pledges we also have Jerry Shopf, Zeta, with us finishing his education here at Tech. The chapter membership stands at 40.

Near the end of last term Jack Brown was elected to serve as Alpha for the fall term this year. Brother Brown is demonstrating superior qualities in this field by instituting numerous Chapter programs to further Chapter spirit, both scholastically and socially. Assisting him are Lloyd Brace, Beta; Dick Johnson, Gamma; George Woods, Delta; Jim Chorak, Zeta; and Øystein Linge, Epsilon.

Of the nine seniors who graduated last term Bob Hartman is back with us working on an additional degree; Jim Astrue and Bill Willoughby are both getting married in the next two months; Milt Almquist is doing graduate work here at Tech, and Jack Allen was married in September. It seems that getting married is the rage at Beta this year as not only the aforementioned have or will take the long step, but Fred Brooks was also wed in September.

This year's social activities are being directed by Ed Purcell and his social committee who have mapped out quite a social program for us this year. The Fall Formal, Hallowe'en party, and small informal Saturday night parties have really been successful.

We here at Beta were proud of our scholastic standing of seventh of 27 fraternities. Due to the progress shown last term we are hoping for an even better rating this term.—JAMES M. CHORAK.

Gamma Builds New Terrace

J. ROBERT PINSON, Alpha
Emory University

WITH the guiding principle of maintaining the strength and quality of Chi Phi on the Emory University campus, Gamma launched a new year of activity with the beginning of Fall Rush Week on Sept. 16, 1954. After two successful summer rush parties and after letters had been sent to many of the prospective Emory freshmen, Gamma entered its 85th year with high hopes for an excellent pledge class. These hopes were realized in the 14 pledges: Walter Bealer, Sidney Bush, William Christian, Tom Daly, Tommy Johns, Jim Knight, Rudy Littlefield, Jimmy Means, Joe Murphy, Jim Potterfield, Leon Scott, Bob Slater, Mecklyn Stockton, and Wendell Underwood.

With satisfaction on the part of every Brother and a new impetus to achieve an excellent record for 1954-55, Gamma turned its attention to the Emory Interfraternity Athletic program. Touch football was the sport-of-the-quarter and the Chapter made another excellent record. On Nov. 5, Gamma participated in the IFC Sing, an annual songfest in which all the Emory fraternities participate. Alterations were made on Tom Connally Hall and a new terrace was completed through cooperation of both Brothers and pledges.—MARVIN WHITING.

Delta Policies Help Improve House

JOHN FENNELLS
Alpha

Rutgers University

ELECTIONS at Delta were held in May: Alpha, John Fennell; Beta, Don Vineburg; Gamma, Gus Lachenauer; Delta, Ron Willis; Epsilon, Jeff Huntington; Zeta, Clark White.

Due to the reorganization of the Alumni during the past year, Delta embarked on what proved to be an extremely successful repair program on the chapter house. With the funds which were provided by the Alumni, and with the saving which occurred due to our new waiting system which was inaugurated last semester, we had our entire house re-wired, had a new roof put on the house, and had most of the rooms plastered. Consequently, the house is now in the best physical shape that it has been in many years.

In order to see to it that the house was in tip-top shape at the beginning of the semester, we held our informal initiation for five pledges during Freshman Week of this semester. At this time, all Brothers and pledges alike were required to return to the campus one week prior to the opening of classes, and the week was spent in painting, and general renovation of the house. The climax of this work week was the formal initiation. The new Brothers are Sam Moschella, Brad Bingham, Jerry Van Winter, Tom Barbour, and Allan Wickham.

Chi Phi is again one of the most active Chapters on the Rutgers Campus this year. We find that the Brothers are active in almost every activity on the campus. Johnny Fennell quarterbackes the football team while his brother, Jim, plays center. Tippy Larkin is the head manager of the football team, while Bob Springer is the sophomore manager. Laddy Feher is one of the six cheerleaders, and is also a member of the Student Council. Bill Steng is doing his usual fine job of broadcasting all the sporting events for WRSU, the Rutgers radio station. Ron Willis and Gus Lachenauer are again active in the drama organizations on the campus. Bud Salisbury is back with the Glee Club, and Harold Rudy is in the University Band. Dick McKeeby is playing 150-lb. football, while Tom Barbour is on the soccer team. Clark White is president of the Young People's Westminster Fellowship of Rutgers and N.J.C. (New Jersey College for Women).

At the end of last semester, Uncle Sam claimed three Chi Phis: Ed Shepard and Bill Carlson are with the Marines, while Tom Price, our Olympic rowing champion, is in the Navy. Tom Lawlor got married. Tom is a soph.

Our new pledges this semester are: Bill Keeney, Neal Huisman, Mike Beresford, John Schmidt, Harvey Crane, Craig Brown, Lee Harris, and Carl Simonsen.—CLARK WHITE.

Epsilon Members Praise Alumni

OVERBEY

Alpha

Hampden-Sydney
College

As Epsilon Chapter begins its 88th year of continuous existence, we would like to take an opportunity to extend a word of praise to our Alumni. With their constant help and guidance, the Chapter can now boast that it is in the best physical and financial condition in its history.

The house, which is now almost entirely debt free, has been improved both outside and in. Work on the roof, the basement, and the grounds was accomplished this summer under the direction of M. L. T. Hughes, Sr., of Danville, who is chairman of the Alumni Finance Committee, and with the able assistance of our houseman, Lancaster Brown. Plans are now being drawn up to enlarge the basement to nearly twice its size. The Brothers intend to do the majority of the labor.

Eleven members failed to return this year. Four are in medical or pharmacy school; one is in Harvard Law School; three are in the service; and three are working. Joe Gillespie, who did a very commendable job as Alpha last year, won the Sparks Memorial award for 1954 and was elected to ΦBK . Joe is now in Naval Officers' Candidate School.

In the elections for officers for the 1954-55 session, Jim Overbey was elected Alpha, while Charles Dunn was named Beta. Other officers are: Bill Carrington, Gamma; Jim Kulp, Delta; Dave Dunn, Epsilon; and Larry Hoover, Zeta. Brother Overbey has been outstanding in almost every field of activity at Hampden-Sydney. He has been vice president of the Student Body, a letterman in football and track and co-captain of the track team, and is currently a member of OAK . Last year Jim served as Delta.

