

The Chi Phi CHAKETT

Let's talk it over . . .

THE one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Southern Order has come and gone. We have now celebrated the centennial anniversary of the founding of two of the three branches of the Chi Phi Fraternity—the Princeton Order and the Southern Order. In 1960 we will celebrate the founding of the Hobart Order and I hope that celebration can be observed in New York City. I am confidently expecting that it will be since the Chi Phi Alumni Club of New York City is actively interested in holding a Congress in New York in that year.

The Congress, celebrating the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Southern Order, which has just adjourned, was one of the best Congresses we have had in many years. I heartily recommend that you read the Congress story in this issue of THE CHAKETT. I can, in all sincerity, recommend that story since I am not the author of it.

"Let's talk it over" is rather a personal column and it affords me the only way I have of saying "Thank you" to so many devoted and loyal Chi Phis. I wish to say "Thank you" personally to all of those who had any part in the last Congress. That, of course, includes the charming wives of the devoted Brothers of Chapel Hill.

A Grand Alpha was elected at the Congress and the Fraternity will remain under the leadership of Brother O. B. Williams, our present Grand Alpha, for another term of two years. That means the Fraternity is going to have the proper leadership.

I personally wish to commend the delegates to the Congress for the fine work they did. They showed their genuine interest in Chi Phi and that provides us with a new vitality. It was a leadership of good common sense that was aggressive enough and I hope next year's delegates will show the same type of leadership.

At the time of this writing, most of our Chapters are in the midst of rushing and I wish you all of the success possible. I have said this many times, but I don't think I can say it enough. The formula for the number of men you take in each Chapter as new Chi Phis each year must be, not the number you take in but the number that will survive as seniors. Each Chapter should have at least 12 seniors on the campus to be an effective group, and in many instances it takes 30 pledges to wind up with that many seniors four years from now.

I want to extend my thanks to those Chapters that have already filed their No. "O" reports, showing that they have done a good job in pledging. The success of the entire Fraternity depends upon the number of men you pledge and initiate each year. That spells success for the Chapters, for the Council, and for the Alumni. We have no trouble when the proper number of men are pledged and initiated. I particularly wish to thank the Alumni who have taken time to recommend prospective candidates for membership in the Fraternity to the various Chapters as well as those who have used the facilities of the Office of the Council for that purpose. Your recommendations are greatly desired and appreciated.

Brother Gladfelter and I are each going to do some visiting this year. Some of the Chapters will have been visited when you get this issue of THE CHAKETT. Our aim is to cover every Chapter in the Fraternity and give as much help to the individual Chapters as it is humanly possible for us to do. I personally enjoy visiting the Chapters, and I am sure Brother Gladfelter enjoys it also. It always does me good and I hope the Chapters receive some benefit from my visits.

While I write a great deal about undergraduate activities, making all sorts of suggestions to them, it is sometimes good to make suggestions to the Alumni also. The undergraduates cannot get along without you, and you, of course, can't get along without them. It is a perfect partnership of the two of you that makes for the success of the whole Fraternity. It is the function of the Office of the Council to see that the partnership works hand in hand. When we do that, we give to both the Alumni and the undergraduates a good Fraternity. May I call upon both the undergraduates and the Alumni to give some of their time and thought to their Fraternity. I am sure Chi Phi has meant a great deal to you older men and will mean a great deal to the younger men as the years go by. It is my job to work with both of these groups and I find the work extremely interesting.

By the time you receive this issue of THE CHAKETT the colony at Indiana University will be installed as the Iota Delta Chapter of the Chi Phi Fraternity. The date of the installation is Nov. 15. I heartily commend this group to the Fraternity and I hope every member will give them the right hand of fellowship. I will, of course, have a report to make to you concerning the installation in our next issue.

We did not do too well on our Alumni Dues this past year and this is the second straight year we have run a slight deficit. We want to stress the fact that it is very important to your Fraternity to pay your Alumni Dues. You will be getting an Alumni Dues notice for 1959 about Jan. 1. To you Alumni who did contribute so generously last year, I want to say "Thank you." I particularly want to thank the Alumni who have been so liberal in their contributions to the Chi Phi Educational Trust. These contributions increased for the second year handrunning. The Fraternity needs your contributions to the Trust and to the general fund.

Your Council and your National Director look forward to working with the Alumni and the undergraduates with a great deal of pleasure during the coming year. I hope to see a lot of you.

Respectfully submitted,

L. J. Rosser

Observations by O. B.

Brothers:

A fraternity can be justified only when membership contributes something of lasting value to the men associated with it. There are many of these values. An important one is the development of social poise and social grace in those young men who have not acquired these before entering college. But the time is passed, if indeed there ever was such a time, when a primary function of a fraternity is concern over the social life of its members. If the fraternity system is to strengthen its position in our colleges and universities, even survive, there must be a recognition of, and adjustment to, changing attitudes on the part of entering students and of college administrators.

Foremost is the need to encourage scholarship. A recent survey at a major university showed interference with study by fraternity activities to be the principal cause of depledging. Colleges are becoming less tolerant of poor performance. No chapter can force a man to study. The will to learn must come from the man himself. But the organization, and the individual members, can do much to stimulate high scholarship on the part of each member of the group by providing an environment which fosters study.

The Priceless Ingredient of Chi Phi

by Mason Crum, Professor Emeritus, Duke University, Grand Beta

THE priceless ingredient of Chi Phi is not to be found in brick and stone, nor in sophisticated chapter houses, but in the ritual of the Fraternity, and in its honored traditions of more than a century.

This writer said at the Congress in Chapel Hill that the Chi Phi Fraternity is not a religious organization, but an order with pronounced spiritual overtones. And these spiritual overtones are not to be construed as a shallow sentimentality, but rather they represent what might be called a spiritual quality of life such as marked the careers of great Americans like Woodrow Wilson, Abraham Lincoln, Thomas Jefferson, and many others.

The Chi Phi Fraternity is not a club. It is a brotherhood based upon the highest ideals. The basis of the brotherhood is character, the only foundation upon which an enduring order can be built. The local chapter is not an organization with a country club outlook (laudable as this is in its proper place), but it is a home for a college man away from home. It is a place where one is not only sustained, but where one sustains others. Read the old letters and Chronicles of the Fraternity to see how often the term "Mystic bond" is used. A subtle psychology is at work here, but it requires more than mere organization. The local chapter should be concerned not only with the task of providing fun and a happy college life (important as this is), but it should emphasize the spiritual quality of life. It should make it easier to do right and harder to do wrong. It should be a constructive force in every area of college life, and thus earn its right to existence. The chapter is a select company, but it would do well to avoid the spirit of exclusivism.

Now, if one would put his finger upon these spiritual overtones of the Fraternity let him examine the ritual with its lofty prayers, the frequent references to the Scriptures, and the ethical aspects of life. The initiation ceremony is marked by a seriousness of demeanor and a philosophical outlook upon life that is impressive. The reverence shown for the Chapter Eternal is moving and marks Chi Phi Brothers at their chivalrous best. One of the songs that seems to linger longest with Chi Phis who have been away from the lodge room for many years is the plaintive:

*Gather Brothers of Chi Phi
Warm our hearts are beating,
Grand our purpose is and high,
Sacred is our greeting.*

Look at the Libations to the three Orders and their founders. They are not only useful as history, but are characterized by great dignity and charm.

And lastly, the Candle Ceremony—a bit of ritual by and for young college men. Note how its emphasis upon "truth," the "white purity of life," and the "light of honesty" carry so well the spiritual overtones of the Fraternity. This is Chi Phi's priceless ingredient.

Officers and delegates gathered at the Alpha-Alpha chapter house for the unveiling of the plaque commemorating the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Southern Order of Chi Phi on the campus of the University of North Carolina. ## Southern Order Commemorated at 100th Anniversary

DURING the afternoon and evening of September 1, 1958, Chi Phis from all over the United States began converging on the charming old southern town of Chapel Hill, North Carolina, for the annual Congress of the Chi Phi Fraternity, held there in commemoration of the founding of the Southern Order at the University of North Carolina one hundred years ago. Delegates

Congress was fun as well as work. These are scenes at the barbecue supper at Forty Oaks, home of John M. Foushee, and at the banquet. 1. The crowd gathered around the pool. 2. Douglas Dockery, daughter of Joe Rice Dockery, helped dispense hospitality and food. 3. Brothers Dockery and Rosser, with Mrs. Rosser, drink Coca-Cola. 4. John Foushee, the host, has Kathy Williams, daughter of the Grand Alpha, at his side, Russ Guin behind him, and undergraduates flanking him. 5. Susan Saunders, daughter of "Spike" Saunders, center back, managed the "date bureau." 6. At the banquet, left to right, Mrs. John Wilkinson, wife of John Wilkinson, Alpha-Alpha '26, visited with Mrs. J. Harris Purks, whose husband, J. Harris Purks, Gamma '23, is Director of the State Board of Higher Education, and with Mrs. Van McNair, Alpha-Alpha's housemother. 7-8. Scenes at the banquet show the head table and guests from the active Chapters and alumni organizations arrived by plane, automobile, and bus until every Chapter of the Fraternity was represented by its two official delegates and many of them by several other Brothers as well. This was the first Congress in many years at which every Chapter was represented. The visiting Brothers enjoyed the charm and gracious hospitality of the Carolina Inn. The meetings were held in Carroll Hall, a unit of the University of North Carolina.

Tuesday, September 2, was given over to a meeting of the Council, while the delegates became acquainted with the local members, the town of Chapel Hill and its University of North Carolina, which was already 63 years old when the first Chapter of the Southern Order of Chi Phi was established there on Aug. 21, 1858. In addition to the National Officers, the Council meeting was attended by Brother I. B. Countryman, Sigma '17, Adviser to the Chakett Club at Indiana University; Brother J. R. Dockery, Xi '28, Council member-at-large; and Brother John E. Oliver, chairman of the Chi Phi Educational Trust.

The Council held a third session on Wednesday morning. After lunch the members of the Council held individual conferences with the delegates in Carroll Hall. At 5:30 that afternoon all of the members and visitors gathered on the beautiful, columned porch of the Alpha-Alpha chapter house for the dedication of a plaque commemorating the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Southern Order. Brother J. Maryon Saunders, Alpha-Alpha '25, presided over this gathering, recounting in his soft southern voice the accomplishments of the University of North Carolina and the Southern Order of the Chi Phi Fraternity as they progressed through the years, preparing young men for life through formal education and the art of living with their fellowmen. Brother Saunders introduced the Grand Alpha of the Fraternity, Dr. O. B. Williams, who presented the plaque to the Alpha-Alpha Chapter.

At the conclusion of the dedication ceremony, the Brothers adjourned to the Monogram Club for a delightful dinner. A feature of this dinner was the presentation of a plaque to Brother John E. Oliver, Eta '17, chairman of the Chi Phi Educational Trust, for outstanding service to the Fraternity. Brother O. B. Williams, Grand Alpha, presented the plaque to Brother Oliver with appropriate remarks. After dinner, the crowd moved back to the chapter house for the model initiation ceremony. Two pledges of the Alpha-Alpha Chapter were initiated, one at 8:00 o'clock and one at 9:00 o'clock.

