

The Chi Phi CHAKETT

Let's talk it over

A NEW EDITOR, a new policy? Not necessarily! We are of the opinion that this column has long been a favorite of CHAKETT readers, one of the prime reasons being that it not only reflected the thinking of the National Director, but it kept the Alumni and undergraduates reasonably current on Chi Phi matters. We shall continue to follow this policy in preparing future columns.

The December, 1959, issue of Fraternity Month paid our National Director Emeritus, a fine tribute in telling the story of Luther Z. Rosser's many contributions and devotion to Chi Phi and the fraternity system. It is reproduced in full in this issue.

During my Christmas recess from academic pursuits, I spent a week observing and orienting myself to the operation of the Chi Phi Headquarters, and my new duties and responsibilities. The office is efficient, in extremely capable hands under Mrs. Louise Nicholson, and completely equipped to handle the detail of fraternity operation in a most expeditious and economical manner. The foresightedness exercised by Judge Rosser in setting up and directing the affairs of the office so capably over the years of his stewardship, will be reflected in many ways in the future activities of the Director's office.

About the time this issue is being distributed, I will be on the first leg of a trip which will eventually bring me to each Chapter during the Spring semester. During each visit I will confer with the college authorities, the Chapter Advisers, and Council Representatives. While making the chapter visitation trip, I hope to see and visit with as many alumni groups as time and circumstances permit. During February I will visit Chapters and Alumni in Minneapolis, Minn., Corvallis, Ore. (to attend the dedication of the new Epsilon Delta Chapter house on Feb. 7), Oakland, Santa Barbara, and Los Angeles, Cal.; Champaign, Ill.; Bloomington, Ind.; Madison, Wis., and Evanston, Ill. During March I will visit the New England, Middle Atlantic, and Southern Chapters, and I would like to hear from any alumni groups in these areas that are planning meetings during this period.

Leadership and training schools for chapter officers have been operated by a number of fraternities with very gratifying results. The Council has observed the nature of these programs and attempted to determine their effectiveness. It is rather apparent that among those fraternities conducting such programs, much good has been accomplished.

It has been suggested that Congress meet bi-annually in the future, and a school for chapter officers be conducted in the off-Congress years. This will be a subject of discussion while visiting each Chapter. Undoubtedly the matter will be considered by the 1960 Congress. The Council would welcome any alumni-thinking on this subject. It is interesting to note that in the last several years the Congress has had, as a part of the agenda, school sessions on the ritual work, alumni relations, and chapter management. The delegates have been rather enthusiastic in their endorsement of these sessions.

Judge Rosser visited our newest chapter (Iota Delta) at the University of Indiana and reports excellent progress. The Chi Phi Club of Indiana is currently engaged in raising funds to acquire land and subsequently to build a chapter house for the group.

The Chi Phi Educational Trust loaned this group $10,000 to furnish their present quarters. The agreement called for repayment of the loan by the undergraduate chapter over a 3-year period. Considering that the Chapter was installed some 15 months ago, and has had to face new and differing problems almost each day of its existence, it is to be complimented for its success along all lines including meeting its financial obligations as agreed.

For several years the Council has felt that our Alpha Chapter (University of Virginia) was not living up to the standards set by the University administration and the Fraternity. A recent visit to the Chapter indicates that it is enjoying a new prosperity. It reports 18 members as against 10 this time last year. A number of improvements have been made to the physical plant, and a fiscal policy, that should see a reduction in old debts, has been instituted. The Chapter has a renewed vitality under officers with a sincere desire to improve the situation and restore Chi Phi to its place at the top of the list at University of Virginia. Campbell Clarke, Alpha '50, the Chapter Adviser, has worked closely with the Chapter for the last two years, and has been a real inspiration to the Brothers. We hope that more Alpha men will take a renewed interest in the Chapter.

Your letters and suggestions will be most welcome. If the CHAKETT is to contain news of interest, our readers must help supply it. Please send us items regarding your own activities and those of other Chi Phis. We will endeavor to use them whenever possible.

Fraternally yours,

National Director

A Few Words

Although February 1, 1960, marks the retirement of Judge L. Z. Rosser as National Director, it also marks the beginning of his new status as National Director Emeritus. It was my privilege to work with the Judge, as a member of the Council, for eleven years, and never have I known a person with so big a heart for his fellow man, nor one with so much love for a brotherhood. Frankly, I do not think that all of us know or realize just how much he has done to promote better relationships between the colleges and our active chapters, and between alumni and active chapters. His contacts and friendships will always be of great value to the Fraternity. During his many years of service in the Fraternity great things were accomplished - so many, that space does not permit them to be enumerated.

I feel that the Fraternity is fortunate in securing the services of Brother Carl J. Gladfelter, Alpha-Tau '33, as our new National Director. Having been actively associated with the National Interfraternity Conference for the past several years, he is well known to both the faculty and officials of many colleges, as well as to our own alumni and active chapters. Immediately after taking office he will be traveling throughout the Midwest and Pacific Coast areas, making personal contacts with college authorities, alumni groups, and the active chapters of Chi Phi. The Council is very enthusiastic about these visitations as great plans are in the making, and it is felt that the Fraternity as a whole will profit from them.

Fraternally,

Grand Alpha.

Dallie Hall, Gamma '60, has been appointed to succeed Carl J. Gladfelter as Ritualistic Counselor

Medical Student is Ritualistic Counselor

DALLIE HALL, Gamma '60, is a very young Chi Phi to assume the responsible position of Ritualistic Counselor left vacant when Carl J. Gladfelter became National Director. But Brother Hall's interest in this important phase of fraternity life has been more concentrated than that of many older members.

Dallie was pledged at Gamma Chapter, Emory, in 1956. He was chosen the Outstanding Pledge in his class. In the spring he was elected Zeta. He was a delegate to the Congress that fall in Madison, Wis. There he served on the committee on Written and Unwritten Law. The following year he became Beta of Gamma and ritualistic chairman. At the Congress in Chapel Hill, he gave a talk on the ritualistic aspects of the Fraternity, serving also as chairman of the Southern Zone meetings. As a junior at Emory, he continued to serve as Beta and later became pledgemaster. In this position he compiled and edited the present standard national pledge quiz. As a delegate to the Congress in Minneapolis last fall, he spoke again on the ritual and served as chairman of the Zone meeting.

Born on June 22, 1938, in Calhoun, Ga., Dallie lives in Atlanta at 306 9th St., Apt. 8, with his wife, the former Faye Thomas of Dalton, Ga., whom he married on June 21, 1959. He is a freshman in the Emory Medical School. He is a member of Phi Chi Medical Fraternity.

B&W Vice President

ROBERT A. BARR, Delta '25 and Alpha of Delta in 1924-25, was elected vice president of Babcock & Wilcox Co., New York, on Nov. 19. Brother Barr will have charge of B&W's Refractories Division. He has been general manager of the Division.

Brother Barr was associated with the Refractories Division of Carborundum Co. from 1926 to 1959 and when he left was assistant general manager of that organization.

The refractory products of Babcock & Wilcox are specialty materials for high temperature resistance and insulation. The main plant of the Division is in Augusta, Ga.

Brother Barr was married to Adelaide S. Polhemus in 1929 and they have two sons, Robert A., Jr., assistant dean of admissions at Swarthmore College, and David W., currently on the last months of a 3-year enlistment in the Army. The family resides in Fair Haven, N. J.

Charles E. Adkins, Chi '32, has been named president of Briarcliff College

Heads Woman's College

CHARLES E. ADKINS, Chi '32, vice president for development and public relations at Wheaton College, Norton, Mass., since 1957, has been named president of Briarcliff College, Briarcliff Manor, N. Y. He will succeed Mrs. Clara M. Tead as president of the 2-year college for women. The change, effective July 1, 1960, was announced by Harper Woodward, chairman of the Briarcliff board of trustees.

A graduate of Dartmouth College with the Class of 1932, Brother Adkins received an M. A. in 1940 and did further graduate work in English at Syracuse University. He has served on the faculties of Syracuse, Millikin, and Colgate Universities. Earlier he was associated in business with the Syracuse Trust Co. (now Marine-Midland Bank of Central New York); the Aetna Insurance Co.; and The Syracuse Herald.

Does proximity in college influence Brothers? In the December issue, the announcement of the appointment of Robert Kenneth Carr, Chi '29, as ninth president of Oberlin College, was made. Brother Carr roomed next door to Brother Adkins at Dartmouth.

At Wheaton Brother Adkins has been responsible for all phases of development and public relations activities. Under his direction the College is cur-

LUTHER Z. ROSSER, National Director Emeritus

A Tribute to Luther Z. Rosser

A Great "Greek" . . . A Great Man

by Carl J. Gladfelter, National Director

TA '03, Omega '04, Gamma '09, Theta Delta '37, Alpha Mu '39, Zeta '54, and Iota Delta '58; all of these, when translated, reveal the continuing association of one man with his fraternity. Luther Z. Rosser, The Judge, to his many friends, is a charter member of Chi Phi's newest Chapter, Iota Delta, installed at the Indiana University in the fall of 1958. Fifty-five years earlier, he was initiated into XΦ by the University of Georgia Chapter, Eta, while a student at Georgia School of Technology. As one of the group that petitioned XΦ for a charter, he became a Charter Member of the Omega Chapter, Georgia Institute of Technology in '04. In the years between 1903 and 1959, he has been successful in two careers, as a lawyer and a judge, and as National Director of XΦ. It is in this latter capacity that his beloved "little boys," so enthusiastically initiated him as a member of the chapters at Franklin & Marshall College, University of Florida, and Indiana University.

Engineering holding no fascination as a career, he transferred to Emory University to pursue a law degree and follow the footsteps of his illustrious father, Gamma '79, one of the South's distinguished attorneys. Affiliation with the Emory Chapter followed. After law school graduation, and admission to the Georgia Bar in 1909, he entered practice with his father. In 1914, he was elected a Judge of what is now the Civil Court of Fulton County, Georgia, being the youngest man ever elected to that office. In 1922, he was elevated to Chief Judge of this court, and held this office continually until retirement from the bench in 1944. Many lawyers considered him the most useful judge in his city. Possibly his greatest contribution, during his tenure on the bench, was his skill at settling domestic, family, and similar problems out of court, and prior to litigation. In point of service, he is the oldest member of the Board of Governors of the Georgia Bar Assn. It is natural that he now serves the Georgia Bar Assn. as Student Loan Commission Chairman.

The Judge remained close to XΦ from time of initiation. He became active in the Gamma (Emory University) Trust Association, Chapter Alumni House Associates, immediately after graduation, and under his leadership, funds were raised, (1929 and 1930), and the present beautiful Gamma Chapter House was erected on the Campus at Emory.

He so impressed himself and his abilities upon the leaders of XΦ, while attending XΦ Congress in 1933, as an alumni delegate, that they elected him to its national head, Grand Alpha, in 1934. He served four years, and during his first year, personally visited 26 of 34 chapters. The Chronicles of Chi Phi tell us he was unanimously reelected to a second term in 1936.

Many XΦ firsts took place during his administration. The first actual rushing brochure was published. A permanent office for the council was established. After an absence of four years, the Biennial Catalog was again issued in 1936. Most important to the fraternity's welfare, however, was the initiation of the program of voluntary alumni dues, a program which has been widely copied by other national fraternities. Another first for his administration was the introduction of a model initiation at the XΦ Congress. By 1938, he had visited every chapter of his beloved XΦ, as well as most of the XΦ chartered alumni associations in the country.

In review, the real accomplishment of his term in office, was the rebuilding of a group torn by internal dissension in the early thirties, and weakened financially by the depression. His ability to resolve problem and conflict with a soft, but guiding hand, showed the touch of experience gained on the Bench. By the end of his second term the chapters were all in excellent shape, and alumni interest high. Unknowingly he had prepared XΦ for the war years.