Unusually early Homecoming festivities were celebrated on Oct. 2. Although the Brothers had but two weeks to make the necessary preparations, the weekend was a tremendous success. Over 300 people, including Brothers, parents, friends, and Alumni were served at the annual buffet supper on Saturday evening. Brother Edmondson was in charge and did a fine job with the aid of his committee and the generous contributions of the parents. Informal parties were held at the house both nights.

With the intramural season now in full swing, Epsilon Chapter is hoping to better last year's second place record. Chi Phi teams won five first places, including basketball, ping-pong, horse-shoes, track, and golf, but were nosed out at the end of the season by a very slim margin. In the field of intramurals Brother Nichols has been named I-M manager for the entire school this year.

Scholastically, the Brothers continued to maintain a fine average throughout last semester. Seven made the First Honor Roll and eight the Second Honor Roll. These 15 boys represented almost one-half of the entire Chapter.

In extracurricular activities, Epsilon is also well represented. Royster Lyle, Jr., $\Pi\Delta\text{E}$ and ΣT , is editor-in-chief of The Tiger, the weekly newspaper. Bill Carrington, $\Pi\Delta\text{E}$, ΣT , $\text{H}\Sigma\Phi$, is business manager, and Larry Hoover, also in $\text{H}\Sigma\Phi$, is sports editor. Jim Kulp, last year's Student Body secretary-treasurer, has been elected vice president of the Student Body this year. John Richards is vice president of the Junior Class and also a letterman on the basketball and tennis teams. Along with Brother Overbey, John Tigmo, Otis Mead, and Hal McVey all lettered in football again.—LARRY HOOVER.

Zeta Again Wins Scholarship Award

DAVE

Alpha

Franklin and Marshall

ZETA graduated 22 Brothers last June, leaving the Chapter in the hands of 50 Brothers, six pledges, and three social members. Of those 22 graduates, 10 have become officers in the Air Force; three have entered medical schools, one to dental school, another to law school, one to graduate school of social work, and six have entered into business.

Our new officers for the fall term are: Dave Daubenspeck, Alpha; Tom Headrick, Beta; Frank Christ, Gamma; Ken Smith, Delta; Bud Eaton, Epsilon, and Clark McSparren, Zeta. Because of the size of the brotherhood, the committee system will continue to be used in the administration of the Chapter.

The social program for the first semester, planned by Social Chairman, Tom Headrick, will include a freshman smoker, two rush parties, and a dinner and house party for Homecoming Weekend, Oct. 22-23. Football teas, an innovation at Zeta, will be held at the house following all home games. The teas provide an excellent opportunity for Brothers, returning Alumni, and their friends to see each other again.

Zeta is exceptionally proud to have won the Fraternity Scholarship Plaque for the second year in a row. It is now hanging with our first plaque in the library. The library was recently dedicated in memory of Jerry Burgholzer, former Zeta of the Chapter and varsity soccer player, who died last spring.

In the field of varsity sports at Franklin and Marshall this fall, Zeta has quite a few representatives. Sophomores Ron Flemming, Jay Powell, and Junior Fuz Ulrich are playing on the Blue and White football squad, while Clark McSparren is running with the cross-country team. Brothers on the soccer team are: Captain Tom Headrick, Bud Eaton, Ed Newman, Ray Baughman, Vern Ringer, Bob Graeff, and Karl Leuffen, a transfer from Xi.

On Sept. 8-11 a very successful Congress was held here in Lancaster, commemorating the hundredth anniversary of Zeta. A splendid organizational job was done by Dr. J. Z. Appel and the other members of the Alumni Association, who planned the whole affair. We hope the delegates enjoyed their stay as much as we enjoyed being hosts to them.—CLARK MCSPARREN.

Theta to Revive Chapter Paper

ing for the State of New York, is also living in the annex.

Theta also welcomed a new cook, Margaret, to take the place of "Ma." We are all very satisfied with her and look forward to her return every year.

The Chapter was host at the reception following the marriage of Reynolds Deacon to Marjorie Kirkland. Several of the Brothers were in the wedding party.

Open house on Sept. 25 drew over 400 Freshmen out of a class of 825. With the fine bunch of Brothers and pledges of Theta plus the excellent condition of the house and annex, our chances for a good rushing year are very good.

We congratulate Lee Winckler '56 and Bruce McGilvray on being initiated into Chi Phi.

This year we plan to revive the Theta Talks, our publication which was so popular a few years ago. It will be sent out later in the year.

Bud Hornell '53 followed in the footsteps of the majority of his classmates and got married this summer to Gloria Mathews.

Theta congratulates Roger Rapp '56, who earned this year's Sparks Medal. Brother Rapp also plays guard on the R.P.I. team and is athletic chairman for Theta.

For the first football game Theta will join with two other Chapters on the "Hill" to have a tri-house party.

Don Wallace '55 is determined to give the Chapter the horseshoe championship even if it means practicing in the dark!

As far as dates are concerned, Theta has been to all the girls' schools with the slight edge going to Skidmore, Bennington, and Green Mountain. Of course, Sage, Vassar, Albany State, and St. Rose have been visited by the Theta men.

Brother Kluthe '54, now an ensign, came back for the weekend. Brother Ewing '54, also an ensign, is expected back shortly after a detour at St. Rose.

Iota Thanks Alumni for Rush Help

DAVE JUDY, Alpha
Ohio State University

CONGRATULATIONS to Iota's new officers: Dave Judy, Alpha; Gordon Clark, Beta; Bert Cochran, Gamma; Al Swarmstedt, Delta; and Jack Hopkins, Zeta.

Iota is proud to report that it had one of its most successful rush programs in years. With its 19 new pledges, Chi Phi ranked sixth in number of pledges among the 45 social fraternities at OSU. The new pledges are: Jim Anderson, Kim Nichol, Bob Kacur, Tony D'Annessa, Ned Kuivinen, Tom Talbot, Ken MacLaren, Stacey Hall, Ray Vermilya, Rodney Brower, John McGowan, Bill Sprinkle, John Kuhn, Mike Haist, John Callahan, Jack Fugliano, Cliff Snodgrass, Don Seestedt, and Rus Pravenza. We are also glad to have Bob Wilson, a transfer from Xi at Cornell, with us.