The first business session of the Congress was convened in Carroll Hall at 9:00 o'clock on Thursday morning, September 4. Brother Roy W. Armstrong, Alpha-Alpha '26, was elected Alpha of Congress and turned in a remarkable performance as the presiding officer of the Congress. Brother I. B. Countryman was elected Gamma of Congress in the absence of the Grand Gamma, and did a fine job of recording the minutes. Brothers Joseph P. Nolt, Zeta, and Joseph Hendrickson, Alpha Delta, were elected Epsilons of the Congress. The Congress was welcomed to Chapel Hill and the University of North Carolina by Brother J. Maryon Saunders, alumni secretary for the University, and Brother J. Arthur Branch, president of the Southern Order Memorial Association. Routine business and the reports of the Grand Officers consumed the opening session. The afternoon session was given over to Committee and Zone meetings. The Zone Meetings were exceptionally successful and enjoyable and there were many requests for additional time for these meetings at future Congresses.

At six o'clock that evening everybody headed for Forty Oaks, the country home of Brother John M. Foushee, Alpha-Alpha '26, to partake of southern hospitality in the form of barbecue, slaw, hushpuppies, and Coca-Cola. After dinner the guests sat around the pool in the lingering dusk and sang Chi Phi and college songs until nostalgia engulfed us all.

On Friday, September 5, morning and afternoon business sessions were held, with the afternoon being given over to a workshop on the Written and Unwritten Law and other ritualistic work. This session proved to be one of great interest to the undergraduate Brothers. During the morning session the Sparks Memorials Medals were presented and other scholarship awards were made. Pi Chapter was awarded $100.00 in cash and a plaque for achieving the highest rating above the All-men average in that particular university. Theta Delta Chapter received $100.00 for the greatest improvement by a Chapter of 40 or more members, and Pi Chapter received $75.00 for the greatest improvement by a Chapter with less than 40 members. The Omicron Chapter received

On Oct. 24, 1924, Alpha Chapter was revived as Alpha-Alpha. The Grand Officers and members are shown here

$25.00 in cash for the highest average of any Chi Phi Chapter. At this session the election of the Grand Alpha was held. Dr. O. B. Williams, Nu '21, was reelected to this high office for another term of two years.

Seven o'clock that evening found a record crowd at the Chapel Hill Country Club, indulging ourselves in more southern hospitality, this time by way of dinner and dancing. Brother Roy Armstrong "emceed" this happy occasion in a most engaging manner, introducing guests and maneuvering the undergraduates through a charming little ceremony, involving the "pinning" of their dates with tiny silver spoons embossed with the Fraternity emblem. The delegates took over from there and danced the hours away.

Despite the gaiety and late hours of the night before, the Saturday morning session convened at the appointed time with a full complement of delegates present. After the reports of various committees appointed at the first session, a memorial service was held for the Brothers of Chi Phi who have joined the Chapter Eternal during the past year, with the Libations Service being conducted by the Grand Alpha, Brother O. B. Williams. At the final act of the 1958 Congress, the Candlelight Ceremony was performed by a team of six members of the Alpha-Alpha Chapter. This brought to a close one of the most memorable and delightful Congresses within the recollection of the most venerable delegates present.

75 Years for Mu at Stevens

by Henry Stadelmann, Zeta

SEVENTY-FIVE years ago on October 18, 1883, through the devoted efforts of six men—Edward Linthecum Dent and George J. Roberts, Brothers initiated at Delta Chapter and Pledges J. Herbert and George A. Ballantine, Maximillian C. Beard, and John W. Clark—Mu Chapter was duly authorized and granted the charter of the Chi Phi Fraternity at the annual convention in Albany, New York. These men had been attracted to the existing organization through associations with members of the Fraternity at other colleges.

However, easy as it sounds, this was a most difficult undertaking. In 1883 Stevens Institute of Technology had only nine faculty members, and a single greystone building. Since there were already eight fraternities established at Stevens, the administration was not favorably inclined towards allowing the establishment of a new fraternity on campus.

It was only through the persistence and perseverance of Brothers Dent and Roberts, who managed to convince the administration that the establishment of a chapter of Chi Phi would be desirable for both Stevens and the Fraternity, that Mu was finally established.

The first few years were hard and filled with discouraging setbacks which are usually unforeseen at the advent of any new organization. Mu has not had one chapter house but many. From its founding in 1883 until the coming of World War I in Europe in 1918, the Chapter had changed sites approximately eight times, while still remaining in the city of Hoboken. At the turn of the century, the Brothers of Mu occupied a house at 1022 Garden Street, half a mile from the college campus. With an eye always open for a better location, the next move was to Hudson Street, a site only a block away from the college campus. Here the Chapter stayed until at the outset of the first World War. Mu was truly fortunate to find unexpectedly thrown on the market a fine house, built by a German architect for his own residence. Its location was ideal. It was situated at the corner of the athletic field. And thus with the help of several faithful Alumni and a large mortgage, the Chapter was able to buy the house known as the "Green Gate" which they still occupy at 801 Hudson Street.

"Green Gate" is everything that could be desired in a fraternity house. It is sturdy in structure. It is fireproof, being constructed of brick, steel, and concrete—even in the interior walls and floors. The house can accommodate 20 men besides having a dining room, library, living room, kitchen, and solarium on the ground floor.

And so from this modest beginning, 75 years ago, Mu has developed and progressed along with Stevens itself. Its growth has been due to the fact that its membership has never been restricted to a single type of man. There has been no premium for athletic ability to the exclusion of scholarship, for example. As a significant result of this policy, Mu has always been active in extracurricular activities with a substantial representation on the soccer, lacrosse, tennis, basketball, and baseball teams, as well as in the Dramatic Society, Glee Club, yearbook, weekly publication, and humor magazine. Mu has also at various times held top positions in scholastics among the other fraternities on campus, while frequently contributing members to TBU, the national honorary engineering fraternity.

Chi Phi has frequently placed men in  $\Pi\Delta E$ , the national honorary journalism society as well as in Khoda, a senior secret honor society. In 1919 Mu was instrumental in and greatly responsible for the organization of the Gear and Triangle Society, an all-campus honorary extracurricular activities fraternity. Mu put another feather in its cap when it helped bring back to the campus the old Stevens Yacht Club as a college activity.

In the three-quarters of a century that it has existed, Mu has had more than its fair share of the laurels. This Chapter has always figured prominently in Stevens' history and has been active and powerful in the college's affairs. Another milestone was achieved when, in 1944, the Chapter, with the generous help of the Mu Alumni Association, was able to pay off its mortgage.

The petition for a chapter of Chi Phi at Stevens was signed by the six charter members and was dated Oct. 16, 1883

However even with all these good times, there came the bad times. There was a period of years not too long ago when Mu's active membership dwindled to only a handful of courageous Brothers. During World War I, the Chapter lost Brothers Cone, Hayward, and Van Nest and, in World War II, we lost Brothers Evesson, Sunderlin, Delager, and Weber. Losing these faithful Chi Phis was serious. However, another unforeseen blow was to come. During World War II the United States entered Stevens and took over the chapter house as a quarters for its men. When the Navy came so came battleship gray. The walls, floors, and woodwork turned gray with paint. The tapestries and gold leaf on the ceilings were completely ruined.

Nevertheless while they were here, the few remaining Chi Phis tried to increase their band. With the draft as strong opposition, this move slowly died out. And so the Chapter slowly diminished to one man, Brother Walter Knopp. The spirit of Chi Phi was in his make-up, and through heroic and superhuman efforts he managed to keep Mu from becoming dormant in this period of ill fortune.

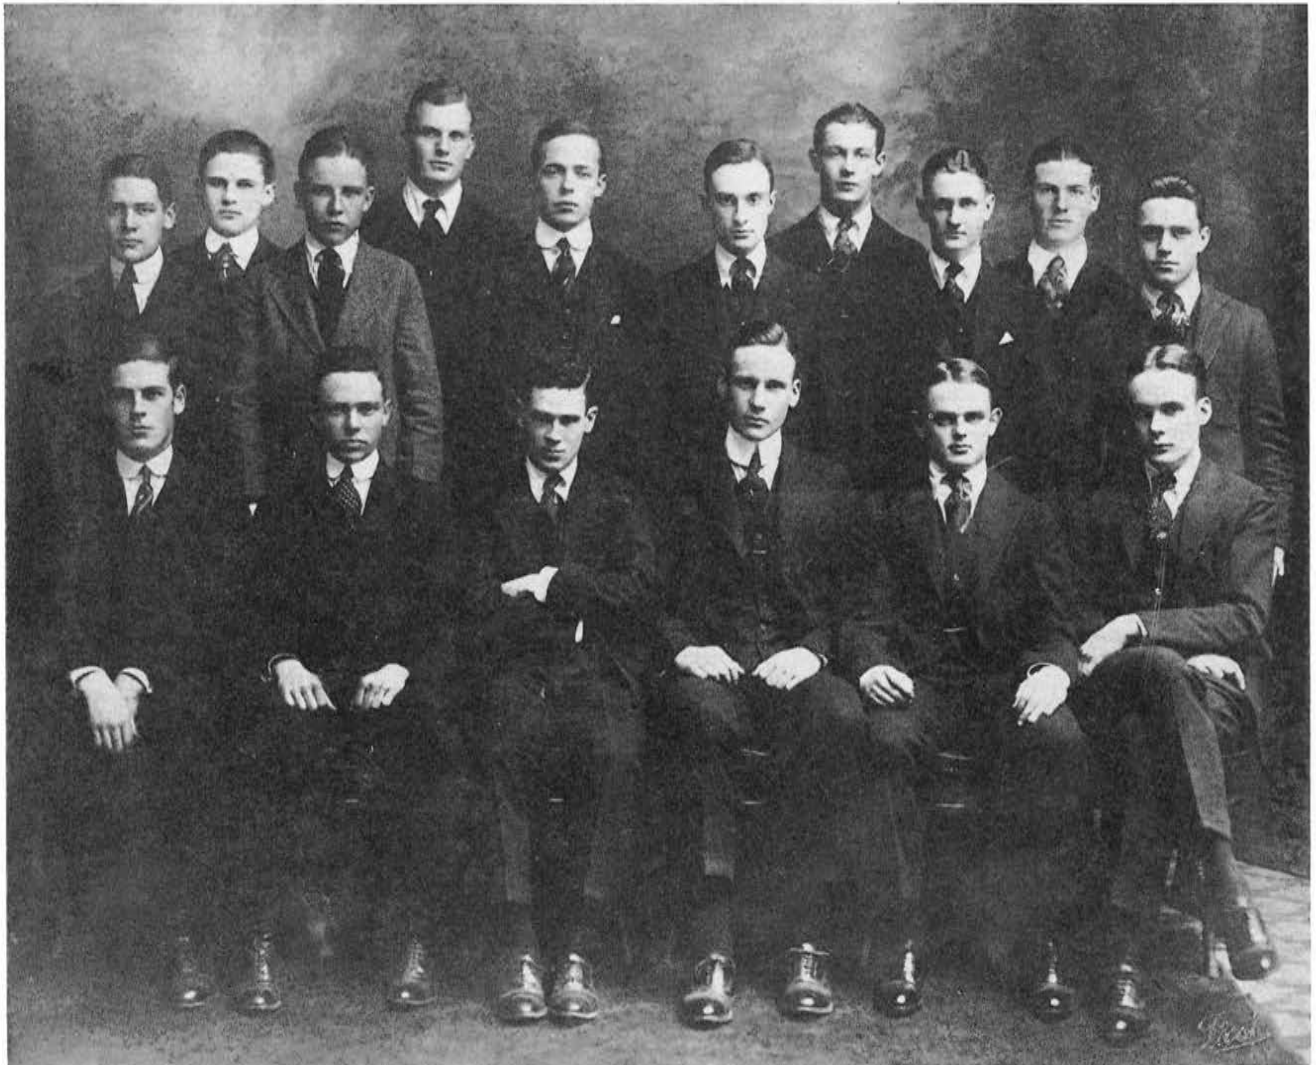

It is always darkest before the dawn, and in the great history and tradition of Chi Phi the dawn would come again. February, 1946, brought the return of several Chi Phis who had not finished college, and a good rushing season put Mu back on its feet again. The renovation and cleaning up of the house was a tremendous undertaking and only through the spirit and fortitude of the Brothers was the chapter house again restored to a fairly modern dwelling which was quite livable.

