Dear Brother Rosser:

Greetings from the Orient! Since October of last year I have been with the Far East Air Forces in Korea at Kunsan Air Base. My job as supply officer has proven a venture in traveling as well as performing a business-type function.

A 12-week course in the supply school at Warren A.F.B., Cheyenne, Wyo., last summer introduced me to a prominent Brother recently graduated from Sigma Chapter who, ironically, also was assigned the supply field—Dave Mersbach of the Mersbach Chi Phis from River Forest, Ill. Already my association with Chi Phi is finding me friends all over the world, a testimonial for current and future pledges. Dave, incidentally, is now stationed at Eielson A.F.B., Alaska.

Correspondence with Gamma Delta indicates activities were prompted by a strong fall pledge class. More power to them!

Enclosed is a money order for Alumni Dues. Believe me, I am proud to be one.

Yours in Chi Phi,

Let's talk it over . . . . .

THE reports that have come into this office in regard to the fine work that Grand Alpha Gladfelter is doing in visiting our Chapters, show conclusively that the Council of the Fraternity was wise in accepting Brother Gladfelter's generous offer to undertake this most important work. For a number of years the Council has been cognizant of the fact that our Chapters needed more visitations, and the reason they have not had them was purely financial. Our Chapters are entitled to this type of visitation and the Fraternity must make an extra effort to give it to them. This, of course, can only be done if our income permits. We have just two sources of income—Alumni Dues and undergraduate fees.

The Council is making a special effort to increase the number of Alumni Dues contributors. Last year our income from this source was just under $20,000.00. Up to this date we are about $1,000.00 short of the amount we had collected by this time last year. This is very discouraging to the Council, and we are hoping that the next notice of Alumni Dues will meet with a greater response.

Our Chapters realize their need for visitations and many of them have indicated that they are willing to help in this matter by increasing their initiation fees. If we could keep our Alumni Dues above the $20,000.00 figure and increase our undergraduate fees by $10.00 per man, that would enable the Council to meet the need for more visitations.

We are also confronted with the problem of expansion. We have a positive invitation from Indiana University which the Council feels that we should accept by colonizing there in the fall of 1957. This, of course, will be expensive. We are also very much interested in establishing a chapter at Davidson College in North Carolina and, of course, we have already committed ourselves to establish a chapter at the University of California at Santa Barbara. As you can see, we have quite an ambitious program, which will call for more traveling and more expense.

The Council extends to Brother "Scotty" Laue our thanks for the fine work he is doing with our Delta Delta Chapter at UCLA. Brother Laue will be remembered as the man who did such excellent work with our Beta Delta Chapter in Seattle, Wash. We hope our members in the Los Angeles area, and particularly the Delta Delta Brothers, will line up behind Brother Laue and Brother C. Moreland Thomas in helping to strengthen Delta Delta.

We believe the Fraternity will be delighted with the Council of Brother O. B. Williams, our new Grand Alpha. The Council will assume the leadership of the Fraternity on Aug. 1. Brother Williams has surrounded himself with some of our finest Chi Phis, and we can look forward to his administration with confidence. These new officers are:

Grand Alpha—Dr. O. B. Williams, Nu '21, P.O. Box 7585, University Station, Austin 12, Texas.

Grand Beta—Dr. A. T. Haake, Kappa '14, Hi Oaks, Rt. 2, Largo, Fla.

Grand Gamma—C. Moreland Thomas, Eta Delta '45, 9632 Lemoran Ave., Downey, Cal.

Grand Delta—Freeman Strickland, Omega '24, First National Bank, Atlanta, Ga.

Grand Epsilon—John T. Porter, Kappa '39, 1 South Pinckney St., Madison, Wis.

Grand Zeta—Russell L. Guin, Alpha-Chi '17, Interstate Publishers, 19 N. Jackson, Danville, Ill.

Grand Eta—C. Baxter Jones, Jr., Gamma '40, 1516 First National Bank Building, Atlanta, Ga.

Ritualistic Counselor—Carl J. Gladfelter, Alpha-Tau '34, 1 Oakhill Road, Storrs, Conn.

Scholarship Counselor—Dr. F. M. Hunter, 2288 Fairmount Boulevard, Eugene, Ore.

National Director—Judge L. Z. Rosser, Gamma '09, 308 Mark Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Chairman, Commission on Expansion—Victor Cullin, Chicago Title & Trust Co., Chicago, Ill.

We mentioned above the fact that we are running behind in our Alumni Dues, but our initiations have not been up to last year's figure. This is a most serious situation and we are at a loss to understand it, since all of the colleges in the United States are crowded with desirable men. Each Chapter should immediately take stock of itself and correct this situation without delay. It is very important that each Chapter initiate enough men this year to insure a stronger Senior Class four years from now. For a Chapter to assure itself of a strong Senior Class, it should have at least 12 seniors. That means that each Chapter should initiate at least 25 men each year.

Our scholarship record this year is better than it has been in the past. For this we are largely indebted to our Scholarship Counselor, Dr. F. M. Hunter. There is never any excuse for a Chapter of the Chi Phi Fraternity not being above the All-Men's average on its campus.

We have received very few reports of Zone Meetings. The Zones which have not scheduled meetings are overlooking one of the fundamental laws of the Fraternity and depriving themselves of a tremendous amount of fine information which should help them in operating a good chapter.

Our Congress this year will be held in Madison, Wis., at the Edgewater Hotel. The dates for this meeting are Sept. 4 through Sept. 7. The Grand Alpha Elect requests that each Chapter send its Alpha and its most outstanding junior as delegates to the Congress.

The Kappa Chapter has been asked to conduct all of our ritualistic work at this Congress. This consists of the installation of the Grand Officers, the model initiation, and the Candlelight Ceremony. We hope that many Chi Phis in the vicinity of Madison will attend this Congress. We have a fine group of Chi Phis in Chicago and in Milwaukee, and we are looking for-

CONGRESS IN MADISON

MADISON Alumni are making great plans to welcome Chi Phis from across the country on Sept. 4 when Congress convenes in their Wisconsin city. Donald L. Stehr, Kappa '47, 5818 Dorsett Dr., is chairman. John T. Porter, Kappa '39, Chi Phi's Grand Epsilon and secretary-treasurer of the Kappa of Chi Phi Alumni Assn., has been an initial plan-maker. Lloyd M. Strobe, Kappa '21, Council Representative and vice president of the Association, is hard at work. The Association's president, Willard E. Mack, Kappa '41, is an organizer. All Madison Alumni have a part in preparation.

Wisconsin is one of the most beautiful states in this country. Madison is its capital. Situated on Lake Mendota, the University of Wisconsin draws students from all over the United States and the world. Its summer session is as well attended as the regular terms because of the fine climate and the opportunity for summer sports and outdoor living. Kappa Alumni from Madison, Milwaukee, Chicago and environs welcome this opportunity to show off their fine campus, capitol, and hospitality.

A tentative agenda calls for registration on Wednesday morning, Sept. 4, followed by a Council meeting and a conference with delegates. The installation of the Grand Alpha and his Council will take place in the late afternoon, followed by the model initiation and the stag smoker. The first session of Congress will convene on Thursday morning. The Grand Alpha will give his address at the afternoon session. Zone and committee meetings will be followed by a boat ride and picnic at Picnic Point. On Friday the highlight will be the report of the Scholarship Counselor, Dr. Frederick M. Hunter, and the presentation of Sparks Medals. A workshop, conducted by Grand Alpha Carl J. Gladfelter, will be of great value to chapter delegates. The Council Plaque will be awarded at the dinner dance. On Saturday the Purple Badge Ceremony, Libations, the Memorial and Candlelight Ceremonies will be held.

Take your vacation over the Labor Day weekend and come to Madison for the rest of the week to see Chi Phi in action.

Vernon W. Thomson,

33rd Governor of Wisconsin belongs to Kappa Chapter

VERNON W. THOMSON, Kappa '27, 51-year-old Richland Center attorney who made government his career, was sworn in on Jan. 7 as Wisconsin's 33rd governor.

More than 3,000 persons filled the Capitol rotunda and spilled over into the halls on the stairways and the balconies to watch Thomson and four other Republicans take the oath for constitutional state office.

In an inaugural address devoid of politics, Thomson called for Divine Guidance "that I may have the fortitude in lonely hours of decision-making to reach those conclusions which will lead our government in the way of truth and justice for all our people."

Thomson took the oath of office from Chief Justice John E. Martin, who himself had been sworn in as chief justice only 2½ hours earlier.

Spectators craned for a view of the maroon-rugged inaugural platform at the mouth of the west gallery on the first floor of the rotunda from a variety of vantage points on all four floors of the Capitol.

It was impossible to count the crowd, Brown said. He estimated it conservatively at 3,000.

A fanfare of trumpets rang through the marble halls at noon sharp and the inaugural parade moved from the reception room in the governor's office to the platform in the rotunda.

LeRoy Luberg, executive secretary to Gov. Thomson, acted as master of ceremonies. The parade was escorted by a platoon of the 32nd Division, Wisconsin National Guard. A 17-piece brass ensemble of University of Wisconsin musicians played the processional, and the university a cappella choir sang two numbers. The Richland Center High school band, in which Thomson played as a high school pupil, played an hour's concert after the inauguration.

The inaugural platform was finished in front by a swath of 24-inch fern fronds and at the rear by larger plants and by the flags of many nations.

Directly across the rotunda from the inaugural platform seats were reserved for the families of those seated on the platform, and for various dignitaries.

The front row of that reserved section was occupied by the wives of the five officers sworn in, by Mrs. Kohler and by former Gov. and Mrs. Oscar Rennebohm.

Behind them were family members, including the Thomson's three children, Pat, 18, a freshman at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Ill.; Susan, 14, a ninth grader at West High School; and Tommy, 10, in the fifth grade at Nakoma school.

Also present were the new governor's two brothers, Allen Thomson, New York, N. Y., and Cameron, Kappa '28, Mt. Carroll, Ill., and his sister, Mrs. M. F. Clark, McHenry, Ill., and Thomson's seven nieces and nephews.

Brother Thomson arrived at the Capitol about 11:45 a.m. He had been confined to his home for several days with a severe cold. He said he felt fairly good but was a little hoarse. The hoarseness wasn't evident during Gov. Thomson's 15-minute inaugural address. He said that the recent arrival of Hungarian refugees in Wisconsin "gives fresh emphasis and greater meaning to our heritage of personal liberty."

He said Wisconsin can continue to achieve spiritual and material values "by our Wisconsin people striving together—as families strive—in harmony, mutual trust, devotion to the common good; in patience, loyalty, understanding and perseverance; with knowledge and competence and dedication." He said this applied to all fields of endeavor in the state.

"We seek an elusive balance between a government that does not ignore the troubled individual in this complex, interdependent society, and a government that does not destroy personal initiative by indulging in excesses of paternalism," Gov. Thomson said.

He said he begins his term of office "with a plea to the Creator that I may have the capacity and understanding to see and choose correct paths of conduct no matter what pressures are exerted by individuals or groups looking for selfish gain; that I may have the patience and strength to reject the immediately convenient in favor of the hard right and ultimate good."

Brother Thomson of Richland Center was recommended and endorsed at the State Conventions of the Republican Party of Wisconsin in 1950, 1952, and 1954. He was born in Richland Center in 1905 where he has resided all his life. He was graduated from the local schools and from the University of Wisconsin in 1927 and from its Law School in 1932. He holds a life certificate as a teacher in Wisconsin's secondary schools. He was assistant district attorney of Richland County from 1933 to 1935, and city attorney of Richland Center 1933 to 1937, and from 1942 to 1944. Brother Thomson was mayor of Richland Center from 1944 to 1951.

First elected to the Wisconsin Assembly in 1934, Gov. Thomson served continuously in that body until his election as attorney general in 1950. He was Speaker of the Assembly during three sessions—1939, 1941, and 1943—and served as Republican Floor Leader in 1945, 1947 and 1949.

During his terms of service in the Assembly, Gov. Thomson was a member of the Judiciary Committee and many times its chairman. He was a member of the Advisory Committee to the Supreme Court on Rules, Pleading, Practice, and Procedure. He served as chairman of the Republican Platform Committee, and as secretary of the Legislative Council. He is a member of the Judicial Council.

Brother Thomson is author of the bill reorganizing the Public Welfare Department and a bill creating the State Department of Taxation. He pioneered in legislation banning slot machines from the state and was the original sponsor of the Veterans Rehabilitation Trust Fund which set apart the original eight million dollars that became the start for the present State Department of Veterans Affairs.