Our special thanks to our Alumni: Paul James, Eugene Benham, Bill Saxbe, Lee Wears, and Jeff Jones (Alpha-Chi); Bill Fead (Alpha-Tau '44); R. S. Helman (Alpha-Chi '29). Their help on rushing was certainly appreciated.

We have just received letters from W. J. Richardson, who is now with Swift and Co. in Norfolk, Va., and Lt. James B. Heck, who is stationed at Scott AFB, Ill. We thank them and the many other Brothers who have taken time to write.

Among the many Alumni who have returned to the campus was Chris D. Pope '41, a former Alpha of the Chapter. He is presently with the Schine Theaters in Buffalo, N. Y. Among his many activities is the presidency of the Ohio State Alumni Club of Buffalo.

Our undergraduates have been busy in activities. Dave Judy, our Alpha, was elected to the executive committee of the Council of Fraternity Presidents. Gordon Clark is serving as business manager of the campus engineering magazine. Charles Dozer was appointed as a justice of the interfraternity court. Manuel Tzagournis was elected vice president of the Junior Class, and Jack Hopkins was elected to the executive committee of O.S.P.A., the leading campus political party. Joe Meara was tapped by Romophos, sophomore men's honorary, and Manuel was tapped by Bucket and Dipper, junior men's honorary. Rus Pravenza, a new pledge, is proving to be one of the most promising members of the Freshmen football team.

In the sports and social world Iota is proving to be unbeatable. Our undefeated intramural football team seems headed for a championship season. The social calendar is exceptionally full, with a hayride, house parties, combination parties with other fraternities, semi-formals, and our fall formal being planned by Jim Blackburn and his social committee.—JACK HOPKINS.

Kappa Loses 18 By Graduation

DON AMACHER, Alpha
University of Wisconsin

NEW officers have been installed at Kappa: The Alpha is Don Amacher; Beta, Carl Merow; Gamma, Roger James; Delta, Fred Jensen; and Epsilon, Milt Burmaster.

Rushing took on added importance at Kappa this semester because of the loss of 18 Brothers by graduation last June. Thanks to the hard work of Rushing Chairmen Bob Kaften and John Hamel, Kappa pledged 16 men: Dave Blank, Don Brehm, Curt Cooksey, John Fit-schen, Mike Gardiner, Roger Grossel, Howard Helker, George Hoffman, Greg Kryshak, John Lory, Uggi Mac Van Haven, Tony Muhich, Tad Murphy, Kurt Rossner, and Robert Weninger. Informal rushing will continue throughout the semester. Two Brothers have also transferred to Kappa: Dave Durwachter from Sigma Chapter and Eddie McCoy from Tau Chapter.

Bowling, football, and volleyball practice have started for the Kappans under the watchful eye of our athletic chairman, Barry Basten. Carl Merow, scholastic chairman, is working to improve Kappa's scholastic rating at Wisconsin while Rich Mueller is busy planning Kappa's social functions. A big contribution to the parties has been a band consisting of Brothers Lawrence and Durwachter, and Pledges Gulbranson and Johnson.

Not to be forgotten are the contributions made to Kappa by John Porter, an Alumnus of Kappa, and the Milwaukee Mothers' Club. Their assistance has proven invaluable.—JOHN M. EWENS.

Lambdans Active in Campus Work

RICHARD H. RAHL
Alpha

University of California

LAMBDA began its 79th college year by pledging five men: Bates McIndoe, Sausalito; Bob Hotle, Piedmont; Jim Lidster, Sacramento; John Weisner, San Francisco; and Stan Songer, down from the mountains around Truckee. Rushing was followed by the initiation of Lee Roberson and Wes Lewis.

On our social calendar are four sorority exchanges, a pledge dance, two open houses, and our annual Christmas Formal.

Dick Rahl, Alpha, is a third year man on the famed Cal varsity crew. Frank Merlo promises to be the mainstay of U. C.'s pitching staff this coming spring. Hugh De Heinrich is out for varsity tennis while John Weisner is on the frosh water-polo team. "Easy Ed" White and Murray Hannon are on the rugby team. Omega Meeker has made the mixed field hockey team and John Ball and "Crabs" Levis are grunting and groaning for Cal's wrestling team. John "Slats" Griffith, Larry "Butterball" Weber, and "Jet" Hoff are out for football. Lee Roberson has earned a spot on the varsity fencing team. Jewell and Riley, top Cal debaters, are preparing to compete for the coveted Robert Dearborn Pope Memorial Medal. Dick Congdon and Ted "Zoot"

Killeen are serving on Frosh Council. Darryl "Butts" Peterson and Gordon Clark head the Foreign Students Exchange Council. Lee Roberson, Stan Songer, Hugh "Screwdriver" De Heinrich and Walt Chinz were recently elected to Triune, the sophomore men's honor society. Murray "Black-out" Hannon and Frank Merlo were named to Winged Helmet, the Junior-Senior men's society. To finish the list are Joe Bingham and Bill "Liverache" Geisreiter who head the awards committee of the Jordan G. Carlton Scholarship Fund.

It is of interest to note that two spring '54 graduates of Lambda, Chic Fraser and Bill Viebrock, are attending law school.—KEITH D. JEWELL.

Mu Retains Activities Plaque

CARL CARLSON
Alpha
Stevens Institute of Technology

TOWARD the end of last term Mu elected new officers. The new Alpha is Carl Carlson who served as Beta last term. Carl is a modest, soft-spoken guy who combines a Dean's List average with participation in many campus activities and honor societies. Tom Wright was elected as the new Beta after serving as Epsilon last term. Tom is also a campus leader in activities as well as being a consistent "Dean's List" man. Jack Donahue, the new Gamma, came to Stevens after a 2-year stint at Notre Dame, and he has been a tremendous asset to Mu in the interfraternity sports picture. Dick Macintosh, a junior, was retained as Delta because of the excellent job he did last term. Armand Bassi, a varsity member in both soccer and lacrosse, became the new Epsilon, and Bob Farrenkopf was elected Zeta. The new Alpha appointed Ed Merrell as social chairman, Bob McFiggins as steward, Art Holl as Dog Week chairman, and George Alther as rushing chairman.