Spirited and loyal Chi Phis led Mu back to a prominent position on campus which it had had before the war. High scholarship was attained. The Chapter was well represented in sports. The college activities were filled with Chi Phis.

This Chapter has wholeheartedly given its support to the Fraternity's campaign to better Chi Phi's national scholastic standing. In the past three years, Mu has risen from ninth to first among fraternities on campus. On this 75th anniversary in addition to being above all the fraternities in scholastic standing, Mu is also above all-men's average. Mu, this year, has also retired the Interfraternity Council Activities plaque which has been in the house 10 of the 11 years since its inception. In addition to these two achievements, the Chapter is now in competition for the Sports Trophy (currently we are second).

And so, in accordance with the 75th year of its existence, Mu is enjoying one of its finest years at Stevens. That is not all. This Chapter has recently initiated 11 new Brothers who are endowed with the good assets and qualities exemplified by Chi Phis of the past.

Mu is using the event of its 75th Anniversary as a rallying point for a financial drive to recondition the chapter house. For as everyone realizes, there are goals which no amount of energy and imagination can fulfill.

The goals which have been set by a combined committee of active members and energetic Alumni are

DuBose Master-Plans Hartford Project

ONE of America's leading creative architects, Charles DuBose, Omega '29, has been engaged for the master-planning and design of Hartford's Front-Market Street redevelopment project, F. H. McGraw & Company, the site's developers, announced in September. Brother DuBose will be responsible for the architectural integrity of the over-all project, while other architectural and engineering firms will be engaged to collaborate with his office on individual buildings and other structures.

Both as an independent and associated architect Charles DuBose has participated in the design of more than $200 million worth of new buildings in the United States and abroad.

Since receiving his master of architecture degree at the University of Pennsylvania in 1930, Brother DuBose has devoted most of his career to private architectural practice in the New York area. He designed Monmouth Park race track in New Jersey and the Bush Manufacturing Co. plant in West Hartford, to name two familiar structures. As a partner in Frank Grad & Sons, a Newark architectural and engineering firm, he was in charge of design on many outstanding commercial and institutional buildings in the east. Following an international competition in 1945 he was awarded a commission to design a new capitol building for the Republic of Ecuador and later received an assignment to design a modern air terminal for the Republic of Panama.

Early in his career Brother DuBose was an instructor in architectural design at the University of Pennsylvania and spent two seasons studying at Fontainebleau School of Fine Arts in France. He is now a trustee of the Fontainebleau schools.

Prior to coming to Hartford to accept the Front-Market Street redevelopment assignment, Brother DuBose served in an executive capacity with the McGraw Co. in Montreal, Canada. He will establish private offices here and will serve on the redevelopment project as an independent architect. A member of the American Institute of Architects, Brother DuBose is a registered architect in Connecticut, New York, and several other states.

Contempt for Knowledge?

asks Dr. Frederick M. Hunter, Scholarship Counselor

THE Russian threat has dealt a heavy and much needed jolt to a widespread belief in America that knowledge and high scholarship are of little consequence. Everywhere we, as a people, have been coddling the notion that only practical "know how" counts in personal and national achievement. Now, one of the oldest and greediest of land-grabbing empires (which has been in the land-grabbing business over 1,000 years) threatens to engulf us and the entire world with an alluring but deadly economic bait (Communism) and a highly specialized mastery of knowledge as the weapons. Nothing as dangerous to the real values of life has ever before appeared in the civilized world.

We in America, and especially our youth, are pictured as pouring contempt on our scholars and researchers. They are called "egg heads," "long hairs," "fuddy duddies," "impractical and starry-eyed idealists," and finally, "educationists." Our collegiate world falls for this easy philosophy and refuses in large groups to respect excellence—scholarship. Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi winners have sometimes been exhorted to "keep it dark or you'll not be popular." Alumni, at times, have advised active Chapters that distinction consists in social prestige on the campus, control of campus extracurricular functions, and athletic prominence. Now and then Chapter Advisers refer to scholarship as unimportant.

To meet the challenge of this time, all Americans must clearly see that mastery of knowledge is the only true index to a real education. When a Chapter is willing, year after year, to fall below the all-men's average, it acknowledges that this unit of fraternity life is below the typical college-educated specimen of American citizenship. This appraisal is a personal disservice, first, to its members; second, to the great national Fraternity to which it has pledged loyalty; and third, to the parents and the total citizenship of our country as it faces the world crisis.

NOVEMBER 15: Iota Delta Installation

by Bill Mahl

This white house, almost a hundred years old, is the home of the newest fraternity chapter on the Indiana University campus. Iota Delta Chapter lives here

THE Chakett Club at Indiana University will become the 34th Chapter of Chi Phi on Nov. 15 when they will be presented a charter at ceremonies on the Indiana campus.

The colony, which was started by Gil Gass, Alpha-Chi '57, will be known as the Iota Delta Chapter. Original charter members of the Club will have their name inscribed on the charter. Roy Mitchell is president of the colony.

Over 150 Chi Phi Alumni, Brothers from surrounding Chapters, University officials, and presidents of the University's fraternities have been invited to attend the installation weekend.

At present the Colony has 32 active members and 22 pledges. Rushing has been the most important activity during the first part of the year. However, with the rush period drawing to a close, the Colony will devote more time to scholarship, athletics, and social activities.

Latest recognition to be given to the Colony was the splendid support given to the Chi Phi candidate for Sweater Hop Queen. Glenda Maris, ΔΓ, was selected as one of the top five candidates for the title.

"Showboat" was the theme of the Chi Phi booth at Indiana University's Fall Carnival. Each year men's and women's housing units join together to sponsor the activity. Proceeds from the Carnival go to the United Fund. Dave Engel, a junior from Wanatah, Ind., was the group's candidate for Bachelor of the Year honors.

On Sept. 27, 15 colony pledges travelled to the Alpha-Chi and Sigma Chapters to be initiated. This was the second group of charter members to be formally initiated.

LETTERS

155 Keil Ave.
Butler, N. J.

BROTHERS:

Thanks very much for the 50-year Chi Phi button. It was very kind of you to give me this memento of my many years in the Fraternity.

I hope that you and all Chi Phis will be able as 50-year men to look back upon as many valued friendships and associations as I can.

I am sure that the new crop of Chi Phis are building up its own treasure house of memories with all the zest and spirit that befits a Chi Phi and as we did in our young days. Thanks again.

Fraternally

CHARLES K. PAYNE

DEAR BROTHER ROSSER:

You may be sure that I was deeply touched and pleased to receive the 50-year lapel button which you and our Fraternity have so kindly presented to me.

I shall be proud indeed to wear it, as I do my XΦ ring which never leaves my finger.

Many thanks to you and the Brotherhood for this token of affection.

Yours fraternally

CASE ALUMNUS-WIDE WORLD

Dr. Hugh L. Dryden, deputy administrator, President Eisenhower, and Dr. T. Keith Glennan, Omicron '27, chat as the President passes out their appointments. Dr. Glennan is the administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration

Nation's Top Space Man

by Grant Anderson, Editor
in Case Alumnus

FOR THE second time in less than a decade, a President of the United States has called upon Case Tech President T. Keith Glennan, Omicron '27, to take an important assignment in Washington, D. C.

On Aug. 8, President Dwight D. Eisenhower picked Dr. Glennan to be administrator of the newly created civilian space agency—the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. In 1950, President Harry S. Truman appointed Dr. Glennan to the Atomic Energy Commission. He served until 1952.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration was created by Congress in July. All non-military space and air projects will be administered by the new agency. It will also direct research projects dealing with space travel, satellites and rockets to the moon. The space agency will absorb the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics. Its director, Dr. Hugh L. Dryden, will be deputy administrator of the new program.

President Glennan plans to be on the job in Washington in September. He has received leave of absence from his position at Case Institute. Mrs. Glennan and the younger children will stay at their home in Cleveland Heights until the end of the first school semester. His daughter, Sarah, has one term remaining before graduation from Roxboro Junior High School.

Reaction to President Glennan's appointment was extremely favorable by both Democrat and Republican leaders. In addition, numerous congratulatory calls and letters have been received by Dr. Glennan.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer printing a news release from the New York Times Service said President Glennan "is one of a new breed of modern man: the scientist-administrator."

At the Senate Space Committee confirmation hearing on Aug. 14, Dr. Glennan replied in answer to a question on how space technology might be speeded, "What is needed is an understanding of how these things get done—the motivation of people to their best performance. It's not just the amount of money."

Every senator on the Space Committee who was also on the Atomic Energy Committee went out of his way to praise Dr. Glennan in almost embarrassing terms, the New York Times Service reported.

Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Texas), chair-manned the committee which approved President Eisenhower's nominations of the new space administrator and his deputy. They were quickly confirmed by the Senate.

Commenting editorially on President Glennan's appointment, the Cleveland Press said, he "will inspire public confidence in a field where it's badly needed.

"Glennan's background for this tremendously important job is exceptional.

"He knows his way around government—from wartime service and from a term on the Atomic Energy Commission.

"He knows his way around industry—from service in key executive positions in several big companies.

"He knows science—and how to deal with scientists.

"And he knows, from his experience as the live-wire president of Case Tech, the tremendous long-range importance of directing the interest of young Americans into the new blue yonders of science.

"America's reputation in the challenging conquest of space is still somewhat tarnished because Russia beat us into orbit with a satellite.

"The spectacular failure of a succession of missiles haven't helped.

"Actually, the nation is undoubtedly in a much sounder position than these humiliations would indicate.

"But in any case, Glennan is an exceptionally fine choice to assume a responsibility upon which the whole future of this nation and the world may turn."

Frederick C. Crawford, chairman of the College's Board of Trustees and also of Thompson Product's Board, said, "We're very proud of Dr. Glennan. His appointment shows that Case is on the map." These sentiments were repeated time and again by faculty and staff members, alumni and civic leaders.

President Eisenhower called Dr. Glennan to the White House on July 29 to discuss the appointment. The Case executive said that he would be glad to serve his country.

Dr. Glennan commented that he would count heavily on the personnel and laboratory facilities of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics in building the new space organizations. Case Tech has had very close relations with the agency's Lewis Flight Propulsion Laboratory in Cleveland. In addition, many alumni work for the agency and a goodly number take graduate work at the Institute.

In June and early July, Dr. Glennan was a member of a group of ten college and university presidents and deans that studied education at the university level in Russia. They visited institutions of higher learning at Moscow, Leningrad and Kiev.

Since Aug. 30, 1947, Dr. Glennan has been president of Case Institute. He is the fourth man to head the College and the first business executive to be appointed to the position.

President Glennan was born in Enderlin, N. Dak., on Sept. 8, 1905. His father was a dispatcher with a railroad construction crew on the Soo Line. The young man grew up in Eau Claire, Wis. He entered the State Normal School in 1922 intending to prepare for a mathematics teaching career. During this period, Dr. Glennan financed his education by working in a clothing store.

After two years, he transferred to Sheffield Scientific School at Yale University. To earn his expenses, Dr. Glennan sold clothing, furniture and insurance. He also chauffeured for the family of Dr. Thomas S. Adams of Yale. Dr. Glennan was graduated "cum laude" in 1927. Four years later, the professor's daughter, Ruth, became Mrs. Glennan. They have four children, Thomas, Catherine, Pauline, and Sarah.

