Let's talk it over

THE Congress is over and, all in all, it was a good one. The delegates who were there represented their Chapters well and deserve congratulations for their good work. Those Chapters which did not have delegates there have missed something. It is the hope of the Council that every Chapter will always have the proper representation at Congress. That, of course, is two delegates from each chapter. The most important thing accomplished by the Congress was the election of a new Grand Alpha. Dr. O. B. Williams, Nu '21, of Austin, Texas, was unanimously elected to serve the Fraternity for two years beginning August 1, 1957. Brother Williams' address is Box 1585, University Station, Austin 12, Texas. He will announce his new Council in the April issue of THE CHAKETT. It has been my pleasure and privilege to work with Brother Williams for many years. He is one of the most outstanding Chi Phis I know. For the last several years he has served you as the Grand Epsilon of the Fraternity. He now takes his seat on the Council of the Fraternity as the Grand Alpha Elect. That leaves a vacancy in the position of Grand Epsilon, which must be filled by appointment by Brother Carl Gladfelter, the present Grand Alpha. Brother Gladfelter has appointed Brother John T. Porter, Kappa '39, to this most important position. Brother Porter has done very excellent work for the Kappa Chapter ever since his graduation. He is now Chapter Adviser for the Kappa Chapter and is Secretary-Treasurer of the Kappa Alumni Association.

The best thing that has happened to the Fraternity in many years is that Brother Carl Gladfelter, Grand Alpha, is taking a leave of absence from his duties at the University of Connecticut, beginning January 15, 1957, and will visit every Chapter of the Fraternity between that date and June 1. He plans to spend several days with each Chapter, and the Fraternity should greatly benefit by this unselfish act on his part. The Council is certain that Chi Phi will be a much better Fraternity because of Brother Gladfelter's activities. I know that each one of the Chapters will be looking forward to his visit.

This is the time of the year when the Chapters should begin planning for their Zone Meetings. Congress this year endorsed the practice of holding Zone Meetings and urged the Chapters to actively participate in these meetings. The Chapters that will be hosts to the Zone Meetings should make their plans immediately. Please notify us when you set the dates for these meetings so, if it is possible, one of the members of the Council can be with you boys at each of these meetings. If you want any help in arranging a Zone Meeting, please write the office of the Council and we will give you all the help possible. As you know, the Fraternity is divided into five zones and we hope each of the zones will have a successful meeting this year.

The reports this office has received from the Chapters so far, as to the number of men pledged, have been very gratifying. The Council is particularly anxious for each Chapter to pledge and initiate a sufficient number of men this year so that they will have a large Senior Class four years from now. If each of you will do that, your chapter problems will vanish.

The Council wishes to congratulate the Tau Chapter on winning the Scholarship Plaque for the year 1956-57. The plaque was presented to them at the Congress in September. This award is given to the Chapter with the highest scholarship standing for the academic year.

The Council also wishes to congratulate the winners of the Sparks Memorial Medals, whose names you will find listed elsewhere in this issue.

The recipients of the Council Plaque for service to the Fraternity this year were Dr. James Z. Appel, Zeta '28, and Brother Frank Loehner, Iota '21. This is the first time the Council has ever given more than one of these plaques in a single year, but the choice between these two men became so difficult that we decided to solve it by giving each of them a plaque. This presentation was also made at the Congress.

It is particularly gratifying to me and to the Council that the Chi Phi Educational Trust has set up a program of cash awards, which will be presented at the next Congress. Elsewhere in this issue of THE CHAKETT you will find this program outlined in detail. The Council hopes that the Chapters will be greatly stimulated in their scholastic efforts by these awards. We wish to pay tribute to Brother Frederick M. Hunter, our Scholarship Counselor, for the fine work he is doing on behalf of the Chi Phi Fraternity, and we urge each Chapter to cooperate with him to the fullest extent. You undergraduates go to school primarily for an education and Dr. Hunter is trying to help you attain that goal.

I have previously reported to you the great loss the Fraternity sustained in the death of Brother Joseph A. Moore, Lambda '98, which left a vacancy on the Board of Governors of the Chi Phi Educational Trust. To succeed Brother Moore, the Council elected Brother E. Scott Laue, Beta Delta '23. Brother Laue will be remembered by many of you as the man who, along with many others, has done such fine work for the Beta Delta Chapter in Seattle, Wash.

There are a lot of men working for the Chi Phi Fraternity, to whom the Council wishes to say "Thank you." I make particular reference to the State Representatives, the Council Representatives, and the Chapter Advisers. Without their help the Council's work would be much more difficult.

Please let me talk to you now a little about Alumni Dues. You will receive your 1957 notice on January 1. Without the generosity of the many thousands of you who have contributed in this manner, your Fraternity could not successfully

Two Service Plaques Awarded at Congress

THE 132nd Congress of the Chi Phi Fraternity was held at the Chamberlin Hotel at Old Point Comfort, Va., on Sept. 5, 6 and 7. Wednesday morning was given over to registration and a meeting of the Council. Wednesday afternoon individual conferences were held with the delegates from each Chapter that was represented. These conferences were most helpful to the Council and, we hope, to the delegates.

Zone Meetings were held at seven o'clock Wednesday evening, preceding the stag Smoker, which was held at the hotel and proved to be a most delightful occasion. After the Smoker the Council Meeting of that morning was reconvened.

Thursday morning the Congress was opened with the election of Brother Hugh M. Dorsey, Gamma '33, as Alpha of Congress. Brother Russell L. Guin, Alpha-Chi '17, was elected the Gamma of Congress, and the Epsilons elected were Brother Howard J. Super, Gamma Delta, and Brother John A. Taylor, Zeta Delta. The first session was given over to routine Congress business. Committee meetings were held immediately following lunch, and at 3:00 o'clock the Congress reconvened and continued with discussion of matters pertaining to the welfare of the Fraternity.

The third session of the Congress convened on Friday morning and proceeded with the election of a new Grand Alpha. Dr. O. B. Williams, Nu '21, was unanimously elected to this high office, after which he made a speech of acceptance that was exceedingly well received by the delegates and Brothers assembled. The next order of business was the election of a member of the Board of Governors of the Chi Phi Educational Trust to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Brother Joseph A. Moore, Lambda '98. Brother E. Scott Laue, Beta Delta '23, was unanimously elected to fill this vacancy.

The ritualistic work was conducted by the Grand Alpha, Brother Carl J. Gladfelter, with the assistance of other Grand Officers, on Friday afternoon. The Memorial Service and the Libations were fol-

Dr. James Z. Appel, Zeta '28, left, and Frank Loehnert, Iota '21, were the joint recipients of the Council Plaque for service to the Fraternity. This was the first time two such awards were given lowed by the Candlelight Ceremony, which was beautifully performed by members of the Epsilon Chapter.

The Congressional Ball was held on Thursday night and was thoroughly enjoyed by all those present. As a special feature of this occasion, the scholastic and achievement awards were presented to the recipients immediately following dinner. Judge L. Z. Rosser, National Director, presented one of the Council Plaques, for service to the Fraternity, to Brother James Z. Appel, Zeta '28, with appropriate remarks. The other Council Plaque was presented by Brother Gladfelter to Brother Frank Loehnert, Iota '21. The Sparks Memorial Medals were presented by Brother Frederick M. Hunter, Scholarship Counselor, after which he presented the Scholarship Plaque to the Tau Chapter. After this enjoyable interlude, the band played on until the wee small hours and a very good time was had by all.

There were two Alumni visitors at the Congress who contributed a great deal to our meeting, both in the business sessions and the social activities. They were Brother J. R. Dockery, an alumnus of the Xi Chapter, who lives at Greenwood, Miss., and Brother Rudy Schlosser, Chapter Adviser for the Pi Chapter, who lives in Wilmette, Ill.

The Council was well pleased with the attendance at this Congress and with the work accomplished.

Blood Brothers are Also 50-year Chi Phi Brothers

SEE those two lapel pins worn so proudly by Brothers E. A. and Abner A. Osborn. They represent 50 years of membership in Chi Phi and the Osborn brothers are the only two blood brothers in the Fraternity to possess them.

E. A., whose name upon christening was Eliphalet Andrews Osborn, a name which he says he could neither spell nor pronounce, was born on July 4, 1880, in Columbus, Ohio. His friends called him "Life," the spelling of which he changed to "Liphe." He became a Chi Phi in Iota Chapter after his brother Abner had been initiated. Abner's class at Ohio State University was '00; Liphe belonged to the Class of '02. Abner was a chemist, Liphe an engineer. After positions in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Alabama, Abner became superintendent of Iron Furnace with the old Reading Iron Co. at Hokendauqua, Pa. When the plant finally closed, he retired and moved to Allentown, Pa. His home is now in Lakeland, Fla. He is the grandfather of twin boys, aged 7, and a year-old lad, children of his son.

Brother Liphe went to work as an engineer with the Shawmut

Mining Co. of western Pennsylvania upon graduation. In 1904 he opened an office in Jellico, Tenn. doing general mine practice until he accepted a position with the Asher Coal Co. of Kentucky in 1910, opening the first three mines on the Cumberland River below Harlan. When the Asher Co. was sold in 1912, he went to the West Virginia Pocahontas coal field in the employment of the U. S. Steel Corp. mines at Gary, W. Va. The following year he moved to Sprigg, W. Va., as an engineer for the Crystal Block Coal & Coke Co.

In 1914, Brother Osborn married Lillian Pierce Jones of Louisville, an alumna of Brenau College. The next year they settled down in Welch, W. Va., where he went back to the general practice of mining engineering. He continued in this practice until 1950, serving as city engineer for 34 years.

The Osborns now live in Bluefield, W. Va., where their daughter, Mrs. James L. Foster, lives. Three grandchildren keep him busy along with reporting on mines and coal properties. He is a director of the Crystal Block Coal & Coke Co. He

Brother Collyer is One of America's

Foremost Leaders

JOHN LYON COLLYER, Xi '17, chairman of the Board of Directors and chief executive officer of The B. F. Goodrich Co., has been prominently identified with the rubber industry here and abroad for many years, and was managing director of the largest rubber company in the world outside the United States before joining B. F. Goodrich in 1939.

He and Mrs. Collyer, formerly Georgia Forman, of Buffalo, N. Y., make their home in Akron, Ohio. Children are Georgia (Mrs. William E. Shively), and (stepchildren) Deborah (Mrs. George B. Shepard) and Gilbert.

Brother Collyer was born at Chelsea-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., in 1893, and as a boy and young man turned his attention to shipbuilding, in which his family had been active more than a hundred years ago. He first became a shipyard worker during school vacations.

In Cornell University, which he entered in 1913, Brother Collyer became prominent in student activities, was president of his class and stroke oar and captain of the varsity crew. In his senior year he served as head coach of the Cornell crews and was urged to make coaching his profession.

Graduating in 1917 as a mechanical engineer and naval architect, he immediately joined the staff of the Bethlehem Ship Building Corp., a subsidiary of the Bethlehem Steel Co. His progress was rapid and after service as a foreman and personnel director he was appointed general superintendent.

The Dunlop Tire & Rubber Co., of Buffalo, N. Y., invited him at age 29 to become vice president, a position he held from 1923 to 1929 when he went to the parent company, Dunlop Rubber Co., Ltd., in England as works director of the company's plant at Fort Dunlop. In 1931 Collyer was appointed director of Dunlop manufacture throughout the world, and in 1936 was elected to the company's board of directors with the responsibility for the direction of all Dunlop manufacturing in 12 countries. The following year he was made managing director of The Dunlop Rubber Co., Ltd., which position he resigned to accept the presidency of the B. F. Goodrich Co., in 1939. He relinquished this position, in which he had served for nearly 15 years, to William S. Richardson on April 20, 1954, and was reelected chairman of the Board and chief executive officer of the company.

Following his return to the United States, Brother Collyer in early 1940 advocated the establishment of a government-sponsored American-made rubber program as a national safeguard against possible loss of our principal sources of supply for crude rubber in the event of war in the Far East. To demonstrate the possibilities of man-made rubber, Brother Collyer announced for general sale by his company passenger car tires in which the B. F. Goodrich Co.'s American-made rubber replaced crude rubber by more than 50 per cent. This was in June, 1940, 18 months before Pearl Harbor.

Brother Collyer served as an industry adviser to the State Department in rubber meetings held in England in 1944, in the United States and in London in 1945, in the Netherlands in 1946, in the United States in 1947, in England in 1949, Canada in 1952, and in Denmark in 1953.