Brother Thomson has been a delegate to the Republican National Conventions of 1936, 1940, 1952 and 1956, twice addressing the 1952 Convention to become familiar to millions of TV viewers. He was a member of the Wisconsin Presidential Electoral College of 1952.

Gov. Thomson served three terms as attorney general of Wisconsin.

GRAND ALPHA ELECT

Dr. O. B. WILLIAMS

Appoints Council

DR. O. B. WILLIAMS, Grand Alpha Elect, has appointed his Council which will be installed at Madison, Wis., on the first day of Congress, Sept. 4.

The Grand Beta is Dr. Alfred P. Haake, Kappa '14. Dr. Haake, author, lecturer and consultant to General Motors, is a man who understands all three sides of the economic picture—labor, management and public—through wide personal experience. He is widely known as a speaker who interprets, in terms of everyday life, the fundamentals involved in today's complex economic, social, and governmental problems.

Born in Chicago, Dr. Haake's business life began as a truck boy in a furniture factory. Two years of high school and then eight years of progress from office boy to catalog writer, salesman, and cashier. He then went to the University of Wisconsin as an "adult-special" student. He earned his master's and doctor's degrees while teaching economics at Wisconsin and later was professor and head of the economics department of Rutgers College and the New Jersey College for Women. Following that he served as head of the Bureau of Industrial Economics and adviser to large advertisers in Detroit and neighboring cities. Later he became assistant to the president of Simmons Co. in charge of advertising, selling, and service. For several years he managed the National Association of Furniture Manufacturers.

In debates over national radio networks with some of the ablest advocates of the more radical philsophies, he has proved a formidable opponent through offsetting their aggressiveness with his characteristic kindly and considerate manner and his penetrating understanding of issues involved.

Dr. O. B. Williams, Nu '21, Grand Alpha Elect, helped select the new coach for the University of Texas

Dr. Haake is also a staff contributor to Peck Associates column, which appears in many newspapers throughout the country. He is associate editor for a labor-management magazine.

He served for eight years as mayor of Park Ridge, Ill., before changing his residence to Largo, Fla.

Dr. Haake's leadership in other fields of endeavor includes: Chairman of the Laymen's National Committee (an organization striving to strengthen interest and participation in religious education);

Member of the Advisory Committee of Spiritual Mobilization and the Advisory Committee of the Art Institute of Chicago; Former member of the Board of Social Missions of the United Lutheran Church in America (four years) and the Labor Board Panel in Chicago; Economic consultant to the National Small Businessmen's Assn.; Past director and vice president of Chicago Rotary Club and past president of the Chicago Executives Club. Member of the University Clubs of Washington, D. C., and Park Ridge, Ill.; Author of recently published book on Faith and Fact, a penetrating analysis of religion and economics.

He is married and the father of five children.

Grand Eta is C. Baxter Jones,

Grand Eta is C. Baxter Jones, Jr., Gamma '40, a lawyer

Grand Beta is Dr. Alfred P. Haake, Kappa '14, teacher, writer, lecturer

Grand Delta is Freeman Strickland, Omega '24, banker and regent

Jr., Gamma '40. Brother Jones was born in Perry, Ga., although his parents, George S. and Carolyn Clark Cater Jones, were living in Macon at the time. He attended Lanier High School, graduating as valedictorian in 1936. Entering Emory in the fall of 1937, he became a member of the freshman debate team and was elected class president. Before he completed his college career he had been chosen to membership in  $\text{H}\Sigma\Psi$ ,  $\text{AEY}$ ,  $\text{O}\Delta\text{K}$ , and  $\Phi\text{BK}$ . He was Alpha of Gamma Chapter and IFC president. By June, 1941, he had completed seven quarters in the Law School at Emory and had taken his Georgia Bar examinations. In July, 1941, he enlisted in the Army as a private. He was released from duty in April, 1946, as a major.

In May, 1946, Brother Jones joined the law firm of Powell, Goldstein, Frazer & Murphy in Atlanta. He remained with this firm until 1951 when he joined the firm of Sutherland, Asbill & Brennan. He has contributed to many civic enterprises in Atlanta. He has served on the Men's Council of the League of Women Voters, has taught a Sunday School class of college students at the First Presbyterian Church, taught business law at Atlanta University, served on the board of the Atlanta Legal Aid Society, on the board of the Atlanta Citizens Crime Prevention Commission and the Metropolitan Voting Council, on the board of the Georgia State YMCA. In 1953 he was chairman of the Speakers' Bureau of the Atlanta Red Cross campaign. The Atlanta Jaycees chose him as Atlanta's outstanding young man in 1950.

Always interested in democratic procedures, Brother Jones has worked through the Younger Lawyers Section of the Georgia Bar Assn. and in the Junior Bar Conference of the American Bar Assn. to formulate and obtain fairer legislation. In 1948 he was chairman of the national committee of the Junior Bar Conference on Small Loan Studies. During his second year as chairman the committee published a brochure on "Loan Sharks in Georgia." He was a member of the debate team which discussed the subject of the legality of credit life insurance at the Conference on Personal Finance Law at the St. Louis meeting of the American Bar Assn. in 1949. He has continued this work, being elected national secretary of the Junior Bar Conference in 1952. In the same year he ran for Congressman from the Fifth District of Georgia, conducting a campaign against the county unit system in the Congressional primary. He won the popular vote, but was defeated because of the system against which he campaigned.

Brother Jones has contributed his time to Emory Alumni affairs and to Chi Phi. In 1952 he served as treasurer of the Alumni Association and as secretary of the Atlanta Chi Phi Alumni Assn. He has continued to work hard in both organizations.

In 1942, Brother Jones married Julia Lowry Block of Atlanta. Their five-year-old daughter is Julia Lowry Jones.

The Grand Delta is Freeman Strickland, Omega '24. Brother Strickland was born on Sept. 17, 1901, in LaGrange, Ga., where he graduated from high school. He was initiated into the Georgia Tech Chapter on Oct. 2, 1920. His son, Freeman, Jr., is an Omega pledge at Tech at the present time.

Brother Strickland is senior vice president of the First National Bank of Atlanta. He is vice chairman of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia and a trustee of the Georgia Tech National Alumni Assn. He belongs to the Anak Society of Georgia Tech and to the Georgia Nuclear Advisory Commission.

silon Porter was introduced in a recent issue of CHAKETT and Chi Phi's attending the Madison Congress in September will find him functioning as a member of the arrangements committee. Brothers Thomas and Guin were members of Grand Alpha Gladfelter's Council and have made fine contributions to the welfare of the Fraternity.

Your Grand Alpha himself, Dr. O. B. Williams, is a leader wherever he turns his efforts. Nu Chapter members know him as a constant source of Chi Phi energy. His university interests are as varied as one could find. Chairman of the department of bacteriology at the University of Texas, he is also chairman of the Athletic Council. He is serving as vice president of the Southwest Athletic Conference and will be its president by the time he is installed as Chi Phi's Grand Alpha. Brother Williams' biography in Who's Who in America will show you how wide his contacts have been. He belongs to  $\Phi\text{BK}$ ,  $\Sigma\Xi$ , and numerous professional bacteriology and food science societies.

Born in Kosse, Texas, on Sept. 17, 1895, Dr. Williams received his BA from the University of Texas in 1921, his MA in 1923, and his PhD in 1928 from the University of California.

Scholarship Counselor

CHI PHI has the services of an expert as Scholarship Counselor. Dr. Frederick Maurice Hunter, Alpha Theta Chi '05, is the honorary chancellor of the Oregon State System of Higher Education. He retired as chancellor in 1946, having been in that position for more than 10 years. From 1928 to 1935, he served the University of Denver as chancellor. Prior to that he was superintendent of schools in Oakland, Cal., and in Lincoln, Nebr.

Dr. F. M. Hunter, Alpha Theta Chi '05, has served as Scholarship Counselor since 1948

But to go back to the beginning. Brother Hunter was born in Savannah, Mo., on March 24, 1879, the son of Theodore F. and Frances Tatlock Hunter. He went to the University of Nebraska where he became a member of  $\Phi\text{BK}$  and received his BA degree in 1905. He was granted an LLD there in 1939. While on campus he was a member of the debating teams of 1902 and 1903. He earned his master's at Columbia in 1919 and his doctor of education degree in 1925 at the University of California. Colorado College granted him an LLD in 1930 and the University of Colorado gave him one in 1932.

Following graduation at Nebraska, he became superintendent of schools at Fairmont, Ashland, and Norfolk, Nebr., respectively, during the years of 1905-11. In 1911 he served as professor of agricultural education and principal of the University of Nebraska School of Agriculture, becoming superintendent of the Lincoln schools in 1912. He has lectured at Columbia and at the University of California during summer sessions.

The National Education Assn. chose him as president in 1920 and he worked on its Committee of 100 for investigation of teacher tenure and on the Policy Committee. Dr.

Brother Cronkite Addresses Delta Reunion Banquet

by Samuel A. Moschella, Alpha, and George J. Lukac

“FRATERNITIES are part of the American way of life,” Walter Cronkite, Nu '35, said in a talk at Delta Chapter's Brother-Alumni Banquet held on Feb. 16. Brother Cronkite, noted CBS-TV personality, was speaking to more than 100 Brothers and Alumni of Delta.

Brother Cronkite went on to say that often people criticize fraternities for not taking upon themselves social objectives but for spending too much time “having fun.” But, he said, having fun and laughing are part of the American way of life and are things we should never lose. If we were to lose these things, he said, our way of life would sink to the level it is in Russia and its satellites.

Brother Cronkite was the guest of honor and main speaker at the banquet which was held on the last day of the Rutgers Greek Week. For more than three months, all the Brothers of Delta had worked unceasingly on various committees in setting up the banquet which, it is hoped, will become an annual affair. But the work of the Brothers was well rewarded when Alumni from all over New Jersey and bordering states met at the chapter house. Represented were classes as far back as 1902 and as near as 1956.

After a social gathering at the house, the entire group of Brothers and Alumni adjourned to the University Commons where the banquet was held.

The banquet proved to be another successful part of an entirely successful evening. Samuel Moschella, Alpha of Delta Chapter, acted as master of ceremonies. The highlight of the banquet was the talk delivered by Brother Cronkite who added a lot to the dinner with his views on fraternities, stories from behind the Iron Curtain, and his jokes.

Brother Moschella presented nine newly initiated Brothers to the assembled group. These nine had just completed their Greek Week work and had been initiated that afternoon. The Alpha also made an award of a plaque for the best pledge paddle in a house-conducted contest.

Brother Louis Wolfson, Delta '38, president of the Delta Chapter Alumni Assn., took over the proceedings and talked to the Alumni of the progress of the house. The floor was then thrown open to questions and comments. This proved to be a very enlightening part of the program. To top off the evening, the Brothers and Alumni joined in singing some Chi Phi songs.

Following the banquet, there was a great movement from the University Commons back to the chapter house. Another social gathering was held which lasted until sometime in the morning. There was not a doubt in anyone's mind that many of the Alumni were reliving their college days.

Pinellas County Alumni

ST. PETERSBURG Chi Phis are organized as the Chi Phi Club of Pinellas County, Fla. Their secretary is Charles S. Manning, Sigma '05 (Wofford), 2326 14th St., No. Get in touch with Brother Manning about Chi Phi activities in that area.

Texas Awards

THE Texas Chi Phi Educational Trust, through its board of directors, created two cash prizes for scholarship achievement by the pledges, consisting of a $50 award to the freshman pledge with the highest average, and a $25 award for the second highest average. These will be given each semester.

Brother Metzenthin was initiated into Nu Chapter in 1940 where he was Alpha in 1942 and again in 1946. He became a member of ΦΗΣ, a track letterman, and received his BS in electrical engineering at the University of Texas before serving in the Army Signal Corps from 1943 to 1946. Returning to the University he took graduate work during 1946-47 and was an instructor in the applied mathematics department in 1947. He is now regional manager for the Crouse-Hinds Co. in Dallas. He belongs Club Assn., the Intercollegiate Ski Assn., and other such organizations. Founders of many of the eastern member clubs of the Eastern Ski Assn. were members of the Dartmouth Outing Club it was discovered when the United States Eastern Ski Assn. was founded. This is the largest division of the National Ski Assn.

Brother Harris credits outdoor sports at Dartmouth for improving his health to the extent that he was able to participate in competitive tennis. His interest in hunting, inspired by his father, increased while he was at Dartmouth.