Tech's president began his business career in sound equipment work. This job took him to 30 states and ten foreign countries between 1927 and 1932 when "talking" movies were getting started. Dr. Glennan also spent nine years as a studio manager with Paramount Pictures and Goldwyn Studios in Hollywood, Cal.

From 1942 to 1945, President Glennan was director of the U. S. Navy Underwater Sound Laboratory operated by Columbia University at New London, Conn., for the Office of Research and Development. In recognition of his work on this assignment, he received the Medal of Merit, the highest civilian award of the federal government. The Alumni Association conferred its highest honor, the Meritorious Service Award, upon Dr. Glennan in 1951.

Dr. Glennan became manager of general administration of the Anasco Division of General Aniline and Film Corp., Binghamton, N. Y., in 1946. He left this position to become president of Case Institute.

Since 1955, Dr. Glennan has been executive chairman of the Metropolitan Services Commission. He also headed the University Circle Development Commission. Dr. Glennan served as a board member of the Council on Financial Aid to Education and a trustee of the Cleveland Clinic Foundation. He is a member of the advisory council of the Atomic Energy Commission and is a member of the boards of the Illuminating Co. and several industrial corporations.

Among the important break-throughs on the educational front at the Institute recently, Dr. Glennan lists the establishment of the first campus-based Operations Research Group in the world. The College has brought the resources of mathematics and science together to help solve the day-to-day problems of management and industry.

A powerful Computing Center is now in operation. Case pioneered in the integration of education in the humanities with engineering. A program in Engineering Science has been established. The College is also a leader in seeking means of consolidating the gains of scientific research in engineering education. Further advances are being made to meet the changing times.

Comparisons between 1947-48 and ten years later show:

An increase in full time faculty members from 132 to 189 and of total faculty from 202 to 287.

An increase in the number of faculty members holding doctor's degrees from 28.5 per cent to 51.5 per cent; a decrease in the holders of only bachelor's degrees from about 31.2 to 16 per cent.

An increase in the total faculty payroll from $751,000 to $1,661,000. The part of the payroll allotted to purely instructional purposes increased from $699,000 to $1,392,000.

A marked increase in the level of faculty salaries. Maximum professional salaries (based on a ten-month appointment including a one-month holiday) increased from $7,000 to $12,500 in the same period. On the instructor level, maximums increased from $3,650 to $7,000.

An increasing trend in the size of the entering class during this period, discounting the veterans' bulge of the late 1940's. In 1947, 369 freshmen entered Tech; 503 entered last year.

In 1950-51 (the first year since 1947 that enrollments were not distorted by the surge of veterans) the percentage of students from Cuyahoga County dropped from 61 to 41. Percentage from the rest of Ohio increased from 25 to 43. Percentage from other states increased from 10 to 27. Percentage of graduates remaining in the Cleveland area increased from 41 to 42.

Operating income from industry contributions and support from alumni, foundations and friends of Case, has increased from $1,960,000 in 1947-48 to $5,114,000 in 1956-57. Sponsored research funds have jumped from $477,000 to $1,456,000; tuition and fees from $1,013,000 to $1,814,000.

Educational expenses have increased along with income, growing from $1,906,000 to $5,106,000. Major increases have come from instructional expenses, from $1,007,000 to $2,101,000 and student aid, from $35,000 to $385,000.

The cost of doing business at Case, including building costs and capital expenditures, has approximately trebled in 10 years, rising from $2,585,000 in 1947-1948 to $7,452,000 in 1956-1957.

Endowment, while increasing, has lagged behind need. The endowment income per student has remained relatively stable. The endowment itself increased from $5,870,000 to $9,788,000 in book value. Income from endowment, operating under the administration of a committee of the Board of Trustees, has increased from $312,000 annually to $578,000.

As President Glennan leaves the ivy covered Main Building and the campus for Washington, his many friends wish him success and happiness with his new responsibilities.

Architect Hunt

ANNOUNCEMENT of the formation of an association for the practice of architecture is made by William Dudley Hunt, Jr., Theta Delta '47, and James Travis Dent. The firm will operate under the name: William Dudley Hunt, Jr., and James Travis Dent, Associated Architects, and will maintain offices in New Orleans, La., and Pensacola, Fla. W. Dudley Hunt, Sr., formerly general superintendent for Raymond International, Inc., in Bogota, Colombia, S. A., will continue in his capacity of office manager of the Pensacola office. The new practice will offer complete general architectural services for buildings of all types.

Brother Hunt has been engaged for a number of years in private practice in Louisiana and Florida. His office has performed architectural services for several clinics and medical buildings, motels, restaurants, schools, apartment buildings, and industrial buildings. A member of the American Institute of Architects, Brother Hunt has recently been named as senior editor of Architectural Record magazine. He is the author of magazine articles on curtain walls, restaurant, medical facility, hotel, motor hotel, and other types of architectural planning. His book, The Contemporary Curtain Wall, will be published by F. W. Dodge Corp. in the near future and he is currently working on another book, A Guide to Louisiana Architecture, tentatively scheduled for publication by Louisiana State University Press in early 1959.

Comes to Life

OUT of the North came a letter from Philip Samuel Durant, Sigma '23, contesting the publication of his name in the Memorial Service Booklet, published for the service at Congress and later sent to close kin. We do not wonder that the owner and operator of Durant's Hardware in Seward, Alaska, was upset. Somehow the Alumni Secretary of the University of Illinois got confused on identity and thereby wrote a QED to Brother Durant. With Chi Phi-university reciprocity, the Office of Council adjusted its records. Mail had followed Brother Durant around the Pacific Northwest and had finally come to rest in Wheaton, Ill., the home of his sons. With the sad news from the Alumni Secretary on Oct. 7, 1957, and the change of records, CHAKETT no longer was sent. Mail ceased its one-way flow. It was mighty good to get Brother Durant's protest. We are sorry about the error; we are glad that it was that. We hope that he will not be "lost" to Chi Phi again.

The moral for live Chi Phis is to keep in touch with us so that we will know you are earthly creatures. We shudder each time the post office reports a subscriber as deceased. We try to verify the report, but if you have been a "dead Chi Phi" for many a year that is difficult.

Benham Firm Tops

BENHAM, Richards and Armstrong (Eugene T. Benham, Iota '11, past Grand Alpha), 1124 W. Goodale Blvd., Columbus, is one of the 100 architectural firms handling almost 10 per cent of all the building design in the United States, according to Architectural Forum Magazine. Forum's ranking, which is the first ever to apply a financial gauge to architectural firms, was derived from questionnaires sent to 270 leading volume architects in the United States. The article, "Architecture's Biggest Firms," was published in the September, 1958, issue of Forum. Our congratulations are extended to the firm for the honor which has been bestowed on them.—Pickups, Chamber of Commerce, Columbus, Ohio.

Rotary Officer

RALPH D. PORCH, Gamma '41, Tau '43, has been named a Rotary information and extension counselor for the 1958-59 fiscal year by Rotary International. Porch is a partner in the law firm of Knox, Jones, Woolf & Merrill in Anniston, Ala. A Rotarian since 1947, he has been president of the Rotary Club of Anniston and has served Rotary International as district governor.

Porch is vice president of the Southern Tool & Machine Co. and the Deweese Manufacturing Co. in Anniston. He is finance chairman of the Northeast Alabama Symphony Orchestra, a vestryman of the Grace Episcopal Church, and has served as president of the Calhoun County Heart Assn.

During World War II and the Korean conflict, he was a U. S. Army officer, reaching the rank of lieutenant colonel. He is now staff judge advocate of the 51st Infantry (Dixie) Division of the Alabama National Guard.

ABA Board Member

C. BAXTER JONES, Gamma '40, Atlanta attorney and 1951 Atlanta "Young Man of the Year," has been elected to the House of Delegates of the American Bar Assn.

Mr. Jones was one of five new members elected to the 244-member national policy-making board.

The ABA concluded its 81st annual convention in Los Angeles with a keynote address by Ross L. Malone, new national president. Goal of the nation's lawyers, Mr. Malone emphasized, is "World Peace Through World Law." Among plans for the future is a world conference of lawyers, he said. The ABA president also called for closer integration between the practicing profession and the law schools and students.

The House of Delegates approved a resolution previously adopted by the ABA assembly condemning the execution of former Hungarian Premier Imre Nagy and his associates as "violative of the rules of law as recognized by civilized countries."—Atlanta Constitution.

Law Fellow

ATLANTA attorneys Hamilton Lokey and Edgard A. Neely, Jr., Alpha Alpha '31, Gamma '31, will be inducted into Fellowship of American College of Trial Lawyers at ceremonies in Beverly Hills, Cal. Neely is a member of Greene, Neely, Buckley and DeRieux.

The honor is considered to be one of the highest in American jurisprudence, according to Judge Emil Gumpert, chancellor of the college. Membership in the college is limited to one per cent of the attorneys in any given state.

Paid Your Dues?

Bans Drinking

THE use of alcoholic beverages by fraternity men has been outlawed at the University of Alabama, announced Interfraternity Council President Bill Lanford of Gadsden, Ala.

The decision to condemn alcoholic beverages was made by the presidents of the 25 social fraternities themselves, said Lanford.

Resolved were (1) no social fraternity will serve any alcoholic beverages under any conditions nor at any place, and (2) no fraternity will assess any of its members for the purchase of alcoholic beverages.

There are about 1,200 members in the fraternities.

John Blackburn, dean of men, praised the resolution. "This is another example," he said, "of continuing sense of responsibility on the part of UA fraternity men and their leaders."

Blackburn said drinking is a problem facing fraternities on most college campuses.

Oregon Chi Phis Meet in Cal

OREGON STATE Chi Phis had dinner at the Villa Motel, San Mateo, Cal., following the Oregon State-Stanford football game. Merritt Truax had charge of making motel accommodations for Brothers and their wives. The big news at dinner covered the developments in Epsilon Delta building plans. Members who qualified for 25-year pins were presented with them. This was the first meeting of the Oregon State Chi Phi Assn. ever held in California.

$5 and News

Florida Chi Phis Meet in Gainesville

THE annual meeting of the Florida Chi Phi Assn., Inc., took place at the chapter house in Gainesville in conjunction with Homecoming on Oct. 17-18. The annual business meeting was held at 10:00 A.M., being completed in time for visitors to attend the John Marshall Bar Skit on campus. New officers were elected. The main business was a report on the bond campaign instigated to refinance the Theta Delta chapter house mortgages. Bob Baker of Clearwater spearheaded the bond drive for $24,000. Each board member pledged himself last April to raise $3,000. Arch R. Updike, Jr., Lake Wales, Joseph O. Macbeth, Sebring, and Howard V. Weems, Sr., Sebring, are trustees of the bond issue. In the talking stage are plans for a new house. A more complete report of the meeting will appear later.

BETA managed to clean up old "32" in time for the hordes of smiling, scowling, awed, and aggressive freshmen who stormed into Tech for rush week. Our rushing proved successful as we pledged 14 men including one from last term. Our sophomore pledge is Herb Berman.

Tom Remmers was elected captain of the MIT Pistol Team. Robert S. Hopkins was a member of the national championship MIT Sailing Team.

Beta is fielding an intramural football team and plans on entertaining teams in all major intramural sports. We are also planning parties with ΦKE and other Tech fraternities, which is something we haven't attempted before.—R. S. MROCKOWSKI.