In March, 1945, at the request of The White House, Mr. Collyer was made Special Director of Rubber Programs in the War Production Board, Washington, D. C. He completed his special assignments in July, 1945, returning to the presidency of B. F. Goodrich at that time.

On executive order of the President, Brother Collyer was awarded the Medal for Merit, the highest civilian award, on Dec. 18, 1946, for "Foresight, ability, and energy in the development and execution of a program to provide the armed forces and the country with the rubber products needed in the war effort." He was made Chevalier of the Legion of Honor by decree of the French Republic in 1949.

Brother Collyer was a member of a special non-partisan committee named by President Truman in July, 1947, to consider the extent of the economic aid (The Marshall Plan) that the United States might safely and wisely extend to other countries.

He is chairman of the Board of Trustees of Cornell University, member of the Business Advisory Council of the United States Department of Commerce since 1942 and chairman in 1947 and 1948, a director of Rubber Manufacturers Association, a director of J. P. Morgan and Co., Inc., a trustee of the Eisenhower Exchange Fellowships, a trustee of the Committee for Economic Development, a trustee of the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, a director of the Fund for

by FREDERICK M. HUNTER
National Scholarship Counselor

IS high standing in scholarship really important to the fraternity man, to the chapter to which he belongs, to his fraternity nationally? Does the rank of his chapter among the living groups of the campus make any difference to him during the college days? Does the standing of his fraternity among the 61 members of the National Interfraternity Council have any meaning to the fraternity man?

An emphatic "Yes, it makes a great deal of difference" is the answer to all these questions. High rank in scholarship is the basis of all true excellence. This holds for the local campus and in the area of higher education as a whole. High standing is the indispensable ingredient and the difference between a tradition and habit of mediocrity and distinguished achievement in all that the fraternity man does.

In the Dean's office of every campus, among the local Interfraternity Council members, and also among the great universities and colleges wherever there are fraternities, the first essential of a good reputation is outstanding scholarship rank. A chapter may have all the graces of social accomplishment, all the distinctions of athletic prowess, and even dominant leadership in extracurricular activities, but if it is known as a low scholarship group, its reputation is dubious wherever recommendations are made to rushees by counselors, deans, and administrators.

So strongly does the Chi Phi National Council hold to this idea as a heritage and tradition from the past of Chi Phi, that a strong program of awards was recommended by the Scholarship Counselor and the National Council to the recent annual Congress of the Fraternity at Fort Monroe. This program was approved unanimously by the Congress on Sept. 7, 1956. The provisions are as follows:

The Trustees of the Chi Phi Educational Trust offer the following schedule of scholastic awards operative from the date of adoption by the Congress. These awards will be made on the recommendations by the Scholarship Counselor and all Chapters are eligible for competition:

1. A $100 cash award to the Chapter winning the annual National Chi Phi Achievement Award. The award is represented by an engraved plaque presented at the annual Congress. (This award is made to the Chapter whose standing is the highest percentage above the all-men average of the institution.)

2. A $100 cash award to the Chapter with 40 or more members showing the greatest percentage of improvement for the year.

3. A $75 cash award to the Chapter with less than 40 members showing the greatest percentage of improvement for the year.

4. A $25 cash award to each Chapter ranking first among the fraternities on the campus as shown in the report of the Scholarship Counselor at the annual Congress for the year, provided the scholarship average or GPA is equal to, or above, the all-men average.

These awards will be made at the annual Congress of the Fraternity at the time of the Scholarship Counselor's report. The Sparks Medals will be awarded as usual at the same time. The National Council regards scholarship as the most important factor in the current, as well as the enduring, reputation of a chapter or the entire national fraternity.

RECALLING Chi Phi memories, the late Nathaniel Blaisdell, Kappa (Brown) '83, remembered a Founders' Day dinner in San Francisco. "That is the all-prevailing influence (kindness) that dwells in every chapter house and meeting place of the Fraternity. That is the spirit that prompted the president of perhaps the largest public utility in the nation to cross the dining hall of the Club, put his hand on the shoulder of a little brother and say, 'I'm coming to the Founders' dinner, Nat, and I shall bring five Chi Phis.' 'Fine, Jim, and you will be glad to accept the acclaim that will greet you as you introduce them.' 'Don't call on me or I will not come.' 'No!' 'No! Promise me that you will not call on me.' 'That is an agreement,' and we gripped hands.

"But the ruler of that great electrical empire that extends from Mt. Shasta to Tehachapi Pass and from the Sierra to the Sea, that man of the easy flowing signature,

President

did not escape, for his amply jollied-up 5-some, failing to break down my promise, turned their battery on a man of many millions, the boss of an enormous shipyard, a yard with ten dry docks, factories, machine shops, cranes, and smaller hoists, a laying-out loft where the keel of the longest freighter can be chalked out on the floor and the side plates can be spaced, measured and numbered, a yard that launched five ships on one tide, and he, Joseph A. Moore, not knowing of my promise, announced Brother James B. Black and the uproar was terrific. Brother Black took it very well, said what he had to say, and he and his guests were satisfied to sit between two such distinguished Captains of Industry—that is what Chi Phi means to me."

Jim Black, Lambda '12, is chairman of the board of the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. He served as its president from 1935 to 1955. During this period California's growth was phenomenal. P G & E's expansion has kept pace.

Brother Black was born in Sycamore, Ill., on May 6, 1890. He went to the California School of Mechanical Arts (Lick School) before matriculating at the University of California in 1908. Following his graduation in 1912 he became service inspector for the Great Western Power Co. By 1918 he had become general sales manager, adding general managership by 1922. By 1923 he was vice president. Great Western was a subsidiary of Western Power Corp. In 1926 he became vice president of the parent company. The following year Manhattan's North American Co. bought up Western Power and Brother Black was added to its officer roster as vice president. What happened after that was told some time back by Forbes' Magazine.

"Expanding PG&E began flirting with North American at this point, soon took over the merged California twosome from NA. Chaperon Black, VP at North American, was in close attendance during the courtship period. Five years later PG&E President A. F. Hockenbeamer died, and Jim Black got a long distance message from San Francisco: would he take the PG&E presidency? Black and family pulled up stakes at fashionable Bronxville, N. Y., entrained to Bagdad by the Bay.

Because of his checkerboard career, Jim Black was especially qualified to head an ambitious utility. A graduate in Mechanical Engineering, Black had also been a utility sales manager, top administrator, financial adviser. Testifies Pacific's 'wise old Merlin,' 70-year-old VP John P. Coghlan (45 years with the company): 'Black was exposed to the financial world in New York for a good many years . . . knows the intricacies of high finance as well as engineering.'"

Besides PG&E, Brother Black sits on the boards of US Steel, Southern Pacific Co., Equitable Life, Shell Oil, Chemical Corn Bank, Fireman's Fund Insurance Co., Del Monte, California Pacific Tile Insurance Co.

He is on the board of trustees of Stanford University, the Ford Foundation, the Eisenhower Exchange Fellowship, Inc., the National Safety Council, and the California Palace of the Legion of Honor. He is a consultant for the National Security Council, on the advisory council of the School of Business Administration, University of California, on the Industrial Advisory Committee for the Secretary of the Treasury, and on the Business Advisory Council for the U. S. Department of Commerce, the Northern California Advisory Committee of the National Assn. of Manufacturers, Council of U. S. Associated, International Chamber of Commerce, and on the Edison Electric Institute Advisory Committee. He is a director of the National Industrial Conference Board and on the board of governors of the San Francisco Symphony Assn.

All of these activities were forecast when Brother Black was at the University. There he belonged to Golden Bear, Skull and Keys, TBII, HKN, and the Big "C" Society.

Brother Black lives at 1100 Sacramento St., San Francisco. His wife is the former Katharine McElrath. His children are James Byers Black, Jr., Charles Alden Black, and Mrs. Joseph W. Burk.

Alwin A. Jones, Sigma '17, is president of the Dewey State Bank

ALWIN A. JONES, known to his many friends as "Winnie," was born and reared in the Dewey community in Champaign County, Ill. As president of the Dewey State Bank, he continues to live in Dewey, operating the bank and actively engaging in both county and community affairs.

A. A. Jones has always been vitally interested in his community and especially in the young people. Having served as a 4-H Club leader for 22 years, he has never seemed too busy to serve when called upon. Brother Jones feels that the many boys and girls with whom he has worked in the 4-H Club and who have now grown into useful adulthood are ample reward for his efforts. However, in 1954, he was presented a diamond 4-H pin at the completion of 20 years of continuous 4-H Club leadership. In 1942 he was one of the organizers of the Fisher Community Fair, which at that time was a one-day event. Since then it has grown and is now a 3-day County Fair.

Due to his well known interest in young people, he has been actively connected with the schools throughout his area, acting in an advisory capacity, lending support and encouragement to athletics, serving as treasurer of school districts and Unit I of Champaign County, and serving on the committee to organize the School Unit System in the County.

Brother Jones attended the University of Illinois in Class of 1917 and is affiliated with Sigma Chapter. He is the third of four brothers to join the Chi Phi ranks and has retained an active interest in the Sigma Chapter throughout the years. His brothers are the late J. K. Jones, J. M. Jones, and S. D. Jones. His nephew, R. J. Jones, also belongs to the Chapter.

During World War I he served as a pilot in the Air Corps. After completion of his service he returned to his home and with the death of his father, he took employment in the Dewey State Bank where he has continued to serve his community for 37 years. Brother Jones has always been particularly thankful that when many businesses were suffering during the depression of the '30's, there was no interruption in the service of his bank to the public. During these years of banking Brother Jones has served as president of Group 7 of the Illinois State Bankers' Assn. and on the State Agriculture Committee of this Association.

Since business is not all time consuming, he has sought diversification of his energies and interests in the following adult organizations: Champaign B.P.O.E. and Moose; Champaign County Sportsman's Club; Rantoul American Legion; State and National Council of the Y.M.C.A.; A.F.A.M.; Bloomington Consistory; member of the National Council of the United Service Organization; and the Christian Church. Recently, he was elected to represent the Rantoul U.S.O. Club at the National Council meeting in Washington, D. C. He is also on the Advisory Council and Legislative Committee of the Illinois Volunteer Firemen's Assn.

Traveling is Brother Jones' hobby. Foreign travel has not lured him to date, but for many years he has planned and enjoyed extensive trips throughout the continent, having visited all of the 48 states, all of the Provinces of Canada, Mexico, and Alaska. On many of these vacation trips, he has been accompanied by his wife and daughter. Mrs. Jones, the former E. LaVerne Allison, is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and their daughter, Kay DeMaris Jones, is presently a sophomore in the College of Liberal Arts and Science at the University of Illinois, a second generation Illini. Travel is a family affair, since Brother Jones considers travel an extension of one's education. Retirement has no glamour for Brother Jones, for he is never happier than when in the midst of constructive activity. However, in the event retirement does catch up with him, travel will probably be on his agenda because of his continuing interest in people and their surroundings.

As mentioned previously, Brother Jones has many interests, but he is primarily a banker. Being a banker in a small town and agricultural community develops many intimate associations. Through the years people have come to depend on him not only as a friend but also as a valued citizen because his enthusiasm and eagerness for the new have given him the "forward look."

Elected President

C. PARKER HERBELL, Mu '23, was elected president of the Sanborn Map Co. of New York City. A native of New York, Mr. Herbell has been associated with Sanborn since 1930, when he started as publishing plant manager at Pelham, New York. Twelve years later he was elected vice president in charge of plant operations, and in 1954 came to the home office in New York City as senior vice president.—Stevens Indicator.

John T. Porter Becomes Grand Epsilon

THE Kappa Chapter at the University of Wisconsin needs no introduction to John T. Porter, Chi Phi's new Grand Epsilon. Initiated by the Chapter in the fall of 1936, Brother Porter has served as Advisor to the Chapter since 1950. He is also secretary-treasurer of the Kappa of Chi Phi Alumni Assn.

Brother Porter was born in Madison on Jan. 23, 1918. His elementary and secondary education was in the Madison public schools. His major at the University was in commerce and he received his B.A. degree in 1939. He served four years in the Army during World War II, the last two being spent as clinical psychologist. Back at the University he took his LL.B. in 1946. For the past 10 years he has practiced law in Madison, specializing in transportation and traffic law before state and federal regulatory bodies.

Civic organizations have found Brother Porter a hard worker. He is president of the Wisconsin Council for Mentally Retarded Children, Inc., a state organization of representatives of local groups dedicated to improvement of educational and vocational opportunities and institutions for the training and care of the mentally retarded. He is active in the United Givers Fund Committee on Services to the Disabled.