Judge Rosser remained active following his term as Grand Alpha. He served as an officer and member of the Council under the next two Grand Alphas. Thus for 10 years he played a leading part in the national affairs of the fraternity.

On Jan. 11, 1946, he tendered his resignation as Grand Eta and accepted the position of National Director of XΦ, and the Editorship of The Chakett. The Chakett of 1946 carried this as part of the story on the appointment, "For more than 10 years Judge Rosser has been playing a leading part in the national affairs of the fraternity and is personally acquainted with more Chi Phis, both undergraduate and alumni, than any other living member of the Fraternity. This fact, coupled with Judge Rosser's exceptional executive and organizational ability, particularly qualify him for the task which must be done, and the Council feels that the Fraternity is most fortunate to have been able to secure his services at this critical time."

"Scoop" Wilkinson, recently retired ΦΓΔ Executive Secretary and Editor for 39 years of The Phi Gamma Delta, pays tribute from the members of the craft:

"Luther Zeigler Rosser first swam into my ken back in 1946. The setting was the lawn of the Seaview Country Club, in New Jersey, where the unique crafts known as the College Fraternity Secretaries Association and the College Fraternity Editors Association were having their summer meeting.

"Across the greensward toward C. F. (Dab) Williams, now retired Executive Secretary of ΦΚΨ, and me came a gentleman of generous but not ungainly stature, Coca-Cola in his hand and a merry twinkle in his eye. 'Good af'noon,' said he in an accent that was unmistakably deep South, 'I'm Luther Rosser and I'm the new Executive Director of XΦ.' We exchanged grips (not the esoteric ones!), and thus began a warm friendship that has abided through the intervening years.

"The evening of the day Luther and I met, some of the secretaries and editors engaged in a friendly penny-ante game. Luther was a participant and his infectious bonhomie soon won for him admission to what we liked to think was the select circle of Grecian hired hands.

"Since then Luther's path and mine have crossed frequently (and joyously, too)—on the wide veranda of the Grove Park Inn at Asheville, N. C., with its awe-inspiring mountain panorama; on the boardwalk at Miami Beach; in the Judge's (his confreres of the crafts early learned to call him 'Jedge' with a synthetic Georgian pronunciation), apartment in Atlanta, and in a half-dozen or more smoke-filled rooms of hostelrys across the nation which were the settings for the plenary sessions of the NIC.

"I well remember the campaign Luther conducted to bring the Deans of Men and the fraternity executive officers together for meetings at the conference—an effort in which the deans enthusiastically joined. For years it had been the practice of the Executive Committee and past chairmen of the NIC to have a dinner for the deans, from which the hired hands had been excluded. One night, at a secretaries' meeting, Luther proposed that 'the deans be invited to commune on a lower level than the brass upstairs,' i.e., with the hired hands. Such meetings have been valuable features of the Conference program since that time, thanks to the persuasive Dixieland advocacy of Luther Rosser.

"I have never heard any vain glorious boasting of the grandeur of XΦ fall from the Judge's lips. True, he is proud, as he should be, of the bright pattern that this ancient order has woven into the fabric of American education. But realist that he is—and which more fraternity secretaries should be—he is aware of the common problems which the Greekletter societies face and has ever shown a disposition to march shoulder-to-shoulder in the defense of the aims and ideals of the American college fraternity.

"A toast (in Coca-Cola, of course!), from his many interfraternity friends to 'Jedge' Rosser, whose contributions to XΦ and to the whole Hellenic world have been magnificent. He honors the Chakett!

Pi Moves into

by John Rotter, Zeta

THE move of Pi Chapter into its new house at 550 Lincoln Avenue, Evanston, this past Fall signaled the beginning of a new era in the development of Chi Phi's Chapter at Northwestern University.

Formerly owned by Acacia Fraternity, the new house became available as a result of Acacia's move into quarters in a newly-established quadrangle.

Pi's new home, located at the extreme north end of the NU campus, directly overlooks Lake Michigan and affords the Brothers easy access both to the beach and a large university parking lot.

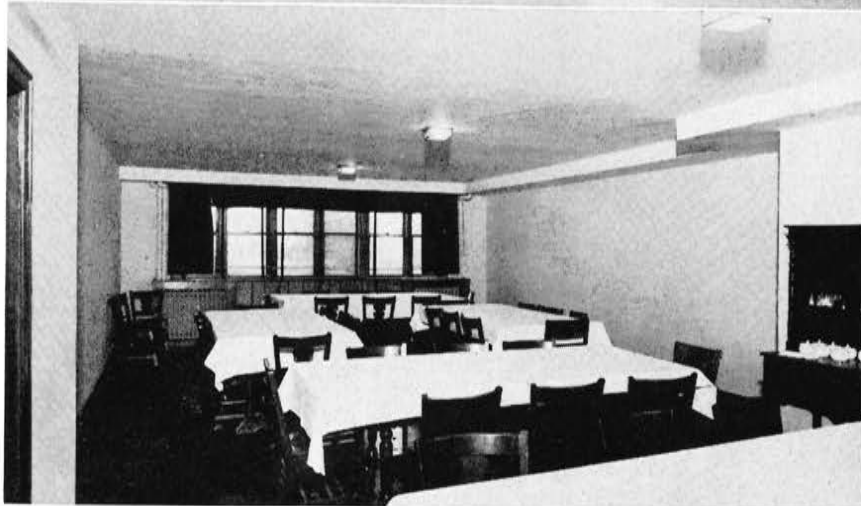

Built in two stories, the chapter house is one of a 5-house unit, all externally connected, but completely separate and independent inside.

Most of the first floor is given over to a brightly-lit entrance foyer and an inviting living room-lounge combination. The balance, plus the full second floor consists of 12 two-man study-sleeping rooms. In the basement are the dining room, capable of seating 72 persons, a modern kitchen, and living quarters for the cook.

The Brothers moved into the new house on Sept. 1 and spent the next two weeks, prior to Rush Week, giving the new home a good coat of paint, a thorough scrubbing, and other needed repairs and improvements.

The new house was officially warmed on Sept. 26 with an all-campus open house following the Northwestern-Oklahoma football game. Although a soaking rain held the crowd down to a minimum, all the Brothers felt the house had been duly "broken in" after the open house.

Rush Week this fall produced the first evidence that the new chapter home was a positive step upward in establishing Pi as one of the top men's houses on the Northwestern campus. A total of 24 men were pledged, virtually double the number previously ever

Pi members hung out the flag on return to the campus in the fall and then got to work to raise their scholarship. Brothers Miller, left, and Lambrecht are shown in a typical study-sleeping room. The living room is a comfortable lounge. New picture windows are planned to take advantage of the view of the lake. The dining room is on the ground level, adjacent to the parking lot, with a view of the lake. It will seat 72 diners pledged by the Chapter in any one Rush Week since Pi originally organized as a Chi Phi colony in 1949. Brothers attribute this success largely to the new location in the North Quads and to the enthusiasm among actives generated by the move.

The previous house, in which Pi was officially chartered in February, 1952, had several distinct limitations. Its location off-campus, nearly one mile from the men's quads, made it a liability during rushing. Capable of housing only 16 men, it was regarded as inadequate for developing a Chapter of sufficient manpower. Physically, it was not suited to assure the quiet hours needed for study or adequate space for house parties and other social functions.

Pi's new home is a step ahead in all these respects. In the midst of the North Quads, rushees no longer must walk far to and from rush dates. Sufficient living quarters are now assured. And the Brothers certainly will have no problem holding parties in the enlarged lounge-living room and more than adequate dining area.

Although the house answers the chapter's present needs, several projects are planned to improve the facilities. A chapter room must be built. Trim on the outside must be renovated and tile, carpeting, and furnishings in various rooms replaced. A long-range program of steady improvements is being developed.

In the meantime, the new quarters, the large pledge class, a highly-respectable academic record, and renewed impetus in all fraternal and campus directions assures that the Brothers will continue to build Pi Chapter and strengthen Chi Phi nationally.

Tankoos is International Investor

GLOBE-TROTTING real estate financier, S. Joseph Tankoos, Jr., Beta '43, is credited by Time magazine with establishing the revolutionary leaseback method in Canada. As a partner in Tankoos & Co., which was founded by his father in New York more than half a century ago, and as chairman of the board of Tankoos Yarmon, Ltd., Canadian national real estate investment company, Brother Tankoos travels some 250,000 miles a year inspecting properties in Canada, Venezuela, Europe, and Florida.

Brother Tankoos recently bought the Colony Hotel in Palm Beach, Fla., and formed International Hotels, Inc., to control the luxury resort.

His investments in Canada total nine figures.

Early this year, he entered the residential construction business in France together with a group of American and French investors, and is building cooperative apartment houses in Paris. In all of his overseas investments Brother Tankoos has adhered to a policy of working with local investors.

Between trips to Paris, London, and other European sites, Brother Tankoos also makes monthly visits to Venezuela where he is constructing a multi-million dollar office building in Maracaibo.

However, his main interests lie in Canada which he criss-crosses many times a year visiting properties owned by his Canadian affiliate, Tankoos Yarmon.

Real estate financing was on Brother Tankoos' mind when he studied business administration and engineering at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. After graduating from M.I.T., he worked for Sperry Gyroscope and Fairchild Aviation. During World War II, he served with the American Field Service, winning the British Empire Medal.

After returning to New York, he was briefly in advertising and public relations before joining his father's real estate firm.

Brother Tankoos also claims the disinction of being a landlord to Queen Elizabeth. This came about as a result of leasing space in five buildings he owns in Canada to the Canadian government.

ATLANTA BANKERS ARE CHI PHIS

BANKERS are the backbone of the community. That is a truism as old as the United States. Because the community is enlarged to include the region and, sometimes, the nation, the bankers are increasingly important. Chi Phis in Atlanta exert a profound influence on the Southeast through their banking positions.

Chi Phi's Grand Alpha, John E. Oliver, Eta '17, is president of the Georgia Savings Bank and Trust Co. A past Grand Alpha, Rutherford L. Ellis, Eta '25, chairman of Lipscomb-Ellis Co., and Joel Hurt, Eta '30, president of Joel Hurt Factors, Inc., are on the board of directors of the Bank of Georgia. Vice President in charge of public relations is Roy Collier, Jr., Eta '33. He went to the bank in 1950 from the Coca-Cola Co. During the war he was in the Navy as commanding officer of the U.S.S. er Frances Richardson and has three girls and two boys.

Adlai S. Grove, Jr., trust officer, was a member of Gamma Chapter, 1941. Brother Grove is a member of the Atlanta and Georgia Bar Assns., Lawyers Club of Atlanta, and secretary of the Atlanta Estate Planning Council.

Charles Miller Davis, presently in the bond department of The Trust Co. of Georgia, was a member of Omega Chapter, 1955. Brother Davis was Alpha of the Chapter, president of the Senior Class, and elected to Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges. He is an officer in the United States Naval Reserve and Council Representative to the Grand Council of the Chi Phi Fraternity from Omega Chapter. Brother Davis is a member of the Piedmont Driving Club, Nine O'Clocks, and Atlanta Junior Chamber of Commerce.

John W. Kern, sales representative covering Carolina and Tennessee areas for the bond department, was a member of Eta Chapter, 1957. Brother Kern was Alpha of the Chapter at Georgia and is married to the former Retta Shoun.

Charles W. King, presently in the investment analysis department of The Trust Co., was a member of Eta Chapter, 1953. Brother King served two years as an Officer in the United States Air Force and prior to his coming with the bank was with Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith, Inc., in New York City. He is married to the former Betsy Rotan and has one young son, "Chip." Brother King is a member of the Piedmont Driving Club.