Delta Cadets

Show Leadership

WHITNEY R. IRWIN, Alpha
Rutgers University

DELTA has an unusually large representation in the Advanced ROTC programs at Rutgers. Cadets chosen for admittance into these programs are carefully screened since only those meeting the rigorous qualifications are selected. Brothers who participate in the AFROTC include: Arthur D'Alessandro, Peter Herrington, Thomas Hollinger, and Joseph Brown. D'Alessandro is a member of the Arnold Air Society, the AFROTC honorary society. Members of the Army program are: Donald Deraskewich, Raymond Rodrigues, and Robert Trebowski, Robert Miller and Pledge Robert Hopkins are members of the crack ROTC drill teams. Miller marches with the Scarlet Rifles, the Army drill team. Hopkins, in addition to being on the AFROTC drill team, is a class commander.

Since all freshmen and sophomores are required to take ROTC, this places Delta in a position of leadership on campus.

Delta's new housemother, Mrs. Emerson, was given a warm welcome. She was immediately popular with all the Brothers. We are pleased, indeed, to have her with us.

First semester rushing of freshmen is not allowed at Rutgers. However, under the direction of rushing chairman, Hank Finger, an active campaign to rush sophomores and transfer students has been undertaken. Men already pledged include: Dick Meyer, Warren Fraizer, and Dave Stray.

Delta's spirit of coöperation within the Brotherhood was vividly demonstrated when the Brothers returned to the house to work before classes began. Under the leadership of our Alpha, Whit Irwin, many necessary repairs were made. The most outstanding task was the trimming of the ivy. The work of Henry Parcel and Norbert Smith was especially noteworthy. Brooks Cole did an excellent job on repairs in Mrs. Emerson's apartment. The award for goldbricking was given to "Skeeter" Trebowski. His selection was unanimous.

Delta demonstrated her spirit in the recent pep rally before the Princeton-Rutgers football game by constructing a very appropriate float. We are now actively engaged in building a float for our Homecoming game with Bucknell.

Joseph Brown will play the lead in The Queen's Theatre presentation of "The Summoning of Everyman." Joe is also functioning as our choirmaster for the coming University song contest. Bruce Ferretti is a staff member of The Rutgers Engineer. Continuing in a literary vein, Ray Rodrigues is a staff member of The Anthologist, literary magazine. Norm Winter is adding to his already fabulous athletic career as a member of the 150 lb. football team, the wrestling team, and light-weight crew. Thomas Hollinger has gained membership in Alpha Zeta, honorary agriculture society. Terrance Claypoole is secretary of the Rutgers Newman Club. Peter Fowler is president of Targum Council, the governing body of the campus newspaper. Whit Irwin represents Delta on the all-important IFC. Peter Herrington, BMOC, is NSA coördinator as well as a member of Student Council for the third straight year. Pete, along with Hank Finger, Norm Winter, and Hank Kane, is a preceptor. Malcolm La Bar is on the Scarlet Key, the sophomore honor society.

As a result of our new set-up, we are very sound financially. Our Alumni are taking an ever-increasing interest in chapter affairs. This, and the work of Norm Hedrich, Delta, are contributing to the smooth operation of financial matters.—ALEXANDER J. RIZZER.

Zeta Places Ten Men on Teams

JOHN M. BUCHANAN, Alpha
Franklin & Marshall College

JOHN BUCHANAN, a senior, was elected Alpha. Jim Clark, a senior, will take over as Beta while Fred Current, another senior, will assume the position of Gamma. Pete Kandell will handle the financial affairs and serve as Delta with a senior, Mark McGill, acting as Epsilon. Neil Potter, a junior, was elected Zeta and elected pledgemaster was Bill Sowers.

Having stressed scholarship all last year, seven men were initiated into the Brotherhood this fall. Last year the scholarship committee, headed by Roger Burtner, did a fine job in creating keen competition scholastically between the Brothers. Having worked very well last year, the scholarship committee is trying to improve the program this year.

Zeta is well represented in the fall varsity athletic teams. Chi Phi placed 10 men on the football, soccer, and cross country teams. John Buchanan is heading the cross country team as captain. The intramural season also looks good at Zeta, the football team having been practicing since we returned.

This year Zeta is well represented in student government and school activities. Out of 21 chairs in Student Council, eight are claimed by Chi Phis. Four of these men were elected to the Executive Council: Jim Hoeschle, vice president; Jim Clark, secretary; John Kerr, treasurer; and Bob Smith, corresponding secretary. Five men from Zeta were among eight men tapped into The Black Pyramid Society, the senior honorary society: Joe Nolt, Jim Clark, Jim Hoeschle, John Buchanan, and Fred Current. Joe was elected president of the society while Fred was elected treasurer.

The social program is underway with two record dances and a freshman smoker. Jim Clark has started plans for Homecoming weekend hoping to win the first prize in the fraternity displays.—NEIL POTTER.

Theta Invites

Alumni to House

ANTHONY DIGNAZIO, Alpha Rensselaer

THETA has several major objectives for this fall semester, namely rushing policy, Alumni Weekend, and scholarship improvement. Thanks to a successful rushing season last fall we are starting this year off with a full house, but since our large Senior Class will be leaving at the end of this year, Theta must maintain a strong rushing program in order to have a full house next fall. Phil Auger has returned to continue his studies at R.P.I. after serving several years in the Army. Also returning to continue his studies here is Walt Jacques.

In an effort to increase the alumni turnout for our Alumni Weekend this year, we are planning to hold the weekend so that it coincides with the organizational meeting of the new Alumni Association which is to replace the old Theta Building Corp. A tentative date for the weekend has been set for December 13. We wish to thank John Carlson and Stan Cozzens for helping us take the freshmen around the Fraternity during our open house on Sept. 13.

Tony Dignazio is leading the R.P.I. football team this year as captain of the squad. We again have a dog running around the house, thanks to Brother Bill Raymond. "Harry" now replaces Brother Beckwith's beloved "Snoopy."—BARRY J. WEISSMAN.

Iota Builds New Rooms

JOHN DONNELLY, Alpha
Ohio State University

BROTHERS Miller, Squire, and Wilcox attended the Chi Phi Congress and returned very much enlightened and pleased. Other than individual contacts, our summer rushing program consisted of two parties, one in Dayton, Ohio, and the other at Brother Squire's home in Cleveland.

The Brothers returned on Sept. 20 to prepare for a somewhat hurried and limited rush week. The house was quickly cleaned and, everything being shipshape, our rush week started Monday morning with a breakfast which was very well attended. Iota's rush week events included three breakfasts, four luncheons, and three evening outings, one of which was a date party which proved to be very impressive to the rushees and new pledges. Our rush week program was governed by university regulations which included three days of open rushing, two days that were closed to rushing, and three days on the weekend that were open. The following week, which is the first week of school, is also closed. Chi Phi plans to continue rushing throughout the year. Our pledge class consists of 18 men.

At the present time, the Fraternity is in the process of building new recreation and chapter rooms which should be completed before the Thanksgiving vacation. The recreation room promises an ideal place for parties, a new ping-pong table, and possibly a pool table if room permits.

Our past Alpha, James Wilcox, who dropped out of school, was replaced by John Donnelly. Other officers remain the same: John Squire, Beta; Tom Miller, Gamma; Arthur Sherman, Delta; William Meyers, Epsilon; and Philip Koch, Zeta.—PHILIP KOCH.

Mu Receives Scholastic Award

JOEL KUHLBERG, Alpha
Stevens Institute

MU is happy to report the initiation of 11 Brothers: Richard Behling, James Hodges, Lee Jacobi, Frederick Keller, Frederick Losen, Howard Olnowich, Robert Polk, William Ullrich, Douglas Wilkinson, Donald Zielinski, Joseph Zorskie. Congratulations are extended to these men and also to Frederick Sander and David Smith who pledged after closed rushing.

Social Chairman Fred Clarke has planned a calendar which keeps the traditions of Chi Phi social life. Winter Carnival Weekend, sponsored by the Stevens IFC, will be the social highlight of the term. Beginning Friday night with the IFC formal, the weekend is rounded out with the traditional Pajama Party on Friday night and Saturday morning, the theme party Saturday night, and a Jazz Concert Sunday afternoon. In addition to the parties, dances, and the weekend, Fred has scheduled a father-son party to fill out the social calendar.

A poll of the scholastic standings of all the fraternities at Stevens found the Chapter in first place and also the only fraternity above all-college standing with a 2.36 average. In addition to this, Mu also retired the IFC activities trophy, the most coveted award on campus. Mu is also at this time in competition for the sports trophy and currently in second place.

Alumni will be surprised to see a new addition to the outer appearance of Chi Phi. Partially completed is a fence and walk opening on Eighth Street and leading to the rear of the house.

The officers for the fall term are: Joel Kuhlberg, Alpha; Andy Lang, Beta; Steve Gavin, Gamma; Bob Marshall, Delta; Andrew Bradick, Epsilon; and Hank Stadelmann, Zeta.—HANK STADELMANN.

Nu Anticipates Wonderful Year

JACK E. FERRELL, Alpha
University of Texas

A GREAT year is in store for the Brothers of Nu Chapter. The soon-to-be completed chapter house, the fine group of pledges, and the growing enthusiasm of the Brothers have all contributed to making Chi Phi one of the finest fraternities on the Texas campus. Nu was the best represented at Congress with five members attending. We are initiating a high powered, effective rush program this semester which can't be beat. We are also inaugurating a means of keeping in close contact with our Alumni by sending out a Nu's Letter several times throughout the year telling our Alumni of the progress of this Chapter and relaying news of the Alumni around the state.

Nu's chapter house is going up swiftly. The estimated time of completion is Dec. 1. The social committee, at this time, is seriously considering the possibility of having a Christmas formal in the new house as a christening. We are really proud of the efforts of our Alumni and the Brothers for the outstanding job they have done towards achieving this new chapter house.

We had a spectacular time during our pre-rush and rush activities. Special thanks go to Dr. Robert B. Morrison, N '33, who helped us stage a barbecue party at his home here in Austin. Brother Morrison also told a few of his inimitable stories and soon had rushees and members in good-natured convulsions. Mrs. Morrison was a very gracious hostess. When we saw the rushees again during formal rush, all they could talk about was the wonderful time they had at our pre-rush activities. This semester in formal rush we were proud to pledge 19 gentlemen who are all fine prospective members: Charles Allen, George Brown, Butler Crittenden, Jim Dunaway, Bob Ernst, John Eaton, Jim Espey, Charles Everson, Butch Freeman, Wray Goza, Richard Hittson, John Kieffer, Jerry Long, Winston McIntosh, John Nemeth, Frank Nieson, Ed Saylor, Dale Scott, and Jay Sewell. During the open rush period Nu plans to add to this outstanding roll of men and strengthen the chapter.

We are also boosting our scholastic program this semester by utilizing the facilities of the University. Pledges and members may attend an organized study hall in the University's Humanities Library. Barney Wile is conducting this program and the older members offer their help and advice to the pledges. We trust that our efforts will show in the Chapter's improved scholastic standing.—JOE DOMINEY.

Xi Suffers

Fire Loss

J. S. RUGGIE, JR., Alpha
Cornell University

ON Monday, Sept. 29, the Brothers of Xi were driven out of the house about 8 o'clock in the evening by a fire which originated in the cellar of the house. The blaze was detected as smoke drifted up through a vent leading from a storage room where it is believed a robe was accidentally tossed over a light bulb, starting the fire. The Ithaca fire department quickly arrived on the scene, and extinguished the blaze before any serious damage could be inflicted. The storage room was demolished and part of the living room was damaged, but otherwise the house escaped serious consequences. Luckily no one was seriously hurt or burned.

On the brighter side, Xi had a full house of Brothers return for the 1958-59 school year. Having pulled ourselves up four places scholastically last year, the Chapter hopes to further its achievement under the leadership of Alpha Joe Ruggie and Beta Tom Spooner.