In 1913, he won the national mixed-doubles tennis championship with the famed May Sutton Bundy. He has hunted deer throughout New England and in New Brunswick; elk in Jackson Hole, Wyo.; javalina and wild turkey in the Sierra Madres in Chihuahau, and mountain sheep in Sonora in Mexico. Only two years ago, he hunted the big Brown Bear in Alaska. He bagged two.

During World War I, Harris flew Jennies in training school. Then, as a Navy lieutenant, he piloted N-9's—a hydro-airplane—as well as the H-16 Flying Boats.

But of all the sports, skiing is his most beloved. In 1930 he was sent to Oslo, Norway, by the National Ski Assn. of America to attempt to secure the Winter Olympic Games. They were first held at Lake Placid in 1932. During this and following trips and through study, Brother

“I was ice skating in Brattleboro, Vt., my home town, when a whitehaired gentleman asked me whether I enjoyed the sport.

“It’s the best there is,” I answered.

“Why don’t you visit me the first time we have a good snowfall,” he suggested. ‘I’ll show you a better sport.’

“You guessed it,” Brother Fred H. Harris, Chi '11, now 69, continued. “It was skiing. He took me to a hill northeast of town and we skied on contraptions that were about nine feet long and four inches wide. I shudder when I think of them.”

When Harris reached Dartmouth two years later he brought with him the only pair of skis to be found on the campus. He skied on Hanover’s hills—much to the amusement of Big Green undergraduates.

Brother Harris recalls that students complained about the long winters when they were forced to stay indoors. He loved the deep snow and the cold weather and he was puzzled by their argument that winter was a liability.

“I felt that, if exposed through the right kind of organization, others would learn to enjoy skiing and winter sports as much as myself. I mulled over the idea for many months.” Finally in his junior year, he submitted a suggestion to The Dartmouth, proposing the formation of a Ski and Snowshoe Club and outlining Dartmouth’s unique opportunities. Students began to get interested and the Dartmouth Outing Club was founded in 1909, four years after Brother Harris put on his first pair of skis. Faculty members were amazed when as many as 60 undergraduates became members.

“We did a little promotion,” Harris explained with a grin. “For a week we went about town painting ‘D. O. C.’ on the sidewalks and poles.

“By the time we met for our organization meeting, we had the entire student body curious.”

The first Winter Carnival was held the following year—1910. The first simple constitution and by-laws of the Club contained provision for a chain of cabins, for a Fête de Nuit, now Outdoor Evening. It took about 10 years to complete the projects and then the Club set out on new ones.

Members of the Club have carried their influence far from the Dartmouth campus. They were responsible for the formation of the Intercollegiate Winter Sports Union, the Intercollegiate Outing

Harris worked on plans for ski hills and jumps.

"It is one thing to throw a jumper 200 feet out into the air; it is quite another to bring him safely back on to the landing slope." The Brattleboro 70-meter Hill is the practical application of what he learned. Just before the start of the National Ski-Jumping Championship in Brattleboro on Feb. 11, 1951, this hill was dedicated in honor of Brother Harris by the Brattleboro Outing Club which he founded.

No longer able to compete in championship tennis, he turned to sailboat racing. He is New England Lightning Class sailing champion. He founded the Lightning Class Fleet at Spofford Lake, N. H., in 1948. The following year skip-pers won first, second, and third places in the New England Championship at South Portland, Me. In 1955, with his wife Helen whom he married in Ann Arbor, Mich., in 1950, as a crew member, he won the New Hampshire Championship, the Annual Lake Winnepesaukee Championship, and the Championship of the State of Maine. His boat is named the "Sandy Kay" after his young daughter. Two years ago Brother Harris and his wife went 1,000 miles north of Seattle by yacht to hunt Alaskan bear.

His articles on sports have appeared in The Vermonter, Country Life, Winter Sports, American Rifleman, Outdoor Life, and Sports Afield. In 1920 The National Geographic published an article called, "Skiing Over the New Hampshire Hills."

The most recent honor to come to Brother Harris was the presentation of the 1956 Award, a beautiful silver bowl, for the most outstanding contribution to New England skiing. It was presented by the Honorable Hugh Gregg, former governor of New Hampshire, by the New England Council. Mr. Gregg referred to him as "the dean of American skiing and one of the greatest living ski pioneers."

On Feb. 22-24 the first Brattleboro Winter Carnival was held. As treasurer of the Brattleboro Outing Club, Brother Harris was much involved in it. Ski-jumping tournaments had been held since 1922, but this was the first carnival.

"The day I'll never forget though," he says, "is that first time on skis. On my first trip, I somersaulted. One ski went flying past my head and landed in a brook. I was ready to call it quits.

"'This is no time to give up,' my white-haired-friend said to me with a big grin."

Harris hasn't given up yet.

Texas Trust Discusses Financing

THE general membership of the Texas Chi Phi Educational Trust met on Feb. 24 at the Nu chapter house at the University of Texas in Austin. Richard E. Rolle, president, called the meeting to order. Twenty-three members heard W. G. Swenson, Jr., treasurer, report that 48 dues-paying members of the Nu Chapter Alumni Club paid $240.00 into the treasury. The dues are $5.00 and monies are used to circularize Alumni. Brother Swenson reported the total assets of the Trust to be $113,512.47. Common stocks are held in Creole and Atlas besides $23,331.11 in savings accounts. $60,758.44 are still outstanding on pledges. The collection of these and of more dues from members are pressing matters for the Trust.

A very comprehensive discussion was held concerning the rising costs and the present estimates of building a new house for Nu Chapter. A figure of $130,000.00 was estimated on the complete house, less a dormitory wing housing 20 men. The complete house as now proposed would cost approximately $170,000.00. The smaller house would cost $8,000 per man; the larger one, $5,000. Four committees were set up: Tax and legal, loan, building, and scholarship.

Scholarship awards were presented to John Strassburger and John Nottingham, both Nu fall pledges, in the amounts of $50 and $25, respectively.

Officers elected are Creston H. Funk, president; Emmett Crow and James B. Graves, vice presidents; W. G. Swenson, treasurer; Ben W. Greig, Jr., secretary. The board of directors include: One Year—Richard Reser, P. M. C. Buhmann, Sam D. W. Low, Creston H. Funk, Phocian Park; Two Years—Ben W. Greig, Sr., Arthur W. Mueller, Richard E. Rolle, W. G. Swenson, A. M. G. Swenson. New three-year directors are D. H. Buchanan, R. B. Morrison, John E. Metzenthin, T. P. Hewitt, W. W. Milburn, Sr.

At a board of directors' meeting members passed appropriate resolutions concerning procedures in obtaining a loan to proceed with the building of the chapter house, procedures following the receipt of additional monies, set up a memorial and special gifts' committee, with Sam D. W. Low as chairman, to solicit special gifts for the house, and agreed to present scholarships of $25 and $50 to the best students in Nu Chapter this spring.—BEN W. GREIG, JR., Secretary.

John L. Sullivan, Chi '21, practices law in Washington, D. C., at the present time

Dartmouth Trustee

JOHN L. SULLIVAN, Chi '21, of Manchester, N. H., former Secretary of the Navy, and Orvil E. Dryfoos '34 of New York City, vice president and assistant to the publisher of The New York Times, were elected trustees of Dartmouth College at the annual winter meeting of the Board of Trustees in Hanover on Jan. 25-26.

Both elections, following nominations by the Dartmouth Alumni Council at its meeting two weeks earlier, were to fill unexpired terms. Mr. Sullivan will fill, until June 30, 1958, the unexpired portion of the second five-year term of Sigurd S. Larmon '14 of New York, who has resigned from the Board.

Mr. Sullivan, who maintains his legal residence in New Hampshire, practices law in Washington, where he served as Secretary of the Navy under President Truman. Dartmouth has long been one of his prime interests; he was president of the Alumni Council in 1950-51, served as chairman of the Council's Committee on Bequests, in which capacity he directed the establishment of the Dartmouth Lawyers Association, and for some years he has been president of the Class of 1921. Dartmouth conferred the honorary Doctorate of Laws upon him in 1949. Other honorary degrees have been received from Duquesne, New Hampshire, Loyola, and the University of Portland. He was national chairman of Brotherhood Week in 1950; has been a leader in numerous philanthropic, educational, religious and service organizations; and is presently a director of companies in this country and Canada, including Aluminium Ltd., the Glenn L. Martin Co., and the Brown Co.—Dartmouth Alumni Magazine.

ABC Assistant

EDGAR G. SHELTON, JR., Nu '42, has joined the American Broadcasting Co., as assistant to Robert H. Hinckley, vice president and director of American Broadcasting-Paramount Theatres, Inc., in charge of the Washington office.

Brother Shelton, in joining ABC, has relinquished the post of director of the U. S. National Security Training Commission, with which he has been associated since 1951 in various capacities. During 1956, he also served as consultant to the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Manpower, Personnel, and Reserve.

From January to September, 1951, Brother Shelton was attorney and investigator and editorial assistant to the Chairman of the Preparedness Subcommittee, U. S. Senate Committee on Armed Services. A native of Austin, Texas, he was with the University of Texas department of speech from 1947 to 1951 and practiced law in Austin.

He was winner of the Freedom Foundation Award for public speech contributing to understanding of American Way of Life in 1950.

Brother Shelton holds BA, MA, and Bachelor of Laws degrees from the University of Texas and during World War II served with the United States Navy. With his wife, Emily, and son, Edgar Ames, he lives in Bethesda, Md.

Edgar G. Shelton, Jr., Nu '42, has been director of the U. S. National Security Training Commission

Retired

F. MASON MANLEY, Delta '16, a board member and construction director of Johnson & Johnson, retired on Dec. 31. Manley started with the company in 1916 as a timekeeper.

Gen. Robert Wood Johnson, board chairman, in announcing the retirement, said Manley's contributions to the company had been exceptional.

In collaboration with Johnson, Manley directed construction of new company plants in Middlesex and Somerset counties which have won several international architectural awards.

Manley was born in New Brunswick in 1894 and was graduated from Rutgers University. He has been active in community and state affairs and is now serving a second term as a member of the board of managers of the State Prison.

He and his wife, the former Mary Edna McFadden, live in Piscataway Township and Mantoloking.—Newark, N. J., Evening News.

Nile Project

THE world's foremost banker—former Atlantan Eugene R. Black, Eta '17,—saw a "good possibility" in Atlanta on March 18 that "talk on some kind of project on the Nile" will be opened after solution of "the important" Egypt-Israel problems.

In an interview at which he observed that the U. S. tight money situation hasn't slowed up World Bank operations at all, the head of the 60-nation International Bank for Reconstruction and Development said he didn't know whether the Nile discussions if opened, would center around the Aswan dam or something else.

"Secretary Dulles has mentioned the possibilities for some kind of project in which Egypt's neighboring countries also would have a part," Black said. "I would guess that whatever shape it takes, it would be a big project and very important."

Asked if the recent U. S. refusal of the 200-million-dollar-plus Aswan dam loan was justified on the basis of Egypt's alleged unsound financial condition, Black said: "I have no way of knowing.

"I have no reason to doubt Dulles' statement of U. S. fears that Egypt's mortgaging of her cotton crops for arms would make it difficult for her to undertake the Aswan dam," Black said. "However, the negotiations would have had to reach the agreement stage before the World Bank would have instigated an independent study to determine Egypt's actual ability to repay."

Here to address an Atlanta Rotary Club meeting, the 58-year-old University of Georgia graduate noted that the World Bank, like most financial institutions, is passing along to the customer the increased costs of borrowing money.

The official, who became president of the non-profit bank in 1949, reported that its earnings have increased every year for the past eight years. In fiscal 1956, it earned 35 million dollars compared to 30 million dollars the year before. "And we think this year it will be bigger," he added, pointing out that the organization has built up a 250-million-dollar reserve against loss out of these earnings.

The bank operates "at no cost to the taxpayer," Black said. It hopes this year to add to its roster "four or five more countries, including Saudi Arabia, Sudan, and Lybia." The bank has capital of 9.5 billion dollars, only 20 per cent of which is actual paid-in capital. The remainder is callable "in an emergency." The U. S. controls 30 per cent of the votes.

Early reopening of the Suez is important to the continuance of world prosperity and to the avoidance of more serious damage to the European economy through oil shortages, the official said.

Black, an "international" whose tax free 30-thousand-dollar-a-year salary ranks just behind the President's as far as U. S. government wages are concerned, was Atlanta representative for Harris Forbes Co. of New York prior to joining Chase National (now Chase-Manhattan National) Bank. He is a grandson of Henry Grady, Alpha '68, Eta '68, and the son of E. R. Black, Sr., Eta '92, of the Federal Reserve System under President Roosevelt.—BOB WILLIMON in The Atlanta Constitution.