VISITORS to the Beta Chapter have always been favorably impressed with our beautiful fraternity house, and we at Beta have always known that our house had a very glamorous past. While working and attending school this past summer in Boston, I obtained a chance to accomplish some research concerning our fraternity house which is located at the corner of Commonwealth Avenue and Hereford Street.

An imposing residence, filled with wood carvings, mosaics, and inlays, "32" was erected in 1886 and gave Boston's fashionable Back Bay district its first example of Italian Renaissance architecture. Charles S. Damrell, in his A Half Century of Boston's Buildings, published by Hager, Boston, 1895, commented:

"The private residence of Mrs. John

Tom Isaacs and "Freddie" Rea admire the portrait of the Andrew children, Cornelia and Elizabeth, in the living room. The house was purchased from Cornelia's husband, J. Dudley Clark

Beta House has Distinguished History

by Larry M. Ayres, Beta '61, Zeta

F. Andrew at the corner of Commonwealth Avenue and Hereford Street, is one of the palatial buildings of the fashionable quarter of the city. The walls spring from a foundation of blue stone, a light-colored Ohio freestone being used for the lower sections and trimmings, while the main structure is of Perth Amboy speckled brick of a light shade. The interior is elegantly and elaborately finished and sumptuously furnished."

The cost of building the house was slightly above $135,000, a fortune at the time, for the Irish immigrants who composed the construction crews for the house were paid only $5.00 per 60-hour week.

The house was erected for the John F. Andrew family. John F. Andrew, a graduate of Harvard (1872) and its law school (1875), was the son of John A. Andrew, governor of Massachusetts during the Civil War and friend of Abraham Lincoln. He married Harriet Thayer, daughter of Nathaniel Thayer of Boston, on Oct. 10, 1883. The land on which our fraternity house was built was purchased by Miss Thayer from her brother "for five thousand dollars and other valuable consideration paid" in May, 1883. The site is reclaimed land from the Charles River basin. John F. Andrew, as his father, had an interest in politics, and after serving in the Massachusetts State Legislature and Senate, was elected to Congress as a member of the House of Representative for two terms.

The task of designing the Andrew home was given to the New York firm of McKim, Mead, and White, the most famous architectural firm of that era. Mr. White was the illustrious Stanford White, who was killed by Harry Thaw at Madison Square Garden. Charles Follen McKim was the member of the firm who is credited with most of the work on the Andrew mansion. A list of this firm's works include such well-known buildings as the Boston Public Library, Pennsylvania Station (New York), Harvard Stadium and gates, Symphony Hall (Boston), J. P. Morgan Library (New York) along with the National City and Bowery Savings banks and Harvard, University, and Cosmopolitan Clubs in New York and the Algonquin Club (Boston), plus numerous private residences at Newport and on Long Island.

With the aid of Esther Leonard, a member of the staff of the Boston Public Library, evidence was uncovered that a balcony located on the third floor of the fraternity house was originally part of the Palace of Tuileries in Paris. This fact was later verified by David McKibben of the Boston Atheneum. Miss Leonard also suggested that the house library be catalogued. The library includes volumes of Civil War records and some first printings of a few 19th century novelists along with numerous history books. In addition to all the exquisite carved wood through out the house, the living room is walled with hand-tooled leather while a mural on the ceiling of the music room was reputedly painted by John Singer Sargent. This we have not veri-

"32" was purchased in 1950 for the Beta Chapter and its financial matters are handled by a devoted group of Alumni through the Beta Foundation.

The first two floors of the house are commons rooms of which the pool room is one of the most popular, and the three top floors are divided into triple, double, and single rooms which accommodate 38 members quite comfortably. We should like to extend a cordial invitation to our Alumni, especially those who have never seen "32", to visit us whenever they are in the Boston area.

William Thomas Roberts, Jr. is with the factoring department. Brother Roberts was a member of Eta Chapter, 1954. Prior to his coming with the bank, Brother Roberts served as an officer in the United States Air Force for two years.

As you have noted, these Chi Phis give more than the financial backbone to the Southeast. Their community service has extended into national notice. Rotary International, Travelers' Aid, Cancer Society, Red Cross have benefited by their contributions of time.

Have you noticed, too, that their fraternity influence has passed to their sons?

THE most important position in the Fraternity is the Council Representative for his Chapter. These men are really the "backbone" of the Fraternity's organization. They have been called "the men who make the wheels go round," and, in truth, they do that.

Frederick B. Grant, Beta '39, is a modest person, an investment advisor, who lives in Wellesley Hills, Mass., with his wife, Virginia, and their daughters, Karen and Nancy. For eight years after graduation from M.I.T., he worked with Dewey & Almy, concluding his employment in 1947 as production manager in the Montreal plant. In 1952 he registered with S.E.C. in his present capacity.

Representatives, like members, come from all sorts of backgrounds and professions. William A. Haygood, Gamma '00, is a diamond broker. He has been in the jewelry business since 1899. Brother Haygood, Atlanta-born, went to Emory at Oxford. He married Edith Converse of Valdosta in 1908. They have two sons and five grandchildren. A past trustee of the Peachtree Christian Church, of the Atlanta Child's Home, and a past Master of Palestine Lodge, No. 486, F. and A. Masons, Brother Haygood claims to be an ordinary citizen. He is a devoted Chi Phi.

John Bruce James, Jr., Epsilon '53, is a stock broker. After graduation from St. Christopher's Preparatory School, Richmond, he received his B.A. at Hampden-Sydney. In Richmond, where he is associated with Anderson & Strudwick, he belongs to the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Country Club of Virginia, Richmond Assembly, and the Richmond Cotillion. There are three small James children, Anne Marshall, John Bruce, III, and Mary Buford. Brother James belongs to St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

Donald Mylin, Zeta '14, is a member of the Lancaster, Pa., Presbyterian Church. Don retired last July after serving 15 years as treasurer of Franklin &

Marshall College. He will be spending most of his time at Jersey Shore, Pa. He has earned leisure. Born in Parkersburg, Pa., he was graduated from F & M Academy in 1910 and from the College in 1914. He taught school for two years after graduation. He has a Ph.B. degree in mathematics. He was with the Armstrong Cork Co. in cost and control work until 1932 when he went to work in the department of justice in Harrisburg while Brother William A. Schnader, past Grand Alpha, was attorney general. He was elected director of public safety in Lancaster for three 4-year terms, leaving during the third term to become College treasurer. Brother Mylin was treasurer of the Red Cross for 10 years and president for two. He has been on the advisory board of the Salvation Army for 25 years. An ardent Mason in Lancaster, he belongs to the Consistory and the Zumbo Temple of the Shrine in Harrisburg.

A butter-and-eggs man, Frederick M. Tibbitts of Albany, N. Y., serves his Chapter, Theta. He was graduated from Rensselaer in 1929 and went into the food business as a salesman. In 1932 he and his brother formed Tri-scholarship honorary. He was employed by the Linde Co., a division of Union Carbide Corp., for about 36 years. He has been retained as a consultant since his retirement in 1958. His office address remains 230 North Michigan Ave., Chicago. When he is in Chicago, he lives at the Lake Shore Club. During the summer months a summer place near Solon Springs, Wis., is home and there's Florida in the winter. There he has been with a classmate, Dr. Arthur Upgren, Kappa '21, who has a new home in Pompano Beach. Brother Strobe is at Delray Beach.

Lambda Chapter has been blessed by the continuing devotion of the Moore family. James R. Moore, vice president of the Moore Dry Dock Co. of Oakland, serves the Chapter. A member of the Class of '33, he got acquainted with the sea and places beyond California while he was still in school. He went to Korea and China in 1929 as an ordinary seaman. In 1930 he went to Europe as a member of Brick Morse's Collegians, a singing group. Three sons have kept him busy with Boy Scout work. His oldest child is a daughter, Judy. He went to work in the shipyards after graduation. The company's field is diversified. Work includes ship and barge construction, alteration, repair, and conversion; structural steel fabrication; industrial forging and heat treating; aircraft and rocket part forging; heavy machining; and allied operations. Brother Moore lives in Lafayette, near Oakland. He has been vice president of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, a director of the Community Chest, and of the Oakland Boys' Club. He was president of the Society of California Pioneers for two years. Currently he is president of the Happy Valley Improvement Assn.

A professor of economics, Willard L. Thorp, Phi '20, was acting president of Amherst in 1957. He is on the staff there now, but he started teaching at the University of Michigan where he received his M.A. in 1921, returning to Amherst as an instructor in 1921-22 and becoming a professor in 1926 after receiving his Ph.D. from Columbia in 1924. During the mid-'20s and '30s, he was with the New York State Board of Housing, the U. S. Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, the Federal Alcohol Control Administration, the National Emergency Council, reorganization, he worked with the Associated Gas and Electric Corp., 1940-46. During 1945-46, he was deputy assistant for economic affairs to the Secretary of State, becoming Assistant Secretary in 1946. He left Washington to return to teaching. In 1947-48 he was an alternate in the U.N. He is a fellow in the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, a director, National Bureau of Economic Research, Salzburg Seminar in American Studies, a trustee of Brandeis University. He won the Congregational-Christian Social Action Churchmanship Award in 1950. He is the author of many books and articles and was editor of The United States and the Far East (American Assembly series) in 1956. Brother Thorp belongs to Phi Beta Kappa and Delta Sigma Rho, forensic honorary.

Harold S. Fuller, Chi '12, was initiated into the Dartmouth Chapter in December, 1908, and began a long term of Chi Phi service at that time. He was Alpha during his senior year and was a delegate to the 1910 and 1911 Congresses. He organized the Chi Phi Club of New England and was its first secretary, later becoming president. He was the first chairman of Zone 1. He was general chairman of three Congresses held in Boston, in 1923, 1929, and 1941. He has served as a member of the Board of Governors of the Educational Trust. At the 1925 Congress he was elected Grand Alpha and is now the oldest living Grand Alpha in point of service. He was elected Alpha of Congress in Montreal in 1931. It is not surprising that his son, Harold, Jr., is a Dartmouth Chi Phi, Class of '43. Brother Fuller, having retired from business, took on another fulltime job—that of administrative head of the Monadnock Community Hospital in Petersborough, N. H. He lives at Hancock, having gone there from Winchester, Mass., to enjoy country living. Besides three married children, he has seven grandchildren.

Briarfield Assn. of Psi Chapter has had the services of L. W. Mendenhall, Psi '29, for 10 years. He served as president from 1954 to 1959. Last May he was appointed to the finance committee of the Fraternity Alumni Advisory Council of Lehigh University. Brother Mendenhall is a partner in the advertising business with Elmer P. Cook Associates in Philadelphia. He is a member of the Lehigh University Club, past master of the Germantown Assembly of the Artisans Order of Mutual Protection, president of the Past Masters Assn. of the Germantown Assembly for 1955. He is a member of the Germantown, Mt. Airy, and Chestnut Hill Improvement Assns. He is a past president of the Chi Phi Circle of Philadelphia.

When Maynard S. Cherington was a young person, his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Cherington, moved around Ohio where the lad had been born at Oxford on Sept. 1, 1895. Dr. Cherington was a Methodist minister. The boy graduated from Piqua High School in 1914 and went to Ohio Wesleyan to college. He belonged to Alpha-Chi Chapter for four years. After graduation in 1918, he attended the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine for three years, finishing at Ohio State University. Internship was done at the Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis, Ind. Back he went to Delaware to start practice in 1923. He is still at it. In 1930 he did six months' graduate work in Vienna, Austria. chief of staff of the Jane Case Hospital in Delaware. He was president of the Delaware County Medical Society. He was resident physician for a year at the TB Sanitarium which he was instrumental in establishing. He served as secretary, Seal Sale chairman, and president of the county TB association. He was president of the Kiwanis Club and has headed the Delaware County Historical Society. He worked successfully to get a museum for the Society. In 1958 when the city and county celebrated their sesquicentennial, he was on the executive committee which planned the celebration. He has served as secretary-treasurer for the Wesleyan Chi Phi Corp. for 22 years. He has attended a number of Congresses. John L. Goble, Alpha-Chi '48, is his step-son.