With the advent of September, the Brothers made preparations for another Dog Week. Ten pledges survived the test under the watchful eye of D. W. C. Art Holl: John Costello, John Gallagher, Gene Gorzelnik, Ken Poppelle, Don Robinson, Carsten Sibbern, Dave Wentink, Erhard and Hans Ziegler, and Artie Zack. They are to be congratulated in doing an excellent job in improving the house's appearance both inside and out.

Mu fared very well last term in tapings by honorary societies. Ed Hess and Tom Wright were tapped by TBEI, engineering honorary. Tom Wright and Alpha Carlson were admitted to IIAE, journalism. Ed Hess, Carl Carlson and Armand Bassi were tapped by Khoda, the secret senior honor society. Our Chapter now has more men in honor societies than any other fraternity on campus.

Last May Mu again won the campus Activities Plaque. This marks the sixth year that we have won this award in its seven-year existence. Ten members were honored by being on the Dean's Activities List. Ed Hess was chosen by his classmates as president of the Senior Class, but because of his subsequent election as Student Council president, he had to relinquish his class title. Alpha Carlson became treasurer of the Class of '55. Armand Bassi retained his title of A. A. representative, and Joe Wolf was elected to the Honor Board. Our Alpha was also chosen as business manager of the State, the college newspaper, and Tom Wright became its managing editor. Also, Ed Merrell was reelected president of the Rail Club. Our activities' leadership appears unchallenged since the Brothers have been quite successful in getting the pledges to join various campus organizations.

Under the leadership of Les Wuerfl and Armand Bassi, the Chi Phi Interfraternity football team is slowly rounding into shape. With the addition to the team of some of the new pledges, and a few rigorous practice sessions, we should be able to improve on our rather mediocre record of last year.

The Chapter was far from inactive during this past summer due to the popularity of summer school. We had several very successful barbecues, and Al Pingpank is to be congratulated on the work he did in renovating the kitchen.

All the seniors are looking forward to the "Senior Trip" to the Midwest. During this time they will have the opportunity to watch the wheels of industry rotating and do a little party-ing on the side.—ROBERT FARRENKOPF.

Nu Alumni Launch House Campaign

BOB SCHNEIDER
Alpha
University of Texas

Nu pledged 17 men during rush week and more are expected during open rush. The pledges are: John Meridith Bollman, Kerrville; Michale Moorman Fricke, Bay City; Lawrence Barclay Haile and Emory Paul Murray, Dallas; John William Hamlett, Joseph Stephen Maniscalco, Lester Kirby Warden, Arthur Jeff Kemp, Houston; Robert Judson Hill, Cuero; Gordon Everitt Jamison, John Oge Flannery, Wesley Gedeon Lupien, San Antonio; James Dailey Mason, Mankato, Minn.; Weldon Ross Johnney Smith, Uvalde; Ramon Robert Rackley, Nederland; Thomas Lofton Breckenrige, Donna; Robert John Perry, Fort Worth. Much praise is due to Thomas P. McConn for his fine work as rush captain, and to the outstanding set of officers for the new year: Joseph Robert Schneider, Alpha; Wallace Lionel Pellerin, Beta; Arthur Beverly Elliot, Gamma; Kenneth Earl Studdard, Delta; Bruce Barton Bye, Epsilon; Lew Wallace Davenport, Zeta; Don B. Williamson, song leader; James B. Earthman, III, open rush captain; Henry M. Anderson, intramural sports director. We wish to express our appreciation to our Alumni for their recommendations during Rush Week because we feel the pledge class is very fine, due to these recommendations and considerations. A pledge class Dixie-Land band has been organized and this activity, we feel, will boost the name of Chi Phi on our campus.

Nu greets the affiliation of two new Brothers: Roswald E. Shrull of Alpha-Chi, and Walter P. HOFFIE from Sigma. John S. Gilbreth of Dimmitt was recently initiated.

Nu is anticipating a successful year at the University of Texas due to the renewed interest of our Alumni. During the past few months, Nu's Alumni have reorganized and have made progress toward building a new house. They have held many meetings and have employed a professional fund raiser to start a campaign to raise $125,000. This campaign will last for six months beginning last Aug. 1. With the initial kickoff on Oct. 1, we feel optimistic about results. This drive is being conducted on a "do or die" basis, and it is our sincere hope that all Alumni will participate and get the job done.—LEW WALLACE DAVENPORT.

Xi Girds Against 1955 Deferred Rush

WILLIAM M.
OSGOOD
Alpha

Cornell University

In the Spring of 1954, Cornell frater-

Bob Bunting is commodore of the Cornell crew which is destined to become national champions for the first time since 1930

nities were notified that deferred rushing would become an actuality during the school year 1955-56. With this in mind, the 54 Cornell fraternities resumed normal rushing this Fall, each with the intention of pledging a large enough and stable enough class to withstand the inevitable hardships of next year's pledgeless Fall term. The result was two weeks of the most intensive and determined rushing Cornell has ever seen.

Jim Gouinlock, Xi rushing chairman, worked approximately 36 hours a day, and endured stoically the many tribulations appropriate to the fulfillment of the duties of rushing chairman since time immemorial. With his guidance, the Chi Phi rushing program was a success, and 18 Cornell Freshmen now wear the Chakett: Deane O. Andrews, Agawam, Mass.; Ansel D. Carpenter, Cohoes; Stuart O. Brown, Syracuse; John W. Dougherty and Frederick J. Sharp, III, Albany; Floyd L. Downs, Schenectady; Karl K. Essig, Owego; Burnell S. Goodrich, Mexico City, Mexico; P. Andrew Hall, Jersey City, N. J.; Robert F. Harrel, Jr., Darien, Conn.; John Howell, Greenwich, Conn.; William H. Kent, Morristown, N. J.; Ross A. Parkinson, New Hartford; Richard A. Payne, Macedon; Thomas Spooner, Norwalk, Conn.; James H. Stallkamp, Bala Cynwyd, Pa.; Wilbur C. Sutherland, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Frank Wyskiel, Manchester, N. H. With a few bids out, and the accompanying possibility of four or five more pledges, Xi may be able to boast of the largest Xi pledge class since pre-war days.

Xi Officers are: William M. Osgood, Alpha; David P. Taylor, Beta; Robert G. Wilson, Gamma; Dean C. Hickox, Delta; C. Michael Curtis, Zeta; William W. Hook, steward. The unexpected loss of Gamma Wilson, who transferred to Ohio State, leaves the office temporarily open.