Mrs. Porter is the former Jane Bleyer, a University of Wisconsin Tri Delt. The three Porter children are Philip, 10, John, 8, and Elizabeth, 4. The Porters live at 2221 Rowley Ave., Madison 5, Wis.

MARK M. LINDSEY, Omicron '42, of Hamlet, N. C., is a district governor of Rotary International, world-wide service club organization, for the 1956-57 fiscal year. As Governor, he coordinates the activities of 33 Rotary Clubs in North Carolina. During the year, he will visit each of the Clubs to offer advice and assistance on Rotary service activities and administration.

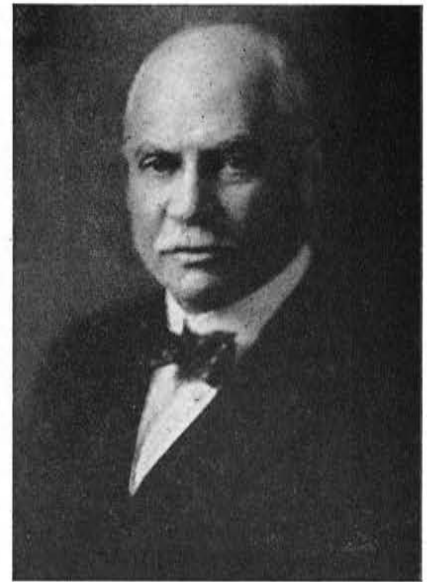

Dr. Lindsey is a surgeon in Hamlet. A graduate of Yale University, he was elected lifetime secretary of his graduating class, and three years later, he received the Doctor of Medicine degree from Yale.

In Richmond County, he is president of the Medical Society, vice president of the Cancer Association, finance chairman of the Boy Scouts of America, and a director of the Tuberculosis Association, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and the Heart Association. He is a trustee of the North

Nat Blaisdell Dies

THE year 1956 will be remembered in the Bay Area of California as the one in which Chi Phi lost two of its most loyal and beloved members. The passing of Joseph A. Moore was recorded in the September issue. On Sept. 13, Nathaniel Blaisdell, Kappa (Brown) '83, died at the age of 94. At the time of his death he was president of the Chi Phi Club of Northern California. He had served in that position for a long time. He served as president of the Brown Club of Alta California, for 53 years, declining reelection in 1951. He was given the highest award his Alma Mater can bestow upon an alumnus—the Brown Bear Award.

Directly after his graduation Brother Blaisdell went west. He took up work as a draftsman in an architect's office in San Francisco. In due time he opened his own office. By the time of the great disaster in 1906 he was one of the state's leading architects. He reopened his office at the corner of California and Sansome Sts., at a kitchen table under the open sky. His draftsmen came in pairs during the noon hour to consult with him and returned home to do their work. He worked diligently to rebuild San Francisco. His influence

Chi Phi Combats Medfly

DR. HOWARD V. WEEMS, JR., Gamma '44, Theta Delta '49, and other entomologists in the State Plant Board laboratory in Gainesville, Fla., are hard at work these days, identifying and attempting to eradicate the Medfly, the Mediterranean fruit fly which is a serious menace to the citrus industry wherever it hits.

Discovered last April by a Miami Shores resident, larvae were identified in the laboratory. Some 9,000 traps have been set up to discover the spread of the pest. Since its discovery, the fly has invaded 25 counties.

In an interview in the Gainesville Daily Sun, written by Tom McRae, Dr. Weems stated that the fly probably came into the country from Central or South America in a shipment of calomondins. Small fruit is a favorite carrier of the fly. Relaxed customs inspections are responsible for the invasion. Now only one in every three or four boxes of fruit is inspected.

Years ago an invasion of the Medfly occurred in Florida, but it was checked under the direction of the State Plant Board. Again that agency is directing operations. The danger of the fly, according to Dr.

Weems, comes from the fact that it attacks the tree fruit itself rather than the fallen fruit which other maggots destroy. The female deposits eggs inside the fruit using a hypodermic needle-like appendage through which the eggs are forced after the rind has been punctured. The eggs develop into larvae within three days. These feed inside the fruit for about 10 days, drop to the ground, enter into a cocoon state and remain under the surface of the earth for another 10 days. They become adult flies, emerge from the ground, and start the cycle over again. The fly is somewhat smaller than a housefly, marked with dark markings on an ivory-colored background.

Dr. Weems described the steps being taken to control the Medfly. There are 38 fumigation centers in operation. Eleven major and eight minor road blocks have been set up for inspection on a 24-hour basis. Water traffic is also being inspected during daylight hours. He asked all growers to destroy fallen fruit by burying it after spraying with insecticide. Housewives were asked to put spoiled fruit into waterproof bags for incineration or to bury it under at least a foot of soil.

ACCORDING TO THE PRESS, Chi Phis did

First Posthumous Degree

IN death, Bill Haddock, "who meant more to the morale and spirit of the chemistry department than any single student" it ever had, received the master of science degree he so narrowly missed while living.

William Osler Haddock '53-56G, president of Emory's Graduate School student body, died on June 6, after he had completed most of the requirements for the M.S. degree in chemistry but before he had written the necessary thesis. Bill Haddock, however, was something pretty special. That's why, at the Aug. 18 commencement, the University awarded him the first posthumous degree it has conferred in its history. His diploma was handed by President Goodrich C. White, Gamma '08, on that occasion to Bill Haddock's pretty widow, the former Patsy Carol Woodson '55N.

The story behind the unique award is this: In 1953 young Mr. Haddock, whose home was Anderson, S. C., was about to finish the College at Emory. With fine scholastic work he had won membership in ΦBK. He had joined Chi Phi Fraternity; become managing editor of the Campus and vice president of Pi Alpha, the chemists' society, and at Christmastime of 1951 had collected more money than any other fraternity man in Atlanta for the Empty Stocking Fund. Late in 1952 he was married to Patsy, a sophomore in Emory's nursing school.

Thus prepared for the future, Bill Haddock applied for admission to the Emory medical school. Under ordinary circumstances he would have been accepted in a flash, but his physical examination revealed a tragedy: Bill had Hodgkin's disease, an incurable progressive anemia, and he had only three or four more years to live.

The South Carolina boy decided to live out his remaining months as though he had a normal span of years before him. He determined to work for his master's degree, then his doctor's in chemistry. He knew he would soon die, Patsy knew, his professors knew, his fellow students knew. But Bill worked away at his master's as though nothing were wrong.

For a time he was an assistant in the chemistry department. His work won him election to Sigma Xi, the national honor society in science. He was elected to head the Graduate student body and became adviser to his fraternity, Chi Phi. Without charge he generously tutored freshmen. The spirit he showed in the face of death won him the accolade from Dr. Charles T. Lester '32-'34G, chemistry department chairman, which is quoted in the first paragraph.

He never felt well. In his last year he required repeated blood transfusions, often ran a fever of 101. But he worked up until a few days before entering Emory Hospital for what proved to be his terminal visit.

Among Bill's survivors are, besides his wife: his parents, Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Haddock; a brother, Sam, who is a junior in the Emory medical school; and a sister, Nan, and his grandmother, Mrs. Nora Haddock, of Macon.—Emory Alumnus.

How's Your Loyalty?

Bolster Demand

A PROMINENT advertising executive has said here that advertising methods must be geared to the demands of a rapidly expanding economy within the decade.

And it will mean an overhaul of present advertising concepts, said Thomas D'Arcy Brophy, Beta '16, chairman of the board of Kenyon & Eckhardt, Inc., a nationally known advertising agency.

Mr. Brophy said the tremendous expansion of economy predicted by 1965 dictates that demand must be adjusted to supply, instead of supply to demand.

"We cannot sell 350 billion dollars in goods with the same marketing tools with which we sold 250 billion dollars," he said in an address to the Atlanta Advertising Club.

Mr. Brophy said the "Challenge of Growth"—subject of his address—is before all mass communication media today.

He said advertising agencies must examine carefully the total marketing concept and must improve greatly the use of "total team brainpower" if they are to sell the additional 10 billion in goods forecast by economists by 1965.

Mr. Brophy said marketing facts must be sought out, the most dynamic facts emphasized and all resources accurately appraised. "Then we should set realistic sales and profit objectives," he said.

He said the total marketing concept should lead to "sound thinking realistically applied."

The advertising executive described the development of the atomic bomb as "the greatest example of the use of collective brainpower." But he said that example would be rivaled "if we solve the problems of this expanding economy."

He said some of the requirements for improving team brainpower are leadership, a set of professional and creative standards applying to all media and a "permissive and democratic atmosphere" for free expression.

"The forecasters depend on us to make this come true," he said in reference to the prediction of a 10-billion-dollar increase in goods sold by 1965.

Before dinner Marcus Harris '30 president, requested Lt. Comm. Charles S. Ruff '34, Naval Chaplain, to pronounce grace. After dinner Mr. Harris welcomed everyone and expressed especial pleasure at the presence of Dr. Robert. John B. Henneman, Epsilon '20, asked for the floor and read the following resolution:

"In anticipation of the 30th anniversary of this Chapter in August, 1956, and of the 80th birthday of its senior member and past president on the 4th of that month;

Also, in recognition of the fact that his father, the late Professor Henry Clay Brock, joined the Hampden-Sydney faculty 70 years ago and that his family have been closely and loyally associated with the College ever since;

BE IT RESOLVED: That we at our annual meeting tonight pay him tribute in this anniversary year by adopting as our official name, The Henry Irving Brock (Epsilon '95) Chapter of the Hampden-Sydney Alumni Association.

Mr. Henneman moved the resolution be adopted and the motion was unanimously approved.—The Record of Hampden-Sydney Alumni Assn.

COLLEGE CHAPTERS

Alphas Improve House in Fall

JIM WHITING
Alpha

University of Virginia

ALPHA enjoyed a rewarding spring with pledging of an outstanding group of first-year men. One of these, Tommy Martin, is the new managing editor of The Cavalier Daily, the University student newspaper. Tommy is the first second-year man who has achieved this honor within recent years. Intramurally the Chapter enjoyed moderate success, producing a pair of champions in the Grine brothers, Sid and Pete, who won the University doubles tournament. Pete Grine, who came to Virginia last year, is the former number one man on the V.M.I. tennis team. Chi Phi fared well socially, entertaining the University at open houses on big weekends and giving the annual quadrangle party with our neighbors, Kappa Sig and Sigma Phi, at Easter. At other weekends many took part in and attended the weddings of Alumni Norman, Cudlip, and White. During the summer vacation Brothers Holcomb, Johnson and Wood were married and are now attending school in Charlottesville with their attractive wives.

Scholastically the Chapter had one of its worst semesters in years. Academic troubles and graduation effectively cut the Chapter in half. The greatly reduced number of Brothers returning brought many problems, some of them financial as the state, for the first time, is making fraternities here at the University conform to the state fire laws. At Alpha we have added an outside 3-story staircase, pine doors, and partitions on the stairwell and have done minor work in the basement doors and partitions. The general soundness of the house, however, saved us from further effort and expense, since we escaped the re-wiring and more drastic construction that was necessary in many fraternity houses. The financial burden of this unexpected expense was eased by Harry Frazier, for many years Chapter Adviser, who arranged a new mortgage with the University. This fall, in spite of our much smaller numbers we feel we are in for an excellent year. Alumni and friends have been very generous and helpful in recommending good rushing prospects and although first-year rushing does not start until Thanksgiving with Bid Sunday in the second semester, we feel that we will stand a very good chance with many of these men. Already we have pledged three exceptional second-year men not eligible last spring: Brad Wines, Bob Booker, and Cork Baylor. We hope we will pledge several others on or before Bid Sunday in November. The Brothers have painted the living room, the entrance hall, the stairway, and second floor hall. It makes a great improvement in the appearance of the house and we hope men returning at Homecoming will be pleased. John Taylor, Chuck Manning, Tommy Johnson, and Tom Martin were elected to membership in the P. K.—German dance societies, giving us at the present a larger membership than we have enjoyed in some time.

M.I.T.

OUR new Alpha, James M. Chorak, ably directed us in our preparation for this year's Rush Week. For almost a week we painted, polished, and generally improved the appearance of our house. Rush Week was planned and coordinated by Terry S. Hoyt, Beta, with highly successful results. The week was culminated by the pledging of 11 men, all but one of whom were freshmen: John Price Windle, Thomas Alan Remmers, Joseph James Gal, Robert Edward De Michaels, Robert Stanley Hopkins, Jr., James Roger Von Benken, James Robert Murphy, Larry Keith Burns, Sam Ok Wong, Peter Warfield McLaughlin, and James William Bueche. The chapter enrollment now stands at 34.