The summer improvement plan was very successful as the whole house was rewired and much work was done on the kitchen. Praise should be afforded to our Faculty Adviser, Barlow Ware, and our Delta Coley Burton for the fine work they did in putting the program over.—DAVID G. FORMAN, JR.

Pi to Award

Pledge Plaque

DARYL L. FRAZELL, Alpha
Northwestern University

RUSH WEEK is usually a time when mass confusion reigns and, perhaps, the most unorganized mind during rush is that of the rushee himself. However, Pi is proud to report that due to the continuous spirit and effort of our Brothers, we pledged 11 men. Their names will be found elsewhere in this issue.

We wish to thank our Chapter Adviser, Rudy Schlosser, and his wife who helped us choose many new furnishings for our chapter house. Rudy and Betty selected new furniture for our living room and TV room, had the TV room carpeted, and purchased the materials needed for clean-up week. One of our major projects was to put up new acoustical tile in the dining room.

Rush week was climaxed with our annual membership banquet at the Tally-Ho restaurant. At this banquet the new pledges had an opportunity to meet Chi Phi in the Chicago area. This year we were honored to have Alumni from Sigma, Chi, Mu, and Pi with us.

During this summer's Chi Phi Congress we were very proud to receive the handsome Achievement Award plus $175. We have decided to use the money for a plaque to be awarded each year to the pledge with the highest grade average.

We would also like to congratulate our officers for the coming year: Daryl Frazell, Alpha; Joel Russell, Beta; Vern Reisenleiter, Gamma; Bob Miller, Delta; John Lewis, Epsilon; and Bruce Strickland, Zeta.—BRUCE STRICKLAND.

Rho Resurfaces

Parking Lot

BROOKS VON ARX, Alpha
Lafayette College

RHO took 21 pledges which was far above the campus average: Stephen Altenderfer, Waldwick, N. J.; Bruce Applestein, Keith Barnett, Morrisville; Donald Barnes, Darien, Conn.; George Clair, Lancaster; Joseph Cornell, Summit, N. J.; Ted Elsasser, Yeadon; Richard Gilbert, West Reading; James Greenwood, Yardley; James Hartsel, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; Jack Hawkins, Plainfield, N. J.; Jack Holme, and Edward Jensen, Greenwich, Conn.; Larry Kruse, West Hazelton; Donald MacNeil, Westfield, N. J.; Donald Orofino, Baldwin, N. Y.; Charles Ruykhaver, New Canaan, Conn.; James Sharpneck, Fairless Hills; Louis Timmerman, New York, N. Y.; Emil Von Arx, Basking Ridge, N. J. We also have one social member, Moises Lapko, Caracas, Venezuela. Most of the new men have already entered many of the college activities among which are freshman football and the college choir. With this calibre of men, we think that Vallamont will be even more prominent on the campus this year.

Some of the Brothers and the pledges came back early in September to work on the house. The parking lot was completely resurfaced and the porches were painted. Thanks to the Alumni, our pool table was renovated and new drapes were put up in the living room. With all of these added improvements the house looks better than ever. We sincerely wish to thank our Alumni for their fine help and cooperation in making Vallamont the best looking house on campus.

Two of our Brothers, Rick Huebner and Jerry Day, attended the annual Congress this summer and came back with many helpful suggestions for Chapter improvements. From all reports, they seem to have had a good time.

Alpha Brooks Von Arx was elected president of the Kirby Government and Law Society and Bob Weaver was elected president of the Calumet Society. Von Arx and Fisher were elected to  $\Phi\Delta\Theta$ , national history society.—CHARLES FISHER.

Sigma House Gets Face-Lifting

ALAN C. SWANSON, Alpha
University of Illinois

WE'RE in the midst of $50,000 worth of construction. The complete remodeling of the living room, new tile in the halls, new doors and frames for the study rooms, renovation of the heating plant, and remodeling of the kitchen are all part of a 4-year program. The major portion of the money will be expended on the building of an addition to the chapter house which will serve as living quarters for our housemother, Mrs. Beggs. Here at the house, we refer to Mrs. Beggs as "Mom." Because "Mom" is around the house practically all the time, we're allowed to bring dates in the house after a Friday night movie, a Saturday night date—or just about any time during the week. "Mom" has already been a big help to us. She stood in line with us during rush week, and helped "snow" the rushees with her slight southern drawl. Until her quarters are built, she will be living in the basement apartment at the chapter house.

Thanks to alumni help and extensive summer rushing, we pledged 11 men this fall in formal rush. In the few weeks following, we pledged nine more men, bringing the total to 20. With another week of informal rush to go, we have two more men we expect to pledge. Congratulations to Ted Allison for a fine job as formal rush chairman, and Don Vreuls as informal rush chairman.—WAYNE CHILCOTE.

Phi Reports

Great Achievements

JOHN R. LONG, Alpha
Amherst College

"GATHER Brothers of Chi Phi," and we gathered to make a try for the Dean's List and the Meyer-Sniffen Trophy. In the attempt at the former we were quite successful and Brother Carmel '58 was awarded the latter for his "outstanding performance in times of great upheaval."

An overall picture of the fraternity's endeavors and their relative successes may be gained from the remarks of the new house adviser, Dean Eugene S. Wilson, to the freshman pledge delegation. Dean Wilson told the pledges that the prestige or rank of a fraternity at Amherst is highly variable and that the important index is the direction in which the fraternity is moving. In the case of the Phi Chapter of Chi Phi, the movement is definitely upward. Our better impression with the faculty and improved status in rushing are not accidents. The Chapter has made a constant effort to direct activity and individual thought towards the benefit of the group. We were already well on our way upward as far as scholastic achievement goes with last year's push which made us winners of the college scholastic improvement trophy.

Of 17 members of the Class of 1960 pledged, 14 were initiated into the brotherhood. Pledge training was extremely successful this year owing to the efforts of Pledgemasters Joseph Amiel '59 and Bill McQuillan '59. Increased emphasis was placed on learning of the history and traditions of the fraternity. During the instruction periods the Brothers had a good opportunity to review their own knowledge while teaching the pledges. Line-ups, held weekly, were used as drill sessions and, as demonstrated by the fine showing of the pledges on the exam given prior to initiation, the Brothers' efforts were successful.

During the fall Pledgemaster Amiel drew up and submitted a plan for pledge training to the House Management Committee, the college interfraternity council. The plan, known as the Chi Phi Plan was adopted for college-wide use. Briefly, the plan calls for constructive activities for the pledges and emphasis on learning house traditions. Through charity work or house maintenance activities undertaken by the pledge class, it is hoped that house spirit and a sense of working as a group, both vital to the success of the house, will be developed.

When the Brothers were satisfied that the pledges were sufficiently prepared for membership in the Brotherhood, they initiated the following men: Gordon C. Baldwin, Colin D. Barrett, Richard W. Bartlett, Arthur A. Capone, Owen R. Connolly, William J. Corbett, Jr., Timothy A. Dalsimer, Daniel de S. Darrow, K. James Dykstra, Daniel A. Guthrie, Edwin A. Huston, Peter Poulimentos, William R. Vetter and Richard F. Weisfelder, all members of the class of 1960. The initiation was celebrated at a banquet held at the house on Oct. 25. The banquet was well attended by alumni, and a meeting of the alumni group, the Phi Corporation, heard reports on the house and alumni activities. Of interest to the alumni and house members both were the comments on the recent transfer of the chapter house title to the college. This move has also been made by one other house on campus in hopes of strengthening cooperation between fraternity and college and to permit deduction from income, for tax purposes, of alumni donations to the Jimmy Hamilton Fund and to the house.

Last spring the College's new 4-day rushing plan was put to its first test. Designed to prevent rushing from taking up so much of the academic time of the student, the system met with wide approval in the faculty. The student body as a whole was less enthusiastic but concentrated rushing and harder group effort seemed to be indicated. The system worked out well for the Phi and we pledged a fine group of freshmen: Ralph E. Aldrich, Charles J. Chotkowski, Frank L. Horsfall, Richard M. Howland, Richard J. Kozera, Roger A. Long, Joel T. Mague, Stanley H. Masters, Stephen Menschel, John O. Merritt, William P. Pratt, Joseph Richardson, David M. Ring, Stephen C. Shepley, Daniel H. Thatcher, Philip K. Thatcher, John S. Whitney, and James Wood. For the first time in recent years we used the official pledging ceremony. It was well received by all and we intend to continue using it in the future. Pledgemasters for the fall term are Dick Weisfelder and Gordon Baldwin.

Officers elected this spring were: John Long, Alpha; Joe Amiel, Beta; Dick Weisfelder, Gamma; Phil Pryde, Delta; Bill Vetter, Zeta; Tony Hazen, social chairman; Ed Huston, assistant social chairman; Fred Bedford, Automobile Assn. representative; and Bill Vetter, house manager.

Phil Pryde '59 was elected treasurer of the college newspaper and Dick Weisfelder was elected to the Junior Business Board. Bob Walker '59 was elected president of  $\Phi$ BK at Amherst. Phi was represented on the band, the college news bureau,  $\Delta$ S $\Pi$ ,  $\Sigma$ E, the Christian Assn., and the Student Committee to the Deans. —WILLIAM VETTER.

Chi Adviser Resigns

PAUL C. DOWNING, Alpha
Dartmouth College

TWENTY men were pledged during fall rush and, in time, may prove to be one of the best pledge classes we've had to date.

Confusion on campus is still somewhat prevalent as Dartmouth adapts itself to the 3-semester system, but chapter organization has remained constant, and last year's records have proved that Chi is progressing. For example, Chi has raised itself from 24th to 11th scholastically among the Dartmouth fraternities. A predominantly non-athletic chapter at Dartmouth, Chi Phi gained third place in athletic competition. House alterations, a never-ending process for the Brothers, have led many undergrads to believe that Chi has the best physical plant on campus.

Lafayette weekend, the first and very damp football weekend, proved to be successful for both college and Chapter. The "Big Green" downed the "Panthers" 20 to 0 and Chi Crew Race team downed Rho Brothers. We were glad to have the opportunity to host the Brothers from Lafayette and we hope that we will have more visitation from other Chapters before the year is over.

Chi is happy to welcome back three Brothers: Wally Smith, Joe Daniels, and Pete Sinclair. Lafayette weekend also brought back two Alumni, Russ Berry and Jerry Manne. We expect many more of the Alumni from all classes to stop in and visit.

Last spring, the Chi Chapter's Corp. was host to four representatives of the undergraduate membership in Boston. The Chapter reported its progress for the year to the corporation and plans were discussed for the future of the Fraternity. The Chapter owes its everlasting gratitude to the Corporation for its aid in the past. It is a very comforting feeling to know that there is an active group of Chi Alumni who are still very much interested in the Chapter and are always ready to offer us a helping hand.

With deep regret we announce the resignation of our Adviser, Gordon Bridge. Gordie has served Chi very faithfully for many years and we hope that he will never be far from us. We wish Gordie and Mrs. Bridge good health and much happiness in the years to come.—DAVID MORGAN.

Psi Anticipates Zone Meeting

THOMAS H. NAYLOR, Alpha
Lehigh University

PSI is faced with the problem of overcoming the strict rushing rules set up by the University. Frosh contacting is allowed from Oct. 15 to Dec. 19 from the hours of 3:30 P.M. to 7:00 P.M. only. This is not only an inconvenient time for members, but an inconvenient time for the freshmen also, for it interferes with the athletic and club activities generally held in the afternoon. This does not afford the fraternity man a chance to meet the freshman on his own grounds, the frosh dorms. However, we are more fortunate than most chapters, because we have a large number in varsity sports and other activities where they can get to meet the freshmen. Formal Rush Week begins on March 15. The rush period has been cut down from two to one week, much to the distress of the 30 fraternities here at Lehigh. This may prompt some chapters to resort to unfair rushing tactics, which will be unfortunate for all concerned. The hope here is that next year IFC and the University will be able to work out a more favorable rushing schedule.