Kinder Newcomers

JIMMIE M. PACK, Alpha-Alpha '48, is a new assistant at the Calcasieu-Marine National Bank in Kinder, La., moving here from De Ridder with his family.

Brother Pack married the former Dolores Walden of De Ridder while he was stationed at Camp Polk during the last war. After being discharged from the service, the couple moved to Miami Beach, Fla., where they lived before moving to Kinder. He was employed by the Chase Federal Savings and Loan Association of Miami for four years.

Pack is a graduate of North Carolina University and was active in Chi Phi Alumni Club, Oak Ridge Military Institute Alumni Club, North Miami Beach JCC, Moose Lodge No. 446. He was a member of the Alpha-Alpha Chapter of Chi Phi Fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Pack and two children, Patricia Ann, 16 months and Tensie Lynn, age one month are welcome newcomers to Kinder.—Kinder Tribune.

THE Chi Phi Club of Omaha will hold its 62nd reunion on May 18, 1957. A cordial invitation is extended to all Brothers in that area. Reservations can be made through Brother D. G. Hayek, 364 No. 41st St., Omaha, Nebr.

Penn's "Man of Year"

GREGORY JONES, JR., Lambda '47, resident agent of the Santa Rosa office of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co., was honored in San Francisco by his company for qualifying for the company's Million Dollar Club. Brother Jones put in force more than $1,000,000 of life insurance in 1956 in Sonoma County. At this same banquet meeting he was selected from the more than one hundred agents representing his company in Northern California as the "Man of the Year." He was awarded a diamond tie pin for recognition of this achievement. This coveted honor is given not only on the basis of production but primarily is given in recognition for his outstanding contributions to his associates and to his company.

Brother Jones is a member of the Santa Rosa Elks Club, is a director of the Santa Rosa YMCA and is a past director of the San Francisco Life Underwriters Assn. He has been a resident of Santa Rosa since 1949. He lives at 3368 Magowan Drive with his wife, the former Edwine Baker, two daughters, Hilary Prentiss Jones, 6, Christina Hopkinson Jones, 2, and his son, Samuel Lloyd Jones III, 7. Sam is named for his brother, and his uncle, Samuel Lloyd Jones, Lambda '44, who was killed in the Korean War.

Gregory Jones, Lambda '47, of Santa Rosa, Cal., belongs to the Million Dollar Club.

Dr. Herbert Trotter, Jr., Epsilon '31, is interested in guided missiles.

Executive Veepee

DR. HERBERT TROTTER, JR., Epsilon '31, vice president of engineering and research for The Sharples Corp., has been named executive vice president of the Philadelphia concern.

Since joining Sharples in February, 1956, Dr. Trotter has headed the research in and development of centrifuges and centrifugal processes of the company, as well as powder classification and other projects of the Sharples Research Laboratories.

Previously he was assistant director of the Eastman-Kodak Naval Ordnance Division and assistant director of Apparatus Research and Development Department of the Camera Works. Prior to 1945, he was manager of Engineering and Development in the Appliance Division of Sylvania Electrical Products, Inc.

A member of the American Ordnance Assn. Guidance Panel for Guided Missiles; the National Security Industrial Association Committee on Undersea Warfare; the American Physical Society, and the Institute of Radio Engineers, Dr. Trotter is a BS graduate of Hampden-Sydney College, and received his PhD from the University of Virginia.—The Record of Hampden-Sydney Alumni Assn.

Camellia Grower

THE man to ask about growing camellias is Clifford M. Clarke, Jr., Gamma '51. In the last couple of years he has produced a record number of blue ribbon awards in his greenhouse at 129 Mt. Paran Rd., NE.

This year he has walked off with most of the prizes from the Birmingham Camellia Show, Feb. 2-3; the Atlanta show, Feb. 9-10; the Macon show, Feb. 15-16, and, most recently, the Bessemer show.

His winning streak began last year when he took first prize for best bloom under glass in the Charlotte Camellia Show. His winner on that occasion was a recent variety called "Tomorrow," which copped the Atlanta and Bessemer best-bloom prizes this year. One called "Mrs. D. W. Davis" topped the Macon exhibits.

An "Elizabeth LeBey" was winner in Birmingham. That recent variety, incidentally, was produced by famed Dave Strother, Marshallville camellia fancier, who named it for his niece, Mrs. C. D. LeBey, 3434 Piedmont Ave., NE.

Mr. Clarke gives you a practical answer to the inquiry about how he wins prizes. "You fertilize, water, prune, and spray, at the right time, and in the right amounts."

One of the fascinations of camellia growing is the continual appearance of new varieties. Imagine the excitement when, soon after World War II, there appeared on the market a whole new species of camellia—the reticulata, which is bigger, brighter, more delicate than the standard camellia japonica. They were imported from the Hunan Province of China, and there are such atmospheric varieties as Lion's Head, Chang's Temple, Shot Silk, Noble Pearl, Purple Gown, Crimson Robe, Confucius, and Buddha.

side Dr., NE, in whose renowned camellia greenhouses Mr. Clarke gained much of his grower's skill, owns the largest camellia reticulata in the eastern United States.

As soon as Mr. Clarke acquired his greenhouse and his plants (the basis of his collection came from his Savannah home), he began collecting and planting seeds, and at the 1957 Atlanta Camellia Show he was rewarded for his diligence by winning the blue ribbon for the best seedling in the show.

He began growing camellias for their therapeutic value. (Not, however, as the Chinese used to grow them, for the oil from their seeds, used as a medicine.) Mr. Clarke, drafted out of high school, returned from the hospital after World War II with serious wounds. He is now executive vice president of Associated Industries of Georgia.

Mr. Clarke's prize-winners are of course, produced "under glass," as they say. Today Atlanta grows many impressive camellias out of doors, though it is admittedly not as good camellia climate as south Georgia. — FRANK DANIEL in Atlantic Journal-Constitution.

COLLEGE CHAPTERS

Alpha's 22 Pledges Work at House

JIM WHITING
Alpha

University of Virginia

ALPHA is forging ahead having pledged a total of 22 men to date. Immediately after returning from exam vacation, we pledged John Harrison, Boston, Mass.; Lew Zanelli, Bound Brook, N. J.; John Brinner, Roanoke; Bob Davison, Princeton, N. J.; and Norman Littlejohn, Arlington. These men were all pledged prior to formal rush week. During formal rush week the Chapter entertained rushees every night and on Bid Sunday were able to welcome as new pledges: Dave Watts and Ashly Haycox, Virginia Beach; Mercer Davis, Norfolk; Pete Scott, Philadelphia, Pa.; John Poulson, Nelsonia; Mason Minich, Charlottesville; Gale Matheney, Washington, D. C.; Bill Dorman, Lawrenceville, N. J., and Tom McGowan, Charleston, S. C. All of these men are first-year students and will be initiated in the fall. The pledges have pitched in and are busy making the house something to be proud of. They have been given "carte blanche" permission with the lounge in the basement. It is their project, and Pledge Haycox's father has generously contributed an acoustical ceiling and is arranging for asphalt tile for the floor. We plan to decorate it with a large Chakett in the middle of the floor, done in tile. To show their appreciation, the Brothers gave them an open house with dinner and dancing following. The Chapter does not consider its rushing program over and hopes to add at least five more pledges before the semester ends.

This is also marriage year for Alpha Chapter. Brad and Sue Ellen Wines have been added to the five other married Brothers in the Chapter. Frank Strailman and Mary Woodrum Jones of Hollins College, Lee Freiermuth and Alice Lindorfer of Madison College, and Sherwood Liles and Lois Prime of Mary Washington College are all to be married this coming summer.

The Alumni Football Game will be weekend of March 30, at which time the house will entertain all Alumni returning to see the game. Easter's Dance Weekend will be the highlight of the spring party season. The Chapter will give its annual Quadrangle Party with the KΣs and the ΦΣs. Last year there were an estimated two thousand people at the party, and we hope for an even greater crowd this year.—JAMES H. WHITING, Alpha.

Beta Formulates IFC Policies

JOHN A. CURRIE
Alpha

M.I.T.

THE new term began with a very successful initiation week. After last year's unfortunate accident, initiation week procedures were subject to careful scrutiny. We are proud to report that Beta led the way in the formation of the new IFC policies. The week was climaxed by a cave party in honor of the pledges. The party was held in the newly renovated basement. Work on the basement was done by both pledges and Brothers under the direction of our house manager, Bruce Hayworth '59. On March 1, we held our annual initiation banquet. We were proud to have a number of the older Beta Alumni in attendance: Frances B. Kitteridge '21; Fred B. Grant '39; Cedric Valentine '26; and Bob Je-von '44. We hope to see many more of them in the future. Of our 10 pledges we were able to initiate seven: Joseph James Gal, Larry Keith Burns, Robert Edward DeMichaels, James Roger Von Benken, Robert Stanley Hopkins, Jr., James Robert Murphy, and John Price Windle.

Beta lost the bowling championship by a scant 15 pins, but we hope to do better in baseball this spring.

The new social committee, under the leadership of Paul Burr, has several parties planned for this term. They are the spring formal, the IFC party, and an annual beach picnic.

In conclusion I'd like to say farewell to the Beta seniors who will graduate this June: Vern Porter, Jim Cholak, Harry Johnson, and John Currie.—ALAN HURKAMP.

Gamma Teams Win Victories

W. PAUL WESTBROOK
Alpha

Emory University

GAMMA is very proud of the eight men who were initiated into the Brotherhood on Feb. 3: Gerald Bunn, Augusta; Jack Butterworth, Gainesville; Robert Chapman, Savannah; Dahli Hall, Calhoun; George Heald, Atlanta; Bob MacDonell, Homestead, Fla.; Fred Miller, Columbus; and Bill Pitner, Chattanooga. Following the initiation ceremonies a banquet was given at Tom Connally Hall for the new Brothers.

Eight men were honored after initiation by Gamma Chapter on Feb. 3. Speaking at the banquet was Judge Luther Z. Rosser, Omega '08, Eta '08, Gamma '09, Theta Delta '37, Alpha-Mu '39, Zeta '54, National Director and editor of "Chakett." At his left are Dr. Goodrich C. White, Gamma '07, president of Emory, and Paul Westbrook, Alpha of Gamma Chapter. At his right is Solon Patterson, Beta of Gamma

The guest speaker for the evening was Dr. Goodrich C. White, Gamma '08, president of Emory. Many other Alumni were present and the banquet was a very enjoyable occasion. Dahli Hall was awarded the trophy for the most Outstanding Pledge, and Bob MacDonell (son of Bob MacDonell, Sr., Gamma '31) was given a pledge award.

Gamma's athletic teams made a fine showing during the winter quarter. Our soccer team won first place in the second flight, and in basketball we wound up in the championship flight. All the Brothers who participated in the teams should be congratulated for their fine work; special credit is due four Brothers in particular who have been invaluable in athletics: Gene Rackley, athletic manager; Steve DeLisio, soccer coach; Robert Shear, basketball coach; and Jim Woodard, high point-scorer in basketball.

Our annual winter formal was the highlight of the winter social season. It was held this year at the East Lake Country Club. Judy Montgomery was presented at the formal as the Sponsor for the coming year. Following the formal a breakfast was given, and a dance on Saturday night completed a very enjoyable weekend.—ROBERT A. REED.

Delta Alumni Back on Campus

MOSCHELLA
Alpha

Rutgers University

At the first regular meeting officers were elected for the spring term: Alpha, Samuel Moschella; Beta, Richard Kaiser; Gamma, Edward Sheppard; Delta, Peter Fowler; Epsilon, Norman Winter; Zeta, Bradford Bingham; and our new steward is Hank Finger. Bill Carlson and Whitney Irwin are back from the service, giving us 37 Brothers. During the All-University IFC Greek Week, our nine new Brothers put the house in top shape under the fine management of Norm Winter. Our six new pledges are: Robert Alvine, Terrence Claypoole, Thomas Hollinger, Malcolm Labar, Alexander Rossiter, and Robert Trebowski. Delta also has a charming new housemother, Mrs. Sefa. Thomas King was named to Who's Who in American Colleges. George Lukac is running for editor-in-chief of the university paper (Targum). Peter Herrington was re-elected to Student Council. Peter Canzonier was appointed student director of intramurals. Dick McKeeby has a 5-1-1 record for the wrestling team. Whitney Irwin and Peter Herrington are playing lacrosse, and Ed Sheppard, John Krisko and Norbert Smith are out for baseball. Three Alumni from the Class of '56 are back on the campus: Dean Oliver is coaching an undefeated and untied freshman wrestling team; Clark White is assistant Dean of Men at Rutgers and Bob Arlett is doing government work in the ceramics department.