Howard V. Weems, Jr., Gamma '44, belongs to a Chi Phi family. Dr. Howard V. Weems, Sr., his father, his mother's brothers, Dr. Harris Quillian Jones, Dr. John William Jones, Jr., and a cousin, Dr. Harris Quillian Jones, Jr., are all Gamma members. Dr. Weems is an entomologist with the State Plant Board of Florida, Gainesville. Almost a native of Florida—he was born in Rome, Ga., he was educated in the public schools of Sebring. After graduation from Emory, he became a graduate student at the University of Florida. During his graduate study, he was associated with Theta Delta Chapter, winning the Sparks Medal. He received his M.S. in September, 1948. For the next year he taught at Ole Miss and then went to Ohio State University to work under Dr. Herbert Osborn on the Ohio Biological Survey while he earned his Ph.D. which was granted in 1953. Returning to Florida, he started the work which he is doing. Part of his work consists of building up the arthropod reference collection for the State Plant Board. He serves as curator of arthropods in the combined collections of the Florida State Museum and the Plant Board. He is a collaborator of the United States National Museum. Brother Weems belongs to Beta Beta Beta, biology recognition fraternity, Gamma Sigma Delta, agriculture, Sigma Xi, and Phi Sigma, scientific and biology honor societies. He is a member of innumerable professional scientific organizations. Belonging to the First Methodist Church of Gainesville, he serves on the board of stewards. He is a Master Mason, a director in the Boys' Club and of the Exchange Club, and a member of the Quarterback Club. He and his wife, the former Camilla Beth Bartley, have five children. The son is Howard V. Weems, III, aged 7. Howard, Jr., as well as his father, have been loyal workers in the Florida Chi

... ATLANTA CHI PHIS Party on March 11

The one big party given by the Chi Phi Atlanta Alumni Assn. is to be held on Friday, March 11, 1960, at the Brookhaven Country Club. Bill Clarke's Orchestra will furnish the music. There will be cocktails and buffet. This is a new type of party for Atlanta Chi Phis. It is in lieu of their annual dinner dance preceding the Tech-Georgia football game, held in the past. There will be no cover charges for those members who have already paid their $10.00 annual dues to the Atlanta Alumni Assn. You who have not paid and would like to come, may make your reservations by sending a $10.00 check to Tommy Tillman, secretary-treasurer, at 1023 Fulton National Bank Bldg., or call him at Murray 8-6522. Don't delay, make your plans now to come and have a grand time. We'll be looking for you.

Iowa State Men Hold Annual Meet

ON Oct. 24, 10 of the old-time Alumni of Pi Chapter at Iowa State got together for their annual Homecoming luncheon. A number of wives and children were also present. A. O. Ludwig who has been our efficient Secretary for many years, brought greetings from many who could not be present. He also gave us a financial report, showing that the money that was left after the Chapter was finally discontinued in 1938, has been kept very nearly intact. A. H. Pickford acted as master of ceremonies as he has done for many years. L. S. "Shine" Wells who has been president of the group for a long time was ill at his home in Story City and unable to be present.

The Brothers who attended the luncheon were John G. Jessup '21 and A. O. Ludwig '33, Perry; L. B. Hoopes '17, Muscatine; L. A. Perdue '37, A. H. Pickford '15, and Lloyd R. Bock '26, Des Moines; Melvin E. Seymour '36, Creston; James C. Horlacher '27, Storm Lake; Herbert A. Arthur '25, Ames; H. E. Wilkinson '17, DeWitt.—H. E. WILKINSON, Treasurer.

RHO REBUTTAL

FOR the information of Rho Alumni, Aman M. Barber, Jr., Rho '59, wrote that he had visited the Chapter following his tour of duty at 2nd lieutenant in the Army and was pleased with progress there. He reported that the scholastic average has shown the greatest improvement of any living group on campus; that 16 of 19 pledges would be initiated. He suggested that Rho Alumni make an effort to return to the campus and to visit Rho. He is back in business in the Lehigh Valley in Allentown.

Colorado Chi Phis Want Chapter

THE Chi Phi Club of Colorado had a meeting on Nov. 7, at the Columbine Country Club, Denver, Colo. Those who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. John Reynolds, who hosted the affair, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McDougal, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. MacIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Husbands, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Spittler, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gund, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Tullis, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Johnson, and the Countrymans.

During the business meeting we decided on annual dues and also heard a report from Clark Spittler on the possibilities of a Chi Phi chapter at Colorado University or Colorado State University. Additional information and facts will be obtained on these possibilities before May meeting.—DON A. COUNTRYMAN, President.

Christmas Dinner for Washington Alumni

ON Dec. 10, the Washington Chi Phis and their wives got together at the Army-Navy Club for their annual Ladies' Night and a Christmas dinner. There were approximately 30 present, despite illness at the last minute.

Luncheons, in the future, will be held on the same date as before—the second Thursday in each month, but a new location with more reasonable prices is being sought in order to attract more of our younger members. You will be notified of the new location, and it is hoped that a large group will be present each month.

According to the Press, Chi Phis did

Polio did not prevent Robert P. Christopher, Alpha-Tau '54, Pi '54, from earning his doctor of medicine degree

Handicap a Spur

THE announcement that a local student has completed medical training and started his internship is certainly interesting. Such news does serve to attest to his scholastic ability and determination, for medical school is rigorous training. But to complete such a program just a scant three years after a serious bout with poliomyelitis is extremely unusual and merits more than passing comment.

But that briefly is the story of Robert P. Christopher, Alpha-Tau '54, Pi '54, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Christopher, 32004 Lake Rd., Avon Lake. The young doctor's dad is the superintendent of the Fairview Park branch Post Office.

Dr. Christopher received his medical degree from the St. Louis University, School of Medicine, June 6, then took a vacation trip through the Colorado National Parks, with his parents. He began his internship at the University of Michigan Medical Center in Ann Arbor, July 1.

Dr. Christopher graduated from Northwestern University in 1954 and, after his freshman year had been completed at medical school, contracted polio which paralyzed him from the waist down. After spending five months at City Hospital, then launching a concentrated program of hot water therapy at Elyria Memorial Hospital, he had recovered sufficient use of his legs to continue and complete his medical training.

The handicap had no effect on Dr. Christopher's record as a student. He finished in the upper 20 per cent of his class.

This record enabled him to secure one of two openings for internship in physical medicine at Michigan University Hospital, a relatively new field for the rehabilitation of people afflicted with a variety of crippling ailments such as arthritis, polio, cerebral palsy, and paralysis.

After serving a year as an intern, he expects to take a residency in this field to gain a certificate as a specialist.—Fairview Park, Ohio, Herald.

Bob was Alpha of Pi in 1953. He was afflicted with polio just eight months after the discovery of Salk vaccine. He wears a full leg brace and uses Lofstrand crutches. He drives a car. Bob is back in the neighborhood of the Alpha-Tau chapter house.

Ambassador's Hazard

WILLIAM TOWNSEND PHEIFFER, Eta Delta '19, former United States Ambassador to the Dominican Republic, divulged some little known facts of diplomatic life the other evening, after showering folding money into a tophat held by his dinner host, Lou Marron.

The money was for socialite-broker Louise Marock's pet charity, the Silver Cross Day Nursery. The facts of plenipotentiary life came out when Mr. Pheiffer was asked why he recently refused the third offer of another Ambassadorial post.

"I refused all three offers to save my wife's life," he said. "She's a perfectionist. You can't imagine how disastrous perfectibility can be until you try to run a staff of 16 servants in an embassy where the domestic help is relatively untrained."

"For four years, Frances (Mrs. Pheiffer) arose at 5:30 every morning to supervise the breakfast trays for visiting dignitaries, many of whom, like Vice President Nixon, are early risers. We seldom went to bed before 1 or 2 a.m. because of our own embassy parties and those we had to attend for diplomatic reasons."

Our former Ambassador explained that some disastrous experiences during their first few weeks at the embassy convinced Mme. Ambassador that she had to personally supervise every detail.

"None of the help could mix a passable martini, so Frances used to mix from 15 to 20 quarts of martinis and keep them in the deep freeze at all times. She always found out the culinary preferences of our house guests and spent hours teaching the cooks how to prepare them, before our guests' arrival. My wife did the same for each and every important member of the Dominican cabinet and his wife before our parties. After four years of this sort of thing, Frances collapsed from overwork and I regretfully resigned my post."

P.S.: Our favorite memory of the Pheiffer perfectibility was of the night they entertained at a large formal party in the Embassy and a cub bear, presented to them by construction tycoon John Hagan, escaped from its quarters and was treed by the Ambassador's three dogs.

Ambassador Pheiffer climbed the tree in his white tie and tails, grappled with the cub and brought it down safely. As he turned the cub over to an attendant, the butler stepped up, removed the ambassador's evening jacket and slipped another one on with the remark, "Mme. Ambassador noticed that your trousers were intact after your encounter with the bear, but informed me that your jacket had been damaged."—CHARLES VENTURA in New York Herald Tribune.

Black's Prestige

THE career of Atlanta-born banker Eugene R. Black, Eta '17, long since brought Mr. Black material rewards and increasingly now it is bringing him the rewards of prestige and praise.

For his work as head of the World Bank, Mr. Black has been mentioned as a possible nominee for the Nobel peace prize. This, says The American Banker, newspaper to the banking trade, would properly recognize Mr. Black's rôle as economic statesman in today's troubled world.

Another tribute to his rising stature is his selection as one of the trustees of the Ford Foundation.

Mr. Black has been associated with the World Bank since 1947, when he became executive director for the United States. He was made president of the bank in 1949. In this capacity, he has made loans totaling more than $4,000,000,000 to nations the world over—and he has never had a loan to go bad.

Mr. Black was born in Atlanta in 1898, the son of a distinguished local banker and the grandson of a distinguished newspaper editor—none other than Henry W. Grady. He graduated from the University of Georgia, sampled newspapering himself, and then went into banking, rising swiftly to the vice presidency of Chase National Bank of the City of New York.

That job he took in 1937. Ten years later he moved on to the world bank—and fame.—Atlanta Journal.

Rotarians Honored

Two members of Chi Phi have been honored by Rotary International. William W. McCready, Beta Delta '31, of Forest Grove, Ore., has been elected as a district governor of Rotary International for the 1959-60 fiscal year. During the year he will visit each of the clubs in his district to offer advice and assistance on Rotary service activities and administration. Ralph D. Porch, Gamma '41, of Anniston, Ala., has been appointed a member of the community service consultative group of Rotary International.

Brother McCready is president of the W. J. McCready Lumber Co. in Forest Grove. He was born in Toledo, Iowa, attended Pacific University in Forest Grove, and was graduated from the University of Washington in Seattle with a B.A. degree in 1931. Brother McCready is a past president of the Chamber of Commerce and a former member of the Board of Education. He is a director of the National (U. S.) Retail Lumber Dealers' Assn. and a past president of the Western Retail Lumbermen's Assn. He has been a member of the Rotary Club of Forest Grove since 1934 and is a past president of that club.

Brother Porch is a partner in the law firm of Knox, Jones, Woolf & Merrill in Anniston. He was born in Sylacauga, Ala., and was graduated from Emory University in Atlanta with a B.A. degree in 1941 and from the University of Alabama in University with a LL.B. in 1946.