As in past years the Xi chapter house had various summer repairs. A complete exterior paint job was the most notable improvement, but the new carpeting and several pieces of new furniture added to the already pleasing effect of Craigielea in its best physical condition since before the war.

On the athletic scene, Dick Lewis is renewing his annual battle for an end position with the Big Red Football team. Ben Pulling is back at his familiar guard position with the 150-lb. varsity, and is undergoing his familiar agonies attempting to lose the 30 extra pounds he inevitably brings back to school with him. Roy Tellini, captain of the soccer team, has been shifted to the center half position, but is still showing the great form that makes him a definite candidate for All-American honors. Sophs Bob Verstanding and Ike Eisinger are also on the squad, and should see a good deal of action before the season ends.

Commodore Bob Bunting is in Fall practice with the Cornell crew which is acclaimed by sportswriters all over the nation as the No. 1 eight in collegiate competition. With Rusty Callow's great navy boat riddled by graduation, and last year's invincible Cornell frosh rowers moving into varsity contention, the assumption of the sports world seems to be well founded. However, Bob, whose taciturnity is as widely known as his oar-wielding talents, will admit only, "We've got a pretty good chance." 6'10" Al Hahn will return to the Cornell basketball squad, and hopes to use his height to good advantage on a Big Red Five which will suffer from a lack of tall men. Bob Stanwood and Roger Dohn, frosh swimmers a year ago, are up with the varsity, and will probably be Cornell's top breast-strokers during the coming season.

On the Literary front, Mike Curtis reigns as managing editor of The Writer, the Cornell literary magazine. In addition he is a member of both the senior editorial board of The Widow, the campus humor magazine, and the sports board of The Cornellian, the yearbook. Dean Hickox, Xi's other journalism representative, is a member of the editorial board of The Cornellian. Al Beatty, editor-in-chief of The Cornellian last year, and now doing postgraduate work, is still around to lend spiritual, if not bodily, assistance. Bob Keyes, narrowly defeated in the IFC presidential race last Spring, was elected vice president, and is serving in that capacity this year. With the advent of deferred rushing, and the possibility of "contract eating," it is comforting to have a Chi Phi where he can do the most good.—C. MICHAEL CURTIS.

Pi Appreciates Alumni Help

FRANK H. RUTLAND, Alpha
Northwestern University

It has been a good year for Pi Chapter, and we are proud to announce an 8-man pledge class for 1954: Jack Field, John Kettering, Bob Kocheck, Jim Locke, Bill Orchard, Bob Piatak, Dave Rickson, and Bob Taylor.

Scholastically speaking, it has been a good year, too, for Pi, with only 4.58% men on pro, placed third among Northwestern's 27 fraternities.

Two recent Alumni, Bob Snyder and Jim Zachary, came into the house during the Summer and cleaned and painted the whole first floor. They did a fine job, and they inspired us into remodeling our dining room, as well as to do the customary clean-up job. In fact, a few of the Brothers were hurriedly putting the finishing touches on the basement, while the rest of us were entertaining the first rushees upstairs.

A new feature at Pi is our monthly newspaper, A Slice of Pi. Ron Raeymaeckers got the idea two months ago, and it has grown by leaps and bounds ever since. At present we are adding Alumni and new Pi grads' columns, and we plan to send copies of the paper to them. It also helps to keep the men on co-op informed as to what is going on around the house.

This year, we asked our Alumni to come to our rush dates, and, with the fine cooperation of the Chi Phi Club of Chicago, this plan turned out to be a great success. We felt that the presence of these Alumni, who could (and did) answer questions put to them by the rushees, would let the rushees know that our Alumni are behind us. At the same time Pi members got to know them better. We feel that this will be an even more important part of next year's rush program.

Our first dance of the new year will be a semi-formal at the Pearson Hotel in Chicago, Oct. 16. Other social events which Jan Kloek, social chairman, has planned for the future include a splash party, a square dance party, and two more formals, in addition to parties in the house, and the highlight of the whole year, the annual Orphan Party, held just before Christmas. We have the children of a nearby orphanage brought to the house and have games, and later, a visit from Santa Claus, who brings the little tots gifts.—ARTHUR EICHLIN.

Rho Members Paint Prior to Rush

PETER W. MORROW
Alpha
Lafayette College

RHO has again undertaken a major renovation program. The Brothers returned, cutting short a summer vacation by one week. Upon their arrival they busily engaged in remodeling their own personal rooms. Then all cooperated in a tedious job of painting and wall-papering the two upper floors. Upon completion of this major operation, the Brothers decided to put the so-called "finishing touches" on their rooms, so some went window-shopping for furniture, and may I add, "It looks great. Good job, Brothers."

Oct. 9 will be pledge party night for all prospective Chi Phi pledges. A band is being provided for entertainment and we expect quite a turnout.

As far as sports go, Rho's intramural football team has the greatest chance it has had in years to capture the first place title, since many heavy weights are now seen out for weekday practices. Coached by Dan Merriam, who spent his summer playing minor league baseball, I'm sure that the team will do exceptionally well this fall. Frank Mattison (The Toe) has completed five out of five extra points on Lafayette varsity.

Rho lost five men through graduation last June, most of whom are now serving in that old 2-year college, the U. S. Army! Brother Ackerman, a junior at Lafayette, is no longer living at the house, due to his marriage this summer. He married Barbara Ann McCabe, and they are residing off campus. The old saying that Chi Phis come and go is especially true in the case of Don Van Arsdale, who is returning from the Navy after three years service, and Ed Bernhard is returning from Fordham University.

Referring back to the past summer, Alpha Morrow, and Epsilon Kruger, attended the Chi Phi Congress at Lancaster, Pa. Both Brothers were highly impressed with the tremendous hospitality shown to them at Lancaster. Brothers Morrow and Kruger had much to say concerning their interesting experiences while there, but their main comment was upon making new Chi Phi friends, which proves that Chi Phis have much in common everywhere.

The Sparks Medal award was won this year by Eugene McCreary, who is now studying on a scholarship over in Germany.—GENE ALDERMAN.

Sigma Seeks Third Co-Rec Award

JIM CALDER
Alpha
University of Illinois

A NEW set of officers was elected recently: Jim Calder, Alpha; Paul Armstrong, Beta; Dave Mersbach, Gamma; Jim Bonde, Delta; Don Brooks, Epsilon; and Jim Riggs is the Zeta.