The social committee under the able leadership of Wilson Au, has one party to its credit. We will give a Fall formal and a Christmas party. The new officers elected to assist Alpha Chorak this term are Terry Hoyt, Beta; John Currie, Delta; Andrew Cade, Gamma; Paul Burr, Epsilon; and Alan Hurkamp, Zeta.

I am proud to announce that last term Beta ranked second among the 26 M.I.T. fraternities.—ALAN HURKAMP.

Emory University

THE opening of the fall quarter found Gamma's 52 Brothers and four pledges very active in preparation for Rush Week. Many rooms in the house, as well as the outside woodwork, received new coats of paint, and the floors were refinished. During the summer Bill Morgan, Alpha, and Al Braselton, rush chairman, had conducted a rush tour with parties in several cities from which prospective rushees were to come. All the efforts were justly rewarded in the 15 fine men who pledged: Bob Anderson, Gerald Bunn, and Bobby Marion, Augusta; Bob Black, Rome; Jack Butterworth, Gainesville; Charles Fallaw and George Heald, Atlanta; Dahli Hall, Calhoun; Tom Heller, Packanac, N. J.; Davis Lacey, Fairmont; Bob MacDonell, Homestead, Fla.; Fred Miller, Columbus; Bob Parke, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Bill Pitner, Chattanooga, Tenn.; and Tommy Self, Summerville. With the addition of Jack Thompson and Richard Bohne from the Omega Chapter, our Chapter roll now stands at 73.

On Sept. 23, a very impressive pledge ceremony was held at Tom Connally Hall, at which our Faculty Adviser, Walt Davis, gave an address to the new pledges. After the ceremony a banquet was held at the East Lake Country Club.

If the social life continues as successfully as it opened at a house party at Lake Rabun, Gamma is in store for an enjoyable year. Studies and activities, however, have not been neglected, for the pledges are required to attend study halls and urged to participate in campus activities. In athletics, we defeated the Campus Club in the first football game of the season, 19-7. Judging from all indications, including the spirit among both Brothers and pledges, we have high hopes for the greatest of success during the coming year.

Gamma would like to express appreciation to the following Alumni for their assistance in organizing the rush tour parties: Ellis Hale and Dr. Tom Harbin, Rome; Forman Dismukes, Columbus; Tigner Thrasher, Macon; Kenneth Hodges, Albany; and Dr. Tom Goodwin, Augusta.—ROBERT A. REED.

Rutgers University

ON Sept. 10 the Brothers and pledges returned to school for our fall Greek Week. The main part of the week was spent in a "clean-up, paint-up, and fix-up" campaign to prepare the house for the coming session. On Sept. 14, we initiated Peter A. Canzonier and Philip Q. Booth into the Brotherhood. Besides these new Brothers, we were very happy to welcome Edward Sheppard back to school after two years of military service.

Our fall rushing program started during the first week of classes, and so far it has been quite successful. At the present date we have nine new pledges: Joseph W. Brown, Jr., Henry L. Parcell, Roger D. Smith, Joseph A. Ziemian, John E. Riesz, Raymond J. Rodrigues, David S. Robinson, Robert J. Weekes, and Marlin V. MacLaughlin, Jr. By the time we conclude our rushing we plan to have 20 pledges.

Our officers for the fall semester are Thomas Barbour, Alpha; Jerrold Van-Winter, Beta; George Lukac, Gamma; John Schmidt, Delta; Arthur D'Alessandro, Epsilon; Peter Fowler, Zeta. In our second regular chapter meeting we voted to initiate the steward system in our kitchen, and elected William Keeney steward. Brother Keeney is doing a great job; our meals have improved in quality and quantity at a reduced cost in the kitchen.

This year, two of our Brothers, Thomas King and Peter Herrington, are Student Council members, and in the coming election, we plan to have Richard Kaiser and Joseph Brown as candidates for Council. John Krisko is a permanent Student Coöperative Board member. Richard Kaiser is broadcasting football games over WRSU, the Rutgers University radio station. George Lukac is managing editor of The Rutgers Targum and our Scarlet Key (official host organization) representative. Five Brothers are playing varsity sports this fall. Among them are Samuel Moschella, high scorer on last year's championship soccer squad; Thomas Barbour, soccer; Jacob Orbock, football; Peter Canzonier, 150-football; and Richard Kaiser, swimming. In intramural sports, we also have good participation. Our touch-football team looked very impressive as we won our first game.

At the present time the Brothers and pledges are very busy preparing for the University Alumni Weekend, Oct. 13. We are expecting to see several Delta Alumni and their wives on that weekend. We are working hard to make a good showing in the song contest and float contest to be held that weekend.

The Brothers of Delta were highly elated over our rise in scholastic standing on the Rutgers campus last year. We came up from 18th place out of 25 fraternities on campus to 7th place, and we are striving to improve even more this year.—PETER A. FOWLER.

Epsilon Has High Goals

HAL McVEY
Alpha
Hampden-Sydney College

EPSILON has dropped to the campus average in scholarship standings. Our objective this year is to get back up above average where we have been in the past and where we belong. Our intramural season is in full swing under the leadership of Managers Ben Bailey and Hubert Stallard. Having taken the runner-up spot in last year's Trophy Race, we are looking forward to a season at least as good as last.

Hampden-Sydney's present Freshman Class is one of the largest in the College's history. The Chapter's rushing program, being well organized, went into full swing with a Freshman Invitation Party on Oct. 6. We have been visited by almost all of our last year's graduates. Brother Kulp, Alpha '55-'56, is teaching in Roanoke; Bill Carrington informed us of the difficulties of O.C.S. In graduate school we have Curt Hall at the University of Richmond, Bucky Edmundson at University of Va. Medical School, and Brothers Larry Hoover and Ed Breeden at University of Virginia Law School.

Outstanding at Epsilon this season are: Brother McVey, Alpha, president of Hampden-Sydney German Club; Tommy Bowe, Gamma, business manager of German Club; George Grinnan, Beta, vice president of XBΦ; Gene Cooke, Junior Class representative to Honor Council, Student Government. Brother Cooke held the high hitting average on the H.-S. nine (Mason-Dixon champions) last spring.

All of us at Epsilon would like to give our thanks to the many interested Alumni who have done so much towards putting the Chapter where it is now. Our special thanks to M. L. T. Hughes, Epsilon '22, and those who worked with him painting and repairing the house this summer.—BEN DAWSON.

Zeta Plans Fund-Raising

STANLEY J. DUDRICK
Alpha
Franklin and Marshall

ZETANS returned this semester to find that the Chapter had been placed on social probation as the result of an illegal party following graduation exercises last June. Shortly after the opening of school, faculty members of the committee on discipline along with local Alumni met with the Brotherhood and explained all the implications of social probation. The fact that we can hold no organized social functions during the present semester is going to hamper our rushing seriously, this being the primary concern at present. However, with the Brotherhood working as a team we feel that we can meet the problem head-on.

Last year Zeta lost the All-Sports I-M Trophy for the first time in five years, but with Bill Marchio and Zeb Robbins as co-captains of the football team, we're off to a good start in our bid to reclaim the trophy. Five senior pledges received the required average (2.00) and were initiated into the Brotherhood: John Iloff, Forrest Mellott, John Remling, Roger Bogert, and Zebulon Robbins.

Plans have been discussed for the initiation of an alumni fund-raising campaign in order to get the money necessary to repaint the interior of the house. All talk has been on a tentative basis so far, but the Brotherhood feels that if the job is to be done at all, it should be done right.

Stan Dudrick, Alpha, and Al York attended the Congress this summer and came back to Zeta with many suggestions which we feel will help out tremendously in running chapter affairs this year. With a little serious work on the part of the Brotherhood, Zeta will soon regain its position as Number One fraternity on campus.—ROBERT G. TANCREDI.

Eta's House Has New Wing Added

CHARLES E. KAMMERER, Alpha
University of Georgia

ETA has just completed Rush Week and has succeeded in pledging 25 of the finest prospects on campus: Arthur Butts, David Anderson, Weyman Brown, Hal Choate, Barksdale Collins, Dee Morgan, Sproull Dempsey, Chris Dudley, John Hadaway, Mike Harrington, Scott Henson, Warren Johnson, Lewis Lamer, Charles McCurdy, Jim Nichols, Pete Payne, Neil Poss, Johnny Smith, Skipp Thornton, Jimmy Walker, John Walker, Nils Wahlgreen, Jan Whitehurst, Herb Zachry, and Roudy Stanton. We also have a transfer pledge, George Hill, from Epsilon.

During the summer our Alumni let the contract for the new wing which is to house our Housemother, and provide additional sleeping accommodations on the second floor for six men, in addition to the installation of a new heating plant and modernization of the electrical system. With the completion of this work our house will be one of the most modern on campus, but will still retain the typical southern architectural style. We are indeed grateful to our Alumni for this improvement. We are also grateful to Mrs. Daughtry, the mother of John Wilkins, for the beautiful patio which she had constructed for the house. The floor consists of marble set in cement, suitable for outdoor dancing, surrounded by a beautiful and decorative 6-foot wall which makes it semi-private. It opens directly to the parking lot on the back of the house. Again, our thanks to Mrs. Daughtry and to our Alumni.

We were privileged in having, for our first dance, a Chi Phi band composed of members originating from the three Georgia Chapters, Gamma, Omega, and Eta, and since this party was so successful we are looking forward to having many more.

Scholarship being a requisite in colleges now, we are striving hard to put our Chapter into the limelight by bringing our averages up.—JON BOGIE.

Theta Improves Scholarship

JAMES L. SHANNON
Rensselaer

THETA welcomed the fall term with Brother Shannon presiding as Alpha and 42 members in the Chapter. The usual fall cleanup campaign was carried out successfully and things set in order for the new year. Congratulations are extended to Brother Roger Rapp '56, who was awarded the Sparks Memorial Medal for outstanding scholastic achievement in the chapter for the second successive year. Theta was also notified by I.F.C. that we had been awarded the trophy for greatest improvement in scholastic standing among chapters on campus.

Open house was held for freshmen on Sept. 23, with a very good percentage of the dates in attendance at some time during the afternoon. This is the only formal contact the Chapter will have with the freshmen until the beginning of the I.F.C. rushing period on Nov. 2. This date also marks the annual I.F.C. Weekend which is the highlight of the fall social season. Freshmen will be welcomed at the house party that weekend and then rushed for the following 3-week period. We are anticipating a repetition of our very successful rushing campaign of last year which saw 22 men pledged.

Brothers Ryburn and Lundin were in attendance at Congress in Virginia and reported on several significant accomplishments at the meetings.—JAMES F. UPTON.

Iota Fetes Housemother

GEORGE HICKOX
Alpha
Ohio State University

IOTA bade farewell to our 84-year-old housemother, Mrs. Carrie Commersom, at an Alumni banquet last spring. Prominent Alumni were on hand when Mrs. Commersom (Grandma) received a token from the Alumni and Chapter in recognition of her long years of service. The attitude held by the members, both young and old, is that this was merely a tangible recognition, and that true appreciation for her work is in the hearts of everyone concerned.

The new housemother who has assumed her position with the opening of this school year is Mrs. Mabel Sherman, a resident of Columbus. Mrs. Sherman has two sons of her own and her familiarity with boys has enabled her to fit easily into the group.

At the beginning of the new school year the Chapter followed through its plans for a vigorous Rush Week. A new rush booklet was printed and distributed to the rushee prospects. With the personal contacts made during the summer and the regular Rush Week, Iota pledged 30.

Plans are also being made for further improvements in the house. New quarters must be made for the housemother who will eventually move into the house. Should all turn out well, further plans for the improvement of individual rooms should not take long to materialize.—PETER COLONEL.

"I am truly sorry that I have neglected to pay my Alumni Dues before, but the delay was due to the fact that I was in the service. Am also glad to hear of the new Zeta Delta Chapter at UConn."—RICHARD A. DAVIS, I '55.