A member of the Rotary Club of Anniston since 1947, he is a past president of that club. He has served Rotary International as district governor and committee member and, for 1959-60, he is a member of the community service consultative group of Rotary International. He is a director of the Anniston Chamber of Commerce, a past president of the Calhoun County Heart Assn. and a committee chairman of the Northeast Alabama Symphony Orchestra. He is vice president of the Southern Tool & Machine Company and the Deweese Manufacturing Co. in Anniston. During World War II and the Korean conflict, he served as an officer in the U. S. Army, attaining the rank of lieutenant colonel, and he is now staff judge advocate of the 31st Infantry (Dixie) Division of the Alabama National Guard.

Killed in Crash

WHEN the National Airlines plane plummeted into the Gulf of Mexico on Nov. 16, 1959, it carried Joel Hurt Bickerstaff, Gamma '40, to his death. Hurt was enroute to Los Angeles and San Francisco on business. Intensely interested in the Florida citrus industry, he was president of B B & Q Enterprises, Florida Fruit Buyers, Inc., Glades Grove Service, Inc., and Palm Beach Groves, Inc. He served as a director of the Florida Canners Assn., 1958-59. He was vice president, secretary, and treasurer of Florida Food Products, Inc., packers of orange, grapefruit, limeade, lemonade, and punch concentrate, marketed under private labels for brokers and grocery chains. The company also manufactured cattle feed from the pulps.

The resolutions adopted by the Florida Canners Association at their meeting Dec. 3, 1959, are indicative of the loss felt by his business associates. "WHEREAS he contributed to the general welfare of the Citrus Industry of Florida, and WHEREAS by reason of his personal characteristics, his unselfishness, his genial personality, generosity, and other exceptional qualities which made him a true and trusted friend of the Citrus Industry of the State of Florida, . . . NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Officers, Directors, and members of the Florida Canners Association adopt this resolution as a testimonial expression of their irreparable loss and of their profound sorrow. . . ."

Canadian President

I. J. HAMMILL, Mu '34, has been elected president and chief executive officer of Walter Kidde & Co. of Canada, Ltd. He formerly served as executive vice president and managing director.

Mr. Hammill joined Walter Kidde & Co., Inc. (Belleville, N. J.) 20 years ago and moved to Kidde of Canada in 1957.

He is a member of the University Club of Montreal, the Canadian Aeronautical Institute, and the Engineering Institute of Canada. He resides at Town of Baie D'Urfee, Quebec.—Stevens Indicator.

Developer

DR. WILLIAM H. McLEAN, Mu '31, of Short Hills, president of Merck Chemical Division of Merck & Co., Inc., Rahway, will serve as co-chairman of the newly-formed development committee of Union Junior College's board of trustees.—Stevens Indicator.

Alpha-Tau Plans to Modernize

DURING the spring and summer the Alpha-Tau Chapter House Assn. had a number of meetings relative to the rehabilitation and enlargement of the living quarters of their property in Ann Arbor. The board of directors of the Chapter House Assn. finally authorized the finance and building committee to proceed with plans.

A local architect specializing in fraternity design has been commissioned and plans are now in final form for bids which will be taken in February. These plans call for enlarged living facilities to accommodate 40 men which necessitates a revised design of the suite and study room areas. The rooms will feature built-in lounges, study tables, wardrobes, chests, and lighting and will be completely refurnished.

This expensive undertaking will be accomplished during the summer of 1960 and will be completed in time for reopening of the fall session.—HENRY G. GILDNER.

Top Alumnus

ROBERT T. DAVIS, JR., Omega '47, Georgia Tech All America tackle of the late forties, has been named the Institute's "Young Alumnus of the Year" by a special faculty board of judges, it was announced by John Staton, president of the Georgia Tech National Alumni Assn.

Davis, now vice president of Swift Spinning Mills in Columbus, Ga., will receive the George W. McCarty-ANAK Award symbol of this honor at the annual meeting of the Association.

As a student at Tech, Davis was captain of the football team in 1946, all SEC tackle in 1945-46-47, and captain of the basketball team in 1946. He was also one of the outstanding student leaders in the history of Tech, being president of three of the top campus leadership organizations.

A graduate of Jordan High in Columbus, Davis joined Swift Spinning Mills in 1949 after a year of professional football. He was elected vice president in 1950 and was made a director of the company in 1958.

He is a former president of the Columbus Junior Chamber of Commerce and a former vice president of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce. He received the Distinguished Service Award as Outstanding Young Man of the Year in Columbus for 1956 and was selected as one of the five outstanding young men of the year for the State of Georgia during the same year.

He has served as a member of the Columbus Board of Public Safety and is now serving his second term as a member of the Columbus City Commission. In 1956 he was the mayor of the city.—Atlanta Constitution.

Judge Rosser

"A verry parfait knight, sans peur and sans reproche."

Judge Rosser is the only Executive Secretary and Editor who headed both College Fraternity Secretaries' Ass'n, and the College Fraternity Editors Ass'n, simultaneously!

On February 1, 1960, he will resign his position and become National Director Emeritus of XΦ. He can take pride in leaving XΦ better and stronger for his contact.

"Many men have built empires of industry or finance. Very few have had the capacity or the opportunity to build for themselves empires of affection and loyalty in the hearts of a generation of young men throughout America. This, above all else, was the peculiar genius and the supreme achievement of Luther Z. Rosser, National Director of XΦ.

"Whenever he has travelled and wherever he has been, he has been surrounded by young men who have never tired of his quick repartee or his sound advice which, from others, might have been resented; but, from him, was appreciated and followed.

"His devotion was not a new thing which began when he became National Director. On the contrary, when he was serving as the Chief Judge of the Civil Court of Fulton County long before he became National Director, he was never too busy, no matter how busy others might be, to go or to do for XΦ. This was true because the Judge loved boys and loved XΦ, and perhaps the fact that the boys sensed this, explains his peculiar ability to reach them, and to influence them, and to lead them.

"With the coming of next year the Judge will move from the position of National Director to that of National Director Emeritus, but no one can, or will, replace him in the hearts of those who have known him as 'MR. CHI PHI—the greatest of them all.'"

Hugh Dorsey, past Grand Alpha of XΦ, and an Atlanta attorney, wrote these words as a tribute to the Judge who has known him since childhood. The delight of an Atlanta visit is to see the affection of the young men who have worked with the Judge and to see the warmth of greeting their children accord their fathers' older friend.

Charles Winship, a former officer of XΦ and a respected citizen in the Judge's home town, expressed the sentiment of XΦs everywhere when he said: "Judge Rosser can certainly be called a well rounded man. He has been eminently successful in two careers, as a lawyer and judge, and as a National Fraternity official, and with it he has been a leader in his Church, a fine citizen of his city and, perhaps best of all, a strong and useful friend to his fellowmen. He is unquestionably the best known and best loved member of his fraternity, and he is probably equally well known throughout the American fraternity world. This world could use many more Luther Rossers."

Council Representatives

Phi Assn., Inc. Howard, Jr., was president from 1955 to 1958.

His successor and current president is Robert S. Cody, Theta Delta '40, Council Representative at Large. Bob was born in Somerville, Mass. He was awarded the Sparks Medal in 1939. After service overseas in the Marine Corps, he returned in 1943 and was stationed at Sun Valley, Idaho. In 1957 he married Sarah Jeannette Overstreet. They live in Kissimmee, Fla., where Bob is editor of The Florida Cattleman, a monthly tradespaper, and vice president of Cody Publications, Inc.

Busy men, men whose business world takes them away from the campus, are willing to remember the fine influence Chi Phi had on their lives as undergraduates. You have read about some of the 32 men who serve Chapters and about one of the six who are Council Representatives at Large. Many of the others whose names you will read in the roster of Council Representatives are well-known to you. Robert Lesch, Gamma Delta '50, for instance, is Grand Beta; J. Pollard Turman, Gamma '34, and Hugh M. Dorsey, Jr., Gamma '33, are past Grand Alphas. Fritz Krebs, Xi '12, is past Grand Zeta, and Charlie Winship, Gamma '26, a former Grand Delta, has devoted a great deal of time to the Educational Trust. A. H. Hutchinson, Xi '09, a past Grand Alpha, was an instigator of the Trust.

These men are, indeed, those who give stability and guidance to Chi Phi's organization.

Thomas Chosen Alumni Worker

To be his right hand in helping alumni clubs to organize and function and with other activities of the expanding alumni organization, Executive Director Arnold Eddy '24 has selected C. Moreland Thomas, Eta Delta '49, Grand Gamma of Chi Phi.

Thomas, better known as "Morey" to classmates who remember him as editor of the 1948 El Rodeo, president of the Trojan Knights, twice president of Chi Phi Fraternity and a member of Skull & Dagger and Blue Key, took office just in time to bury himself in the details of the big, new-type Homecoming while drafting a vigorous GAA membership campaign.

Actually, Thomas entered SC in 1942 but took four years out during W.W. II, to serve as an infantryman in Europe, where he received a battlefield commission.

Since graduation he has worked in the University ticket office, was an assistant field director of the American Red Cross and spent 15 months at Fort Ord as an assistant regimental plans and training officer and company commander during the Korean war.

Thomas is a native of Long Beach, where he was on the Woodrow Wilson High School football and track teams, edited the school paper, and was managing editor of the year book.

More recently, Thomas has been supervisor of research services for the Fluor Corporation and general manager of Pacific Western Sales, a manufacturer's agent.—USC Alumni Review.

COLLEGE CHAPTERS

Gamma Leads in Intramurals

JACK BUTTERWORTH, Alpha
Emory University

GAMMA elected new officers at the opening meeting of winter quarter: Jack Butterworth, Alpha; Richard Magruder, Beta; Robert Kindley, Gamma; Richard Taylor, Delta; and Bill Boring, Epsilon. They were installed on Jan. 12. The Chapter is looking forward to these men carrying on the progress of the last administration. The election of our new Sponsor was also held, but the results will not be announced until the formal on Feb. 12.

The annual Winter Formal is going to be held at the East Lake Country Club, with a breakfast to follow at Jennings' Rose Room. The following night we will go to Robinson's Tropical Gardens for an informal party. This is the big weekend of the year as far as our social activities are concerned. The dates of the Brothers and pledges move into Tom Connally Hall for the weekend, while the boys stay at the homes of the Atlanta Brothers.

Fifteen pledges made their grades for initiation this fall quarter: Sandy Petrey, Hugh Lawson, Bob Efrid, Grant Simmons, Ralph McCoy, Charlie Williams, Duke Croxton, Jim Olde, Joe Linn, Miles Crowder, Jake Cogburn, Joel Bradley, Conrad Brewer, Mervin Gould, and Jim Ehlers.

Even though the season is not yet over, Chi Phi is undefeated in interfraternity basketball and soccer. Last year our soccer team went unbeaten all season. Clint Moore and Pledge Mervin Gould are varsity lettermen in soccer.

The Chapter wishes to extend an invitation to all Gamma Alumni to drop by the house any time. We all have enjoyed meeting Brothers who have visited and hearing their tales of the "old days."—SID STRAIN.

Delta Alumni Invited on April 24

ALEXANDER RIZZER, Alpha
Rutgers University

DELTA pledged 22 freshmen on Nov. 16, following a week of intense rushing: Jack Barnhart, Pennsville; Jack Chadwick, Bob Tisch, Bill Northnagel, Union; Tony Cip-

Liberal arts majors predominate in the class, but there are engineers, agriculture students, physics majors, and biological science majors. The group is active on campus, with pledges participating in football, soccer, wrestling, track, lacrosse, baseball, swimming, tennis, Student Government, and the Daily Targum. Pledge king, Tom Hollinger, and the Brothers are pleased with the class and the results of the first weeks of pledge training.