Our pledges, numbering 19, are represented in many campus activities and are well off scholastically. Their presence assures Chi Phi of continuing its high chapter participation in intramural athletics should improve our status this year.

In varsity sports, Chi Phi was again prominent. We boast the co-captains of the swimming team, the captain of the track and cross-country teams, and the holders of several Lehigh records in both of these sports. Chi Phis are also represented in varsity soccer, football, wrestling, la crosse, and baseball.

This year we will miss the services of our graduating class of 1958: Tom Lutz, Court Clarke, Dick Mogel, John Schmidt, Rod Randall, Dick Devine, Bob Orben, and Wes Hackman. Wes, by the way, was the recipient of the Sparks Memorial Award.

Our first big weekend took place on Sept. 27-28, when our football team upset a highly favored Delaware eleven 8-7. This was our first chance to see the highly controversial two-point-after-touch-down rule in action and we were very favorably impressed with it. After the game a party was held at the house at which a number of Alumni were present.

Another big meeting takes place this Spring when Psi will be the site of the Eastern Regional Meeting. Here's hoping that we'll see all of you there!—DOUGLAS MERRILL.

Omega Opens New Addition

BOB PRUITT, Alpha
Georgia Institute of Technology

CONCLUDING a very fine rush season, Omega pledged 21 boys. Ned Neely and Bard Rudder deserve much credit for the fine job they performed. We would also like to thank our Mothers' Club for their assistance.

The new brick extension to the house was completed in time for fall rush. The addition to the house amounted to a large, well-lit white ceramic tile kitchen with stainless steel facilities for meal preparation. The old kitchen thus became part of the present dining room, almost doubling the area of the present dining room. A new asphalt tile floor was laid in the dining and kitchen areas and, to finish off the changes, the first floor was repainted. Upstairs two new bathrooms and three new bedrooms were added. The baths are of ceramic wall tile and rubber tile, while the halls are panelled. The bedrooms are large with built-in desk and closet space. Also additional storage space was obtained throughout the entire house. The new rooms were furnished by the Mothers' Club. There are six new beds, four new tables as well as other much-needed smaller accessories. Additional credit should be given to John Cherry, architect; Henry Jackson, contractor; Omega Trust Assn.; Freeman Strickland, Sr.; Gene Scott; and all Alumni who made contributions in any other way. For without the splendid co-operation of everyone, this addition could not have been possible.

Congratulations are in order for Paul Roberts who was tapped by OAK here at Tech. Paul is also president of the Senior Class, Blue Print business manager, TBII, IIΔE, Scabbard and Blade, Physics Club, Student Council, and Student Trial Board.

New officers for the fall quarter are Bob Pruitt, Alpha; Richard Harper, Beta; Barry Brim, Gamma; Temp Davis, Delta; Blake Traylor, Epsilon; Jodie Lee, Zeta. Other officers are Bob Milliken, pledgemaster; Leith Bissell, assistant pledgemaster; Bill Harden, house manager; and Bard Rudder, assistant Delta.

Parents' Day last May was a big success. Pete Hodges was awarded the Best Pledge Trophy which is given to the boy who is the outstanding pledge during the year. Our graduating Alpha, Glenn Conway, was presented a watch on behalf of the Chapter for the fine job he did while Alpha.

Alpha-Alpha Finds Congress Inspiring

BOB MAULDIN, Alpha
University of North Carolina

NEEDLESS to say, with National Congress held here September, 1958, was a very exciting and interesting one for Alpha-Alpha. It was really a privilege and a wonderful experience for 25 of our Brothers to be able to meet the delegates and Alumni who attended from all over the country. The reports from each of the Chapters have reiterated the fact that the Congress was a complete success in every respect.

We finished Congress to find rush not far off. However, before it began, we were able to paint the entire outside of the house and to completely redecorate the living room, not to mention the great number of minor repairs to be made at the beginning of the year. We all worked for two weeks and, with the help of the always appreciated letters of recommendation, we were rewarded by a fine pledge class: Tom Allred, High Point; Joe Bell, Tuxedo; Bob Birkenstock, Larchmont, N. Y.; Jim Brown, Scarsdale, N. Y.; Bob Briggs, Dick Young, Bethesda, Md.; Cutter Davis, Charlotte; Bill Evans, Miami, Fla.; Dick Kenan, Ashboro; Bill Hopkins, New York, N. Y.; Warren Jackson, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Sam Mewshaw, Washington, D. C.; Chuck Monroe, Chevy Chase, Md.;

Omega members tore out the old kitchen at the Georgia Tech house. Then they raised the walls of the new addition. Their chapter report gives you details standing at Lehigh for many years to come.

Psi is eternally grateful to its Alumni Assn. for the $7,000 redecoration job done to the second floor of the house. This, coupled with nine days of labor by the pledge class before classes started, put the house in its best shape in years.

Last year Psi finished 13th athletically and 14th academically out of 30 fraternities. New rules for studying and greater George Ricks, Gus Morris, Asheville; John Richards, Cranford, N. J.; Craig Ross, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; Don Samms, Concord; John Scotton, Wilmington; Bobby Turlington, Jacksonville; Bud Warlick, Lincolnton; Bill Slover, Plainfield; Chips Weaver, Chapel Hill; Pete Wildey, Westfield, N. J.; Bill Hockman, Maplewood, N. J.; Mike Allbright, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, N. Y. Our rush chairman, Ralph Potter, is to be congratulated and thanked for a splendid job. Ralph is now serving as pledge-master. Also helping greatly were Alumni Bob Senior, newly elected Chapter Adviser; Collie Collison, who returned to stay with us for a few weeks and who is now on his way to the Far East as an officer in the U.S. Marine Corps; Louie Patseavouris, and Bill Warwick. Ex-Alpha of this Chapter and ΦBK, Jack Stevens has returned to work on his law degree.

During the early fall, we initiated five men, bringing our membership to 35: Foy Shaw, Buddy Coggins, Benny Sharpe, John Riley, and Parks Helms.

Last year scholastically we climbed 14 positions into the number 9 slot in the campus ratings. This semester, we fully expect to move into the top five. Athletically, led by Intramural Manager Parks Helms, we also expect a fine showing. A 14-6 victory in our first football game put us in a winning mood. Social Co-Chairmen Tim Stevens and Foy Shaw promise to plan many of the same type of parties that have won us fame.

Jim Rattay is captain of the soccer team. Hennie Supplee is pitching varsity baseball and Glenn Greene is beginning his second year as a varsity swimmer. Al Goldsmith was treasurer of the Orientation Committee and is now chairman of the Carolina Symposium. Jim Purks is writing for the Daily Tar Heel. Davis Young, J. R. Brown, and Warren Jackson are members of the Student Legislature. R. V. Fulk is the pianist for the Glee Club and editor of the fraternity section of the yearbook.

We will strive to retain our title as the friendliest fraternity at Carolina and help the growth and improvement of the University and Chi Phi in every way. We hope that all Chi Phi Chapters have and share our enthusiasm and optimism. —BILL WARDLAW.

Alpha-Tau Plans Father's Day

TED KOTILA, Alpha
University of Michigan

HOMEcoming is receiving its usual emphasis and the display promises to gain tremendous recognition on campus. This early-year activity will give new actives and super-pledges their first taste of moving as a unit in the Chapter on a big project. The new men are Ray Howard, Highland Park; Carroll

Gerbel, St. Joseph; Steve Findley, Benton Harbor; Tom Nell and Bruce Prabel, Detroit; Don Conner, Midland; and Pete Burrows, a Dowagiac product. Jim Barden hails from St. Davids, Pa. and John Decker of Dearborn completes the new complement.

A recent chapter meeting saw members getting down to business with special emphasis being given to scholarship and continued progress toward campus prominence in extracurricular activities. Father's Weekend, instituted by Alpha-Tau on this campus in 1934, is being planned with special emphasis on entertainment for the fathers to follow the Michigan vs. Illinois football battle.

Social chores are being ably handled by John Kemp, who has planned jazz parties, theme affairs, exchange dinners, and co-parties with other fraternities. Athletic Chairman Terry Zeigler has a wealth of talent in most events.

We await visits from Judge Rosser and Carl Gladfelter knowing that they will find things shipshape for Chi Phi on the Michigan campus. Let this also include an open invitation to Chi Phi in the Big Ten schools to see their teams walloped at Michigan this year.

Alpha Ted Kotila, Beta Tony Efre-moff, Gamma Dean Savell, Delta John Flintosh, Epsilon Sam Hall and myself compose a Council with an easy job—to ride the crest of a wave composed of enthusiastic members which will make 1958-59 one of the most dynamic and fruitful in Alpha-Tau history.—HUBE SMITH.

Alpha-Chi Shares Congress Ideas

KEN TERRY, Alpha
Ohio Wesleyan University

ALPHA-CHI has 18 men of outstanding quality wearing the Chakett. Bob McNew, rush chairman, kept the pace by pledging these fine men, whose names will be found elsewhere in this issue. Much of the success of this year's rush week can be attributed to the outstanding rush party given by "Bud" Brown, at Lakeside, Ohio. The Chapter is greatly indebted to "Bud" for the generous amount of time and effort he put into this party.

When the Brothers returned this fall, the general conditions of the house were much improved. Dan Freitas, house committee chairman, is grateful to Chuck Ellibee for his contribution of paint to improve the interior of the house.

Scholarship is our foremost objective this year. We began to formulate a new scholarship program at the onset of last year which has been very effective. This year the Brothers were pleased in their attainment of ninth position among the 15 fraternities. Thanks to the very able leadership of Charlie Brown, scholarship chairman, we moved up from 15th to 9th.

At the close of last semester another trophy was added to our present collection. The Alpha-Chi song group, under the leadership of Brother Brown, placed third in the Interfraternity Song Fest. At present we are actively preparing for a conquest of the first place trophy by having serenades at the Women's Dorms.

Al Alexander and Ken Terry, Alpha-Chi's delegates to the Congress, returned with many valuable suggestions and criticisms. Their experiences have already been shared with the Brothers through many changes in our policies. We feel these men have gained much for the Chapter and for themselves through such an experience.—ROBERT McNEW.

Alpha Delta Has Scholarship Goal

ROBERT L. CATON, Alpha
Pennsylvania State College

THE first good news at Alpha Delta was the scholarship advancement of 22 places last semester. Brother Huston received the Alpha Delta Scholastic Achievement Award with a 1.9 grade point improvement last semester. Since our new pledge class was fifth on campus scholastically, we are expecting even more of an increase in the near future.

We are making our bid for titles in the intramural program. At Penn State there is a high competitive spirit among the 55 fraternities with every sport conceivable—football, tennis, bowling, handball, badminton, track, wrestling, golf, and swimming. Under the capable leadership of Brother Bollinger, the house intramural coach and also a varsity wrestler, our football team has already won the first two games in our league with Captain McDougall calling the plays. Brothers Houck and Borchert are representing us in tennis. Our golf team is practicing, showing signs of great improvement. The wrestling team is starting to workout for next semester's competition in a well defined attempt to win back the trophies previously won in two successive years. We are well represented in varsity sports with Brother Knipe playing soccer, Dave Stolp out for lacrosse, John Morton running cross-country with the track team which expects to beat the 4-minute mile and

His desire to return to private life after more than five years in this non-career post makes sense. However, we may sympathize with his point of view, we hate to see him go. He has done a fine job since his appointment by Presi-songs. All of the credit goes to the Beta, Brother Hostetter, who works constantly for something new and socially enjoyable.