Kappa's Picnic Pays Off

ROGER GROSSEL, Alpha
University of Wisconsin

KAPPA started the 1956 school year by pledging 21, with an additional four or five expected within a few weeks. Our success in rushing was the result of many hours of hard work by Dave Blank, who was this year's rushing chairman. We gave a summer rushing picnic, complete with waterskiing, swimming, food (those famous Sheboygan bratwursts) and some good old Chi Phi songs. The picnic was held at Carl Rickmeier's cottage near Sheboygan. It was gratifying to us that several of the rushees attending the picnic later pledged during the fall rushing. Our pledges are: John Boyce, Stevens Point; Neil Burmeister, Waukesha; Dick Christiansen, John Coombs, Bob Brunette, Ted Cole, Dave Hamel, Dave Lewis, Bill Thomas, Bill Wilson, Madison; Jim Coleman, Fond du Lac; Dave Dales, Jay Finst, John Rickmeier, Dave Widder, Sheboygan; Tom Dobesch, Green Bay; Jack Konop, Two Rivers; Bill McCorkle, Richland Center; Bill Troxel, Chicago; Bill Hoffman, Menomonee Falls.

Congratulations are in order for Brother Jerry Silber, recent recipient of the Sparks Memorial Award, on his initiation into ΦBK. John Powles was appointed scholastics chairman for the coming semester, and he has installed a strong study program, especially for the new pledges.

Odds and ends: John Pike, a former Alpha at Kappa, is back again, but this time in the capacity of housefellow. We are all very glad to have him, and we hope that he doesn't have much trouble taking care of us. John Hamel was elected vice president of Haresfoot, Wisconsin's all-man musical show. John has been a member of the "ponies," which is the famous kick chorus line of men dressed as females. Dick Wangelin, new house steward, is finding himself popular with the Brothers as a result of the excellent meals that Charlotte has been serving us this year. Alpha Roger Grossele was the head of Wisconsin's I.F.C. rushing committee this fall. Carl Rickmeier and Dave Duerwachter found time during the summer school session to build us a new lounge in our basement. It is truly the sharpest lounge on campus, and was a good selling point during rushing. Carl also found time to team up with Milt Burmaster, a former Alpha, on the Summer Prom committee. Dave Blank, Dads' Day chairman, secured a block of tickets for Chi Phi parents. There will also be a banquet for the mothers down at the Wisconsin Union, and a stag dinner for the fathers and sons up at the house.

Our Mothers' Club recently bought two end tables and lamps for the living room. We appreciate their generosity very much.

Fall sports have been going well as we have won two out of three football games in our division thus far. Actually the whole Chapter is eagerly awaiting the basketball season as we have our entire 1955 division champion team back again (with the exception of Bud Koehn, who is in the Army).

Lambda Misses Loyal Alumnus

EARLL RILEY, III
Alpha

University of California

LAMBDA NS returned to the house in early September to prepare for rushing. Under the chairmanship of Roger Miller, rushing this fall was a success with the pledging of 10 members: Paul Wadsworth, Los Angeles; Ken Defiebre, Norfolk, Va.; Robert Pool, Herlong; Bob Meadowcroft, Walla Walla, Wash.; Tom Dixon, Stockton; Don Wiesner, Daly City; Ken Meade, Sausalito; Bob Bell, Berkeley; Larry Freels, Pleasant Hills; and James Horsely, Danville. Our pledge dance has been scheduled for Nov. 3. The annual big game party is on Nov. 24. Chapter officers are, Earll Riley, Alpha; John Wiesner, Beta; Michael Good, Gamma; James Lidster, Delta; and John Fraser, Zeta.

Chi Phis have gone out for extra-curricular activities in a big way. On the athletic front we are well represented with Dave White stroking for the varsity crew. Bruce "Tiger" Rice and Roger Miller are out for boxing while Mike Good and Rich Clark are trying out for Cal's fencing squad. Earll Riley and Ed White have been particularly active at the Varsity Club, while Jim Lidster has been spending lots of time down at the track. The Brothers have been very proud of the efforts made by Clemens Laufenberg and John Reid on the JV wrestling team. Steve Retter, in addition to baseball, is devoting much of his afternoon time to Utrimque, while John Wiesner and Daryll Petersen have been making quite a contribution to Mask and Dagger, the U.C. dramatic society. Several of our new pledges have taken an interest in the Hunting Club with the result that the last few weekends have found a good portion of them shooting birds.

The Chapter received the unfortunate news of the passing of Nathaniel Blaisdell a few weeks ago. Brother Blaisdell always took an active interest in the Chapter and was the oldest Chi Phi on the West Coast.—JOHN FRASER.

Mu to Give McCarty Plaque

CHARLES LEWIS, Alpha
Stevens Institute of Technology

Mu's officers are: Alpha, Charlie Lewis, a senior who served as Beta in the preceding fall term and the Beta is Ken Poppele, who relinquished the position of Gamma he held before the new elections. Jack Gallagher was elected Gamma, and Hugh Dougherty was reelected Delta in view of the superb job he did last spring. The newly-elected Epsilon is Bill Burkhardt, and Hans Ziegler, Zeta. Appointed by the Alpha to positions in the Chapter are Dave Wentink as steward, Mike Busche as social chairman, Eugene Gorzelnik as Dog Week chairman, and Walt Evers as rushing chairman.

Thirteen pledges successfully completed Dog Week in September: Denny Backus, Andy Bradick, Tom Burgess, Roger Bergquist, Ron Frahm, Ron Furtak, Steve Gavin, Curt Koster, Joel Kuhberg, Andy Lang, Werner Meise, Paul Siniscal, and Howland Wilson. The pledges renovated a room with the typical Chi Phi eye toward comfort.

Last May Mu again won the Activities Plaque for the 8th time in its 9-year existence. Exemplary of Mu's position in campus activities is the election of Ken Poppele to the vice presidency of the Junior Class and secretary of the Student Council; Charlie Lewis and Dave Wentink as treasurer and secretary of I.F.C., respectively; Eugene Gorzelnik, co-editor of the senior year book; and Bill Burkhardt, business manager of The Link, the college yearbook. Also last May John Cutting was tapped by Gear and Triangle, the activities' honorary society. Congratulations to Bob Lissmann '56 on winning the Sparks Memorial Medal.

After discussion last term Mu now has instituted the McCarty Memorial Plaque dedicated to the memory of James George McCarty, Mu '06, to be awarded to the Brother who has given most unsparingly of himself in contributing to the welfare of the Chapter during the term. In this manner we of Mu are conscious and greatly appreciative of the active participation of our Alumni in chapter functions.—HANS ZIEGLER.

Nu Enters Song Contest

GORDON R.
STARNES

University of Texas

SOCIAL events are under the direction of Scott A. McGall, Beta. After each home football game there is a party at the house, each one handling a capacity crowd. Parties are planned for the Oklahoma-Texas game at the Riverlakes Country Club in Dallas, and at an unannounced site in Houston for the Rice game. In this spring there will be a formal, at which time we will present our sweetheart for the year.

Ranking in last place in scholarship, Nu rose to 8th place, and won the I.F.C. Scholarship Improvement Award. Paul Pressler, student-state legislator, is our scholarship chairman. We owe him a big hand for his excellent efforts. This semester we will have our scholarship program, featuring several deans and professors from the University.

Under the direction of Mrs. Patsy Ann Welch, our housemother, there have been buffet suppers every Wednesday night, with members and pledges bringing dates. This has helped us considerably on the campus and is enjoyed by all. This year we plan to enter Sing Song and through the generosity of Mr. Louis R. Kromminga, father of an active and a University music professor, have begun in earnest to capture this honor. We are deeply indebted to Mr. Kromminga for his time and talent. Mother's Day is planned for Nov. 3, under the chairmanship of Brother Richard Garmany. An invitation is extended to all alumni to drop by—1800 Lavaca—for a visit anytime.

Executive Council members for the fall semester are: Gordon Richard Starnes, Alpha; Scott A. McGall, Beta; Lynn Richard Kromminga, Gamma; Don E. Studdard, Delta; Richard James Angell, Epsilon; R. Robert Rackley, Zeta. This is one of the most promising years in our history, due to a large chapter and pledge class. One of the reasons for this, we feel, is the excellent response and cooperation that we have received from the Alumni. Active members are: James Daniel Anderson, El Dorado, Ark.; Richard James Angell, Jack Earle Ferrel, Lawrence Burclay Haile, Scott Alexander McGall, Joe Buck Park, Hugh Westland Springfield, Dallas; William Martin Byrd, John Oge Flannery, Jr., William Bellamy Klemt, Wesley Gedeon Lupien, James Milton Pegg, San Antonio; John Daniel Carr, Floresville; Arthur B. Elliott, Jr., Victoria; Richard Paul Garmany, Herman Paul Presler, Gordon Richard Starnes, Houston; William Louis Guyton, Lynn Richard Kromminga, Wayne Scott Lanier, Austin; Joseph Eugene Cecil Martin, Lufkin; Frank Lafayette Plemons, Wichita Falls; Patrick Henry Power, Carrizo Springs; Ramon Robert Rackley, Nederland; Edward Eugene Scott, Bay City; Richard Louis Scroggins, Brownsville; Don Edward Studdard, Kenneth Earle Stoddard, Brownwood. Brothers William M. Byrd, John D. Carr, Richard Louis Scroggins, and Hugh Westland Springfield are older members returning to the University. Their experience and leadership should prove to be very valuable.

Brother William L. Guyton, who was recently selected for a student government committee, headed summer rush. He did an excellent job, performing the duties of rush captain very ably. Results of this were the pledging of 26 men. The pledge committee is composed of Brothers William B. Klempt, pledge-master, Joe E. Martin, Wesley G. Lupien, and R. Robert Rackley. Pledges are: Richard Anderson, Willard Baily Moon, Loy Lee Rooke, John Strasburger, Fort Worth; James Carter Boone, David Carroll Brower, Robert Morrill Gerlach, Minor Lovis Helm, Jr., Patrick Leroy Jones, Lyman Malcolm Niemeier, Lynn Myrton McDonald, Ira Barnes Wile, Ernest Jerome Westerman, R. W. White, Dallas; Everett Clark Center, Baytown; James Joel Harrell, Andrew Ashley Hunzicher, Ralph Judson King, John David Nottingham, Houston; Charles Milton Garnett, Rome, Ga.; Thomas Joseph Hassel, Upper Darby, Pa.; Leon Johnson, Jr., LaPorte; Rhoten Rudolph Sellers, Garmersville; Glen Gorman Passmore, Jr., Sol West, San Antonio; Charles McKinley Smith, Austin.

Dr. O. B. Williams, Grand Alpha Elect, is our Chapter Adviser again this year. The Chapter is proud of "Dr. O. B." and thankful for what he has done for Chi Phi on a national, as well as, a local basis.—R. ROBERT RACKLEY.

Xi Initiates II Pledges

Xi initiated its pledge class in early October: John Graham Hunter, John Edward Henderson, Peter Franklin Littlefield, David Greene Forman, Jr., John Steven Rutledge, Michael Jayne Eschweiler, David Hubert Kent, Brian George Miscall, Ronald Geren, Joseph Salvatore Ruggie, Jr., William Nelson Sites. Also welcomed into the house is Edward Bernard from Rho Chapter.

This summer our loyal houseman, Ali Ben Karom, spent the summer reconditioning and painting the entire kitchen facilities and refinishing the second story floors. Returning early for the fall term, the Brothers spent a week reconditioning their studies. The returns from the summer rushing program were very encouraging with both the actives and Alumni contributing. Our many thanks to our Alumni for a very good response!

Backing up Bob Stanwood, who is president of I.F.C., are members of Xi who are heading various committees. Sam Newman heads the I.F.C. Week committee with John Howell and John Hunter staffing the I.F.C. newspaper. Alpha Rude is a member of the I.F.C. social improvement committee. Playing varsity soccer are Bob Verstandig, Mike Curtiss, Randy Haynes, and Richard Eisinger. On the varsity tennis team are Floyd Downs and Brian Miscall. Joe Ruggie is pulling an oar for the heavy-weight crew and Dick Payne is competing for a starting slot on the lightweight football team. Out for fall lacrosse are Bill Kent and Jim Stalkamp. In addition to those Brothers participating in university sports, Xi has a very promising interfraternity football squad led by Captain Frank Wyskiel and Athletic Chairman Roger Dohn.—RICHARD A. PAYNE.

Omicron Explains New Policy

KENNETH GERGEN
Alpha
Yale

At the last meeting of 1955-1956, Omicron elected John W. Chambers Zeta. The previously-elected officers were given a vote of appreciation and confidence at the same time. These officers are Beta, Jack Barber; Gamma, Frank Melhorn; Delta, Heinz Molsen and Epsilon, Zachary Sacks.