Delta recently held a very successful Brother-Alumni Banquet. We were glad to see some of the old familiar faces back on the "Banks" again. Social Chairman, Bill Keeney, is making plans for our Junior Prom Weekend.—M. BRADFORD BINGHAM.

Epsilon Men Lead at H-S

HAL McVEY
Alpha

Hampden-Sydney
College

EPSILON did well in February, pledging 16 freshmen. Rush Chairman Beau Price deserves credit as well as all the Brothers. The pledges are: E. Leighton Abbott, Jr., Raymond McK. Scruggs, Clifton Forge; Silas W. Barnes, Jr., Crozet; Nelson B. Berry, Falmouth; F. Mert Fowlkes, Jr., Baltimore, Md.; Edward H. Fox, David Jones, Douglas H. Stinespring, John R. Swisher, Lynchburg; Irvin L. Gladding, Tappahannock; James H. Grant, Jr., Richmond; James E. Haley, Pineville, Ky.; Robert B. Hughes, Halifax; J. Charles Johnson, Mt. Olive, N. C.; Landon C. Smith, Petersburg; Robert A. Furr, Jr., Harrisonburg. Pledge Furr was outstanding last fall, winning a berth on the All Little-Eight Football Team.

Alpha McVey and Tommy Bowe, Gamma, president and business manager, respectively, of the Hampden-Sydney German Club, are to be recognized for the fine work they have done for the Club. Their efforts have resulted in such an increase in Club membership that they were able to arrange to have Woody Herman at Hampden-Sydney for Spring Dances. This is unusual for a college of 400 students.

John Putt is playing first string ball for a hot Hampden-Sydney five which has a good chance to take the Mason-Dixon Conference. Brother George Grinnan, Beta, will be running top-notch track again this spring. Holding part of a Conference relay record, we are expecting much of him on the cinders. Gene Cooke, holding the high-batting average for last year's Conference championship team, will be the man to watch again this spring.

The Brothers and pledges will be busy shaping up the lawn and the house in preparation for our annual Spring Parties. This is our big social event of the year and we are looking forward to entertaining Brothers from neighboring Chapters as well as our many interested Alumni and friends.—BEN DAWSON.

Zeta Alumni Start Campaign

STAN DUDRICK
Alpha

Franklin & Marshall

THE big news at Zeta centers around the recent Rush Week. Brothers Jay Powell and Gary Glontz worked hard as Rushing Committee Co-chairmen, and, with the cooperation of the whole brotherhood, Zeta found its reward in a top-notch pledge class: Sandor Babos, Cleon Cassel, Frank Chapin, Norman Coppinger, Bill Davis, John Diefenbach, Ross Emerick, Dave Fox, Bob Foy, Sydney Gadd, Paul Grosh, Bill Guisler, Jim Huston, Pete Kandel, John Kerr, Sam Nolt, Tony Peck, Neil Potter, Ted Sharpe, John Smeltzer, Bob Smith, Dave Thomas, and Joe Weatherby. Sophomore Fred Current was also pledged at the onset of Rush Week. To celebrate the occasion, a dinner dance was held at Overlook Country Club on the following weekend. This event marked the beginning of the second semester social calendar, which includes Interfraternity Weekend on March 29-30 and Spring Weekend, tentatively set for May 10-11.

The newly-formed Zeta Glee Club has begun practice for the IFC Sing. With many veterans from last year's group, we're well in the running with the more experienced clubs of rival fraternities.

Another item of news comes from the local Alumni. Brothers Jim Appel and Dave Watt have initiated an alumni campaign for the purpose of raising funds to pay off a bank note and add to the general fund for upkeep of the house. If things go well, Zeta may undertake a much-needed interior repainting project before the end of the semester.—ROBERT G. TANCREDI.

Eta House Sold to University

JACK KERN
Alpha

University of Georgia

ETA started the winter quarter with the election of officers: Jack Kern, Alpha; Phillip Middlebrooks, Beta; Harry Hardin, Gamma; Francis Moore, Epsilon. John Ezzard, Delta, and Jon Bogie, Zeta, were retained.

Several weeks ago we had a house party at Stone Haven, on Lake Rabun. We were quite fortunate in procuring the Rhythm Walkers to provide music for the whole weekend. Since the weather was chilly, most of us didn't indulge in the swimming races which are an annual house party event. Athletic-way Eta has done quite well. Our basketball team is tied for first place and the bowling team is on top in its league.

The last part of December the Eta Trust sold our house to the University of Georgia. This will result in a distinct advantage for us. Since the State now owns it, we are exempt from taxes and have only to pay a minimum amount of rent to the University. They are committed to keeping it up and making major repairs. The action of the Alumni was most pleasing to the Brothers and we are grateful for it and we wish to express appreciation to Brother Ruthford Ellis for his tireless efforts.

The weekend of March 1 we are having a rush party. We have planned a typical weekend at Chi Phi. There will be a party Friday night and the "G" game on Saturday. In this way we are able to know the rushees better. If Alumni know of boys coming to Georgia who will make good Chi Phis, their names will be deeply appreciated. —JON BOGIE.

Theta Climbs Scholastically

ALBERT RYBURN
Alpha
Rensselaer

RECENT releases of last semester's grades from the Dean's Office show that Theta has continued its upward trend in the scholastic achievement. The improvement was sufficient to place us very definitely in the running to retain the trophy awarded annually to the most scholastically improved house on campus. Theta was previously awarded the cup for last year's performance.

The Brothers recently joined the campus in celebration of Saturnalia, our winter carnival weekend. As usual, there was no evidence of snow on the campus, but an otherwise enjoyable weekend was highlighted by house parties, a formal banquet, and an all-campus dance. Theta was doubly honored at the dance. Our booth was awarded first place in the all-fraternity competion and Jill Davis, wife of Brother John Davis, was selected for the queen's court. Several Alumni returned for the weekend and were welcomed into the festivities. Plans are in the process for a chapter weekend in the near future. The Brothers are also making arrangements for Parents' Weekend and trying for 100 per cent attendance.—JAMES F. UPTON.

Iota Alumni Reorganize

RAY JACOBSEN, Alpha
Ohio State University

At the beginning of winter quarter Iota elected new officers. The Alpha is Ray Jacobsen; Beta, Pete Colonel; Gamma, Dave Garton; Delta, Ned Kuivinen; Epsilon, Bill Barthelmus; Zeta, Bill Toivonen; and Social Chairman, John Donnelly.

The Alumni in Columbus have reorganized and in January elected new officers. Charles Brooks was elected president; George Matthey, vice president; Charles Dozer, secretary; and James Zikas, treasurer. The plan of the new organization is to work in close conjunction with the chapter house, which will be the base of operations. Their long range plans include complete remodeling of the house with new wiring, plumbing, and quarters for our house-mother. Estimates are now being made on these improvements. On May 4 the Alumni, in conjunction with the Chapter, are planning the annual Alumni Banquet. This year, along with the banquet, there will be a dance. The place for the banquet and dance has not yet been determined.

On Feb. 1, three men were initiated into Iota: Chip Huhta, Don Tincher, and Gene Travis.

A color television set was purchased at the end of autumn quarter and it keeps the living room crowded evenings during color programs. Also new in the living room are two trophies won this year by our football and bowling teams.

The Bowery Party, a yearly event of winter quarter, was a tremendous success with some of the men really outdoing themselves with their costumes. This was combined with a formal, a dance at the Beechwood Tavern, and two house parties to make winter quarter a very successful social season. After finals, during spring vacation, many of the Brothers are looking forward to their trip to Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Rush parties will start the spring quarter with the full social program including a formal at the Columbus Riding Club, theme parties at the house, a dance at the White House, and steak fry at Flint Park.—WILLIAM TOIVONEN.

Kappa Invites You to Congress

ROBERT B. TESKA
Alpha

University of Wisconsin

ALTHOUGH final grades haven't been posted yet, all indications are that Kappa has done a remarkable job scholastically for the past semester. A pleasant surprise was the fine showing of the pledge class (it appears that they have topped the actives). The scholastic program set up by John Powles, last semester's Beta, proved to be successful. Ron Bero received the newly-created award for the man making the most improvement over the previous semester. He had a very fine 3.6 grade-point average for the semester.

Aside from scholarship, Kappa has done well in other fields. In the recent Prom Queen election we backed an AXΩ, Sandy Christiansen. Our skit was the talk of the campus; our newly formed combo as well as excellent singing and dancing succeeded in getting Sandy into the finals. The campaign was so successful that a prominent state paper is running a series of feature articles on it. Many thanks must be given to the campaign manager, Carl Rickmeier, for his excellent work. Preparations for the all-campus show, "Humorology 1957," are under way and, from all indications, this year's production will carry on our winning reputation. Co-chairmen, Bill Strang and Joe Lonsdorf, are in charge of the production.

New social chairman, Jack Zwicky, is keeping everybody happy with an outstanding calendar. Beer suppers, a Prom party, and even a hay-ride have offered us a lot of variety. Plans have been laid for the big spring events, the formal, and the Esquire Party.

The house basketball team came close to going all the way in the playoffs. We lost to the ΔTs who had no trouble whipping the rest of the competition and taking the title. We lost to them by a last second basket, their lowest margin of victory during the entire tournament. The bowlers are still fighting for a place in the upper bracket of the division.

Rushing was slow for the second semester, but we still managed to get three pledges—Eugene Johnson, Sam Sentman, and Tom Corth.

Preparations are already underway for the Congress to be held here next fall. In our opinion, Madison is the perfect spot for Congress considering the climate at that time of year, the location, surrounded by four beautiful lakes, and because it offers excellent accommodations for large groups of people. We hope to see you all here this fall.—WILLIAM STRANG.

Lambda Welcomes Grand Alpha

EDWARD WHITE, Alpha
University of California

On Feb. 17, Lambda conducted eight men through formal initiation: John Reid, Roger Miller, Tom Dixon, Larry Freels, Don Wiesner, Jim Horsely, Ken Meade, and Paul Wadsworth. The previous night the eight men were honored at the traditional initiation banquet after which movies were shown for entertainment.

We were very honored to have the Grand Alpha, Brother Carl J. Gladfelter, visit Lambda two weeks ago on his tour of all Chi Phi Chapters throughout the country. Brother Gladfelter spent three days with us, at which time he conversed with as many of the Brothers as possible and answered our questions concerning other Chi Phi Chapters. Brother Gladfelter picked a very opportune time for his Lambda visit for he was able to witness the initiation.

We at Lambda are already well under way with our social schedule. Our AΦ exchange last Friday was, despite the miserable weather, a huge success. Thanks to the work of the social chairman, Mike Good, plans have been made for two more exchanges in the near future, one with XΩ, the other with AΘII. The big social function of this semester is the University Assembly which will be held on April 13. This big dance is more commonly known as the Big Six.

Lambda has one finman, Bob Bell, out for the freshman swimming team and two men participating in crew racing, a sophomore, Dave White, and a freshman, Don Wiesner. The baseballers in the house are Ken Meade and Steve Retter. As for our intramural activities, our main interest is in basketball.

We are preparing to carry on an enthusiastic campaign for one of the new pledges who is running for Freshman Class president. Guy Erb, an outstanding freshman from San Francisco, is working very diligently, planning his campaign and organizing the other men in the house to best advantage.—STEPHEN RETTER.

Elections were held recently and new appointments were made: William T. Burkhardt, Alpha; Robert Bozzone, Beta; Howland Wilson, Gamma; Curtis P. Koster, Delta; Joel Kuhlberg, Epsilon; and Zeta, Hans Ziegler. Appointments by Alpha Burkhardt consisted of selection of Joe Tomaczek as steward, and Hugh Dougherty as social chairman.

Winter saw an increase in the activity of the Brothers in indoor sports. The interfraternity basketball team is developing and the bowling team, with Jack Gallagher as captain, is functioning. Varsity positions on the basketball team are held by John Cutting, and on the baseball team by Hans Ziegler.

A lot of attention is being given to making plans for Mu's coming 75th anniversary next fall. Occasional Alumni visiting Mu have left en rapport, and next fall is a time for all Mu men to remember Green Gate by visit or card.

Mu scholastically at the end of the last term held one of the leading positions on campus, solidly above all-men's and all-fraternity average. The success enjoyed in the scholastic idiom is a trend expected to be continued in the future. This success did not demand the use of stringent study plans, but a personal reevaluation of the time element by the Chapter as a unit.—HANS ZIEGLER.