Rutgers' new football coach, John Bate-man, will be the speaker at the annual Alumni Banquet on April 24. The dinner will be at Sallie's Steak House in Highland Park, rather than at the University Commons as in previous years. We encourage Delta's Alumni to make every effort to return to see their friends, meet the Brotherhood, and enjoy a fine evening. It would be appreciated if those Brothers who are not contacted because of inaccuracies on our mailing lists would advise us of their correct address.

New officers, elected for the spring term, are: Alex Rizzer, Alpha; Tom Hollinger, Beta; Tim Schofield, Gamma; Jim Coffee, Delta-elect; Dave Robinson, Epsilon. Brooks Cole, Dave Van Derveer, and Bob Miller will continue to hold the offices of Delta, Zeta, and social chairman, respectively.

The first night of Soph Hop Weekend featured the choice of dancing and listening to Cosy Cole and Leroy Holmes at the Rutgers Soph Hop, or hearing the Kingston trio, and then night-clubbing in New York. Saturday afternoon Deltans and their dates witnessed a 23-0 drubbing of Lehigh on the gridiron by the Scarlet. That evening the Weekend was capped by a Dogpatch party at Pinehurst with a haystack in the backyard.

With pine boughs contrasting with our walnut panelled living room, an elaborate smorgasbord, soft music, and Santa Claus, the Christmas Formal, Dec. 12, was the first contact of the pledges with a major Delta social function.—DAVID F. VAN DER-VEER.

Zeta Places First in Wrestling

PETER C. KIRCHNER, Alpha
Franklin & Marshall College

ELECTIONS for the spring semester were held on Jan. 4: Pete Kirchner, Alpha; Dick Barrett, Beta; Jack Henderson, Gamma; Fred Zehrer, Delta; Al Burnaford, Epsilon; and Bill Deal, steward.

In the sports picture the I-F football team compiled a 8-3 record and a third place in I-F competition. Zeta fared better in interfraternity wrestling, taking first place with John Skinner, George Baker, and Bill Deal clinching top honors in their respective weight classes. In varsity football John Smeltzer and Fred Zehrer and Pledges Thatcher Morse and Bob Brand saw plenty of action. Wayne Wrigley, Lynn Secrest, Bernie Rossini, Sam Nolt, Phil Spillman, Neil Potter, George Berzins, and Dick Crawford shone on the soccer field. Rossini was high scorer for the season and Sam Nolt was elected co-captain for next year. Sam is busy recuperating now from a broken femur suffered on the soccer field. Jim Alsbaugh, Dave Thomas, and Co-Captain Cleon Cassel are currently grappling for the varsity while Bob Smith and Dave Ralphs are leading the F and M swim team. Jim Monroe is donating his talents to the basketball squad.

Four rushing functions were held during first semester. Two rush parties featuring local combos were held in addition to two smokers. It was pleasing to see so many Alumni back at Dubbsheim for Homecoming. An added pleasure was the selection of Joyce Weaver, escorted by Sam Nolt, as Homecoming Queen. Wanda Emich, escorted by Cadet John Heinaman, was chosen as queen of the ROTC Military Ball a few weeks later.

The annual Christmas party at Winter Weekend for underprivileged children turned out to be just as much fun for the Brothers as it was for the little ones. Jim Kimberly, dressed in red, charmed everyone with his impersonation. Sandy Babos and Paul Grosh made good use of the recent vacation by getting married.—GEORGE W. BAKER, JR.

Eta Appreciates Alumni Discussions

PATRICK HICKEY, Alpha
University of Georgia

FALL quarter at Eta Chapter was filled with the many activities of the football season. Brothers and pledges alike followed the Georgia Bulldogs to the Southeastern Conference championship. Eta is proud to be represented on this team by Freddy Amtower, Fred Brown, and All-American guard, Pat Dye. All were standouts on this team, and they are to be congratulated.

The Mothers' Club met last quarter presided over by Mrs. John T. Phillips, president. The mothers had lunch with their sons and heard a speech presented by Donald A. Walters, president of Eta Trust Assn. We would like to thank our mothers for the silver tray and vegetable dishes which they gave us for Christmas. Mrs. John Wilkins, wife of our Chapter Adviser, gave a tea for our new housemother, Mrs. Thomas B. Scott. The guests were the dormitory housemothers and the housemothers of the sororities and other fraternities. Barbara Barnes, our Sponsor, assisted Mrs. Wilkins.

Eta Trust is sponsoring discussions on different occupations led by Alumni who have all been successful in their various fields. We have had discussions on insurance and law as possible vocations. These are not only helpful and informative, but interesting and enjoyable.

Grades seem to have improved with several people making the Dean's List.—
EDWIN H. STRAIN.

Iota Raises Grade Average

JOHN SQUIRE, Alpha
Ohio State University

THE interests of autumn quarter were mainly centered around sports. The climax of the season came when we were invited to Alpha-Tau to meet the challenge of a rotating cup—we were overwhelmingly defeated. Although we lost the majority of our games in football, basketball, and volleyball, we did gain recognition in bowling by a trophy for second place in our league.

Our social calendar featured a Halloween party which was attended by personages such as Little Lord Fauntleroy posing as Ted Schoebert, Li'l Abner impersonating Bruce Graber, and the fallen angel, Lucifer, in the person of Bill Ingram. In our present position we find that out of 40 men, we have six women affiliates. Those who are pinned are: Bruce Graber to Jean Willey; Bill Ingram to Brenda Murphy; Clifford Lynch to Linda Petty; Ted Schoebert to Dottie Lewis; and Earl Veits to Nancy Fashing. Married Brothers are Phil Koch to Marilyn Brown; Rich Macioce to Sandra Kraus; Richard Sly to Nancy Rosemaser; John Donnelly to Barbara Cox; and Joseph Howard to Frances Flynn.

Congratulations must be extended for our higher point hour. During autumn quarter it was one-fifth of a point higher than the All-Men's average on campus.—EARL VEITS.

Eta Delta Dinner To Be Held in April

Southern California Chi Phis are cordially invited to attend the annual Eta Delta Founders' Day Dinner on Monday night, April 4, 1960. Francis Tappan, Vice-president of Alumni and Student Affairs at S.C., and Brother Russ Werdin, HD '32, S.C. Trustee and President-elect of the S.C. Alumni Association, will be the principal speakers. Eta Delta actives and their fathers will also be present at the dinner to be held at the Roger Young Restaurant, 936 W. Washington Blvd., Los Angeles. Cost is $5

Nu Debaters Win Trophy

LEON WALKER, Alpha
University of Texas

Nu Alumni held a business meeting at the chapter house the weekend of the Homecoming game; afterwards the Alumni, the active members, and the pledges sang fraternity songs and "remembered when" until the wee hours of the following day. One of Nu's largest social events of this year was the house party at Rocky River Ranch at Wimberly, Texas. The party was planned and arranged by our Beta, Walter Thannisch. Rocky River Ranch was an ideal location for the party, for the ranch is a facsimile of a frontier town, complete with saloon, general store, dining hall, a bunkhouse for the Brothers, and one for their dates. An additional thrill was provided by the canoeing facilities on the nearby Blanco River.

The following week, the Brothers and pledges worked steadily on a display which was to be an entry in the "Beat A & M Sign" contest. For our efforts we were rewarded with a second place trophy. In this 2-month period, a silver-throated delegation headed by Maurice Angly won third place in intramural speaking and debating. Brother Angly, incidentally, was recently elected vice president of the University Young Democrats Club. The house was decorated with mistletoe and evergreen for the Christmas Formal. The formal was preceded by a banquet at Dick Hittson's home.—ROBERT C. ALLEN.

Xi Recommends Seminar Sessions

series of three weekly meetings with Prof. Mario Einaudi, chairman of the department of government. The topic of discussion was "Anti-Americanism." After an introductory session, in which the group discussed foreign criticism of America's immense wealth, and dominance of smaller nations through possession of the hydrogen bomb, discussion centered around two books—Jaques Barzun's Reflections on America and John Kenneth Galbraith's The Affluent Society. Evaluating the criticism of American society presented in these books, the group concluded that one of America's weaknesses in presenting itself abroad is the lack of an explicit American philosophy. Professor Galbraith's controversial proposals for America were then discussed at the final session. All who participated in the project judged the seminar to be a successful experiment, and since only a fraction of the Brothers were able to participate, owing to the necessity for keeping the group small, it is hoped that Xi will be able to hold one or two more such seminars on subjects of current interest during the spring term. The I.F.C. seminar series has become a vital part of Xi's program of increased emphasis on academics, which has the immediate objective of boosting Chi Phi's academic standing among Cornell fraternities.—DOUGLAS M. MACNEIL.

Alumni News: So far we have heard from only 12 Alumni. Say man, let's get with it and send in "What's new with you?" Of the 12 returns, the oldest Alumnus heard from is Robert W. Standart, Jr., '09, who has retired at 2024 S.E. 15th Court, Pompano Beach, Fla., and who is enjoying golf and handling magazine subscriptions for his son, a polio victim. The second oldest Alumnus represents the Class of '21 and is Frank W. Mish, Jr., who is buying milk for the Sealtest Foods Div. of National Dairies and, in his spare time, holds down the vice president's position of the Farmer's and Merchant's Bank in Hagerstown, Md. His home address in Rte. 1, Falling Waters, W. Va.

In the Class of '32, Edwin J. Fitzpatrick is enjoying the position of being a partner in Orvis Brothers and Co. in New York City and is residing at 1734 Sleepy Hollow Lane, Plainfield, N. J. Brother Fitzpatrick says he enjoyed "a wonderful evening at the John Collyer dinner held on Dec. 14." He saw many Xi men there from the Classes of '30 to '34 including Ted Tracy, Bob Liversidge, Bud Atwood, Roy Leventry, Red Baxter, Lou Durland, and Walt Heasley.

Barlow Ware, the Alumni Secretary, has heard from Hank Beuttell '38 who has an interesting job abroad involving much travel to the states with Republic Aviation (International) S.A. in Lugano, Switzerland. Edmund Pfeifer '38 writes that he is now director of purchases for the Lukens Steel Co. in Coatsville, Pa., and is residing at R.D. 1, Kennett Square, Pa. The Class of '44 seems well represented by Dave Sisson who is self employed as a grocer's surveyor in Hermosa Beach, Cal., and is the proud possessor of four girls and three boys.

That is all the room we have for this column at present but we look forward to printing more news about Alumni in the next issue.—GEORGE PITTINOS, Alumni Secretary.

Rho Helps Homeless Dekes

ROBERT LEYDEN, Alpha
Lafayette College

PERHAPS the most successful and joyous event of the season was our Christmas party for the underprivileged children of Easton. There were $150 worth of toys and other gifts for the 12 youngsters. Santa Claus (Jack Holmes) was present and distributed the gifts. Christmas music filled the air and a wonderful buffet supper was also served. Rho was very happy to have so many of its Alumni here for Lafayette's Alumni Weekend. We thank all for their generous contributions. I.F.C. had its usual merriment this year turning Vallamont into a Bavarian beer garden, complete with a polka band, checkered tablecloths, and Alpine costumes, all in a candlelight atmosphere. The weekend was a big success with Louis Armstrong providing the music for the Interfraternity Ball, the only disappointment of the weekend being our loss to Rutgers, 16-14. Congratulations to Angelo Curcio '60 for a job well done in this his final year on the varsity football team.

By a twist of fate Rho recently found an opportunity to aid a fellow fraternity—Delta Kappa Epsilon. Their house was destroyed by an early morning fire in December. We have provided sleeping quarters for several of their Brothers and have offered to expand our dining facilities to accommodate their entire membership next semester.

tournament was started at Lafayette this year. Congratulations to our team who swept the tournament without losing a game. Our outstanding team was composed of Moises Lapco, David Mayes, Edward Foote, and Harry Johnson.