This fall, Yale fraternities are enjoying the biggest rush in many a year. This is primarily due to a new "closed house" policy. Specifically, this policy prevents the wholesale use of fraternity facilities on big weekends by non-fraternity students. The campus reaction to this new ruling bodes well for the continuance of the fraternity system at Yale.

Omicron will have an 8-man rush committee this fall under the chairmanship of our West Virginia representative, Frank Wimer. The members of the committee will be Richard Case, Robert Carlsen, Andrew Emerson, Bruce Fritch, Harvey Jacobson, Jr., Heinz Molsen, Robert Stubbs, and myself. Omicron is looking forward to a great year under the continued fine leadership of Alpha Ken Gergen.—JOHN CHAMBERS.

Pi to Host Zone Meeting

DAVID O. RICKSON

Northwestern University

Pi Chapter began another year of growth with seven men proudly wearing the Chakett after a successful rush week: John Kelley, Des Plaines; Alfred Lambrecht, Brookfield, Wis.; David Hager, Indianapolis, Ind.; Glen Pittman, Casper, Wyo.; Wilbert Thiel, Robert Miller, Chicago; and Paul Cheek, Wichita, Kans. We were also glad that Dick Williams, formerly of Sigma, will be with us this year. Through the efforts of Rushing Chairman Phil Guzzetta, we are engaging in a vigorous program of open rushing. Each freshman and sophomore has pledged to bring in two new men, and each junior and senior has vowed to find one. Our strong rushing point this season is scholarship. Last quarter we were third out of 28 fraternities, giving us a yearly standing of 5th. The phenomenal grade average earned by Pi appeals to the type of rushee who realizes that scholarship comes first and wants to stay at NU four or five years. Another important rushing factor is the appearance of our chapter house. As a consequence of the fire, the entire first floor was refurnished and repainted. The Mothers' Club under Mrs. Fred Heinemann, purchased and hung a new set of draperies. During the active clean-up program before Rush Week, the bathrooms and third floor were repainted.

We have improved our social program this year and invited rushees to all of our functions, the Wild West Party, several informals, and our Fall Formal. Yet to come are the Theater Party and the Casino Party where we invade Bob Snider's basement for an evening of gambling fantastic sums of phony money.

We would like to congratulate our journalism men for monopolizing the sports staff on The Daily Northwestern. They are Jack Wardlaw, Bob Piatak, Daryl Frazell, and Dave Hager.

Next quarter we will host the Zone IV meeting on Jan. 12. Pi Chapter is looking forward to winter quarter and its many activities with as much enthusiasm as has been shown during this fall.—JOHN P. LEWIS.

Rho's House Overflows

RICHARD MUDGE
Alpha
Lafayette College

RETURNING Brothers began immediate revamping of the main floor rooms and many bedrooms. One of the newest additions is an oil hot water heater. As a result Rho hopes to better its previous record set last year for the largest pledge class on campus. At the present time the house is full with a roll of 22 Brothers rooming at the house with the remaining 10 having to seek rooms in the Lafayette dormitories. Last semester Rho was able to improve its scholastic standing. Much of this credit should go to our new Faculty Adviser, Dr. Gilbert O. Hourtoule, AB, MA, Ph.D., who is an assistant professor of government and law. Dr. Hourtoule is held in high respect by the Brothers and pledges because of the keen interest that he has shown in Vallmont. The returning delegates from Congress were very impressed by its success and, as a result of the information gained there, have aided in the establishment of a scholastic committee. This committee will have charge of supervised study for Rho's incoming pledges as well as maintaining quiet hours during the week within the house itself.

The town house committee has prepared a brochure which will soon be distributed in a concentrated effort for whole-hearted Alumni assistance in providing funds for new rugs, furniture, draperies, and a stove. Rho has already received generous support from such Brothers as Royce Bush and Robert J. Eshlemon.—JAMES B. MASTER.

University of Illinois

THANKS to the men of Sigma, especially to Howard Mitchell, our rushing chairman, we acquired 22 pledges for the fall semester. With the help of these men, who are all in the upper half of their graduating classes, the Brothers hope to make this a big year for Chi Phi on the Illinois campus. The new council—Richard Degener '57, Alpha; Joseph Jones '58, Beta; Alan Swanson '58, Gamma; Neil Barr '57, Delta; John Riggs '56, Epsilon; and, James Grogan '56, Zeta—has been working very hard to get the whole Chapter swinging together to put it on top. They have looked into the idea of the Chapter doing some civic projects around town, beside working on ways to improve our pledge rules and our study rules.

One of the indications of a good year was the success of the pledge dance, the Bowery Brawl, held in the chapter house on Oct. 12. All of the Brothers and pledges are taking part in at least one chapter or campus activity. By way of working with the Alumni, the council and a few Sigma Alumni have been working on the idea of starting a Chi Phi Club of Champaign. This would be for all Chi Phis within a 50-mile radius of Champaign. Alumni who are interested and live in this area can get more information by contacting A. A. Jones, Dewey, Ill.—JAMES GROGAN.

Tau Boasts of Scholarship Award

BOB NAUMANN
Alpha

University of Alabama

SIX Brothers have been added to the chapter roll since school began: Baxter Booth, Athens; Lloyd Furney, Atmore; Jim Hall, Millbrook; Jeff Herring and Gary Herring, Cullman; and Charles Kraut, Oaklawn, Ill. Tau is also proud to announce the pledging of the following men during fall rush: Chuck Allen, Athens, Ga.; Darrell Blaylock, Ira Giles, and George Ragsdale, Cullman; Jerry Cockron and Ed Goldsmith, Atmore; Gene Dickerson, Rogersville; Ted Gentry and Ken Haughton, Selma; Paul Gillon, Birmingham; Bob Hager, Westwood, N. J.; Wallace Hinkle and Allen Poe, Mobile; Gene Hoch, Ferd Mitchell, Alex Stewart, and Lamar Thomas, Tuscaloosa; Jerry James, Bill Hotchkiss, and Larry Wood, Bessemer; Lloyd Kraut, Oaklawn, Ill.; Clayton McAdams, Greenville, S. C.; Wendell McCrary, Anderson; Gary McPherson, Gardendale; James Norred, Talladega; Jim Pinhale, Caracas, Venezuela; Tom Sharp, Anniston; Emory Sheppard, Roanoke, Va.; Frank Welch, Eaton, Md.; Paul Wood, Thomaston, Ga. These new men bring the Chapter membership to 60 men, a number that should insure successful completion of the house projects which we have started and will allow us to begin work on others. Among the projects is the remodeling of the basement; we have already made the entertainment room large enough to hold all the parties we shall have. The room, when completed, will have a brick fireplace taking up one end and a brick planter running the length of the side opposite a knotty-pine paneled wall. Drop ceilings and multicolored indirect lighting will finish the work we plan to do on the room at this time. Concrete paving on a portion of the rear yard, new shrubbery along the back drive, a new coat of paint on the front trim, and imitation leather-covered sofas and chairs in the living room are some other accomplishments of the Brothers and pledges since last spring. The kitchen facilities have been expanded with the addition of an ice-making machine.

Although no campus elections or tapping for honoraries have taken place this fall at Alabama, two of the members have been selected for positions in the campus organizations: Jim Hall was elected president of the Alabama Journalism Assn. and George Ragsdale has been initiated into PAT.

Hanging prominently in the living room is a recent award to the Chapter of which we are most proud, the Chi Phi National Scholarship Award which we received at Congress this past summer. Tau's grade point average last year was the highest (by percentage above the all-men's) of any Chapter; we are striving to keep this record. Jerry Redus, the scholastic chairman, and George Lillich, our capable pledge captain, are stressing study to the pledges and to the actives as well.

Our athletic program under the direction of Paul Smith, shows signs of being quite successful, with good men in the Chapter and the pledge class. Wayne Garrett, as our social chairman, has been doing a very good job of providing for this aspect of college life, with pledge swaps with all of the major sororities and plans for parties after every football game. Incidentally, the annual Christmas formal will be held this year at the new Tuscaloosa Hotel, which is under the management of Brother Quigley from Alpha Delta Chapter.

If, due to some error or a lack of your address, any of our Alumni have not received the chapter newspaper which we are publishing at regular intervals, please write and let us know. This shall be a major means of keeping our Alumni informed of each other's and the Chapter's activities, so it should be of special interest to all of you.—JERRY REDUS.

Amherst College

THIS summer the Phi Corporation transferred the title of the chapter house to the College. This move has been contemplated for some time, and a poll of Phi Alumni taken in 1955 showed 145 in favor and 35 opposed. This measure in no way affects Phi's relation with the Alumni, College, or the Fraternity. However we expect many advantages to accrue. Not only will there be a closer tie between Phi and the College, but also Alumni and friends of Phi will now be able to make gifts payable to the College but earmarked for the Phi Corporation and then deduct these gifts from their income tax. In line with this, Phi Corporation President Horace W. Hewlett '36 plans an extensive capital gifts campaign to raise money for major house repairs which are sorely needed.

When college re-opened in the fall, we learned that seven Brothers and two pledges had made the Dean's List for their work during the spring semester: Pete Damon and Alain Fourniols '57, Steve Dinces, Marty Feingold, Steve Lyne, and Ned Megargee '58, and Pledges Dick Snellgrove and Bob Walker '59. Beta Trevor Smith also announced that Steve Lyne had won the Sparks Medal and Alain Fourniols the Phi Chapter Award for the highest scholastic improvement in the Chapter with an increase of over 8 points in his average. Lyne, along with Tom Gorman, was elected to Sphinx, the Junior honorary society last spring.

Saturday afternoons often find Chi Phi with a deciding vote in the varsity football team's huddle. In the backfield we have Jim Krumsiek, fullback, Jim Connors, halfback, and Tom Gorman, quarterback, while in the line are Don Moores at tackle and varsity football captain, Bob King, at center. Gorman, a junior, has been rated by a local sports-writer as the best Amherst quarterback since Tommy Knight, Phi '54. Varsity football is not the only Phi activity as Ross Bassett is on the soccer squad, and Pledge Claude Erbsen made news recently by halting Democratic Presidential Candidate Adlai E. Stevenson's motorcade in Springfield to obtain an exclusive 6-minute interview with Governor Stevenson for the College radio station, WAMF. Newly-elected intramural chairman, Roger Mayer '58, is enthusiastically organizing the Chapter's fall sports campaign and he predicts an outstanding season.

Elmo Giordanetti, our new Faculty Adviser, was formally introduced to the Chapter in October. Mr. Giordanetti, a graduate of Bowdoin and a member of BΘΠ and ΦBK pledged the Chapter his fullest support and cooperation and was well received by all.

Plans are now underway for our annual initiation banquet on Nov. 16 in honor of the 1959 delegation. The Chapter is looking forward to seeing many Alumni returning for the Williams game and Homecoming Weekend.—NED MEGARGE.

SEVERAL house improvements were completed under the able direction of Bob "Headman" Pratt. Many rooms were repainted, the lounge refinished, and new French doors installed. Mario Torrella added some new murals to his renowned work in the lounge. The work has paid its dividends in a fine pledge class: Bill King, Roger Bruttomesso, Carter Ellwood, Ben Fuller, Jerry Manne, Kurt Wegelius, Don Abel, Donald (Zip) Adams, Steve Beguin, Dave Britton,

Doug Holmes was elected "veep" at our first meeting; Hamed Ammar, an exchange student from Tunisia, is living in the house, giving us his views on fraternity life; Russ Barry, a geography major, has been explaining to us the relative heat differences between Lake Tahoe and Philadelphia; Bill Cutcliffe produced eight pounds of cigars, to match his new 8-pound arrival; Brad Curtis, Sam Miller, and Chuck Panettiere exhibited their talents of predaciousness in making the furniture sale a booming success; the addition of a new refrigerator has easily alleviated the crowded downtown eating situation, with Bob Ramsdell pouring over French Cooking and The Principles of Business Ethics; and "Fog" Wardle is taking lessons on the "Art of Serious Thinking" from Harcourt Dodds. "The Streak" Ramsdell and Pete Cooley share flashback spots on a promising football team, sparked by a hard charging line. Other sports activities include undefeated tennis and golf teams, both headed by Don Voss. Both teams meet Plymouth State in their openers.—B.H.M.