Nu Needs Summer Help

WILLIAM L. GUYTON

Alpha

University of Texas

IN ceremonies March 1, 13 men were initiated: James Carter Boone, Jr., Ralph Judson King, John David Nottingham, Jimmy Joel Harrel, all of Houston; Ira Barnes Wile, Minor Lovis Helm, Jr., Lyman Malcolm Niemier, John Hunter Strassburger, Lynn Myrton McDonald, from Dallas; Willard Bailey Moon, Ft. Worth; Glenn Gormon Passmore, San Antonio; Leon Johnson, Jr., LaPorte; Charles McKinley Smith, Austin. Pledge scholarship awards were presented to John Hunter Strassburger and John David Nottingham, first and second places respectively. Willard Bailey Moon was selected as the Outstanding Pledge. The Chapter was very glad to have Brother J. C. Boone, Sr., Tau '27, and Brother G. G. Passmore, Sr., Nu '31, present for the initiation of their sons.

Recent committee appointments were made under those set up in our constitution—scholarship, house, pleasure, sports, social, and public relations. This will enable every member to serve on one committee and, with one regular meeting scheduled weekly before chapter meeting, we expect each to function at its maximum.

Lynn Richard Kromminga has been elected to the business administration fraternity, ΔΣΠ. Patrick Henry Power has been elected president of ΔΝΑ, transportation fraternity. Ramon Robert Rackley won the Republic Aviation Award for advanced Air ROTC cadets. Richard Paul Garmany and Ira Barnes Wile are on the Alumni Registration Committee for Round-Up. This is one of the outstanding service committees in connection with this annual celebration. John David Nottingham, Minor Lovis Helm, Jr., and John Hunter Strassburger are on the "Dimes Day" Committee for the Campus Chest, our only form of charity that is campus-wide.

Scholastically this past semester was in the usual high tradition of this Chapter. We have posted a very good average and will be presented, for a previous semester's work, an award by IFC. Since the University has raised requirements, all the Brothers have had to study harder, yet only two went on scholastic probation this past semester—a good record for the Chapter.

The Chapter's Formal was held Feb. 16 at the Texas Federated Women's Club, preceded by an open house at the chapter house. A valentine theme was carried out with very appropriate decorations and favors. Quay Williams, ΠΒΦ, was selected as our Sweetheart for the ensuing year. Joe Buck Parks, Joseph E. C. Martin, and all the pledges are to be commended for a job well done.

Intramurals finds us in the half-way bracket toward the all-year trophy. This is better than in past years for we have had increased participation in all phases of the program. Lynn Myrton McDonald is our recently appointed intramural manager and will continue in this capacity until next fall.

Our housemother, Mrs. Patsy Ann Welch, lost her mother March 15. The Chapter extends to her its deepest sympathy in this loss she has suffered.

Nu was glad to have Grand Alpha Carl J. Gladfelter visit us and we thank him for the help that he gave us. His ideas and suggestions have proved most helpful. We are in favor of more support from the National Office in ways similar to this.

Rush is the big question confronting us at present. Jimmy Joel Harrel and Ralph Judson King have been appointed rush co-captains for the remainder of this semester and the summer rush program. We are rushing boys at present, but are handicapped by the inadequate facilities of the summer. Several parties are in the planning stage and, if Alumni can help us out in any way in giving parties over the state, we would appreciate it immensely. Drop a line to the above-mentioned Brothers at 1800 Lavaca, Austin.

As this semester ends, we thank the Alumni for the support they have given

A Fraternity's Measure

Xi Pledges Record Class of 1960

ROBERT F. WILLEY, JR.

Alpha

Cornell University

THE second year of deferred rushing has come to an end with Xi pledging 27 of Cornell's top men. This was the culmination of a very competitive season and to all Xi members and Alumni we extend our thanks. The rushing went so well that even an old Alumnus returned to see just how everything was going. He even sat in on a hash session. The old alumnus was Richard H. Metsler '56 who was taking a tour around the country just previous to going into the Air Force as a Second Lieutenant. The new pledges are: Robert Bell, William Brown, Dieter Buehler, Gene Casey, John Coppage, Peter Cummins, Wils Dennehy, Jon Dickinson, Carl Fetzer, John Gillies, Patrick Greeven, Richard Lang, Thomas Meacham, Anthony Merritt, Michael Ossorio, Kevin Picard, Paul Savelli, Alan Schoenegg, Gilbert Simmons, Peter Teneyck, Hans Van der Lann, Louis Van Slyke, Robert Waring, James Young, Robert Zwald, Robert Tiffany, Howard Seagroatt. Although the pledge class is the largest in Xi history, the Brothers think they can handle the pledges.

Xi has undertaken to publish an alumni directory which has been neglected for quite some years. It is the hope of the Chapter that this directory will be useful to all Xi Alumni in finding all their old classmates and letting them know just who is who and where he is.

This week at Cornell, IFC is sponsoring a double overnight weekend for the whole University. It is the first of two such weekends for the spring term, the second being the traditional and famous Spring Weekend.

Again we thank all Chi Phis for their help in making this year at Xi one that Chi Phi can be proud of. The success of our rushing efforts paid off with big dividends.—RICHARD PAYNE.

Pi Concentrates on Rushing

PHIL GUZZETTA

Alpha

Northwestern University

THROUGH the efforts of all the Brothers and pledges, Pi has pledged two more men this quarter: George Campbell, Lansing, Mich.; Lee Moffett, Rock Island. These freshmen bring the number of pledges in the house up to five. Three men, John Kelly, Bill Thiel, and Bob Miller, were initiated into the Brotherhood in February. To keep up an intense rushing program this year, Pi is having a rush party every two weeks and each Brother and pledge tries to bring a rushee. This vigorous program is proving very beneficial to us and we intend to follow the plan throughout the year.

We are also having an active social quarter. Our Feb. 8 informal at one of Chicago's night spots was very successful. We were hosts to ΩΣ. May 10 will be our last big social event of the academic year. That will be our Spring Formal at the Tam O'Shanter Country Club.—JACK WILLIAMS.

Lafayette College

At last term's final meeting, the following Brothers were elected as officers: Bill Lermond, Alpha; Tom Maxfield, Beta; Bill Miller, Gamma; Aman Barber, Delta; Charles Armstrong, Epsilon; Jerry Day, Zeta; Paul Reiter, Social Chairman; and Charles Schaible, his assistant.

The second term opened traditionally with the Brothers and pledges returning early for Help Week. This year's class revamped the cellar and built a coal bin, both of which were painted azure by the end of the week. They cleaned windows, repainted the bathrooms, and hung bottles in the Rock Room. Formal initiation took place on Feb. 16. This year we were able to initiate all but one of our pledges: Carl Metzgar, Stockertown; Norman Sensinger, Allentown; Angelo Curcio, Easton; Charles Fisher, Flemington, N. J.; Gary Case, John Hughes, Trenton, N. J.; Thomas Walsh, Pittsfield, Mass.; Tony Rullo, Lansdale; and Michael Saltser, Neponsit, L. I., N. Y. A great deal of the credit for our ability to initiate such a large percentage of our pledge class is due to the work of our scholastic chairman, Jim Master. After the ceremonies, the Brothers gave a dinner and dance for the initiates and their dates.

At the end of last term, Rho Chapter sent to its Alumni a brochure which was prepared by the Town House Committee. In this report, the needs of Vallamont were clearly pointed out, and it is the hope that the Alumni of Rho will wholeheartedly support this plan for raising the desperately needed money.—JEROME C. ## Sigma Pledges Improve House

ED PETERSON
Alpha

University of Illinois

SIGMA held its initiation ceremonies on March 2-3, and the boys initiated were Ted Allison, Wayne Chilcote, Don Reuter, Bill Taylor, George Podlin, Ed Madsen, Tom Payne, and Ray Soper. The guest speaker at the dinner Sunday was Brother Dick Jones. The Class of '60 volunteered to help with some improvements around the house the week before. Among the things done were the refinishing of the dining room chairs, the repainting of the second and third floor shower rooms, and the painting of the old coal room that has been converted into a pool room.

This semester we have a new Gamma, Dick Degener, a senior majoring in chemical engineering. We also obtained a new cook, Mrs. Roberts, who is a great asset to the Chapter. With her mastery of the kitchen we are doing much better financially.

Jim Grogan and Alice Lakey were married Jan. 12, in Lake Forest, Ill. Duane Pedriana and Helen Rich were married in Rockford, Ill., Feb. 23. Howie Mitchell and Dorothy Garner are planning to be married April 20 in Brookfield, Ill.—FRED HEINEMANN.

Tau Tightens Pledge Rules

WILLIAM H. HOLCOLM, Alpha
University of Alabama

TAU has recently extended the Brotherhood to 12 men: Charles Allen, Athens, Ga.; William Burt and Jerry Cockran, Atmore; Paul Gillon, Birmingham; Robert Hager, Westwood, N. J.; Jerome James and Alexander Stewart, Bessemer; Ferdinand Mitchell, Jr., and Lamar Thomas, Tuscaloosa; Clayton McAdams, Greenville, S. C.; Thomas Sharp, Anniston. As a result of the successful spring rush program, led by Jim Pierce, eight additional men have been entrusted with the Chakett: James Chancellor, Bay Minette; Charles Crowell, Bessemer; Walter Danley, Anniston; Herman Gentry, Montgomery; John Hood, Birmingham; Walter Morehouse, Jacksonville, Fla.; Paul Tidwell, Carbon Hill; William Wendell, Waverly, N. Y.

The chapter house was put to a rather unusual use this spring, having been the location for the wedding of Claude Krout to Janice Essery.

A complete social program has been planned for the spring term. Wayne Garrett, social chairman, has announced the regular functions are to be held at least every two weeks. Included in the social calendar are the South Sea Islands party, the always fabulous Beaux Arts Ball, the annual formal, the spring picnic, and several informal dances. These plans do not include the gatherings every Friday and Saturday night around the fireplace and the old red "pianner" in the Russell Room.

Outstanding among the Brothers' service to the University are Jim Hall's job as associate editor of the Crimson-White, student newspaper, and George Lillich's responsibility as solicitor general of the Student Government Assn. The Chapter is active in the religious aspects of college life, too, Bill Poe being chairman of the board of the Methodist student church.

Twenty-five per cent of the Chapter made Dean's List and the Chapter expects to be among the top fraternities when the fall scholastic list is published. Unfortunately, the pledge class did not do as well, only 10 per cent of them making Dean's List and many of them falling under the axe which the University is applying in its effort to tighten scholastic regulations. As a result of the unfortunate experience learned last semester, the Chapter is enforcing a much harsher study program for the pledges now.

Since the last letter, Tau has held chapter elections and given the responsibility entrusted to the Executive Council to William Holcolm, Alpha; Wayne Garrett, Beta; James Hall, Gamma; William Poe, Delta; Samuel Hocking, Epsilon; elections were not in order for Zeta. The only changes in appointive offices were to William Burt as the new athletic chairman and Jerry Cockran as pledge captain.

As a result of the unfortunate total loss of the  $\Phi\Delta\Theta$  house due to fire, several hundred dollars' work has been done on Tau's electrical wiring and general house condition. After all the painting and building done by the last pledge class, we don't want the same thing to happen.—JERRY REDUS.

Phi Receives Trustee's Trophy

JAMES CONNORS
Alpha

Amherst College

ON March 11, Willard L. Thorp, Phi '20, acting president of Amherst, announced that we had won the Trustee's Trophy for Scholastic Improvement. Our average for the first semester showed a gain of 2.56 points over the preceding year. Considering the fact that this trophy is usually awarded on the basis of several tenths of one point, this gain takes on the stature of one of the most significant improvements ever made on this campus. As a result of the effort which won us the trophy, our average is now above that of the college as a whole, and we have gained seven places in the rankings of the 15 fraternities and social groups on campus. Such a decisive change could not have taken place without the combined efforts of all the Brothers, and everyone can feel justly proud of this honor. This award couldn't have come at a better time, for as this is being written we are in the midst of another grueling rushing season. Rushing Chairmen Steve Lyne '58 and Tom Jones '57 deserve the highest praise for the time and energy they are spending as they lead us in this campaign.

However, the Phis haven't spent all their time on the books. Bowery Brawl was one of the most memorable parties in Phi history. Shortly after the Brawl, we played host at an open house for the Faculty and Administration in honor of Mme. Levy-Despas of Paris. Each year Mme. Levy-Despas sends outstanding French students to study at Amherst and Acting president of Amherst, Willard L. Thorp, Phi '20, presented the Trustee's Trophy for the greatest scholastic improvement to Alpha Jim Connors at a chapel service other colleges in the United States by means of the Levy-Despas Scholarships in memory of her son, Guy, Phi '40, who was killed in World War II.