Sigma has acquired 14 new pledges through formal rush: Lowell Bjorkland, Palatine; Dick Gray, Fred Kallsen, Art Karwacki, Bud Moore, Ted Wilmes, Chicago; John Huntley, Wilmette; Dave Johnson, Oregon; Joe Jones, Dixon; Larry Marshall, Homewood; Tom Metzger, Decatur; Dein Van Sickle, Flora; Rowland Kelly, Champaign; and George Baumgarn, Rock Island.

The Sigmamen and the Delta Gammas have paired up this year in the annual Co-Rec. volleyball tournament. The team this year has a tough job ahead of it for it has to win the championship to fill the shoes of the two previous co-rec teams from Sigma. The Sigmamen are gunning for their third consecutive championship.—JIM RIGGS.

Tau Concentrates on Scholarship

ALLAN McDONALD
Alpha
University of Alabama

TAU opened the fall semester with several successful rush parties. Music for the two dances was furnished by combos from Birmingham. During rush we gained 11 fine pledges: Charles Mason, John Hassler, Bryon McCutcheon, and Ronald Hudson, Birmingham; William Westley, and Jim Pierce, Tuscaloosa; Buddy Walker, Orange Beach; Bob Young, Russellville; Bob Dickinson, Ragland; Wayne Garrett, Locksley; and Herman Vickors from Maryland. Tau is happy to welcome back Brothers

Royce Jones, Tommy Head, John Lavette, and Jim Balderson. They have returned after being employed by Uncle Sam.

The Chapter is making a concentrated effort to raise its scholastic rating. There are study halls for the pledges on Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights with help clinics every night for those needing aid in specific subjects.

Plans are underway to prepare decorations that will win the Homecoming prize when Alabama meets Mississippi State on Oct. 23. The Chapter is looking forward to the traditional Homecoming tea dance held each year by Tau after the game.

Intramural football is on its way and our first scheduled game is with ΔΤΔ. We were expecting great things from Pledge "Red" Emmons, but the University officials pointed out that he couldn't play for the University and us, too, and we decided that the University needed him more than we did.

During the summer several of the Brothers and pledges got together and painted the kitchen. Tailored slipcovers were made for the living room furniture, improving the general appearance of that room. It is hoped that new carpeting may be added in the near future.—
BOB HASSLER.

Phi Entertains Chapter Parents

HORACE C. MOSES
Alpha
Amherst College

PLEDGING has occupied most of Phi Chapter's activities with 16 pledges to be initiated on Nov. 9. On the following weekend the annual meeting of the Phi Chapter Corp. will take place. Over 100 graduates are expected to return to take part in the weekend festivities. The Corporation meeting will be followed by a banquet. The next day will find the Amherst-Williams football game as the order of the day. A reception at the chapter house will follow at which time the returning Brothers will have a chance to meet the new pledges and to renew old friendships.

On the athletic scene Phi Chapter is represented in the football team this year with eight Brothers on the roster. Bob Kisiel '55 and Lee Hildreth '55 are in the backfield and Ev MacLennan '55, along with Frank Downey '55, in the line. Gerry Benson '55 has been elected captain of the basketball team for the coming season and Will Rodgers '57 has an important spot on the varsity soccer squad.

In the house-improvement line the house has undergone a lot of changes this Fall. The Brothers and the pledges have worked together to apply paint, paper, and plaster where it was needed.

The intramural sports season has opened and our football team has a two win and one tie record thus far with a good chance to retain our all-college title of last year.

On Oct. 16-17 Parents' Weekend was held at the College with the Chapter taking an active part in the plans. Most of the Brothers' parents attended the reception held at the chapter house after the football game and took the opportunity to meet their sons' Brothers and also many of the professors who were invited. From all comments heard those who attended were more than pleased with the hospitality shown.

On the scholastic side of life the Phi Chapter has maintained an average of 80.44 which is above the college average. Besides this five of the seniors are engaged in honors work.

We are also happy to announce that our new Faculty Adviser is Prof. Robert Gross of the psychology department. He has shown a great deal of interest in the house and will be of great help to all of us.

Hod Moses '55 has been elected president of the Glee Club and also appointed a member of the Executive Council of the House Management Committee.

The Class of '54 has a lot of news to contribute with half of them in graduate school and Brothers Reg Towner, Charles Barnaby, and John Ewing joining the ranks of the Benedicts during the summer. Phillip Greeley '55 was married this summer and is now living in Amherst.—DAVID A. HEUER.

New executives installed this spring at Psi were Samuel Furiness, Jr., Alpha; Leon J. Waclawski, Beta; Robert A. Maginn, Gamma; James R. Tillotson, Delta; Donald E. Sooy, Epsilon; and William E. Ebeling, Zeta. Appointed to head various house committees were Brothers Maginn, Magnuson, Neureuter, Castor, Ring, Dobossy, and Sooy.

This Fall, as has been the custom at Psi, pledges and several Brothers spent the final week of their vacations readying the chapter house for the start of the school year. Among other things a parking lot was completed and the dining room and kitchen received needed coats of paint.

"Uncle Sam" found need in his Army for Donald Adlickes and Pledge Thomas Edwards. Returned after four years in the Air Force to resume study at Lehigh was Fred Boyce of Wallingford. Three of Psi's graduating class of '54 were married this summer: Thomas E. Walter to Ilean Dobossy; Jay Robert Stemler to Joan Lescallette; and James L. Cutler to Ann Hentschel. The weddings were attended by many Brothers.

Sports-wise, Carlton Clark is co-captain of this year's cross-country team and interfraternity sports got under way with Chi Phi routing ΦΓΔ 24-7 in the football opener. While Lehigh's opening football games were unsuccessful, the parties following were. We are now awaiting Fall Houseparty and the appearance of Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey who are to provide the dance music.

A transfer student from Keystone Junior College, Bob Sproul, was pledged and welcomed as a fine addition to our Junior Class. Pledge Sproul hails from Scranton. Another prominent addition to the Chapter this Fall was in the form of a huge, but friendly Great Dane. "King," though still new to fraternity and college life, has taken well to his new environs.