Psi Promises Excellent Term

EDGAR FREDERICK MINTER, JR., Alpha

PSI concluded the most successful rushing campaign in its history with the pledging of 19 men: William H. Briggs, Asheville, N. C.; H. Decker Clark, Baltimore, Md.; A. Kingston Ghegan, Jr., Merrick, L. I.; George C. Gotwalt, Philadelphia; Henry A. Hartz, Trenton, N. J.; Richard W. Hunt, White Plains, N. Y.; Dean C. Hunter, Millburn, N. J.; David J. Knapp, Thomas H. Naylor, E. Bailey Perry, Stephen A. Komionos, Baltimore, Md.; Frederick W. Krehbiel, Elizabeth, N. J.; Martin J. Maloney, Sparta, N. J.; Douglas T. Merrill, Plainfield, N. J.; Kenneth R. Shaner, Pottstown; Richard H. Smith, Millburn, N. J.; Burgess A. Thomasson, Montgomery, Ala.; Donald E. Singer, Haverford; Robert A. Fisher, Chalfont. Fall initiation has taken place with the "brotherizing" of 11 pledges: G. Courtland Clarke, Peter R. Clawson, Robert A. Orben, A. Kingston Ghegan, George C. Gotwalt, Dean C. Hunter, David J. Knapp, Frederick W. Krehbiel, Douglas T. Merrill, E. Bailey Perry, and Richard H. Smith. This brings the number of Brothers living in the house to 27. September 29 was Parents' Day. The parents joined the Brothers in a good old-fashioned songfest.

In May the following officers were elected: Alpha, E. Frederick Minter; Beta, Donald A. Hofmann; Gamma, Murray W. Randall; Delta, Douglas L. Peterson; Epsilon, George V. Fortune; Zeta, David S. Campbell. Joseph A. Mooney was elected president of I.F.C. Much credit goes to Joe for the splendid job he has done in furthering student-faculty relations.

The Briarfield Assn. replaced the old dining room furniture with beautiful walnut tables and chairs. A new stove was installed. Plans are being made for enlarging the parking lot and replacing desks and chairs in the study rooms. Our hats are off to Briarfield, which has done a magnificent job in keeping the house in such good shape!

In June, nine Chi Phis became Lehigh Alumni: Alan Colyer, Richard Marquardt, Benjamin Bird, Robert Maginn, William Ebeling, Carlton Clark, Edward Magnuson, Ronald Keenhold, and David Robertson.

If the swimming team isn't successful this year, Psi is going to be a sad place to live for the next semester, for there are seven members of the team in the Chapter: Marty Maloney (who received the most outstanding frosh swimmer award last year), Bill Briggs, Hank Hartz, George Gotwalt, King Ghagan, Doug Merrill, and Ken Shaner. Psi has one addition to the varsity football squad, Dick Hunt. Fred Krehbiel, Murray Randall, and Ken Shaner form the nucleus for the cross-country and track squads while Court Clarke, Burgess Thomasson, and Deck Clark are aiming to make the varsity rifle team. Intramurally, Chi Phi's swimming team, composed of Dick Devine, Carlton Clark, Pete Clawson, and Bob Orben, won the I.F. swimming championship. In the first I.F. football game, Chi Phi was victorious, 18-0, due to the sterling pass defense of deceptive Dick Devine. Richard Billin was elected president of the Student Metallurgy Society. Ned Spitzig was appointed Lieutenant Colonel of the Army ROTC detachment. Two juniors were voted to the Junior Class Cabinet.

Although the house average fell in the spring, promises are being made by all the Brothers that it will be in the upper third of the living groups by the end of this semester. Benjamin Bird was awarded the Sparks Memorial Award for scholastic achievement.

One of Psi's seniors of last year, Ronald Keenhold, certainly deserves to have his name mentioned in this report. Brother Keenhold will long be remembered in the swimming annals of Lehigh University. Ron was captain of the varsity swimming team his senior year. For three years he was the Eastern Collegiate Swimming Assn. diving champion on both the 1 and 3 meter boards. Undeclared in dual meet competition his junior and senior years, Keenhold was selected to the All-American swimming team both years. Winning the E.I.S.L. one meter championship, "Lulu" was awarded the David C. Browning memorial trophy for the eastern U. S.

in 1956 for outstanding diver. Ron holds the Lehigh Pool Record on the 3 meter board and was invited to try out for the Olympics this past August. We, here at Psi, are very proud of Brother Keenhold.—DAVID S. CAMPBELL.

CONCLUDING a most successful rush season, Omega pledged 46 boys. Our new pledges represent various sections of the country. There are two boys from Tennessee, four from Virginia, 32 from Georgia, one from South Carolina, two from North Carolina, one from New York, two from Alabama, and one from New Jersey. Our Alpha, Eugene Scott, and our rush chairman, Jimmy Robinson, deserve much credit for the excellent job they performed. We would also like to give recognition to our Mothers' Club for their assistance. Two newly initiated Brothers are Preston Upshaw and Duard Hunt, both from Atlanta.

Our second floor rooms have been completely refurnished, thanks to the support of our Alumni. The boys who attended summer school, did a lot of work on the house including repainting the upstairs. We would also like to thank our Mothers' Club for furnishing venetian blinds for the entire house. Plans have been made to remodel our house completely and to build an addition in the near future.

We would like to congratulate Paul Roberts for being elected president of the Sophomore Class after serving as president of the Freshman Class last year. After winning our first football game, we anticipate a very successful intramural season. We placed high last year and will have an equal if not better opportunity this year. Our Homecoming Committee has begun work on the display for Oct. 27.

Newly elected officers are Eugene Scott, Alpha; Fred Ware, Beta; John Hine, Gamma; Allen Spearman, Delta; Roy McCrorey, Epsilon; Alex Brown, Zeta; Tom Sheehan, house manager; and Jerry O'Conner and Dozier Martin, building and grounds.—ALEX BROWN.

ALPHA-ALPHA's house manager, Ben Burbridge, Rush Chairman Al Holt, and others returned early to prepare for Rush Week. Brothers and pledges pitched in and did a marvelous job. We had 22 chaketts in order when pledge day arrived for Charles Baldwin, Baldwin, N. Y.; Tommy Lloyd Breeland, Wilmington; Al Cole, Rocky Mount; Joseph P. Creekmore, Whiteville; DeWitt Dowdle, Wrighton A. Thompson, Asheville; Philip Haire, West Jefferson; Frank Gilliam, Burlington; Thomas A. Grant, Staunton, Va.; Kermit Guthrie, New Bern; Sanford James Jarrell, Norfolk, Va.; Bobby R. Mauldin, China Grove; Torston Johan Nykopp, Helsinki, Finland; Stewart Phinizy, Augusta, Ga.; John G. Riley, Salisbury; Richard J. Somers, Clifton Forge, Va.; James M. Southern, Asheboro; James T. Stevens, Allentown, Pa.; Carl Thomas, Charlotte; James M. Villas, Charlotte; Ralph Willoughby, Ahsokie; David Hale, Raleigh.

During the hard work, we found time to hold elections, go on a hayride, and have a cabin party, with combo, after the first football game. Allen Holt, Beta, was elected Alpha succeeding Clyde Meares who was married this summer to Francis Timberlake of Staunton, Va. Walter Collison stepped into the Beta's office, while Louis Patseavouras, who has returned after two years in the Air Force, is our new Delta. He succeeded Sandy Archer who resigned in order to pursue the ways of scholarly achievement. A cabin has been rented, and a combo hired for all the remaining home football games. Plans for sorority parties are in the making, but just now our attention is turned to the making of a Homecoming display for this weekend when Alumni and the Bulldogs of the University of Georgia descend upon us.—PHILLIP S. Alpha-Tau Burns House Mortgage

HAMMOND

University of Michigan

THE final payment on the mortgage on the house is probably the most important thing that has happened here. After 28 years, the Alpha-Tau Chapter House Assn. finally owns the house outright. At the present time, the Association is conducting a fund-raising drive among our Alumni to secure enough money to make needed repairs on the house, repairs that have been neglected for many years in favor of the mortgage. With this drive and the added rent money, much improvement can now be made in our physical plant. A new gas furnace was put in to replace the previous oil unit. Our boiler system was overhauled and the eaves and roof were repaired and replaced where necessary. Added to this, individual Brothers renovated their rooms, some quite extensively. All of these things combined with the alumni plans for rehabilitation should give us one of the best homes on the Michigan campus.

The Brothers are quite proud of their scholastic gain during the past year. The house average as a whole rose greatly and we finished 19th among fraternities at Michigan. This is an improvement of 14 places over our 33rd place finish the previous year. Our pledge class was fourth among all pledge classes and this we attribute to our new rushing procedure. Nineteenth place still does not satisfy us and we are setting our sights for a higher finish this year.

During the first two weeks of October, rushing took place at Michigan. We think that we are very fortunate to have pledged 14 rushees: Hube Smith, Terry Ziegler, Jim Savell, Bill Anderson, Chuck Gladfelder, Dave Pipple, Sam Hall, Rod Schroyer, Bruce Conybeare, Pete Eckrich, John Kemp, Jerry Moore, Bill Beird, and Dennis Connolly.—ROBERT CREAL.

LETTER

555 Kelton Ave.
Los Angeles 24, Cal.
Oct. 8, 1956

DEAR BROTHER ROSSER:

It is once again my great honor to serve the Delta Delta Chapter in the office of Gamma. I am taking this opportunity to write to you, to let you know that Delta Delta will become one of the best fraternities on the UCLA campus. We all realize that there will be plenty of hard work ahead of us, but as true Chi Phis we will live up to our obligations.

I hope that upon the termination of my stay in office we of Delta Delta will have progressed to the top 10 fraternities on campus. As you know we are very fortunate to have a very hard working and great leader of men in Ken Lucas. With this type of leadership the Chapter can gain any goal it wants.

The main reason for this letter to you, Brother Rosser, is to let you know that we are trying very hard at Delta Delta to make this the best Chapter in Chi Phi.

I hope that you are planning to come to the West Coast in the near future, for we hold you in the highest esteem.

Fraternally,

THEODOR BOROCK

FRATERNITY life began with Rush Week at the "Oaks" and we emerged with 20 pledges. The week's success can be attributed to the enthusiasm which arose from Judge Rosser's visit in the spring and the effective work of the Brothers under the guidance of the rush chairman, Bob Scheidemante. Men now wearing the chakett are: Marsh Adams, Bill Durant, Jon Blakely, Chuck Will, Russ Griffith, Mickey Greene, Bob McNew, Gerry Kerwin, Stan Rydell, Bruce Constantinides, Ray Coldiron, Chuck Haslet, Chuck Brown, Dan Cochran, Dan Freitas, Doug DeVoll, Butch Varden, John Rosenthal, Marv Fischer, and Ray Pond. We are stressing a thorough program of scholarship for the pledges and, to go in parallel, is a well-rounded social program. In the near future are a pledge open house and a pledge formal.

To welcome us back to the house the Mothers' Club donated a new stair carpet. The Brothers added more to the appearance of the house with new paint in many of their rooms. Due to a knee injury, our housemother, Mrs. Shremp, was forced to leave us. We were all sorry to see her leave. Her successor, Mrs. Tooill, came to us from the AΔΠ house and has already been a great asset to us.

Under the leadership of Dave Swaile we are looking forward to winning the intramural championship. The other sports, tennis and handball, are going very well.

Under the guidance of John H. Brown, A-X '48, the Alumni of Alpha-Chi have shown a great interest in the future of the Chapter with the establishment of a Buck-a-Month Club for the Educational Trust Fund. Each Brother, as he sends in his dollar, has a place on the return envelopes for comments and suggestions. Brother Brown has incorporated these into news letters which are sent out with the reminder envelopes. The plan has really caught on and new members are added each month.—GILBERT P. GASS.

Alpha Delta Sets Top Goals

ALPHA DELTA'S house is filled to capacity and the Chi Phi spirit is high. Our goal is to be at the top of the list of fraternity rankings, which is based upon scholarship, activities, and athletics. Perhaps the most significant move in this direction was our advancement of 11 places in the scholarship ranking of the 54 fraternities on campus. Emphasis is again being placed upon scholarship. The social calendar is full of activities for the academic year. The gala Homecoming Weekend, Oct. 12, 13, 14, includes a football game with the Nittany Lions playing host to Holy Cross. The lawn display will be centered around the general topic, "What the Fraternities do for the University." The Opium Den costume party is the highlight of the Junior Prom weekend, Oct. 26, 27, 28. All ROTC uniforms will be cleaned and pressed for the formal Military Ball Dance, Dec. 7. Our pledge dance will be held on Dec. 8.