In March we held our spring house party. This year the theme was "The Jazz Age." In keeping with this motif, we had dancing to Dixieland music Saturday night, while on Sunday afternoon we had a jazz concert, and were entertained by the music and songs of Sonny Krump on Sunday night.

This semester Phi has eight men on the Dean's List: Pete Damon and Bert Tannenbaum '57; Steve Dinces, Marty Feingold, Steve Lyne and Ned Megargee '58; and John R. Long and Bob Walker '59.

Returning Alumni will be pleased to note that the entire downstairs hall and rear living room, as well as the walls in the upstairs hall have been repainted a light beige. The furniture has been rearranged so that the Jimmy Hamilton Room is now a reading room and the TV is in the rear living room. The Chapter is grateful to those Brothers who gave their time to do the painting, and to the Corporation and the Alumni who provided the funds for these improvements as well as for the new furniture which is scheduled to arrive in May.—NED MEGARGEE.

Chi Initiates "Coke-tail" Parties

RICHARD L. VAN RIPER, Alpha
Dartmouth College

THE semester has started off well as the Brothers have pitched in to get the house in top-drawer shape. We have initiated Friday "coke-tail" parties with various campus notables speaking. Many are the loud and lusty cheers for such top-notch men as Eugen Rosenstock-Holmes, John Sloan Manne, and Dean Joseph L. Panettiere. On the sports scene, Alpha Van Riper and Larry Kruteck are doing well on the Varsity Nine. Dave Britton has proved to be one of the mainstays of the Big Green Ski team. Chip Hartenstein is entered in many of the top Eastern track meetings. He has tied the College record for the 50-yard dash and he promises soon to break it. Jim Taylor ably represents the Chapter on the Varsity wrestling squad. Another outstanding Winter Carnival was enjoyed. Beta Sam Miller and his sterling crew of "Smiling" Al Baks, B. Lilington Curtis, Rodgers Press, and Russ Barry did a bang-up job of providing a clean and wholesome, though nevertheless fun-packed, weekend. Inter-lodge sports were the order of the day with the lightweight crew of Bod, Streak, Furrows Spratt, and Coxswain Al Baker prevailing over all comers. In Saturday night grappling contests in our recently renovated new, new New Room the following Brothers came out on top: Harry Jeffrey, Al Hurlbut, John Miller, Paul Downing, and Jim Meyers. Glasses of cherry punch were raised in toasts of adulation. As usual toil and grim determination skyrocketed Chi's scholastic standing to new and hitherto inaccessible heights. C. V. Panet with a full boat of Dogs over Eagles ekked out a victory over Sky King and Phoul Phil Phinkle for the Electron Memorial Trophy. Scholarship Chairman Dodds was elated.—S. PATRICK TOTH, Gamma.

Psi Raises Dues at Briarfield Meet

G. C. CLARKE
Alpha

Lehigh University

Psi capped another successful rushing campaign with the pledging of seven men: Peter W. Beacham, Wabam, Mass.; James K. Cassidy, Drexel Hill; Harry H. Heist, Elkins Park; J. Arnold Witte, Hillside, N. J.; Mark Forrester, Chatham, N. J.; Richard Sprenkle, Strafford; Otis Johnson, Alexandria, Va. This semester found three pledges being initiated: Burgess Thomasson, Kenneth Shaner, and Martin Maloney. The number of active Brothers is now 31.

The scholastic standing of Chi Phi at the end of the fall semester was commendable. Psi placed eleventh among the 30 fraternities and our average was above both the all-men's and all-fraternity averages. The Magnuson Scholarship was awarded to George Gotwalt.

The Briarfield meeting was held Feb. 23, the result of which is as follows: dues changed to $3.00 per year for the first five years, and $5.00 per year thereafter. The party which followed the meeting was one of the biggest and best seen at Lehigh all year.—DAVID S. CAMPBELL.

Alpha-Tau Party Draws Crowd

HAMILTON ROBICHAUD, Alpha
University of Michigan

WITH the initiation of nine actives in February, Alpha-Tau felt that the Chapter was greatly strengthened. Although the spring rush at Michigan is usually much smaller than the fall rush, we felt that the Chapter pledged three outstanding men: George Platsis, Linn Henderson, and Robert Heston. John Flintosh was praised heartily as rushing chairman.

The Chapter has improved the house by obtaining new rugs for the living room and TV room and new drapes for the living room. The rugs were paid for by the Alpha-Tau Chapter House Assn. and the drapes were paid for by the Fathers' and Mothers' Clubs.

We were all very pleased at the turnout for the pledge formal on March 2. The Chi Phi house has seen few larger crowds as over 100 people turned out. Robert Olshea '49 and his wife acted as chaperones.

New officers are: Hamilton Robichaud, Alpha; Bob Tomlinson, Beta; Dick Schmuck, Gamma; Bob Creal, Delta; Dean Savell, Epsilon; Peter Van Camp, Zeta.—PETER VAN CAMP.

Alpha-Chi Is On the Move

SCHEIDEMANTEL
Alpha
Ohio Wesleyan
University

SINCE this is the final issue of THE CHAKETT for the 1956-57 year, I would like to recapitulate the highlights of the school year. With the beginning of the first semester we enjoyed a successful rush week which saw 20 men awarded the Chi Phi Chakett. Special thanks go to Roger Baker, Earl Spiller, and Mal White for their assistance in making it a success. We also welcomed our new housemother, Mrs. Tooill, who came to us from AΔII.

Fall sports began immediately which found intramural football the highlight at the "Oaks." We finished first in our league and second to ΦΓΔ in the final standing. Next year's team should be equally powerful with the loss of only two men and the promise of Dave Swaile's return to captain the squad again. On the varsity football team was Ray Coldiron who will be beneficial to the Bishops next year.

Fall Homecoming was a success with many Alumni returning to Delaware. This was climaxed by a talk given by Dr. Milton W. Brown, Alpha-Chi '94. His speech at the Alumni Dinner is always enjoyed. Social activity carried Alpha-Chi through the months of November and December with the big weekends for the pledge formal and the winter formal at the top of the list.

Following Christmas vacation, final exams descended on the campus and Alpha-Chi showed its strength scholastically by moving from 15th among 15 fraternities to a higher rank. Our improvement was largely due to an expanded scholarship program inaugurated by Bob Scheidemantel, who has since become Alpha, and Brother Jim McNew.

Second semester is now in full swing which Alpha-Chi started with Help Week. During the week of work new coats of paint were put on the dining room, the basement floor, and other rooms in the house by the pledges. Following Help Week came initiation. Twenty initiates were received into the Brotherhood, and several local Alumni—John H. Matthews '38, M. S. Cherington '18, Glen Kunze '50, and Richard Grover '52—came to welcome them on behalf of those who have gone before. At the dinner which followed, the feeling of Brotherhood was exhibited very much and the new initiates have already begun to assume responsibility.

We are in the playoffs for the basketball championship under the leadership of Ken Terry. Varsity swimming attracted Jim McNew, Kit Carlson, John Rosenthal, and Jack Cummings as manager, while Dan Morgan holds a position on the varsity basketball team.

This brings Alpha-Chi to the present with a strong feeling of unity prevailing in the Chapter, and a great desire to make a finer record at Ohio Wesleyan during this semester. The future will include stress on social as well as scholarship activity, and these areas will be guided by Paul Kirby and Dick Griebner, respectively. We hope that Alumni who are near Delaware will stop in and see Alpha-Chi on the move.—GILBERT P. GASS.

Alpha Delta Has Barbershop Four

HAROLD R. BEURY
Alpha
Penn State

RECENTLY welcomed to Alpha Delta's chapter room were Dick Katzman, Howard Brosius, Barry Thompson, Joe Hendrickson, Dave Johnson, Bob Caton, John Bittinger, and Chris Hostetter. We are also fortunate in having pledged Andy Shultz, Charles Edmunds, Dick Paxton, Dennis Malick, Marty Bollinger, Ken Hall, John Buchar, Ralph Shields, Marsh Webster, Jim Knipe, Earl Guffey, Jim Peckham, Pete Luckie, and Bill Walsh as a good start toward the 22 we'll need to maintain a full house.

The Beta, Frank Farrell, has a well rounded social calendar in effect for this semester. Members have been enjoying joint parties with other fraternities, the usually pleasant socials with several sororities and having foreign students visit the house. The biggest weekend of the year, the IFC Ball, will soon be here. It will consist of the ball Friday night followed by an open house Saturday afternoon, a formal banquet, dance and party that evening. A month after this will be Spring Week in which we will be striving for more trophies with the help of ZTA and will end this week with the Senior Ball.

As additions to the campus offices held by members are the elections of Ray Kelly to the post of secretary of the Penn State Glee Club and Tom Webb as vice president of the student chapter of the American Institute of Mining Engineers. In intramurals we are trying to capture the wrestling championship for the third consecutive year. We will be entering with a full team and an excellent chance of doing so. Also to be in competition soon in a barbershop contest is a quartet composed of Ray Kelly, Jack Long, Dick Coolbaugh, and Bob Yeatman.

The house itself is in its usual fine condition and we plan to supplement it by reupholstering several chairs, getting a few more chairs for the dining room, and setting aside the anticipated surplus for the purchase of new rugs in the future.—BRUCE MOYER.

Gamma Delta Gives 25-Year Pins

MELVIN WALTERS, Alpha
University of Minnesota

GAMMA DELTA's new officers elected in January are Melvin Walters, Alpha; James Laing, Beta; Donovan Lundgren, Gamma; Peter Wielinski, Delta; George Sedivy, Epsilon; and John King, Zeta.

Last fall our house was filled to overflowing, so during the Christmas holidays we remodeled part of our third floor and added another room to hold two men. Everyone in the Chapter pitched in to work while our Alumni Association obtained the materials for us. Every one kept busy with the wiring, heating fixtures, plastering and painting to do and, after finishing, we feel it is one of the nicest rooms in the house.

On Sunday, Jan. 13, five men were initiated: Duane Rubertis, Roger Duthoy, Gary Litschke, David Carlson, and Harold Borak. We are proud to welcome these men into our Chapter.

Our Playboy Party, sponsored by Playboy magazine, was a resounding success and we hope to make this party an annual affair. On April 1 we had our Alumni Smoker at which 25-Year pins were awarded to 13 of our Alumni. We had a good turnout and everyone had a very enjoyable time becoming reacquainted with their Brothers.

Spring quarter looks like a very successful one for Gamma Delta as we have many events coming up such as our spring formal, Alumni Banquet and Campus Carnival, plus exchanges and smokers.—JOHN KING.

Delta Delta Plans Rat Race Booth

TED BOROCK Alpha
UCLA

DELTA DELTA started off the new semester by initiating five new Brothers: Al Jungers, Frank Woodliff, Fred Tugend, Mike Gottesman, and Lou Celli. During rushing we pledged five men: Dick Birt, John Duhaime, Art Shugard, George Lehman, and Ullar Vitsut. Ullar has a very interesting background. He was born in Estonia and barely escaped from the Russians before he arrived in this country. In February Delta Delta was visited by Grand Alpha Carl J. Gladfelter. Brother Gladfelter had dinner with us and attended one of our active meetings.

We had three pinnings as Brothers Ted Borock, Ken Lucas and Bernie Bernacchi all lost their freedom. Gerry Penner, UCLA's first string tackle, became engaged to Nancy Zehmpfennig, ΣΚ. We started off the semester with a second story party, planned by Social Chairman Bob McIver, where each room had different decorations and different types of drinks. With two serenades and an exchange plus this party, our social calendar has been full. Here at Delta Delta we have started early to practice for the forthcoming baseball season as we are entering a fine team in this intramural event. Ken Lucas and Gerry Penner have entered the intramural table tennis tournament. Ted Borock was named to the All-Star Cricket team. In April we have our third annual Mardi Gras and Delta Delta will have its annual rat race. For the past two years this booth has been among the big paying booths with the proceeds going to the IFC for charity. Brother Pine is the chairman for Mardi Gras and he is ably assisted by Al Jungers. Bernie Bernacchi, our scholastic chairman, is doing much to improve the scholastic standing of Chi Phi. Our rushing program this semester is being carried out by Ken Lucas. He plans to have an informal rushing function every Wednesday night in order to fill the Chapter to capacity.—AL OROZCO.