Psi was sorry to lose the services of its past Adviser, Dr. Martin S. Kleckner. Dr. Kleckner's time and devotion to Chi Phi were greatly appreciated and the Chapter would like to extend its warmest thanks to him.—WILLIAM E. EBELING.

RUSHING got off to a good start at Omega this fall under the capable supervision of Rush Chairman Bud Brown. A group of undergraduate Brothers headed by Neal Gray, furnished some loud, but hardly musical, entertainment for the week-night smokers. One of the highlights of rushing was the Toga Party. Every sheet in the house was manned, and some were wo-manned, for this gala affair. Our efforts brought forth 17 very fine pledges from various locations: Atlanta: Roy A. Evans, Bob Johnson, Fleming Law, John H. Strickler, Walter Stovall and Jerry Wright and Haskell Adler; Albany, Richard Mann Harper; Augusta, Dessie Ford Miller and Bev. Hite; Athens, Jim Sanders; Savannah, Dan D. Pruitt, Thomas J. Sheehan, Frank E. Heidt; Marietta, Charles Aycock; Rome, Al Braselton; LaGrange, Glen Conway and Ben McLaughlin; Norfolk, Va., George Gabriel, Jr.

We hope to add to our collection of intramural trophies by again winning the golf cup and doing a repeat performance of our triumph of four years ago.

We want to thank the Mothers' Club and the many Alumni whose help during the summer and this Fall has been indispensable to us. We hope to continue the traditional "after the football game" tea dances, and extend a cordial invitation to all Brothers to stop by.

Officers are Bob Shivers, Alpha; Lamar Reese, Beta; Charles Davis, Gamma; Bill Waller, Delta; Ben Roberts, Zeta; and Drew Lidell, Epsilon.—BEN ROBERTS.

Alpha Delta Won Spring Week Trophy

WILLIAM K. ROBERTS, Alpha
Pennsylvania State University

ON Sept. 12, 1954, 35 Brothers and pledges returned to Alpha Delta. An estimated turnout of 40 men was anticipated; however, we lost our Gamma, Robert Pierce '55, to Uncle Sam and had four pledges transfer to other colleges. As a result, the chapter house is now operating below its full capacity. At present, we are attempting to compensate for this loss by rushing transfer students who have come to the University. Any help given by the Alumni and other Chapters concerning this problem, would be greatly appreciated.

One of the bright spots of the Summer was the action taken on our improvement program. Under the guiding hand of our Financial Adviser, Charles Stoddard '31, an automatic heating system was installed; the floors of every room finished with asphalt tile; the third floor bathroom renovated; the sleeping rooms provided with new double-decked beds—complete with mattresses; and the dining room tables replaced by new ones. These improvements were very costly and would not have been possible, without the additional aid of Brother Ostermayer '17, president of the House Association, and Brother Vincent '35, our Faculty Adviser.

Last May our social standing among the Penn State fraternities received its greatest "boost" in many years. Directed by our social chairman, Donald Curtis, '54, we captured the Spring Week trophy by topping 45 other participants. This victory was attained by placing first in the Float Parade, second in the Carnival, second in the Miss Penn State contest, and second in the He-Man contest. We also received credit for participating in the Mad Hatter's contest. Thus, we increased our trophy collection, adding three, for the 1953-54 year.

The sports program is gradually on the upswing, as the other 51 fraternities here at Penn State, sadly learned from competition. The wrestling squad missed the University championship by the narrow margin of five points. The title trophy would now be safely nestled in the confines of Chi Phi, had not our present Alpha, William K. Roberts, injured his knee—thus prohibiting him from participating in the championship bouts. Armour Black '56 captured the 130-pound championship by virtue of a 3-2 decision.

Scholarship has always been a problem here at Alpha Delta. However, we showed a substantial gain in the fraternity standings during the past school year. Helping greatly in this achievement were the Seniors headed by Wilson

B. Cramer, our Sparks Medal winner. This year we hope to further our position by introducing a "big-little brother" relationship. Our goal is to have both the Brother and the pledge conscious of their academic standings. It will be of value to have enforced hours for study.

Another advisory capacity was filled recently when Rev. John Duley accepted the position of Religious Adviser to the Fraternity.

During the final week of September, three pledges from last spring's pledge class were initiated. This Fall's pledge class now totals 15.—DONALD LOWRY.

Delta Delta Men Spark Activities

WALTER DOUCETT, Alpha
UCLA

THIS semester, led by Alpha Walt Doucett, has seen the Chapter again gain recognition in the campus Blood Drive, for the Homecoming float, and intramural sports. Assisting Brother Doucett are Beta Floyd Allen; Gamma Ralph Morehead; Delta Ralph Arceri; Epsilon Al Atmore; and Zeta Don Roberts.

The men of Delta Delta fielded a strong team with Athletic Chairman Ron Hillblom calling the plays that had the other teams guessing. Long hours spent in poking crêpe paper through chicken wire mesh were planned and directed by Brothers Buechler and Blakely, who made all the arrangements, including the help of the local chapter of ΦM sorority in building the Homecoming parade float. Ted Borock, Delta Delta's Blood Drive Chairman, was also one of the Bruin mentors on the cricket field as was Jerry Penner on the football field. Both Leon Blakely and Lee Burns found time to devote to AKΨ, business administration professional, in which Brother Burns doubled as social chairman, also holding this position in the Chapter. Helped by John Frey, he has evolved a full fall social calendar including exchanges with ΑΞΔ, ΠΒΦ, ΣΚ, ΖΤΑ, and ΦΜ, and numerous house parties. This month will see Delta Delta entertaining a number of underprivileged children, as is the custom at Christmas time.

John Poalozzi has been keeping in close contact with the Alumni in his position as Alumni Coördinator, hoping to get them more closely associated with the Chapter. Leading the enthusiastic pledges in their pursuits is Bob McIver, who promises to better last semester's class, from which Brothers Morehead, Borock, Blakely, Lamoureux, and Werts were initiated.