Our house improvement program has accomplished many projects during the past summer. The rear parking lot has been completely macadamized, the entire basement floor (including game room, chakett floor, and dining room) has been covered with asphalt tile; stainless steel sinks and formica drainboards have been installed in the kitchen; and a Hi-Fi record player has been added to the main clubroom. The money for the record player was donated by the Mothers' Club. Our housemother, Mrs. Carola Goldsmith, better known as "Mom," is with us again. We all feel that she adds a great deal to our Chapter. "Mom" has many diversified rôles to play, ranging from party hostess to seamstress, and she performs all of them in her ever pleasing manner.—BARRY ASHWAY.

BETA DELTA has pledged four men, with several prospects being rushed. Formal rush this year was not too good here on campus, but informal rushing goes on all year, and we are expecting to pick up our largest pledge class by the beginning of winter quarter. At the present time we have more men in the house than there were last year, even though our ranks were depleted not only by graduations but by wedding bells. We lost four men through graduation last year, and then came the weddings. In February, a former pledge who had to drop out of school, was married, followed in March by Don Daniels. June was the month picked by Fred Johnson, with John Hallock in July, followed one week later by Pledge Gordon Holloway. August meant the end of the freedom for Pledge John Freitag, and a couple of others are in the near future, so you can see we have really been busy with Dan Cupid this year. We are happy to report that Bill Morelock is back with us after a year spent in Korea as a field engineer for RCA. He and Wally Gonser represented the Chapter at Congress, and both came back full of ideas for the improvement of the Chapter.

Although not one of the larger groups on campus, we have about as diversified a group as any. Three electrical engineers, one aeronautical engineer, one forestry, one in languages, three education majors, one in English with music as a minor, one radio-TV production, one production major and three pre-law majors, plus several who have not yet decided what their major will be, comprise the roster of the Chapter.—WALLACE GONSER.

Gamma Delta Improves House

HOWARD SUPER

University of Minnesota

GAMMA DELTA's new officers, elected in May, are: Howard Super, Alpha; Maurice Beto, Beta; Myron Parsons, Gamma; Peter Wielinski, Delta; John King, Epsilon, James Allan, Zeta. This year Gamma Delta plans to concentrate on rushing. The house is full and, with the help of our Alumni, we plan to make room for four more men. Our rushing chairman, Mel Walters, has set up a system for rushing, and we plan to have 10 to 15 more pledges before the end of the quarter.

Our house manager, Don Fair, organized a before-school Work Week which met with great success. Every member and pledge was required to put in 20 hours of work, the work being assigned by Don. Rooms got a much-needed paint job; shelves and bookcases were built into some rooms; floors were sanded and finished; and other general washing and scrubbing was done. Our Alumni had new gutters and drain pipes installed on the house, and our Mothers' Club is having the new stove installed.

Our Homecoming party will be held at the Dyckman Hotel. At this annual event, the Alumni get a chance to meet the new pledges and renew old acquaintances with the actives. With our faithful Alumni Assn., fine Mothers' Club, and a full house we plan to have a very successful year at Gamma Delta.—JAMES ALLAN.

Delta Delta Men Hold Campus Jobs

KEN LUCAS, Alpha

ELECTION selected Ken Lucas Delta Delta's Alpha; Jim Pine, Beta; Ted Borock, Gamma; Chuck Flickinger, Delta; and Jerry Penner, Epsilon. Initiation brought us three new Brothers: John Drott, John Opsitnick, and Al Orozco. Rushing netted us seven pledges: Mike Gray, Frank Woodliff, Fred Tugend, Art Shugard, Mike Gottesman, Al Jungers, and Jim Penner. We are continuing our rushing program.

Jerry Penner, who played in the Rose Bowl last year, has nailed down the tackle position for Red Sander's P.C.C. Champions; Bernie Bernacchi is seeking a position on the crew team, Bill Woodruff and Jim Packer are both on the staff of The Daily Bruin. Bill is a photographer while Packer writes his own column. Pledge Mike Gottesman is running for Freshman Class president and Art Shugard is a member of the Cal Men.

During the summer we painted the house. We are also planning to redecorate and paint the inside of the house. But right now we're hard at work planning the Homecoming float. This project is being run by John Opsitnick, chairman of Homecoming. We also have plans for a formal dance with Eta Delta, Greek Week, the Mardi Gras, and the Spring Sing are other activities to which we look forward. Our intramural football team has played excellent ball this season and it looked as though a league championship was in the offing when a series of very unfortunate injuries greatly weakened the team. We plan to enter an intramural basketball team. John Smith from Nu is visiting us. John is a guest of Uncle Sam and is stationed in Van Nuys.—AL OROZCO.

EPSILON DELTA has an annex with seven members living in it and a 26-man house with only 17 men including seven pledges living there. It seems that our members must have lacked confidence in our move to acquire an annex and lagged in their summer rushing effort. As a result we pledged only five men during the formal rush period this fall. However, we are launching an organized effort for informal rushing. One of our moves to spread the name of Chi Phi about campus has been the purchase of a 1917 model "T" touring car which caused quite a sensation when it arrived on campus last Saturday.

We held a special election at our meeting of Oct. 1, to elect a new Alpha to replace David Kirkland, who was married in September. Robert Hibbert, former Beta, was moved to the top spot, and Roy Schreiber was elected Beta. Other officers include Paul Okamoto, Gamma; Ronald Gabrielson, Delta; Jack Rauch, Epsilon; Richard Patching, Zeta. Fall initiation was held on Oct. 6 for two new Brothers: Kenneth Schultz and Gerald Johnson.—RICHARD PATCHING.

Zeta Delta Cops Three Firsts

RICHARD KELLIO, Alpha
University of Connecticut

At the close of the '55-'56 school year and the beginning of the 1956-57 year, Zeta Delta found itself with three new trophies in its collection. Last spring in a float, using the slogan "You Contribute, I'll Distribute" and a huge St. Bernard dog, KKG and Zeta Delta took first place in the Connecticut Community Chest Carnival. Another first place trophy was captured as our softball team finished first in the intramural softball league. Again this fall we remained true to form by placing first and receiving a beautiful 36-inch trophy for a float built with the aid of ΑΔΠ in conjunction with the celebration of the University's 75th Anniversary. The float was a replica of a huge scholar bursting into the library. The slogan which went along with the winning display was, "We're bursting with knowledge through the growth of our college." While in the swing of filling out our trophy collection, Zeta Delta took second place in Skitsofunia and the Greek Sing.

Winning trophies is all well and good, especially for decorative purposes, so Zeta Delta is now using them to adorn a new lounge which was furnished during the summer. The lounge is a beautiful arrangement of tapestry, masculine oil paintings, modern brass lamps, low streamlined tables and soft foam rubber couches.

To climax last year's social activities, Zeta Delta crowded a 4-day weekend into three days. The name of this impossibility was our annual Spring Weekend. A formal dinner dance at the Hedges was planned for the first evening of the weekend. We were honored by the presence of our Grand Alpha, Carl Gladfelder. Also at this particular event, Zeta Delta chose its annual queen, Nan Curtis, a sister of Delta Zeta. The next day was spent picnicking at a secluded lake in Summers, Conn. Sunday found the Brothers arising bright and early to get their share of a brunch which was served at the chapter house. In the afternoon another party was attended by all at the Shell Chateau in Willimantic, Conn. Combo parties and spontaneous picnics were other events which rounded out the end of our past semester.

In a more serious light and in a more productive capacity, the Brothers rushed, pledged, and initiated 10 new Brothers at the close of the 1955-56 year. Coming back with a full house has not slackened the Brothers' attitude towards rushing. Our rush calendar is a complete one and one which will be very selective.

Probably our greatest efforts this semester will be directed toward scholarship. The Brothers all feel that being able to attain top honors scholastically would be our greatest victory.—ROBERT PELLICO.

RUSHING for the fall semester commenced last June and will be continued until the Chapter feels the pledge class is complete. The summer rushing program, with the invaluable assistance of our Alumni, brought us a fine group of pledges upon which to build during this fall semester. Although extensive rushing has been stopped, the Chapter continually asks rushees to visit the house on an informal basis in the hope that they will pledge this semester or the spring semester.

Chapter activities at present are many and varied. Plans for our 13th annual Watermelon Dig and Queen Contest, under the supervision of Brothers Phil Salsbury and Dick Whitesell are completed and 6,000 pounds of watermelon will be consumed by the students of Southern California on Oct. 20. Dan Gannon and Phil Philips are planning entries in S.C.'s Homecoming and Flapper Day celebrations and teams for intramural sports are being organized. On the social calendar are the usual Winter and Spring Formals, the bi-weekly parties, and a large party to be held with another fraternity on campus.

The Chapter feels strongly, however, that scholarship should not suffer from extracurricular activities and much attention is being directed toward raising our scholarship standing back to the top. To aid in this the Chapter is enforcing strict study rules upon both pledges and actives. With the help of the Dean of Men various tests to determine a Brother's aptitude for a vocation will be given. These tests are mandatory for all pledges and are strongly recommended to the Brothers. Freshmen pledges are also required to attend all lectures given by the school concerning study habits. Special care has been taken to pledge only those men who have good scholastic records.

Among campus leaders are Dennis Fagerhult, Associate Men Student's vice president, Bob Hokom, yell leader, and Associated Men Student's historian Ken Von Rohr. The Chapter has its full quota of Squires and Knights, the two most outstanding honorary service clubs at S. C. Philip Salsbury is treasurer of the Knights while Bob Hokom and Chuck Philips hold the offices of Squire social chairman and treasurer. Eta Delta has its share of athletic prowess displayed in such men as Olympic Team alternate Bob Lawson, varsity football player Dick Bronson, and Iceland's Olympic star Peter Rognavaldsson, to name just a few.

Plans are progressing for a new house to be built on the present lot. As you know, we have owned our present house free and clear for the past three years and both actives and Alumni are anxious to start building in the very near future. Our present house has been beautified by a complete set of living room furniture obtained from our hard working Mothers' Club.

Wedding bells rang for two of our Brothers in the last six months. John Trammel wed Carol Ulrich and Ray Martin married Pat Myers. Dick Saydah is to be married to Joyce Boehm and Pledge Lee Richbarger will wed Carol Schlunze.

All in all, the Chapter, under the leadership of Alpha Dennis Fagerhult, Beta Ken Von Rohr, Gamma Bob Van Horst, Delta Bob Hokom, Epsilon Dan Gannon, Zeta John Gray, Social Chairman Dick Whitesell and Steward Chuck Philips, is assured of a gratifying year ahead.—JOHN GRAY.

Theta Delta has shown itself strong on the campus of the Alligators by capturing the following positions in student government: Henry Oppenborn, Jr., Miami, known politically as "The Big 'O'", was elected vice president of the Student Body in the hotly contested elections held last spring; John Price, Sebring, served on the Honor Court and Bill Rarden, Sebring, was a member of the Executive Council during the summer session. This fall, Doug Rodier, Clearwater, is serving as a justice on the I.F.C. Tribunal, co-chairman of Greek Week, technical coördinator of Homecoming, and also as chairman of the Campus Blood Drive (Theta Delta being the winner of the past two annual campus blood drives). Don Pearson, St. Petersburg, has been named Under-Secretary of Interior in Student Government and Clyde Wells, Bonifay, was elected secretary-treasurer of the Sophomore Class in the fall elections. We also point with pride at the coveted honorary awards that have been awarded to Chi Phis. Gene Parets, Havana, Cuba, has been tapped for ΣT, an engineering honorary fraternity; Irwin Lynch, Sebring, has been tapped for Scabbard and Blade, a military honorary society; and Ted Roux, Capetown, South Africa, was just this week tapped for ΣAX, the honorary building construction fraternity. Ted Roux and Gene Parets were also both awarded the Sparks Memorial Medal for last year's scholastic work, as they earned the same grade average of 3.25.

In the intramural sports, Theta Delta won last semester's bowling and shuffleboard trophies. Track is our next competitive sport and a very promising track team is beginning to limber up.

Fall Frolics, Oct. 12-13, got our social life off to a great start with a combination Suppressed Desire-Reincarnation Party at the house on Friday night. An African combo from points south kept the whole house rocking. The Florida-Rice football game was the game of the day and Art Mooney and Cathy Carr continued Friday night's dancing at the Florida Gym Saturday night. Coffee and dessert socials are planned for this semester with ΑΟΠ, ΣK, ZTA, and ΦM.

An exchange supper is planned with ΑΧΩ. Chi Phi's candidate for the University of Florida's Homecoming Queen, Toni Heimbeck, Miami, at this moment is in the top five from a field of over 50 candidates. Our fingers are crossed for a Chi Phi University of Florida Homecoming Queen. Homecoming will be held Nov. 2 and 3 this year.—JOHN B. SMITH.