The Chapter is looking forward to Homecoming and the return of the Alumni. After a week of work before the beginning of school by the new pledges and the brotherhood, the house and grounds are in fine condition. Penn State, too, is changing with two huge classroom buildings under construction, more dormitories and buildings on the drawing boards, and the possible shift of the football field to a new location to make way for more classroom buildings.

With the new deferred rushing code, Alpha Delta is initiating a new rushing plan incorporating the ideas suggested in THE CHAKETT and by other Chapters under a similar rushing plan. Last semester's experience was the reason for this new code since only 34% of the eligible freshmen made their required average. We did, however, pledge 14 men. In order to maintain their position as the most important student organization, fraternities with only 2,500 members are endeavoring to raise their standards in every way and Alpha Delta is striving in every way to stay on top.—PETE LUCKIE.

Gamma Delta Gets Congress Hostship

HARRY J. BORAK, Alpha
University of Minnesota

TWENTY eager Chi Phis greased up their elbows, pitched in, and shaped up our home for the next nine months as summer ended. Nine new pledges filled up the eight vacant racks left by the six seniors and two men who ventured into matrimony. The interior of the house was given a good paint job. After the dust and the paint brushes had been cleared away, the house was ready to bear the knowledge-seeking men.

Great news was brought back by our three Gamma Delta men who attended Congress at Alpha-Alpha. Congress will be held at Gamma Delta in the fall of 1959. Plans are already being made in conjunction with the Alumni for this coming event. Headquarters will be at the Radisson Hotel.

Football filled the air again around the house as the men are gunning for another championship. Last year Gamma Delta won the class B championship and just missed the all-university Class B championship in the final game, losing by a score of 7 to 0.

There will be five pledges initiated during fall quarter, leaving 10 pledges to become active in winter quarter.—EUGENE KOZUR

Omega members tore out the old kitchen in the Georgia Tech house. Then they raised the walls of the new addition. Their chapter report gives you details standing at Lehigh for many years come.

Epsilon Delta Opens Annex

GARY R. HENRIKSON, Alpha
Oregon State College

THE men of Epsilon Delta returned to find several new developments since last spring. One that was rather disappointing was the fact that five men, four of them pledges, were unable to return, due mainly to financial difficulties. We were cheered, however, by the fact that the Oregon State Chi Phi Assn. is making rapid strides toward gaining financial backing for the construction of a new chapter house. The prospect of our moving into a new physical plant in the near future looks bright, indeed.

Fall rush went fairly well as we pledged seven men to bring the total to nine pledges. Pledges Parcher and Stennick, holdover pledges, will be initiated shortly.

Roy Schreiber '58, gained a wife, Lou Ann Wachsmuth, with his sheepskin in June.

Gradewise, we earned a 2.64, spring term, which placed us 7th on campus. For the year we ranked 11th among 31 fraternities with a 2.51 accumulative, and topped the all-men's average of 2.48. The general feeling is to improve that rating this year. John Rauch is to be commended upon receiving the Sparks Memorial Award for the fourth consecutive year.

In expanding in preparation for the new house, we have acquired an annex. Presently six men are living in it, and with many pledge prospects, we'll utilize all the room we can get this year.

We have polished up our model-T, sharpened our pencils, and have our intramural teams in rigid training, and feel certain the year 1958-'59 will be a banner one at Epsilon Delta.—BOB MOODY.

Zeta Delta Has Rush Pamphlet

MILLER P. DAYTON, Alpha
University of Connecticut

DURING the summer, Rex Klopfenstein and Al Palmer built two new speakers for our Hi-Fi set, and the set itself was extensively repaired. With the recent purchase of some new records we are confident that the set will contribute largely to our enjoyment at meal times and at weekend parties.

It was during the summer also that Rex, Tom Yobbagy, and Dave Googins composed and had printed several hundred copies of a rush pamphlet for our Chapter. The pamphlet welcomes the rushees, and explains about our pledge training period, our activities on campus, and our social life at the University of Connecticut.

Wedding bells chimed for five of the Brothers this past summer. Don Scott married Annis Pepion; Bob Googins and Sonny Forbes walked down the aisle in the latter part of June, and Brad Leach, Uconn's pitching ace, was married to Jean Roberts. Toward the end of the summer, Dan Raymond and Pat Dobbins became man and wife and Rick Roberts and Lois Ineson were married early in September.

Starting the new school year as officers under the leadership of Miller (Skip) Dayton, our Alpha, we have Larry Doyle as Beta, Walt Benton as Gamma, Al Palmer handling the funds as Delta, assisted by Tom Yobbagy. Greg Basmajian is our Epsilon and Rex fills the Zeta's position. Tim Nourse is house manager, Larry Gallagher again is our steward with Alexander (Sandy) Catto elected as corresponding secretary. Al Kaminsky is assisting Larry Gallagher as assistant steward. Dave Reed is pledge master for the 6-man pledge class that was carried over during the summer. Jim Wheeland, rush chairman, is looking forward to a very successful rush season. Greg Touchay will be our new activities chairman. Pete Reckert will head the athletic committee. Dave Gorke is in charge of special events and is currently preparing for the display to be built for our Homecoming Weekend.

The Brothers of Omicron played host to our members at a party at the Yale House after the Yale-Uconn football game. Gerry D'Avolio, quarterback, and John Zinzer, tackle, did a good job in contributing to Uconn's near victory over the Bulldogs.

The Brothers of Zeta Delta are looking forward to a visit from our National Director, Brother Rosser, in October.—

REX KLOPFENSTEIN.

Eta Delta Dig Passes 15th Year

JOHN R. GRAY, JR., Alpha
University of Southern California

We have initiated nine new members: Bruce Anderson, Marshall Dowd, James Krause, Robert Kastigar, Ronald Lane, Douglas Norwood, Eugene Stubbe, Paul Smedley, and Richard Pickering.

During the summer several Brothers went on cruises for the Navy ROTC to Japan and Hawaii. Bob Lawson won a 4th in the high hurdles in the NCAA. He also won a 4th in the AAU, a 5th in the AAU decathlon, and a 2nd in the AAU Penthalon.

Last spring we had our formal at the Arrowhead Springs Hotel. Social Chairman Bill Hare plans a social program which includes dinner dates, exchanges, and TGIF's. This semester we had our 15th annual Watermelon Dig, which is an all-university event sponsored by the Eta Deltans after the North Carolina game. We served 5,000 pounds of watermelon. In conjunction with this we had our Queen contest. The Queen is Carol Hoiby and princesses are Carol Tanklage and Sherrie Wright. We must thank Chuck Phillips and Ron Lane for their great work for this event.—RON ANDERSON.

Theta Delta Initiates 11

DONALD E. PEARSON, Alpha
University of Florida

THETA DELTA has just completed a very successful rush. On Oct. 12, 11 new Chi Phis came through initiation. Chapter strength including Brothers and pledges is 75.

At present we are working to complete our Homecoming decorations and float for the Homecoming Parade. When finished, the house decorations should cover the complete front of the house and parking lot. We have been told jokingly that, after Homecoming, we should leave the decorations up. If everything goes as planned, the Alumni should have a very enjoyable weekend. Highlights of the weekend should be the Florida-Vanderbilt game Saturday afternoon followed by a big party at the house. The Alumni will be having their annual meeting Saturday morning.

Theta Delta has been particularly active of late in student government, student publications, and student religious affairs. This, along with winning ways in intramurals and a name for knowing how to give parties, has spread our name across the campus.—DON MAIN.

Mr. Dorsey Resigns

JAMES W. DORSEY, Gamma '34, Alpha Alpha '36, U. S. Attorney for the Northern District of Georgia, has announced he will resign to reënter private practice.

His desire to return to private life after more than five years in this non-career post makes sense. However, we may sympathize with his point of view, we hate to see him go. He has done a fine job since his appointment by President Eisenhower, devoting himself to the cause of justice rather than political gain.

Mr. Dorsey comes from a family with a fine record of public service to the people of Georgia. He has added more credit to his name, the post he held, and the President who appointed him to that post.—Atlanta Journal.

Epsilon Renovates Second Floor Rooms

HUBERT R. STALLARD, Alpha
 Hampden-Sydney College

ACCORDING to the usual practice the graduating Brothers, along with the rest of the Fraternity, elected the officers for this year: Hubert Stallard, Alpha; Skip Warren, Beta; George McVey, Gamma; Mert Fowlkes, Delta; Don Swift, Epsilon, and Norton Howe, Zeta. Eight graduated in June. Beau Price graduated cum laude, and Ben Dawson, former Alpha, graduated with both the B.S. and B.A. degrees. Brother Dawson was tapped by OAK and Brother Cooke was named to Who's Who.

Just prior to Homecoming, the Brothers completed the painting of the second floor rooms of the house. Returning Alumni were quite surprised and pleased to see the marked improvements. We are now in the process of obtaining much-needed furniture.

Homecoming was a grand success witnessed by the return of many old Grads and our feeding of approximately 500 people at our annual buffet supper. That evening a combo party was held.

George McVey is secretary-treasurer of the Student Body. Hubert Stallard is president of the Interfraternity Council. Jim Grant is secretary-treasurer of the Glee Club and Mert Fowlkes is assistant business manager of the German Club. In the journalistic field Jim Haley is editor-in-chief of the Hampden-Sydney Magazine. Brothers Carper, McVey, and Howe are members of the football team. Epsilon Chapter is now third in scholastic standing on the campus.—NORTON HOWE.

$5 and News

"I have recently been released from active duty with the Air Force and am now trainee with Surgical Selling Co."—Ernest Poyo, I'54.

"Joined Walt Waple, AA'53, in the sales training program of Youngstown Sheet & Tube a year ago. Subsequently, Walt has been sent to our New York office and I am still awaiting assignment."—James A. Martin, III, AA'53.

"Was present at the chapter mortgage-burning get-together. Interesting since I was one of the first pledges when the Chapter was reactivated after World War II."—Richard W. Schmidt, EA'49.

"Sorry for the delay in sending my Dues. I just returned last month from 13 months abroad (tour at Eniwetok Atoll in the Marshall Islands). It was a very interesting tour and I enjoyed it very much. I am now back at Ft. Bragg and am working in the G-4 Sec. of Post Hq."—M/Sgt. Elbert E. Kibele, I'30.

"This, my first Dues payment, was prompted by admiration for your attempt to improve the low academic standings of Chi Phi. Keep it up."—William C. Hart, F'44.

"Been out of the Army since February, 1958, doing graduate work at Wisconsin. Kappa is a fine Chapter. I am enjoying their association. Working this summer at Douglas Aircraft, Missiles Div. in Santa Monica, Cal."—Donald R. Wells, A'55.

"Now completing assignment in Washington, pending assignment for further duty abroad. Am now serving as executive director, Board of Examiners for the Foreign Service, which prepares and gives written and oral examinations to candidates for appointment to the Foreign Service."—Thomas S. Campen, A-A'26.

Alumni News

Dr. James G. Lester, I '18, chairman of the Department of Geology, at Emory University, has been elevated to the rank of Life Member of the Georgia Mineral Society. This honor is reserved to those persons who have made a contribution to the study of minerals and rocks, and have been of service to the Society.

James T. Davidson, Jr., BA '58, a second lieutenant in the USAR, is taking the officer's basic course under the Reserve Forces Act, at Ft. Sill, Okla. He expects to be back in Seattle in the spring.