Both Brothers Turnblade and Doucett, this year's Sparks Award winners, are members of TBII, national engineering honorary; and Brothers Poalozzi and Hillblom, fellow engineers are members of the campus engineering society. Brother Woodward is a member of its counterpart in the geology department. Active on their respective class councils are Brothers Woodward, Hillblom, Arceri, Roberts, Blakely, Morehead, Werts, Lamoureux, and Frey. Members of UCLA's famed rally committee are Brothers Frey, Borock, and Turnblade. Brother Turnblade, Scabbard and Blade member, is battalion commander of the NROTC; and responsible for the Homecoming parade float design and redecoration of the den, Ben Talbert, was a member of ΑΦΩ, national service fraternity. A recent grad, Howard Otto, threw bachelorhood aside with his marriage to Joan Leslie and the Armed Forces now has Brother Scott in its ranks.—DON ROBERTS.

EPSILON DELTA is placing the emphasis on rushing this Fall. We are setting our goal for eight more pledges by the end of this term. The new men who pledged this term are Al Hollenbeck, San Mateo, Cal.; Carl Ellis and Dick White, Medford; and Jim Hatch, Tillamook.

Epsilon Delta has a well-rounded social schedule. We have planned three exchange dinners, one fireside, and our annual pledge dinner dance. Brother Sid Bechtolt and wife had a baby boy this summer. Rod Canutt, who is the present Delta, was awarded the Sparks Memorial Medal for his outstanding grades in the past year. At the present we have touch football and volleyball scheduled for our fall term athletic activities.

Through the excellent coöperation of the men we have our house in excellent condition for the coming year. We have taken care of several miscellaneous items and have added a new back lawn to our property. In the past eight years we have paid off our $20,000 mortgage on our present house. Also we have acquired a lot covering half a city block for our proposed new chapter house. The $8,000 lot is in a very favorable location near the campus. We have tentatively planned to start construction on our 40-man house by 1957.

We are very pleased to have another Alumnus back on campus this year—Howard Ballieu, who is working for his master's degree in electrical engineering.—RON TRAVER.

Eta Delta Begins 21st Year at USC

DICK WHITESELL, Alpha
University of Southern California

ETA DELTA's fall semester started this year in the summer vacation. During the vacation, the newly-elected officers who are Richard Whitesell, Alpha; Archie MacMillan, Beta; Harold Hall, Gamma; Dick Saydah, Zeta; and Richard Crowley, Delta, met several times to set up plans for the coming semester. Rush parties were scheduled at the beach, the mountains, and at some of the Brothers' homes. Also the ground

Eta Delta celebrated its 20th anniversary on the University of Southern California campus on April 5. Above, Sue Branan, housemother known to every Brother in that time, is passing the birthday cake to Elmer Hoffman '18, Clay Claberg '17, and Ed Stones '37. Top, right: "Happy" Dick Whitesell, Alpha, crowns Valley Hoffman, Pi Phi, while her attendants, Carolyn Giddings, Kappa, and Michele Fox, Alpha Phi, look on. Eta Delta's Watermelon Dig is famous. Here Dennis Fagerhult cuts up a melon for the crowd. Bob Schultz and Ray Martin caught Dennis later taking off with a whole one. The six finalists in the Queen contest are pretty girls work for the Annual Watermelon Dig which this year carried with it the first of an annual Kickoff Queen Contest was laid. The final judging of the contestants from the sororities took place at the Dig after the Pitt-SC night game.

Eta Delta's rushing is off to a good start with the Chakett now being displayed by 13 new pledges: Fletcher Phillips, Dick Hill, John Yuchovich, Geoffrey England, John Day, Ken Von Rohr, Bob Van Horst, Dick Bronson, Ray Martin, Bob Lawson, Dennis Fagerhult, John Trammell, and Bob Schultz, president of the class. During the Dig the pledges were busy cutting watermelons for the hungry after-game rooters, who managed to eat two and one half tons of ice cold melon. The new pledge class is very enthused with fraternity and college life and the Chapter is aiding them in arranging exchange luncheons with the sororities. The pledges also have many great ideas for Homecoming which will appear in a future letter. Phil Salisbury, pledgemaster, and Phil Battaglia, assistant pledgemaster, have begun pledge training programs.

A big thrill for the Chapter was the winning of the scholarship trophy. The Chapter compiled a grade point average of 2.71 to capture the award with Charles Poss winning the Sparks Medal.

Gloria Donaldson, writing in The Trojan, had this to say about Eta Delta's 20th anniversary last spring:

"The SC chapter of Chi Phi fraternity has set aside the week of April 5 to celebrate their 20th anniversary on campus.

"The oldest social fraternity in existence, the local group has planned many activities for the week, climaxed by a dinner-dance at the Moulin Rouge in Hollywood.

"The week's festivities will begin on Monday night at a dinner in honor of Miss Sue Branan, housemother of the SC chapter for 20 years. More than 250 returning Alumni are expected to be present, including Lewis Gough, SC Alumni Association president; Morey Thomas, past Knights president and former El Rod editor; Paul Wildman, past student body president; Elmer Hoffman, Alumni Adviser and well-known lawyer; Phil Daniels, charter member and 4-year yell king; and Roland Sink, former SC track star.

"The local Eta Delta Chapter was founded by the merging of two local fraternities on campus. Although the Chapter was not installed until 1934, its story begins with the founding in 1897 of Theta Psi, one of the locals. In 1927, the SC Alumni Association was approached regarding steps necessary to petition the Chi Phi Fraternity for a charter. Theta Psi and another local, Sigma Tau, merged to form the Eta Delta Chapter of Chi Phi, which was formally installed Apr. 6, 1934.

"Although the war, beginning in 1941, took many members from the Chapter, there were always enough men in various reserve training programs on campus to keep the house open. Of all its members who served in the armed services, not one of them failed to come back.

"The Fraternity also is celebrating its 130th year nationally, being founded in 1824.

"Officers of the local Chapter include Chuck Poss, president; Gil Stephenson, vice president; Bob Warren, secretary; Dick Crowley, treasurer; Phil Battaglia, social chairman; and Dick Whitesell, publicity chairman."—DICK SAYDAH.

THE EDUCATIONAL TRUST

The Fraternity invites contributions from its Alumni to the Chi Phi Educational Trust. Through contributions to its Educational Trust the Fraternity is building a permanent endowment. The income from the endowment is used to help Chapters and active members in worthy endeavors, particularly in assisting in their housing problems.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THIS FUND ARE TAX EXEMPT

NOTE: Make your contributions to the Chi Phi Educational Trust for 1954 before January 1 and mail to 312 Mark Building, Atlanta 3, Georgia.