We are happy to welcome to our ranks a new pledge, Fred Currie of Philadelphia, giving us a total of 19 pledges. Because of their high scholastic achievement we will initiate all but a few of these men in February. Our new pledge training program has progressed well with weekly tests and instruction, the final exam to be given this month. Rho also welcomes a new Faculty Adviser, Capt. Kenneth F. Jackson, U. S. Army, a member of the military science department, and a graduate of the University of West Virginia. We are looking for a long and pleasant association.—BILL RAFOS.

Sigma Seeks Alumni Comment

JAMES WEATHERLY, Alpha
University of Illinois

Bernie Bishup approves of Judy Elliott who won the Chi Phi Sweetheart trophy presented at Sigma's formals at Illinois

SIGMA held its annual Winter Formal on Dec. 12 at the chapter house. "Crystal Christmas" was chosen as the theme for the dance with Stan Marion and his orchestra playing for the event. A highlight of the Formal was the presentation of the Chi Phi Sweetheart trophy to Judy Elliott, ΔΔΠ. Miss Elliott of Park Ridge, Ill., is an Illinois junior in elementary education. The trophy is traditionally presented at each Sigma Formal to a coed elected by chapter members.

Mid-semester pledge grades for the fall semester indicated improving scholarship. The pledge class ranged 10th out of 56 fraternities on campus with a 3.245 grade point average on a 5-point scale. The all-fraternity pledge class average was 2.9109. Sigma placed third during spring semester last year for improvement in grade point average. On a 5-point scale, the Chapter went from a 3.044 grade point to a 3.371. We received a plaque for our accomplishment.

New officers are: James Weatherly, Alpha; William Cage, Beta; Bernie Bishup, Gamma; Phil Hinze, Delta; Al Herbster, Epsilon; and Brian Berg, Zeta.

Sigma is interested in reviving the Alumni Weekend usually held during the spring semester. We would appreciate letters from our Alumni commenting on this idea.—BRIAN BERG.

Phi Stands First in Intramurals

EDWIN A. HUSTON, Alpha
Amherst College

WITH the ending of the first semester, Phi stands first on campus in the intramural competition. This includes participation in football, ping pong, bridge, and effigy. The gratifying feature of this is that our high standing is not due as much to the talents of a few in the house, as to the interest and cooperation of a large proportion of the Brothers. Credit for this goes to our intramural chairman, Jim Wood.

Our fall house party, the first week of December, was a costume party: all dressed only in black and white. Our special guest at this gala affair was the delegate to the Zone Conference, a lone brother from M.I.T. (The Conference itself came to one predictable conclusion: there ought to be more interest in Zone Conferences.)

No member of the Chapter is pinned, a circumstance unknown within recent memory. Dan Guthrie is engaged to Judy Blume of Wellesley. Dan Darrow is the proud parent of a daughter, Kathy.

Initiated at Homecoming time were David Bond, Phillip Brockington, Jeffrey Buck, Daniel Clark, John Duryee, Charles Gordon, John Hazlett, Dudley Lyons, Dominic Manfredi, Benjamin Mason, John Morehouse, Aldon Mosshammer, Robert Ross, Michael Weber, Lewis Whitehead, and John Young. Hazlett and Buck were elected fall Epsilons. The speaker at initiation banquet was Prof. Haskell Coplin of the psychology department.

John Whitney has been elected manager of WAMF, college radio station. Charles Chotkowski, the chief engineer, is also a member of the station's executive board, and Dudley Lyons is news director. Phis are especially active in the managerial area: Dick Weisfelder was football manager; among his assistants were Steve Menschel and Ralph Aldrich, who succeeds him. Other Phis managed lacrosse and freshman basketball. Phis were also on the cross-country and squash squads. The "Apollo of Bellac" was directed by Dan Darrow. Joe Moriarty directed "A View from the Bridge."—CHARLES J. CHOTKOWSKI.

Psi's Study Hall Brings Results

JAMES K. CASSEY, Alpha
Lehigh University

In an effort to improve the scholarship of our pledge class, we initiated a study hall program this fall. Under this system, pledges with low averages were required to study in the dining room each week night from 7:30 to 11:30 p.m. Those pledges with good study habits were allowed to study where they pleased. The dining room was closed, and the surrounding rooms were kept quiet. A Brother acted as a proctor in the room to insure quiet. The plan was very favorably received both by Brothers and pledges. Several pledges credited the system with increasing their averages markedly, while several Brothers found that the dining room was the best place to study. Apparently, studying at bare tables removes many of the distractions that one finds at his desk.

Our pledges completed their formal pledge program in mid-December. On Jan. 3, Ernst Benzien, Ray Noonan, and Aarne Vesilind were initiated into the Brotherhood. Many congratulations are due to Brothers DeMartino and Heist for their excellent job as pledgemasters.

This year Psi tried a new plan to encourage Alumni to return for the traditional Lafayette Weekend. We sent the Alumni self-addressed postcards, asking them to indicate if they were planning to attend the Weekend. When most of the responses had been received, we sent out a list of names of all those Alumni who had indicated that they were coming, thus hoping to encourage more to attend. Thirty-seven Alumni, plus families, returned. The Weekend was enjoyed by all, the only dark spot being Lehigh's trimming by Lafayette.

On Dec. 13, the fall elections were held: James K. Cassedy, Jr., Alpha; Stanley J. Wilcox, Beta; Bruce Adam, Gamma; Richard A. DeMartino, Delta; John D. Hess, Epsilon.

Our annual Christmas party was held during the last week before the vacation. Members exchanged the usual appropriate gifts, and once again Chi Phi's poets were in their full glory. At this time, Aarne Vesilind was awarded the Outstanding Pledge Award.—CARL MEITZNER.

Omega Combines Christmas Parties

NED NEELY, Alpha
Georgia Institute of Technology

On Dec. 12, Omega held its annual Christmas party. From 5:00 to 7:00 the Brothers and pledges entertained a group of 20 orphans from a local orphanage. There were plenty of good things to eat and lots of punch. Santa Claus put in an appearance and distributed gifts. Later in the evening the Brothers entertained themselves at an informal house dance. We wish to express our thanks to the Mothers' Club for the refreshments and decorations which they provided.

We finished second in our league in touch football and third in our league in volleyball.

On Dec. 6, the annual Empty Stocking Fund drive was held. This is a drive to raise money to buy toys for the underprivileged children in the Atlanta area. Fraternity men from Georgia Tech and other colleges and universities in Atlanta, together with armed service personnel, canvassed the city for donations. Congratulations to Bard Rudder for his fine work in leading the Chi Phis in this drive. Congratulations are also in order for Gene McCall who won the Sparks Medal. The new chapter officers are: Ned Neely, Alpha; John Kallelis, Beta; B. Comer, Gamma; David Crawford, Delta; Schuyler Clark, Epsilon; and John Porter, Zeta.—JOHN PORTER.

Alpha-Alpha Has Good Meals

MARSHALL M. BLYTHE, Alpha
University of North Carolina

RUSH seems to have paid off in long-range dividends, as our pledge class begins to display some of the potential of which we believed them capable. The officers elected by the pledge class were: president, Tom Law; vice president, John Hammet; secretary, Manny Page; treasurer, Doug Van Rees; social chairman, George Wheelock.

After the last home football game, we joined the Chi Phis for a fine party with the Catalinas from Charlotte providing the music. A mixer with the KKTs was very successful, as was also a later orphans' party with them before the Christmas vacation. We also had a very lively party with the IIBΦs.

Our pledge weekend is Feb. 5-7, after semester exams. In addition to the usual combos and social hour, we have planned a Toga Party.

Our meals this year have been of the highest quality, due in the most part to the efforts of our new housemother, Mrs. Isabel Campbell. Her efficient handling of the kitchen is an improvement of which we are reminded three times a day.

We were saddened to have two of our Brothers graduate at the end of the fall semester. John Riley and Brother Charles Ross have been a great asset in their days here and we wish them the best of luck in the future.—WARREN JACKSON.

Alpha-Tau Misses Chapter Adviser

DAVE PIPPEL, Alpha
University of Michigan

OUR fall rush ended with the pledging of nine men: Dave Bacon, Ann Arbor; Tony Badalament, Don Thompson, Don Zimmerman, Detroit; Andy Dalzell, Cleveland Heights; Doug DeYoung, Spring Lake, Mich.; Bob Kress, Grand Rapids; Steve Lundgren, another Menominee product; Ed Vance, Ionia. The new men are under the leadership of Dick Tanke, pledge trainer.

After sitting on springs for the last year, we are finally replacing our furniture. The $1,800 to $2,000 expenditure will provide new couches and chairs for our living room.

During the Ohio State weekend Iota Brothers came for the game. Alpha-Tau extended a challenge to play a touch football game. Iota accepted, and we soundly trounced them 60-0—a bad weekend all around for Ohio State as Michigan also triumphed.

Our Fathers' Weekend came in fine style this year. Quite a number of fathers came and stayed over night.

Recently our Chapter Adviser, George Floridis, was transferred to New Jersey. His new position is manager of the employment staff of R.C.A. Congratulations, George, on your position, but we regret to see you leave. George asked us to extend his best regards to all. His new address is G. F. Floridis, Manager, Employment RCA Staff, Radio Corp. of America, Bldg. 2-2, Camden, N. J.—JAMES SAVELL.

Alpha-Chi Gives Honor Badges

BOB RICHARDSON, Alpha
Ohio Wesleyan University

DURING the past 16 weeks of college life at Ohio Wesleyan, the Alpha-Chi Chapter has pledged 14 freshmen, taken its part in campus leadership with Al Alexander as I.F.C. secretary, Bob Richardson as a justice on Men's Court, and Ivan "Ike" Ace, Roland Catalano, Jim Backhaus, and Earl Sanford being accepted into Circle K. Other "Oaks" activities have been pledging $168 to Chest Fund, working in cooperation with IΦB in bringing programs to the nearby Girls' Industrial School, and maintaining a fine social calendar.

In the social world the men entertained the Alumni at the Fall Homecoming on Oct. 31. Shortly after Homecoming came the Pledge Formal which began with a formal dinner for the pledges and their dates. The men also found opportunity to use our Heidelberg Room for date nights and the Roaring '20s Party. The theme of the Winter Formal was "Weihnachts Tanz" under the winter stars.

The Chapter has recently elected new officers and the honorary jeweled badges were presented. New officers are: Bob Richardson, Alpha; Charles Brown, Beta; James McVicker, Gamma; Ed Stoltenberg, Delta; Bob Bauer, Epsilon. The two honor Chi Phi badges which "Oaks" gives, are the Dr. Brown pin and the Dr. Williams pin which go to the man who has given most of his efforts to the Fraternity and to the man who is considered the most valuable officer. The recipient of the Dr. Brown pin was Marv Fischer. Dr. Williams' pin was given to William Zahler.

To start the year off in a grand fashion the "Oaks" is planning an impressive Winter Homecoming Weekend Feb. 13. We certainly hope that a great many of our Alumni will find an opportunity to come back to their "Chi Phi home," here in Delaware. The Homecoming celebrations are made for the Alumni and we do want as many as possible back for this "special" Homecoming. On Feb. 13 there will be the Oaks Alumni Dinner in honor of her many Alumni.—WILLIAM ZAHLER.

Alpha Delta Asks Alumni to Visit

JOHN R. BUCHART, Alpha
Pennsylvania State University

As usual, Alpha Delta's social life is running along at full steam. A Speakeasy Party was the choice of the pledges for their pledge weekend. Also included in their weekend was turn-about night where we Brothers were treated as pledges by the pledges who were permitted to act like Brothers. We have had our annual roller skating party which was one of the best parties of the year and we are looking forward to more sorority socials like this.