Epsilon Delta Is Aided by Visit

JOHN RAUCH
Alpha

Oregon State College

EPSILON DELTA was privileged to have as a guest Grand Alpha Carl J. Gladfelter. Brother Gladfelter spoke at a joint meeting of Alumni and actives in Portland on Feb. 23, and spent the following two days at the chapter house here in Corvallis. Brother Gladfelter inspired us all and assisted the Chapter in outlining an extensive rush program for the coming year. While in Portland, the Alumni, in conjunction with the Chapter and with the counsel of Brother Gladfelter, proposed a 4-year program by which we hope to obtain our long-anticipated new house. Needless to say, this was encouraging to all. On Feb. 25 the Chapter was fortunate in having a group of Alumni in attendance at our regular chapter meeting. Rushing and the new house were briefly discussed, and following the meeting, the Chapter spent a very entertaining evening with Brother Gladfelter and the Alumni. Alumni who attended were Elwood McKnight, Emery Hildebrandt, Merrit Truax, Philip Magnusson, Ted Leonard, H. A. Rosebraugh, and Russell R. McKechnie.

Out of 32 fraternities on the Oregon State campus, this Chapter had the honor of placing fifth among fraternities in scholastic honors for fall term. John Rauch, Alpha, and Dale Coverstone made the honor roll with grade points of 3.83 and 3.67, respectively.

The Chapter has been putting a great deal of work into our 1917 Model T. Ford. This vehicle has been seen on campus piled high with an old canvas top, Chi Phis, and assorted sorority girls on numerous occasions, and has been the source of a lot of fun for everyone.

Epsilon Delta initiated Gary Henrikson and J. Morgan Cook during winter term. Brother Cook, Class of 1931, was a pledge of the local Tau Delta, which later became the Epsilon Delta Chapter. Brother Cook wished very much to become a member of Chi Phi, and the Chapter was very happy to initiate him. In addition, Robert Gantenbein became a pledge on Feb. 17.—MARK E. STANWOOD.

Zeta Delta Wins Snow Trophy

RICHARD KALLIO
Alpha

University of Connecticut

WINTER Weekend at the University of Connecticut came, as usual, without the blessing of snow. However, this did not stop the fraternities and sororities from erecting their annual snow sculptures. Snow was gathered from near and far and carried to the building sites. Using a little ingenuity and a great deal of labor the Brothers of Zeta Delta sculptured a carousel which actually revolved. This feat entailed an entire night's work. All this work was not unrewarding as Zeta Delta captured the first place trophy for snow sculpturing in the men's division.

The spring semester also started with a successful rush program in which 12 pledges were brought in to go through an 8-week pledge period: Walter Benton, Robert Cross, Michael Dalton, Jerry D'Avolio, Russell Halloran, Albert Kaminsky, James Koczak, Henry Morse, Brian Simmons, James Weeland, Donald Stoddard, and Fred Pouy.

The spring semester also ushered in a very active social calendar. Each weekend our parties were very well decorated and small bands (combos) were hired for each occasion. The semester started with a Cuban party on Feb. 9 and the following weekend was the Winter Carnival Weekend in which a winter theme was used. The following two weekends were taken up by an Old Fashioned Beer Party and a Rock 'n Roll Party. Before the Military Ball on March 9, Zeta Delta held a joint open house with TKE. Last weekend a Mardi Gras Party was held with elaborate decorations. Prizes were awarded for some of the best costumes worn.—ROBERT J. PELLICO.

Eta Delta Men Win Honors

KENNETH VON ROHR, Alpha
University of Southern California

ETA DELTA begins the spring term with nine men added to the active chapter roll: David Sheldon, Dennis Lett, Le Coates, Lee Rishebarger, Jack Kuhns, Frank McConnell, Robert Harrington, Robert Bridges, and William Hare. Brother Kuhns won the C. Moreland Thomas Scholarship Award for obtaining the highest pledge grade point average for the fall semester.

We here at Eta Delta were very honored to be visited by the Grand Alpha Brother Gladfelter. His suggestions were greatly appreciated by the Brothers, and will be instrumental in our future planning. One of his beneficial ideas was the incorporation of an alumni newsletter to bring this body into closer contact with the Chapter.

Orders of congratulations are in store for Dennis Fagerhult, Bob Lawson, and Dick Bronson. Brother Fagerhult was named to the Blue Key, national honorary service fraternity. Fagerhult's grade point of a 3.5 led Eta Delta in fall scholarship. Brother Lawson led the University of Southern California's track aggregation to a great victory over SMU, Houston, and Oklahoma A&M in a Texas quadrangular meet. He scored a personal total of 11 points, winning the high hurdles, placing second in the low hurdles and the broad jump, and finishing fourth in the high jump. Lawson's 14.3 time in the high hurdles bettered his previous best of 14.6 and enabled him to defeat Eddy Roberts, the Big Seven's number one hurdler. In the same track meet, Dick Bronson won his first Varsity gold medal in the shot put, pushing the 16-lb. sphere a total of 53 feet, 8 inches.

Eta Delta's highly touted Interfraternity League basketball team met with disaster this year. We lost three games by point spreads ranging from one to five points.

We also wish to express our sincerest gratitude to our Mothers' Club. The organization, chairmanned by Mrs. Jerri Phillips, has done a marvelous job in redecorating our living room with an array of new furniture. They are at the present time planning for the redecoration of our card room.—CHUCK PHILLIPS.

Theta Delta's 22nd Anniversary Noted

CHRIS

Alpha

University of Florida

DECORATIONS and a festive spirit have filled the house as everyone plans for the annual Sweetheart Weekend, which will commemorate Theta Delta's 22nd anniversary on campus. March 1-2 will be the big weekend. Events for Friday include a formal reception and banquet at the Hotel Thomas, which will be followed by a dance at the house. Beth Arnold, Chi Phi Sweetheart, will be presented to the Chapter at the Banquet. On Saturday the Chapter will journey to Kingsley Beach for swimming and a picnic. Later, the Shipwreck Shuffle will get under way at the house with Little Johnny Ace providing the music.

The Chapter has been strengthened by the addition of 12 new Brothers: Dave Riddle and Pat Cain, Dade City; Lew Maviglia, Russell Justin, Harry Albrecht, Ralph Abrames, and Floyd Taylor, Miami; Brace Bateman, Palm Beach; Pearson Cox, Starke; Frank Blodgett, New Orleans, La.; Dave Ehlert, Cleveland, Ohio; and Ormon Ware, Avon Park. The initiates were entertained at a steak dinner.

A well-planned rush program executed by Harry Roulstone, rush chairman, netted Theta Delta 17 pledges for the spring semester: Jerry Brandon, Jim Byers, Steve Hinton, Sheldon Jackson, Frank King, Don Main, Bill Manikas, Bob Mobley, George Poulos, Tom Register, Dink Simpson, Ron Singleton, Irving Valentine, Tom Wells, Mike Young, Bill Winkel, and Ron Zellers. Repledged were: Phil Breen, Joe Beckett, Ben Cheatham, Sonny Cobb, Skip Jackson, Bill Karst, Gordon Morefield, Bob Nyberg, Frank Platinides, and Gordon Smith.

The Brothers are quite proud of their scholastic gain during the last semester. The house average rose greatly and we finished 16 among the fraternities on campus. This is a 10-place improvement over last year, and plans are being made for a still better semester scholastically.

Coffee and dessert socials are planned with the AXΩ, XΩ, ΔΔΔ.—HOLLAND B. COULTER.

In Appreciation

March 27, 1957

DEAR SIR:

It happens that I have unexpectedly acquired a considerable job of acknowledging notes of appreciation for what is called "long and effective service" for Chi Chapter. The length of service, 19 years as president of Chi Chapter Assn., is accurate, the effectiveness much less determinate. Looking back over the years to an early recollection comes the realization that once Chi wanted ME! What has happened meanwhile has been my small effort in return. Now these friends and Brothers of long ago, tho' strangers for many years, write to thank me for what I have done. Their letters and notes are quite overwhelming, yet serve to remind me that the authors are equally responsible for alumni benefit to Chi. Our accomplishment has been a coöperative effort to strengthen financially a rather shaky situation otherwise. We succeeded insofar as reducing a 25 M mortgage to an 18 M figure, but this exactitude ignores the unsung labors of a treasurer, a secretary, with the loyalty of so many which made the effort possible, productive, and inspiring. Surely my Brothers, in reading this, will have an awareness of my admiration and great appreciation of all their help in our "campaigns," plus this farewell thank you for their personal notes of regard.

Most sincerely—in Chi,
ART WYMAN '08.

May 8, 1902—January 19, 1957

We Chicago Chi Phis have lost one of our best liked Brothers, cut down at the peak of his career.

"Dutch" was always a loyal Chi Phi. His interest in his Chapter, Sigma, was constant. Many were the trips he made to Champaign to lend a strong hand to the boys in school, to help with their problems, whether of a material or spiritual nature.

At the Monday luncheon table of the Chi Phi Club of Chicago, he was one of the regulars, always a lively contributor to the conversation. He is missed by that group.

Several of us Sigma boys were inducted into the life insurance business by him and we owe "Dutch" a great deal for the help and encouragement he gave us in those early trying years. He was a great teacher, a trait that carried over from the life insurance business into the labor relations field where he was working so effectively until he was called to his final position.

In the Chapter Eternal he will be a strong and influential Brother.

THE CHI PHI CHAKETT ■ April, 1957

Letters

Mr. Chris Kneedler, Alpha Chi Phi Fraternity
1225 SW 2nd Ave.
Gainesville, Fla.

DEAR BROTHER KNEEDLER:

As I related yesterday, I sometime ago accepted a position in Tallahassee with The Florida Bar and must therefore now submit my resignation as Chapter Adviser for Theta Delta. It appears now that I will be leaving Gainesville about April 1.

My brief tenure in the Chapter Adviser's job has given me a chance to see a fine group of men doing a great job in carrying out Chi Phi ideals. Fraternity affiliation, regardless of the group, offers men like you and your Brothers a great challenge; because of its deep spiritual obligations, Chi Phi makes the challenge an even greater one.

It is my opinion that Theta Delta is extremely fortunate in the recent slates of officers which have served our Chapter. I know that working as a team their successors will always do their best to keep our standards in the realm of morals, scholarship, and campus achievement on the highest level.

From working with them intimately, I know that you possess a loyal and capable Alumni in Gainesville. From their ranks I'm sure you can draw a new Adviser who will continue the tireless and faithful services such as those given by Brothers Jim Chace, Bunny Smith, and others who have willingly offered of their time, strength, and precept.

You and the Brothers, and the pledges as well (whose company at Sunday dinner visits my family and I have enjoyed), know that wherever I am I will always be mindful of Theta Delta's meaning, as well as her needs. I remain,

Yours in Chi Phi,

BOB GRIFFIN

Feb. 8, 1957

DEAR BROTHER ROSSER:

Your letter of Feb. 6th, with enclosed lapel pin, has been received and was an unconceivably nice action. I appreciate it deeply.

Living on retired Officers' pay, with present day living expenses, does not leave much margin for outside things we would like to do. However, this month the milk man will just have to wait for his money, and I am enclosing my check for $10.00 to cover past Dues. With kind regards, I am,

Sincerely,
H. S. HANSELL,
Col. Retd.

At Oxford

Thomas E. Headrick, Zeta '55, is now attending Lincoln College, Oxford, England, on a Fulbright Scholarship. He can be contacted there.

Scholarship Counselor

Hunter served on the board of directors of the California State Teachers Assn. in 1923-28 and as a member of the Curriculum Commission of the California State Department of Education, 1923-28. While he was chancellor at Denver, he was a member of the board of directors of the Foundation for Advancement of Social Sciences and of the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Co. From 1935 to 1939, he was a member of the state advisory board for Oregon of the National Youth Administration.

Besides membership in ΦBK, Dr. Hunter belongs to ΦΔK, ΚΑΠ, ΟΔΚ, Scottish Rite, and the Rotary Club.

One often sees articles bearing his name in educational journals. He is the author of The Regius Manuscript, Teacher Tenure Legislation in the United States, "Education for Citizenship in a Reorganized World," and, with the staff, Books of Standards for the Erection of School Buildings (3 volumes).

Brother Hunter knows what good scholarship means to the individual student, and how it can be obtained. His work for the Fraternity can accomplish only as much as your coöperation, loyalty, and pride in the Fraternity will permit.

ward to seeing many of them in Madison at the time of the Congress.

If the few suggestions made by the Council are carried out under the leadership of the new Grand Officers, your Fraternity will be in excellent shape and you can look forward to the future with pride.

Respectfully submitted,

National Director.