This new semester we are having an intensified rushing program using the names we gathered last semester to fill the vacancies expected after June graduation. Again we will be looking for the rushee with initiative and interest.

In boxing, Ken (Lightning) Houck won the 150 lb. weight class. In basketball our all-star team hasn't lost a game yet.

A group of Alpha Deltas got together in Philadelphia after the first Annual Liberty Bowl game in which Penn State beat Alabama 7-0. We helped a distinguished guest from the Tau Chapter, Charlie Castleberry, forget about the game.

The spring semester's officers are: John Buchart, Alpha; Ken Hall, social chairman; Cliff Nichols, Gamma; Charlie Edmunds, treasurer; John Morton, pledgemaster; Andy Schultz, rushing chairman; Mike Weinmayer, housemanager; and Don James, caterer.

In an effort to promote even greater Alumni participation in our chapter events, Alpha Delta wishes to use this opportunity to invite all Chi Phis to stop in at our house for a weekend or just a day and meet the Brotherhood of 1960.—ANDY SCHULTZ.

Epsilon Delta Has Adjustment Job

DOUG CARRIGER, Alpha
Oregon State College

WITH the opening of a new year and a new term, Epsilon Delta finds itself in good shape. However, due to a very large pledge class and lack of experience in operating a large house, organizational problems have arisen, but are gradually being ironed out. It is only a question of time before the house is run at peak efficiency.

Two Brothers went to the altar rail this past term. Jack Dyer married Joan Englefried, ΣK, on Dec. 26 and Ed Charman married Mary Lee Cavens, ΑΞΔ, on Dec. 27. Two other Brothers are on their way to the altar with the pinning of Bob Gantenbein to Sondra Woodruff, ΑΔΠ, and the engagement of Rick Fraga to Jean Barnes, ΚΔ. Tony Hanna announced his pinning to Eileen Weber, ΣK, while Ken Schulz plans for a wedding early in March.

The fall term dance, "Stairway to the Stars," was organized by the pledge class. Epsilon Delta's social calendar was rounded out with several informal firesides and a dessert exchange just before Christmas vacation. The social calendar for fall term ended with a festive Christmas dinner followed by a gift exchange party.—RICK FRAGA.

Zeta Delta Makes Fine Progress

WALTER H. SANFORD, III, Alpha
University of Connecticut

AFTER a very successful rush season, Zeta Delta pledged 17: George Appleby, Bridgeport; Allen Bigelow, Carl Staaterman, New Canaan; Robert Butler, Floral Parks, L. I.; James Clabby, Orange; Peter Cook, Meriden; Gregory Davis, West Hartford; Kevin Dunne, Garden City, L. I.; Manfred Eigenbrod, Manchester; Richard Galley, Westport; Jack Goehring, Ronald Johnson, North Syracuse, N. Y.; David King, Needham, Mass.; Robert McNamara, Groton; Robin Peterson, Mystic; Richard Suski, and Charles Watras, Wethersfield. Out of 18 fraternities in the North Campus Fraternity Quadrangle, Zeta Delta came out with the most pledges, and now counting Brothers and pledges together, we have the largest and strongest Chapter on the University campus. We now have 79 members, with still more men planned to be pledged in the spring rush period.

We were very pleased to learn that four of our Brothers were elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges: Gregory Tuchay, station manager of the radio station; James Hughes, managing editor of the newspaper; Pichard Pignone, editor-in-chief of the 1960 yearbook; and David Patterson, past editor-in-chief of the 1959 yearbook. Out of 27 persons elected to Who's Who, Chi Phi had the most from any one Chapter on campus.

The Brothers were proud to learn of the new position of our Faculty Adviser, Carl J. Gladfelter, Alpha-Tau '33, in Chi Phi. Brother Gladfelter was past Grand Alpha, and we all wish him luck, and know that he will serve very satisfactorily. Along with being National Director, Brother Gladfelter will also serve as editor of CHAKETT.

Just before the Christmas recess, our 10 spring pledges were initiated: Douglas Crawford, Greenwich; David Daniels, Middletown; William Farnen, Stamford; Michael Greaney, Darien; Louis St. Amant, Newton, Mass.; Fred Stackpole, Saco, Maine; Kenneth Stockman and Russell Stockman, Bridgeport; Theodore Tillitson, White Plains, N. Y.; Theodore Watson, Norwalk.

The annual Christmas Party for 15 underprivileged children was given at the house just before vacation. They were entertained by a Santa Claus, given presents and refreshments. This Christmas Party is an annual affair sponsored by I.F.C. The Winter Formal was held off campus. Those Brothers pinned to girls from off-campus were serenaded. Another very successful social event of the year was a Playboy Party, sponsored by Playboy magazine. This party too was held off-campus, and Miss Playboy was a guest. The party was attended by 40 rushees, which served as a help to our fall rush program. A very successful pledge party was also held just before Christmas. Caroline Kennedy, a KAΘ pledge, was the Pledge Queen.

On the varsity basketball team, we are proud to have two outstanding athletes, both sophomores: Dave King, a new pledge, and Dave Daniels, a new Brother.—LAWRENCE DUPLUIS.

Eta Delta Plans Spring Paint-Up

PAUL SMEDLY, Alpha
University of Southern California

ETA DELTA looks forward to another semester of progress under our new officers: Paul Smedly, Alpha; Tom Greely, Beta; Bruce Anderson, now in his third term as Gamma; Bill Hare, Delta; and Ron Anderson, social chairman.

The Chapter is planning to repaint the entire physical plant, inside and out, during this Spring's Help Week. All of the Brothers are participating instead of just the pledge class. With the combined effort of the entire Chapter, our house will be in beautiful shape for spring rushing. Our Alumni are doing a wonderful job this year. Geoffrey England and Gay Cowan, our Chapter Advisers, have unselfishly given a great deal of their time and effort to the Chapter, aiding us in house planning, finances, and above all, rushing. Dr. Norscog, our Faculty Adviser, is helping us in instigating a new scholastic program. The Brothers are certainly grateful for the interest shown by our Alumni. C. Moreland Thomas, Grand Gamma, has been appointed assistant director of the General Alumni Assn. here at U.S.C.

The Chi Phi Mothers' Club is doing a wonderful job this year. The Christmas Dinner this year was a tremendous success and the funds gained from this will pay for the new acoustical tile for the living room, which the Brothers will install during the Spring Work Week.

In the realm of sports, Doug Norwood is a key man on U.S.C.'s new inter-collegiate bowling team. Don George is expected to be S. C.'s best sprinter this year, and Frank McConnell is always a top contender in the high hurdles.

Rushing this spring will be led by Bob Kastigar and Dick Manley who have planned a very complete and, we hope, effective rush program. Alumni recommendations are the most effective rushing tool and any recommendation which our Alumni can give will be greatly appreciated.

Eta Delta, participating in U.S.C.'s annual Christmas for Orphans program, had the pleasure of entertaining 20 kids in an effort to make their Christmas a little brighter.

We must thank our past officers Frank

Theta Delta Needs New Housing

BRACE BATEMAN, Alpha
University of Florida

THE Christmas season brought the Chapter many presents. Election returns found Brace Bateman, a newly-elected Florida Blue Key Man, Palm Beach, as our new Alpha. Harry Albrecht, a senior in electrical engineering, Miami, took over as Beta, while Pearson Cox, a senior in industrial engineering, Stark, Fla., was elected Gamma. Shel Jackson, an advertising major, Ft. Bragg, N. C., is again our Delta. Ron Arcuri, an architecture major from Cocoa, Fla., took over as Epsilon while Richard Cehon, a senior in industrial engineering, Glen Head, N. Y., was elected Zeta. Immediately following elections Alpha Bateman initiated what was to become a vast series of committees termed "Bateman's total involvement program."

Also under our Christmas tree was found a refurbished dining room. The 13 new tables, seating six, were put to good use for our Christmas candlelight banquet, complete with combo. Again this year as in the past the entire Chapter set aside the Sunday before Christmas vacation as the date for the Sunland Christmas party. Each year we give the mentally retarded children of Sunland Training Center a little bit of our Christmas. This year the toys that we gave ended up making not only theirs, but our Christmas brighter.

As the November issue of the Florida Engineering Magazine hit the news stand we found Fred Polyemus co-editor-in-chief, Edward Donn, feature writer, and Richard Cehon, photographic editor.

We are still seeking guidance in regard to plans for a new house. Competition is growing keen as more and more fraternities put up new ultra modern "hotels."—RICHARD CEHON.

Iota Delta Learns Intangible Assets

MICHAEL J. MONTGOMERY, Alpha
Indiana University

THE Fall Semester will be long remembered by Chi Phis at Indiana not as the semester when the Iota Delta Chapter won a great number of trophies, but the semester when Chi Phi became a sound, strong name in the Greek system on the Bloomington campus. The Brothers learned, if not often through bitter disappointment, then certainly through hard work, that true Brotherhood is not measured in terms of tangible assets so much as in terms of intangible assets.

We certainly do not want to give the impression that we did not receive some of the tangible honors because that impression would be untrue. Once again we placed a candidate among the final five for Sweater Queen, this time Peggy Fiedler. And once again we placed in the fraternity division of house decorations for Homecoming displays. This time we took second place honors with the theme, "Michigan Shot Down." The display consisted of a large reprint of the front page of Indiana's daily newspaper, The Daily Student, with the headlines and stories describing the theme in minute detail.

However, the impression we would rather give you is that we found that any number of intangible assets are much more valuable than tangible assets. A list of the type of assets we mean would include such qualities as leadership and coöperation, robust energy and quiet reserve, pride and humility, and hospitality and respect. If each of these pairs of traits seem to be nearly in contradiction then we have imparted the desired impression that we wished to leave.

When we worked on a project, we always found a good "chief" and a lot of strong-backed "Indians." We went about everything we did with an unlimited reserve of energy, but we were always careful to conduct our affairs with dignity. When we had completed our work, we all felt a glowing feeling within ourselves. However, we complimented others' efforts as well. Finally the Fraternity happily greeted many guests this semester with the warmth so essential to true Brotherhood.

This last phase was especially important since we were fortunate enough to have many visitors this fall. Most of the parents visited the Chapter at least once during the fall months. From many parts of the state, Iota Delta welcomed several Alumni. On Homecoming Weekend, the Brothers of

Iota Delta's Homecoming display, "Michigan Shot Down," won second place in the fraternity division. Charles Gordon was in charge of the construction

Alpha-Tau were our guests. And on Dec. 2, of course, we were host for our very distinguished National Director, Judge Luther Rosser. Irving B. Countryman was a most gracious guest on several occasions during the semester. Our Chapter has been very fortunate in having Brother Countryman as our Adviser since the beginning of colonization at Indiana University, and we certainly regret that he has had to resign. However, we certainly wish him the best of luck in Colorado. His shoes will be very hard to fill at Indiana.

One quality not previously mentioned, however, that is probably paramount in the growing strength of our Chapter is that of appreciation. Without this fine quality much of the potential leadership is lost. With the assurance of appreciation many hitherto unrealized ambitions have been accomplished.

And it is with this spirit, the sense of appreciation, that the Chapter moves forward. This appreciation is extended to the leaders and Brothers of the Chapter, to the national organization, and to the whole Chi Phi Fraternity. For all of you our goal remains: best on campus within five years.—
BILL DUCKWORTH.

Death

OMICRON

CHARLES BORLAND HILL '93, attorney-at-law, died Nov. 27, 1959, at the age of 91; a partner in the law firm of Hill, Betts and Nash, 26 Broadway, New York, N. Y.
